VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS THEREOF

Each share of United Bancshares common stock outstanding on March 3, 2015, the record date of the Annual Meeting, is entitled to one vote on all matters coming before the meeting. As of March 3, 2015, United Bancshares had 3,368,137 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. Only shareholders of record on the books of the Corporation on March 3, 2015 will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting either in person or by proxy. Pursuant to the Regulations of the Corporation, the shareholders present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting shall constitute a quorum.

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in street name by a broker, bank or other nominee, your nominee is required to vote those shares in accordance with your instructions. If the nominee does not receive instructions from the beneficial owner, the nominee will be entitled to vote the shares on certain routine items. However, the nominee is not entitled to vote the shares (absent instructions from the beneficial owner) with respect to non-routine matters, such as amendments to organizational documents, executive compensation proposals, and the election of directors. When the nominee does not receive instructions from a beneficial owner concerning a non-routine matter, over which the nominee has no voting discretion, a “broker non-vote” occurs. Shares treated as broker non-votes are included for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists, however, such shares will not be counted as being in favor of or against any proposal placed before the shareholders at the Annual Meeting.

Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners

Under Rule 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, a beneficial owner of a security is any person who directly or indirectly has or shares voting power or investment power over such security. Such beneficial owner under this definition need not enjoy the economic benefit of such securities. The shareholders identified in the following table are deemed to be beneficial owners of 5% or more of the common stock of United Bancshares as of December 31, 2014. Director and Nominee Qualifications

The Nominating Committee of our Board of Directors considers candidates to fill new directorships created by expansion and vacancies that may occur and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to such candidates. The Board has not adopted a policy with respect to minimum qualifications for directors, rather the Nominating Committee evaluates each individual in the context of the Board as a whole, with the objective of recommending a group of persons that can best implement our business plan, perpetuate our business and represent shareholder interests. It is a policy of the Nominating Committee that candidates for director possess the highest personal and professional integrity, have demonstrated exceptional ability and judgment, and have skills and expertise appropriate for the Corporation and serving the long-term interest of the Corporation's shareholders. The committee, in making its nominations, considers all relevant qualifications of candidates for board membership, including, among other things, factors such as an individual's business experience, industry knowledge and experience, financial background, breadth of knowledge about issues affecting the Corporation, public company experience, bank and other regulatory experience, diversity, current employment and other board memberships, and whether the candidate will be independent under the listing standards of the NASDAQ Global Select Market. In some cases, the Nominating Committee may require certain skills or attributes, such as financial or accounting experience, to meet specific Board needs that arise from time to time. In the case of incumbent directors whose terms of office are set to expire, the committee also reviews such director's overall service to the Corporation during his or her term and any relationships and transactions that might impair such director's independence.

While the Corporation does not have a formal diversity policy for Board membership, the Board seeks directors who represent a mix of backgrounds and experiences that will enhance the quality of the Board's deliberations and decisions. The Nominating Committee considers, among other factors, diversity with respect to viewpoint, skills, experience and community involvement in its evaluation of candidates for Board membership. Such diversity considerations are discussed by the Nominating Committee in connection with the general qualifications of each potential nominee.

The Board of Directors is responsible for consideration and oversight of risks facing the Corporation, and is responsible for ensuring that material risks are identified and managed appropriately. Several oversight functions are delegated to committees of the Board with such committees regularly reporting to the full Board the results of their respective oversight activities. As part of this process, the Board reviews management's risk-assessment process and periodically reviews the most important enterprise risks to ensure that compensation programs do not encourage excessive risk-taking. Additional review or reporting on enterprise risks is conducted as needed or as requested by the Board or a Board committee.

Board of Directors Independence

Each year, the Board of Directors reviews the relationships that each director has with the Corporation and with other parties. Only those directors who do not have any of the categorical relationships that preclude them from being independent within the meaning of applicable NASDAQ Stock Market, LLC (“NASDAQ”) Rules and who the Board of Directors affirmatively determines have no relationships that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director are considered to be independent directors. The Board of Directors has reviewed a number of factors to evaluate the independence of each of its members. These factors include its members’ current and historic relationships with the Corporation and its competitors, suppliers and customers; their relationships with management and other directors; the relationships their current and former employers have with the Corporation; and the relationships between the Corporation and other companies of which the Corporation’s Board members are directors or executive officers. After evaluating these factors, the Board of Directors has determined that all of the directors, with the exception of Daniel W. Schutt and Brian D. Young, are independent directors of the Corporation within the meaning of applicable NASDAQ Rules.

Independent members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation meet in executive session without management present, and are scheduled to do so at least two times per year. The Board of Directors has designated James N. Reynolds as the presiding director for these meetings.

Shareholder Communications

Our shareholders may communicate directly with the members of the Board of Directors or the individual chairman of standing committees of the Board of Directors by writing directly to those individuals at the following address: 100 South High Street, Columbus Grove, Ohio 45830. The Corporation’s general policy is to forward, and not to intentionally screen, any mail received at the Corporation’s corporate office that is sent directly to an individual.

Code of Ethics

The Board of Directors has adopted a Code of Ethics which is applicable to the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and all other senior financial officers. The Code of Ethics is periodically reviewed and updated by the Board of Directors, as necessary. A copy of the Code of Ethics may be found on the Corporation’s website at <http://www.theubank.com/2705/mirror/united-bancshares.htm>. In addition, the Board of Directors has adopted a code of ethics that applies to all of our employees, officers and directors.

COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Nominating Committee

The Corporation has a Nominating Committee, the members of which are H. Edward Rigel (Chairman), Robert L. Benroth, and David P. Roach. Each member of the Nominating Committee is independent within the meaning of applicable NASDAQ Rules. The Nominating Committee, which was formed in 2003, is responsible for reviewing the qualifications of potential candidates for the Board of Directors, including those potential candidates submitted by shareholders. In addition, the Nominating Committee recommends to the Board of Directors candidates for election as directors at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders and candidates to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors. United Bancshares does not have a formal policy regarding consideration of such recommendations; however, any recommendations received from shareholders will be evaluated in the same manner that potential nominees suggested by the Board of Directors are evaluated, as described below. Shareholders may send director nomination recommendations to the Secretary of the Corporation at 100 South High Street, Columbus Grove, Ohio 45830. The Nominating Committee met a total of one time during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014. The Nominating Committee has adopted a written charter which may be found on the Corporation's website at <http://www.theubank.com/2705/mirror/united-bancshares.htm>.

It is the policy of the Nominating Committee that candidates for director possess the highest personal and professional integrity, have demonstrated exceptional ability and judgment, and have skills and expertise appropriate for the Corporation and serving the long-term interest of the Corporation's shareholders. The Nominating Committee's process for identifying and evaluating nominees is as follows: (1) in the case of incumbent directors whose terms of office are set to expire, the Nominating Committee reviews such directors' overall service to the Corporation during their term, including the number of meetings attended, level of participation, quality of performance, and any related party transactions with the Corporation during the applicable time period; and (2) in the case of new director candidates, the Nominating Committee first conducts any appropriate and necessary inquiries into the backgrounds and qualifications of possible candidates after considering the function and needs of the Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee may conduct an interview of a possible candidate and then meet to discuss and consider such candidate's qualifications, including whether the nominee is independent for purposes of the NASDAQ Rules. It then selects a candidate for recommendation to the Board of Directors by majority vote. In seeking potential nominees, the Nominating Committee uses its network of contacts and those who have expressed interest to compile a list of potential candidates. To date, the Nominating Committee has not paid a fee to any third party to assist in the process of identifying or evaluating director candidates. The Nominating Committee meets as many times as necessary to determine the nominees for the Board of Directors for the next annual meeting.

Compensation Committee

United Bancshares has a Compensation Committee, the members of which are David P. Roach, James N. Reynolds and R. Steven Unverferth (Chairman). Each member of the Compensation Committee is independent within the meaning of applicable NASDAQ Rules and all are non-employee directors within the meaning of Section 162 of the Internal Revenue Code and Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act. In determining the independence of Compensation Committee members, the Board of Directors considers the source and amount of compensation received by the members and whether the member is affiliated with the Corporation or its subsidiary. The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing the compensation, performance and retention related issues with respect to the executive officers of United Bancshares. A written charter for the Compensation Committee was adopted on February 18, 2014, as required by NASDAQ Rule 5605(d)(1). In 2014, the Compensation Committee met two times.

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for developing recommendations with respect to the compensation to be paid to the Corporation's executive officers and for the performance review of the Chief Executive Officer as well as developing the executive compensation principles, policies and programs for all of our executive officers. In establishing the final compensation for the named executive officers, the Compensation Committee proposes the compensation amounts to the Board of Directors, which makes any necessary changes to the compensation and gives final approval of the compensation.

Audit Committee

The Corporation has an Audit Committee, the members of which are R. Steven Unverferth, H. Edward Rigel and Robert L. Benroth (Chairman). The Audit Committee was created and a written charter for the Audit Committee was adopted on August 8, 2000, and amended on February 15, 2005. All of the members of the Audit Committee are (i) independent directors as defined in NASDAQ Rule 5605(a)(2); (ii) meet the criteria for independence set forth in Rule 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and (iii) have not participated in the preparation of the financial statements of the Corporation or any current subsidiary of the Corporation at any time during the past three years. The Board of Directors has determined that Robert L. Benroth is an “audit committee financial expert” as defined in Item

407(d)(5) of Regulation S-K. The Audit Committee has the sole authority to retain and dismiss the independent auditors and reviews their performance and independence with management. The primary functions of the Audit Committee are to oversee: (i) the audit of the financial statements of the Corporation provided to the SEC, the Corporation's shareholders and to the general public; (ii) the Corporation's internal financial and accounting controls and processes; and (iii) the independent audit process. The Audit Committee met a total of seven times during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014. Mr. Young became President and Chief Executive of United Bancshares on August 1, 2012. Prior to that date, Mr. Young served as the Chief Financial Officer, Executive Vice President and Treasurer of United Bancshares.

The Union Bank Company sponsors supplemental income plans. These nonqualified retirement plans benefit certain individuals designated by the Board of Directors of The Union Bank Company. The supplemental income plans provide eligible individuals with supplemental retirement benefits, the amount of which is based upon the individual's years of service with The Union Bank Company. Currently, Mr. Young and Ms. Oatman are among those individuals who participate in the plans. The formula by which benefits are determined is based upon age, years of service, age at retirement and actuarially determined variables. Under Mr. Young's plan, his retirement benefit, if he retires at age 60, will be a lump sum distribution of approximately $528,988. Under Ms. Oatman's plan, her retirement benefit, if she retires at age 65, will be a lump sum distribution of approximately $144,000. The current accrued values of the named executive's plans are $62,912 and $11,133 for Mr. Young and Ms. Oatman, respectively.

Benefits under the supplemental income plan become payable when the designated individual's employment terminates with The Union Bank Company due to normal retirement, early retirement, death or disability.

Potential Payments upon Termination or Change in Control

The Chief Executive Officer's Employment Agreement, Amended and Restated Salary Continuation Agreement and Change in Control Agreement, the Chief Financial Officer's Change in Control Agreement and Secretary's Salary Continuation Agreement provide for payments and/or vesting of benefits under certain circumstances in connection with termination of employment and a change in control. The triggering events for payments and vesting of benefits in the various agreements and plans are relatively common for agreements and plans of this nature, and are designed to provide for fair treatment of the participants under the various circumstances and to reasonably reward the participants for their loyalty and commitment to the Corporation. The following section describes the potential payments and other benefits that would have been received by each named executive if there had been a change in control or other termination of their employment with the Corporation on the last day of 2014.

While the definition of change in control varies among our various agreements and plans, in general a "change in control" means a change in the ownership or effective control of the Corporation, or in the ownership of a substantial portion of the assets of the Corporation.

Brian D. Young

Under the terms of Mr. Young's employment agreement, if a change in control were to have occurred at the end of 2014, Mr. Young would have been entitled to the lesser of $715,565 (2.5 times his base salary as the date of the change of control), or one dollar less than the largest amount that could be paid to him without the payment qualifying as a "parachute payment" under Section 280G(b)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Corporation would have had to make the payment within 15 days of the change in control. The Corporation would also have to pay the premiums for Mr. Young's COBRA insurance for one year following the termination.

Also, in the event that Mr. Young's employment was terminated in connection with the change in control, he also would be entitled to the entire amount accrued under his Salary Continuation Agreement, or $62,912 to be paid within 90 days from the change in control.

In the event that Mr. Young was terminated without cause, or resigned due to (a) a material diminution of his duties, responsibilities, compensation or benefits, (b) a reduction in his base salary, (c) a required relocation of more than 20 miles from Columbus Grove, Ohio, or (d) a disagreement as to the strategic plan of the Corporation, Mr. Young would be entitled to the same benefits as if a change in control happened. In addition, in such event, Mr. Young would have been entitled to a payment of 62,912 (the amount accrued under the Salary Continuation Agreement).

In the event that Mr. Young was terminated for cause, Mr. Young would be entitled to payment of his base salary through the end of his employment, and no further payments.

In the event that Mr. Young voluntarily resigned other than for the reasons listed above, or was disabled at the end of 2014, he would be entitled to payment of his base salary through the end of his employment, and would be entitled to a payment of $62,912 (the amount accrued under the Salary Continuation Agreement).

In the event that Mr. Young's employment with the Corporation terminated due to death at the end of 2014, his beneficiaries would be entitled to the payment of his base salary through the end of his employment, and would be entitled to a payment of approximately $528,988.

Diana L. Engelhardt

Under the terms of Ms. Engelhardt's Change in Control Agreement, in the event that her employment was involuntarily terminated for any reason other than Cause (as defined in the Change in Control Agreement) or she terminated her employment for Good Reason (as defined in the Change in Control Agreement) either 90 days before or after a change in control during 2014, she would have been entitled to a payment in the amount of $253,964, paid in a lump sum, no later than March 15, 2015.

Heather M. Oatman

Under the terms of Ms. Oatman's Salary Continuation Agreement, in the event that Ms. Oatman's employment was terminated in connection with a change in control of the Corporation in 2014, she would be entitled to the entire amount accrued under the Salary Continuation Agreement, or $11,133 to be paid within 90 days from the change in control.

In the event that Ms. Oatman was terminated for cause, Ms. Oatman would be entitled to payment of her base salary through the end of her employment, and no further payments.

In the event that Ms. Oatman voluntarily resigned other than for the reasons listed above, or was disabled at the end of 2014, she would be entitled to payment of her base salary through the end of her employment, and she would be entitled to a payment of $11,133 (the amount accrued under the Salary Continuation Agreement).

In the event that Ms. Oatman's employment with the Corporation terminated due to death at the end of 2014, her beneficiaries would be entitled to the payment of her base salary through the end of her employment, and would be entitled to a payment of approximately $144,000.
