Dear Shareholder:

Your Board of Directors, as well as the Boards of Directors of USA Networks, Inc. and Microsoft Corporation, have approved the acquisition of a controlling interest in Expedia, Inc. by USA, a media and electronic commerce company. The acquisition is structured as a merger of a wholly owned subsidiary of USA into Expedia, with Expedia surviving as a public company controlled by USA.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, you will have the choice of either (1) retaining your shares of Expedia common stock and in addition receiving warrants to acquire Expedia common stock, or (2) exchanging your shares of Expedia common stock for a package of USA securities consisting of USA common stock, USA cumulative convertible preferred stock and warrants to acquire USA common stock, subject to proration as we describe in this document. Following the merger, Expedia will also own various travel and media-related assets contributed by USA that are described in further detail in this document.

Before we can proceed with the merger and the other related transactions described below, at the annual meeting the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Expedia common stock must vote in favor of the merger agreement as well as each of the other proposals relating to the transactions being presented to Expedia shareholders. Please note that Microsoft, which beneficially owns 33,722,710 shares, or approximately 66%, of Expedia's common stock, has granted to USA an irrevocable proxy to vote in favor of each of the proposals relating to the transactions to be presented at the annual meeting. The vote of Microsoft's shares is sufficient to ensure approval of all these matters. Microsoft has also agreed to elect to receive USA securities in exchange for all of its Expedia shares, subject to proration in the event that shareholders holding more than 37,500,000 shares of Expedia common stock elect to receive USA securities. Microsoft's decision to elect to receive the USA securities in the merger was based on its own financial needs, goals and situation. Microsoft's election is not a recommendation of the suitability of the USA securities for any other person or a recommendation concerning the investment merits of the USA securities in comparison to Expedia securities.

Expedia common stock is traded on Nasdaq under the symbol "EXPE" and USA common stock is traded on Nasdaq under the symbol "USAI." Shares of USA preferred stock, warrants to acquire USA common stock and warrants to acquire Expedia common stock are expected to be listed on Nasdaq, in each case to the extent eligible for listing.

YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS, WITH ONE DIRECTOR EXCUSED, UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR EACH OF THE PROPOSALS RELATING TO THE TRANSACTIONS BEING PRESENTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING BUT MAKES NO RECOMMENDATION AS TO WHETHER YOU SHOULD ELECT TO RECEIVE THE PACKAGE OF USA SECURITIES IN THE MERGER.

Whether or not you attend the annual meeting, it is important that your shares be represented and voted at the meeting. Therefore, I urge you to sign, date and promptly return the enclosed proxy in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. Sending in your proxy will not prevent you from voting your shares at the meeting in person if you so desire, as your proxy is revocable at your option.

Sincerely,

/s/ Richard N. Barton

Dear Stockholders:

As you may be aware, your Board of Directors has agreed to acquire a controlling interest in Expedia, Inc., a leading provider of branded online travel services which owns and operates Expedia.com-Registered Trademark-. The acquisition is structured as a merger of a wholly owned subsidiary of USA with and into Expedia with Expedia surviving as a public company controlled by USA.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Expedia shareholders will have the choice of either (1) retaining their shares of Expedia common stock and in addition receiving warrants to acquire Expedia common stock, or (2) exchanging their shares of Expedia common stock for a package of USA securities consisting of USA common stock, USA cumulative convertible preferred stock and warrants to acquire USA common stock, subject to a maximum number of Expedia shares that will be exchanged into USA securities.

Under the Nasdaq rules, because we may issue in excess of 20% of our current outstanding common stock under the terms of the merger, before we can complete the merger, our stockholders must approve the issuance of the USA securities in the merger. Pursuant to a stockholders agreement, each of Universal Studios, Inc., a subsidiary of Vivendi Universal S.A., and Liberty Media Corporation has granted to Barry Diller an irrevocable proxy over all USA securities owned by Universal, Liberty and their affiliates for all matters except for a fundamental change, which requires the consent of each of Mr. Diller, Universal and Liberty. As to matters that constitute a fundamental change (which includes the merger), the proxies are only effective upon the receipt of the consent of Mr. Diller, Universal and Liberty, which consent USA has obtained. As a result, Mr. Diller, through shares owned by him as well as those owned by Liberty and Vivendi Universal, controls 71.5% of the combined voting power of our common stock and Class B common stock, which is sufficient for stockholder approval of the issuance of the USA securities in the merger. Mr. Diller has signed a written stockholder's consent approving the issuance of USA securities in the merger. As a result, no action is required on your part. WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

Our common stock will continue to trade on the Nasdaq National Market under the trading symbol "USAI." Shares of USA preferred stock, warrants to acquire USA common stock and warrants to acquire Expedia common stock are expected to be listed on Nasdaq, in each case to the extent eligible for listing.

NEITHER THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION NOR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION HAS APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED ANY OF THE USA SECURITIES OR EXPEDIA SECURITIES TO BE ISSUED IN THE TRANSACTIONS, OR DETERMINED IF THIS JOINT PROSPECTUS/PROXY AND INFORMATION STATEMENT IS TRUTHFUL OR COMPLETE. Under the terms of the merger agreement, among other things:
  - Expedia will be recapitalized, with shareholders of Expedia electing to either (a) retain their shares of Expedia common stock, which will remain outstanding following the merger, and also receive warrants to acquire Expedia common stock in the merger, or (b) exchange all or some of their shares of Expedia common stock for shares of Expedia Class B common stock, which shares will then be converted into the right to receive a package of USA securities in the merger, subject to proration if holders of more than 37,500,000 shares of Expedia common stock elect to receive shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization;

WHAT EXPEDIA SHAREHOLDERS WILL RECEIVE IN THE MERGER

Immediately prior to the merger, Expedia will recapitalize its capital stock to create a new class of common stock, Expedia Class B common stock. In connection with the recapitalization, Expedia shareholders have the right up to the election deadline to elect to exchange, on a share-for-share basis, some or all of their shares of Expedia common stock for Expedia Class B common stock, subject to proration in the event that Expedia shareholders submit elections covering more than 37,500,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock. ONLY SHARES OF EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK WILL BE CONVERTED INTO USA SECURITIES IN THE MERGER. All shares of Expedia common stock that are not exchanged for Class B common stock in the recapitalization will remain outstanding following the merger. In addition, holders of Expedia common stock that remain outstanding following the merger will receive warrants to acquire Expedia common stock.

If you hold outstanding Expedia warrants (which we refer to in this document as "OUTSTANDING EXPEDIA WARRANTS") or vested Expedia stock options, you may also participate in the election provided that you comply with the procedures we describe under "Proposal No. 1--Approval of the Merger Agreement--Structure of the Transactions--Recapitalization--Election Procedures."

The following hypothetical examples illustrate the consideration that Expedia shareholders may receive in the merger in exchange for their Expedia shares, depending upon whether an Expedia shareholder (1) retains some or all of his shares of Expedia common stock and receives warrants to purchase additional shares of Expedia common stock, or (2) elects to exchange some or all of his shares of Expedia common stock for shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization and, as a result, receives the package of USA securities in the merger. No fractional shares or warrants will be issued in the merger. Instead, Expedia shareholders will receive cash in place of fractional shares and/or warrants. These cash payments are not reflected in the examples below.

EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK

If an Expedia shareholder does not exchange his shares of Expedia common stock for Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization and does not exercise his dissenters' rights in the merger, such shareholder will retain his shares of Expedia common stock in the merger. In addition, such shareholder will receive, for each share of Expedia common stock that he holds at the time of the merger, 0.1920 of a warrant to acquire one share of Expedia common stock (which we refer to in this document as "NEW EXPEDIA WARRANTS") with a term of seven years and an exercise price of $52.00 per share of Expedia common stock. The following examples illustrate what a holder of 100, 150 and 200 shares of

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

SHARES OF EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK	RETAINED SHARES OF EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK	WARRANT EXCHANGE RATIO	NUMBER OF EXPEDIA WARRANTS

EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK

If an Expedia shareholder elects to exchange some or all of his shares of Expedia common stock for Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, each share of Expedia Class B common stock that such shareholder receives in the recapitalization will be converted into the right to receive the following consideration in the merger:

- a fraction of a share of USA common stock ranging in value from $15.54 (if Microsoft is the only shareholder that elects to receive Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization) to $17.50 (if the maximum number of 37,500,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock are issued in the recapitalization) if the measurement period value of a share of USA common stock ranges from $23.00 to $31.00. If the measurement period value is either greater than $31.00 or less than $23.00, the exact USA common stock exchange ratio will be based on the fraction obtained assuming the measurement period value was $31.00 or $23.00, respectively. The measurement period value for USA common stock is the average closing price of USA common stock over a ten consecutive trading-day period ending on the second trading day prior to the date of the annual meeting;
- a fraction of a share of USA cumulative convertible preferred stock (which we refer to in this document as "USA PREFERRED STOCK") ranging from 0.3892 (if Microsoft is the only shareholder that elects to receive Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization) to 0.3500 (if the maximum number of 37,500,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock are issued in the recapitalization). Each share of USA preferred stock has a $50 face value, a 1.99% annual dividend, two votes per share, and is convertible at any time into USA common stock at a conversion price of $33.75 per USA share, subject to downward adjustment to the extent that the average share price of USA common stock over a ten trading-day period prior to conversion is greater than $35.10. The adjustment to the conversion price is described in more detail on page 91 of this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement; and
- a fraction of a warrant to acquire one share of USA common stock (which we refer to in this document as "USA WARRANTS") ranging from 0.3873 to 0.4524, the exact fractional amount to be based on a measurement period value for USA common stock ranging from $25.75 to $28.25 per share. The exact USA warrant exchange ratio will be based on the measurement period value for USA common stock as set forth in Annex F to this document. Each USA warrant has a seven-year term and an exercise price of $35.10 per share of USA common stock.

In order to preserve the tax-free nature of the transactions, under certain circumstances the USA warrant exchange ratio may be decreased and the USA common stock exchange ratio may be increased. If this occurs, you will receive fewer USA warrants and more shares of USA common stock and the value of the USA common stock received may be less than the value of the warrants it replaced. The circumstances under which this may occur are described under "The Transaction Agreements--The Merger Agreement--Treatment of Securities in the Merger--Tax Adjustment" and are not reflected in the following examples.

The charts below show the merger consideration for 100 shares of Expedia Class B common stock, assuming in the first chart that the maximum number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock (37,500,000 shares) are issued in the recapitalization, in the second chart that 35,500,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock are issued in the recapitalization, and in the final chart that only Microsoft is issued shares of Expedia Class B common stock (33,722,710 shares) in the recapitalization. Because the same aggregate number of USA preferred shares (13,125,000 shares) will be issued in the merger regardless of the number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock issued in the recapitalization, the USA preferred stock exchange ratio and the USA common stock exchange ratio will vary depending upon the actual number of shares of Expedia common stock exchanged for Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization.

The measurement period value of USA common stock is subject to change due to market and other conditions, and may be greater or less than the market price of USA common stock on the date of this document, the date of the Expedia shareholder meeting, the date an Expedia shareholder submits his election form and letter of transmittal, or the date of the merger. Fluctuations in the price of USA common stock and Expedia common stock in the period between the date Expedia shareholders vote on the transactions and the date the transactions are completed will affect the value of the consideration Expedia shareholders receive at the time the transactions are completed, whether received in the form of USA securities or Expedia securities.

You must make your election by completing the enclosed election form and letter of transmittal and submitting the election form and letter of transmittal with the stock certificates covered by the election by the election deadline of 5:00 p.m., eastern time, on December 17, 2001, the date of the Expedia annual meeting. We describe the instructions for making an election on page 33 of this document.

Please note that because Expedia will only issue a maximum of 37,500,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, even if you make a valid election to receive Expedia Class B common stock, you may not receive shares of Expedia Class B common stock for all of the shares of Expedia common stock surrendered with the election form and letter of transmittal. You will, however, receive your proportional allocation.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

DO NOT SEND IN YOUR ELECTION FORM AND LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL OR EXPEDIA STOCK CERTIFICATES IF YOU WISH TO RETAIN YOUR EXPEDIA SHARES AND RECEIVE WARRANTS TO PURCHASE ADDITIONAL SHARES OF EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK IN THE MERGER: If you do not elect to exchange your shares of Expedia common stock for Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, please retain your shares of Expedia common stock. Following the merger, we will send you, in respect of each share of Expedia common stock you own immediately prior to the merger (including those retained because Expedia Class B common stock was oversubscribed in the recapitalization), 0.1920 of an Expedia warrant.

Q: IF I HOLD OUTSTANDING EXPEDIA WARRANTS, CAN I PARTICIPATE IN THE ELECTION?

A: Yes, provided that you comply with the procedures we describe under "Proposal No. 1--Approval of the Merger

Q: IF I HOLD VESTED EXPEDIA STOCK OPTIONS, CAN I PARTICIPATE IN THE ELECTION?

A: Yes, provided you exercise your vested stock options prior to submitting an election form and comply with the procedures we describe under "Proposal No. 1--Approval of the Merger Agreement--Structure of the Transactions--Recapitalization--Election Procedures."

Q: WHAT IS THE DEADLINE FOR MAKING AN ELECTION TO EXCHANGE MY SHARES OF EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK FOR SHARES OF EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK?

A: The deadline for making an election is 5:00 p.m., eastern time, on December 17, 2001, the date of the Expedia annual meeting. You can call our proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., toll-free at (800) 322-2885 for the final average trading price of USA common stock during the ten-day pricing period that ends on the second trading day prior to the date of the annual meeting.

Q: CAN I CHANGE MY VOTE AND/OR REVOKE AN ELECTION AFTER I HAVE SUBMITTED MY PROXY AND ELECTION FORM AND LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL?

A: Yes. You can change your vote by delivering a later-dated, signed proxy card to Expedia's secretary before the Expedia annual meeting, or by attending the annual meeting and voting in person. You may change your election by delivering a later-dated, signed election form and letter of transmittal (together with Expedia stock certificates, or other documentation, as required) to Mellon Investor Services, the exchange agent for the transactions, prior to the election deadline. If you revoke an earlier made election, your Expedia stock certificates will be returned to you by the exchange agent. If, however, you are an Expedia warrant holder, you cannot revoke your exercise of the warrant. You can only revoke your election to exchange the shares of Expedia common stock that you receive upon exercise of your warrant for shares of Expedia Class B common stock.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Q: IF MY EXPEDIA SHARES ARE HELD IN "STREET NAME" BY MY BROKER, WILL MY BROKER VOTE MY SHARES AND MAKE AN ELECTION FOR ME?

A: Your broker will vote your shares of Expedia common stock and make an election for you only if you provide your broker with instructions on how to vote and whether to elect. You should instruct your broker how to vote your shares and whether to elect to receive the package of USA securities by following the directions your broker provides. If you do not provide instructions to your broker, your shares will not be voted (which will have the effect of voting against the transactions) and you will not make an election (in which case you will retain your Expedia common stock and will receive new Expedia warrants in the merger).

Q: WHAT IF I DO NOT OWN EXPEDIA SHARES AS OF OCTOBER 15, 2001, THE RECORD DATE?

A: If you do not own Expedia shares as of the record date, you will not be eligible to vote on the proposals being presented at the Expedia annual meeting. However, if you acquire Expedia shares after the record date, you may still elect to exchange your shares of Expedia common stock for shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization or receive new Expedia warrants for your Expedia shares in the merger, if you follow the procedures set forth in this document.

Q: IF I AM A USA STOCKHOLDER, WILL MY SHARES OF USA STOCK BE AFFECTED BY THE TRANSACTIONS?

A: No. You will continue to own the same number of shares of USA stock that you own immediately prior to the transactions. However, your shares of USA stock will represent a smaller percentage interest of a larger company.

Q: IF I AM A USA STOCKHOLDER, IS MY VOTE NEEDED TO APPROVE THE TRANSACTIONS?

A: No. The Delaware General Corporation Law allows stockholders to act by written consent instead of holding a meeting, unless prohibited by the company's certificate of incorporation. USA's restated certificate of incorporation does not prohibit stockholder action by written consent. Pursuant to the governance agreements among Barry Diller, Universal Studios, Inc. (a subsidiary of Vivendi Universal S.A.), Liberty Media Corporation and USA, Barry Diller currently beneficially owns or has the right to vote 71.5% of the outstanding voting power of USA, which is sufficient for stockholder approval of the issuance of USA securities in the merger. Because

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Mr. Diller, Universal and Liberty have agreed to the transactions, and Mr. Diller has signed a written consent approving the proposed issuance of USA securities in the transactions, no action is required on your part. Approval of the issuance of USA securities in the transactions has been obtained without the vote of any other USA stockholder.

Q: WHOM CAN I CALL WITH QUESTIONS?

A: If you have any questions about the merger or any related transactions, or would like copies of any of the documents we refer to in this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement, please call MacKenzie Partners, Inc., the proxy solicitor, at (800) 322-2885.

Prior to completing its initial public offering in November 1999, Expedia was part of Microsoft. As of October 15, 2001, Expedia employed approximately 900 full-time employees.

TAIPEI, INC.
c/o USA Networks, Inc.
152 West 52nd Street
New York, New York 10019
(212) 314-7300

Taipei, Inc., a Washington corporation, is a wholly owned subsidiary of USA, created solely for the purpose of the proposed transactions. In accordance with the terms of the merger described in this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement, Taipei will merge with and into Expedia at the effective time of the merger.

THE PROPOSED TRANSACTIONS (see page 33)

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

The proposed transactions will involve the following steps:

- RECAPITALIZATION OF EXPEDIA: Immediately prior to the merger, Expedia will

recapitalize its common stock to create a new class of common stock, Expedia Class B common stock, which will be entitled to 15 votes per share, subject to limited exceptions. In connection with the recapitalization and subject to a maximum of 37,500,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock that Expedia will issue in the recapitalization, Expedia shareholders and holders of outstanding Expedia warrants who exercise such warrants prior to the recapitalization, may elect to exchange some or all of their shares of Expedia common stock for an equal number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock.

- AMENDMENT AND RESTATEMENT OF EXPEDIA'S ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION: As part of the recapitalization, Expedia will amend and restate its articles of incorporation to be in the form set forth on Annex B to this document.
- MERGER: Following the recapitalization, Taipei will merge with and into Expedia, with Expedia surviving as a public company controlled by USA. In the merger:

- each share of Expedia Class B common stock will be converted into a package of USA securities comprised of shares of USA common stock, shares of USA cumulative convertible preferred stock and warrants to acquire USA common stock;
- each share of Expedia common stock will remain outstanding, with holders of Expedia common stock also receiving warrants to acquire Expedia common stock; and
- outstanding shares of Taipei common stock, all of which are held by USA, will be converted into the right to receive an aggregate number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock equal to the number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock issued in the recapitalization.

- TERMINATION OF SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT: At the effective time of the merger, the existing shareholder agreement between Expedia and Microsoft will be terminated. The ongoing relationship between Microsoft and Expedia will be governed by any ongoing agreements they have.

- CONTRIBUTION OF ASSETS: Immediately following completion of the merger, USA will contribute the following assets to Expedia:

- a two-year option to purchase one third of USA's initial equity interest in a travel channel being developed by USA. The exercise price of the travel channel option will equal one-third of USA's cost, plus interest, up to the date of exercise; and

- all of the outstanding equity of USA Media, LLC, which has as its sole asset the right (at no cost to USA Media) to advertising, marketing and promotion time, valued at $15 million for each of the next five years, on the various media outlets owned by USA or its controlled subsidiaries.

As a result of the termination of the acquisition agreement between USA and National Leisure Group, a provider of vacation and cruise packages, within six months of completing the merger, USA will also contribute to Expedia, in lieu of a two-year option to acquire all of the outstanding equity of National Leisure Group, Inc., $20 million, plus interest, from the date of the merger.

TREATMENT OF EXPEDIA OPTIONS IN THE TRANSACTIONS

Expedia options will remain unchanged following the transactions. Prior to the date of the Expedia annual meeting, Expedia will distribute to holders of vested and unvested Expedia options issued under Expedia employee benefit plans on or prior to August 2, 2001, 0.1920 of a restricted Expedia warrant for each Expedia option outstanding at the time of this distribution. The restricted Expedia warrants to be distributed to optionholders have terms identical to the terms of the Expedia warrants being distributed in the merger to holders of Expedia common stock, except that the restricted warrants being distributed to Expedia optionholders are subject to the same vesting schedule as the options in respect of which the warrants are being issued and will not be transferable, and may not be exercised, for a period of 90 days following the date of their issue.

If a holder of a vested option desires to elect to receive Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization and, as a result, USA securities in the merger, the holder must exercise his options prior to submitting an election form.

EXPEDIA SHAREHOLDER VOTE REQUIRED

We refer to the recapitalization of Expedia, the amendment and restatement of Expedia's articles of incorporation, the merger, the contribution of assets to Expedia and the termination of the shareholder agreement with Microsoft collectively throughout this document as the "TRANSACTIONS."

USA, Expedia and Microsoft will only proceed with the transactions if each of Proposal No. 1, Proposal No. 2 and Proposal No. 3, as each of these proposals is described in this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement (we refer to these proposals in this document as "THE PROPOSALS RELATING TO THE TRANSACTIONS") has been approved by holders of a majority of the shares of

Expedia common stock outstanding on October 15, 2001, the record date, and the other conditions to the transactions are satisfied or waived. Microsoft has agreed to vote all its shares of Expedia common stock in favor of the proposals relating to the transactions and has granted USA an irrevocable proxy to vote its shares in favor of each of the proposals related to the transactions. The vote of Microsoft shares is sufficient to ensure approval of all of the proposals relating to the transactions.

RECOMMENDATION TO EXPEDIA SHAREHOLDERS (see page 38)

The Expedia board of directors, with one director excused, has unanimously determined that each of the proposals relating to the transactions being presented to you at the Expedia annual meeting is consistent with, and in furtherance of, the long-term business strategy of Expedia and is fair to, and in the best interests of, Expedia and its shareholders and recommends that you vote FOR approval and adoption of each of these proposals. However, the Expedia board of directors is not taking a position on whether Expedia shareholders should remain as a shareholder of Expedia or elect to receive shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization and, as a result, USA securities in the merger.

Microsoft has agreed to exchange all of its shares of Expedia common stock for shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, subject to proration, and thus, to receive the USA securities in the merger. Other shareholders of Expedia may not be subject to the same restraints on liquidity with respect to the Expedia shares as Microsoft. Other shareholders of Expedia also may have objectives and concerns that are different than Microsoft's. Microsoft's election is not a recommendation of the suitability of the USA securities for any other person or as a recommendation concerning the investment merits of the USA securities in comparison to Expedia securities. Microsoft specifically disclaims any such recommendations.

Expedia shareholders should refer to the material factors considered by the Expedia board of directors in making its decision to adopt and approve the proposals relating to the transactions. These material factors are discussed beginning on page 38.

OPINION OF FINANCIAL ADVISOR (see page 43)

In deciding to approve the transactions, the Expedia board of directors considered the opinion of its financial advisor, Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated, that, as of July 15, 2001, and subject to and based on the assumptions and considerations referred to in Morgan Stanley's opinion, the consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Expedia common stock

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(other than Microsoft) pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. THE FULL TEXT OF MORGAN STANLEY'S OPINION IS ATTACHED AS ANNEX D TO THIS JOINT PROSPECTUS/ PROXY AND INFORMATION STATEMENT. Expedia urges its shareholders to read the opinion of Morgan Stanley in its entirety.

THE TRANSACTION AGREEMENTS

THE MERGER AGREEMENT (see page 62)

We have attached the merger agreement, which is the legal document that governs the transactions, as Annex A to this document. In addition, we have attached the proposed amended and restated articles of Expedia as Annex B and the amended and restated bylaws of Taipei, which will become the bylaws of Expedia as a result of the merger, as Annex C. We encourage you to read these documents carefully. We have also filed other related agreements as exhibits to USA's and Expedia's registration statements. Please see the section titled "Where You Can Find More Information," on page 16, for instructions on how to obtain copies of these exhibits.

CONDITIONS (see page 72)

USA, Expedia and Microsoft will complete the transactions only if certain conditions are satisfied or waived, including the following:

- approval by Expedia's shareholders of all of the proposals related to the transactions presented to shareholders at the Expedia annual meeting;
- listing of shares of USA common stock, shares of USA cumulative convertible preferred stock, USA warrants, new Expedia warrants and, if necessary, Expedia Class B common stock on Nasdaq, the American Stock Exchange or other exchange acceptable to, in the case of the USA securities, Microsoft and USA and, in the case of the new Expedia warrants, Expedia, in each case to the extent eligible for listing;
- clearance under U.S. and any material foreign antitrust laws;
- receipt by Expedia of an opinion of its tax counsel and, as a condition for Microsoft only, receipt by Microsoft of an opinion of its tax counsel, in each case that the recapitalization and the merger each constitute a reorganization under the Internal Revenue Code and that no gain or loss will be recognized by Expedia's shareholders or Microsoft, as the case may be, upon the receipt of the package of USA securities in exchange for shares of Expedia Class B common stock; and
- other customary closing conditions as provided in the merger agreement.

TERMINATION (see page 73)

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

The merger agreement may be terminated in a number of circumstances, including the following:

- by mutual agreement of USA, Expedia and Microsoft;
- by any of USA, Expedia or Microsoft if:
  - the merger is not completed by April 15, 2002, which date will automatically be extended to July 15, 2002 if necessary to obtain remaining material antitrust clearances;
  - a final and nonappealable order is issued enjoining or prohibiting the proposed transactions;
  - any other party materially breaches and fails to cure its representations and warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement; or
  - if any litigation or proceeding is pending or threatened which is reasonably likely to result in substantial damages or substantially impair the benefits of the transactions to any party.

- by USA if:
  - Expedia's board of directors breaches its obligation to submit all of the proposals relating to the transactions described in this document to Expedia's shareholders at the Expedia annual meeting or alters its recommendation to shareholders in a manner that would prevent Expedia from submitting the proposals to its shareholders at the Expedia annual meeting; or
  - Microsoft breaches and fails to timely cure any of its covenants or agreements included in the voting and election agreement with USA.

ELECTION PROCEDURES (see page 33)

Expedia shareholders will receive along with this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement an election form and letter of transmittal, which will include instructions on how to elect to exchange all or a portion of their shares of Expedia common stock for shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization and, as a result, receive USA securities in the merger. If you are an Expedia shareholder and did not receive a copy of the election form and letter of transmittal because you acquired Expedia shares after the record date you should call the proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., at (800) 322-2885 and a copy of each will be mailed to you free of charge.

Depending on the manner in which an Expedia shareholder holds his Expedia shares, as discussed in more detail in this joint prospectus/ proxy and information statement, in order to validly make an election, such shareholder will have to, or cause his broker(s) or nominee(s) to, if the shares and/or warrants are held through a broker or nominee, complete and execute the election form and letter of transmittal so that it is received (and not withdrawn in writing) prior to the election deadline, which is 5:00 p.m. eastern time on December 17, 2001, the date of the Expedia annual meeting. Expedia shareholders may submit more than one election form and letter of transmittal.

If you are an Expedia shareholder and are electing to receive Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, for your election to be valid, you must deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the exchange agent:

- the certificates representing all of the shares of Expedia common stock for which you have made an election; and
- a completed election form and letter of transmittal.

If the stock certificates are not available when the election form and letter of transmittal are sent to the exchange agent, an Expedia shareholder may provide a guarantee of delivery instead of providing the stock certificates.

If you hold outstanding Expedia warrants and are electing to receive Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, for your election to be valid, you must deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the exchange agent:

- a copy of your warrant, payment of your exercise price and an executed notice to exercise your warrant prior to the recapitalization and the applicable exercise price; and
- a completed election form and letter of transmittal.

Please note that Expedia shareholders will not actually receive physical certificates for the shares of Expedia Class B common stock such shareholders elect to receive in the recapitalization. Instead, shares of Expedia Class B common stock will automatically be converted in the merger into the package of USA securities, which will be certificated if directed in the election form and letter of transmittal.

REGULATORY APPROVALS (see page 58)

USA, Expedia and Microsoft have made filings and taken other actions, and will continue to take actions, necessary to obtain approvals from U.S. and foreign governmental authorities in connection with the proposed transactions, including U.S. and foreign antitrust authorities. On August 1, 2000, USA and Microsoft filed their Premerger Notification and Report Forms under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 with the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission. The waiting period was terminated early on August 10, 2001. The parties have also received all other material required governmental approvals.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE TRANSACTIONS (see page 55)

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

TO EXPEDIA SHAREHOLDERS. The obligations of the parties to consummate the recapitalization and the merger are conditioned on Expedia's receipt of an opinion of counsel, dated the closing date of the recapitalization and the merger, substantially to the effect that (1) each of the recapitalization and the merger will, taking into account all of the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement, constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and (2) no gain or loss will be recognized by the shareholders of Expedia upon the receipt of USA common stock, USA preferred stock and USA warrants in exchange for their shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the merger. Assuming that each of the merger and the recapitalization qualifies as a reorganization, the recapitalization and the merger will generally be tax-free to Expedia shareholders, except that Expedia shareholders will recognize gain or loss on the sale of new Expedia warrants, USA common stock, USA preferred stock or USA warrants by the exchange agent on behalf of the Expedia shareholders who would otherwise receive fractional interests.

This tax treatment may not apply to all Expedia shareholders. Determining the actual tax consequences to you of the recapitalization and the merger can be complicated, and will depend on your specific situation and on variables not within the control of Expedia or USA. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences to you of the recapitalization and the merger.

TO USA STOCKHOLDERS. The merger will not be a taxable transaction to USA's stockholders as the outstanding shares of USA common stock and USA Class B common stock are not being sold or exchanged in connection with the transactions.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT (see page 54)

USA will account for the transactions as a purchase in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Expedia will account for the transactions as a recapitalization. The financial statements of Expedia will not be significantly impacted by the purchase price paid by USA for the Expedia voting stock acquired.

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS (see page 59)

Expedia shareholders are entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the recapitalization and/or merger if they properly exercise their rights under Washington law. We describe the procedures for exercising dissenters' rights in this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement and attach the provisions of Washington law that govern dissenters' rights as Annex G to this document. Expedia shareholders who exercise dissenters' rights will be treated as non-electing shareholders in the recapitalization.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

USA stockholder are not entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the transactions.

LISTING OF SECURITIES

USA will list the shares of USA common stock to be issued in the merger on Nasdaq. USA expects to list the shares of USA preferred stock and USA warrants to be issued in the merger on Nasdaq to the extent eligible for listing. Expedia expects to list the Expedia warrants to be issued in the transactions on Nasdaq.

MICROSOFT/USA VOTING AND ELECTION AGREEMENT (see page 74)

Microsoft has agreed to vote the Expedia shares it beneficially owns or has the right to vote in favor of each of the proposals relating to the transactions being presented to shareholders at the Expedia annual meeting and against any other takeover proposal and has granted to USA an irrevocable proxy to vote its Expedia shares in this manner. As of October 15, 2001, these shares represented approximately 66% of the total voting power of Expedia shares entitled to vote on the transactions. Microsoft has also agreed to elect to exchange all of its shares of Expedia common stock, including shares issuable upon exercise of outstanding Expedia warrants, for Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, subject to proportional allocation in the event that the shares of Expedia Class B common stock are oversubscribed in the recapitalization. USA has agreed to provide Microsoft with registration rights in order to permit Microsoft to sell the USA securities received by Microsoft in the merger.

INTERESTS OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

EXPEDIA OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS (see page 50)

Members of the management and board of directors of Expedia have interests in the transactions that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as Expedia shareholders. Mr. Richard N. Barton is the president and chief executive officer of Expedia and is a member of the Expedia board of directors that approved the merger. He and Mr. Gregory S. Stanger, the chief financial officer of Expedia, as well as Messrs. Gregory B. Maffei and Jay C. Hoag, current members of the board of directors of Expedia, will be designated as members of the initial board of directors of the surviving company after the merger.

In addition, Expedia entered into binding employment agreement term sheets with Mr. Richard N. Barton and Mr. Gregory S. Stanger in connection with the merger, setting forth the material terms of their employment, which will be reflected in employment agreements that will be entered into prior to the effective time of the merger. Expedia and USA have also agreed in a binding term sheet that Mr. Barton may, in his discretion, cause Expedia to enter into employment agreements with 15 additional members of senior management for a term of three years following the effective time. The additional managers' initial base salaries to be provided in the employment agreements will be the managers' respective current salaries.

In addition, around the time the parties entered into the merger agreement, the compensation committee of the board of directors of Expedia granted to members of Expedia's management and board of directors options to acquire Expedia common stock. All options held by non-employee directors of Expedia who do not continue to serve on the board of directors after the effective time, or who cease to be directors for any reason within one year following the effective time, will become fully exercisable.

For a more complete description of these arrangements, please read the section "Proposal No. 1--Approval of the Merger Agreement--Other Interests of Officers and Directors in the Transactions--Expedia."

USA OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS
(see page 53)

Members of the management and board of directors of USA have interests in the transactions that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as USA stockholders. Upon completion of the transactions, Barry Diller, chairman and chief executive officer of USA, will become chairman of the Expedia board of directors. USA also has the right to designate five other members of the Expedia board. Accordingly, other directors and/or officers of USA may join the Expedia board.

THE EXPEDIA ANNUAL MEETING (see page 30)

WHEN AND WHERE. The Expedia annual meeting will take place at the Embassy Suites Hotel, 3225 158th Avenue SE, Bellevue, Washington, on December 17, 2001, at 2:30 p.m., local time.

WHAT YOU ARE BEING ASKED TO VOTE ON. At the Expedia annual meeting, Expedia shareholders will have the opportunity to vote on the following proposals relating to the transactions:

- a proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the recapitalization, the merger and the contribution of assets;
- a proposal to approve the amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia; and

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

- a proposal to approve the termination of the shareholder agreement between Expedia and Microsoft.

WHO CAN VOTE. You can vote at the annual meeting if you owned shares of Expedia common stock at the close of business on the record date for the annual meeting, October 15, 2001. On that date, there were 51,439,606 shares of Expedia common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Expedia shareholders can cast one vote for each share of Expedia common stock owned on that date.

WHAT VOTE IS NEEDED. In order to approve each of the proposals relating to the transactions being presented to shareholders at the Expedia annual meeting, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Expedia entitled to vote must vote in favor of those proposals.

Microsoft has agreed to vote in favor of each of the proposals relating to the transactions being presented at the Expedia annual meeting and has granted USA an irrevocable proxy to vote its shares in this manner. Accordingly, no other vote of any Expedia shareholder is required to approve any of these proposals.

EXPEDIA AFTER THE MERGER (see page 49)

CAPITAL STOCK

After the transactions, Expedia's capital stock will consist of:

- Expedia common stock, which will be held by shareholders of Expedia who did not elect to receive Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization and shareholders who did so elect but were prorated;
- Expedia Class B common stock, all of which will be held by USA;
- outstanding Expedia warrants, which in accordance with their terms do not terminate upon the effective time of the merger, to the extent that holders of these warrants have not elected to exercise them prior to the recapitalization;
- new Expedia warrants which will be issued in the merger to shareholders of Expedia who retain their Expedia common stock in the recapitalization; and
- new Expedia warrants which will be distributed as part of the transactions prior to the Expedia annual meeting to Expedia optionholders who were granted options on or prior to August 2, 2001 and who continue to hold such options on the date of the distribution.

The only difference between the two classes of common shares is that the Expedia common stock will be entitled to one vote per share and the Expedia Class B common stock will be entitled to 15 votes per share, subject to limited exceptions.

OWNERSHIP OF EXPEDIA AFTER THE TRANSACTIONS

Immediately after the transactions are consummated, USA will hold between 66% and 75% of the outstanding equity (depending on the number of shareholders who remain as shareholders of Expedia after the recapitalization) and between 90% and 94.9% of the outstanding voting power of Expedia, with the former holders of Expedia owning the remaining outstanding interests in Expedia. All percentages are as of October 15, 2001, but after giving effect to the transactions.

MANAGEMENT AND OPERATIONS OF EXPEDIA AFTER THE TRANSACTIONS

Following the transactions, USA will control Expedia. Barry Diller, the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of USA, will become Chairman of Expedia and Richard N. Barton will continue in his role as President and Chief Executive Officer of Expedia. At the effective time of the merger and through the one-year anniversary of such time, the board of directors of Expedia will consist of 11 members, six of whom will be appointed by USA. The other five members will be Expedia's Chief Executive Officer, Expedia's Chief Financial Officer and three independent directors, of whom two will be Gregory B. Maffei and Jay C. Hoag, current directors of Expedia.

RELATIONSHIP WITH USA

Following the transactions, USA and Expedia have agreed that their relationship will be governed by the following principles, none of which can be amended or waived without the approval of a majority of Expedia's independent directors:

- USA or any of its subsidiaries, on the one hand, and Expedia or any of its subsidiaries, on the other hand, may engage in or own interests in businesses that compete with the other;
- as long as USA owns 50.1% of Expedia's total voting power, Expedia may not enter into or amend any material arrangements with USA or any of its affiliates without the approval of a majority of Expedia independent directors; and
- there will be meaningful consultation between USA and Expedia's Chief Executive Officer in the selection of Expedia's independent directors.

As used in this document, the term "EBITDA" refers to net income plus (1) extraordinary items and cumulative effect of accounting changes, (2) provision for income taxes, (3) interest expense, (4) depreciation and amortization, (5) minority interest and (6) amortization of non-cash distribution and marketing expense and non-cash compensation expense. EBITDA is presented because USA believes it is a widely accepted indicator of its ability to service debt as well as a valuation methodology for companies in the media, entertainment and communication industries. EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for measures of financial performance or liquidity prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. EBITDA may not be comparable to calculations of similarly titled measures presented by other companies.

RISK FACTORS

RISK FACTORS RELATING TO THE TRANSACTIONS

USA WILL EXERCISE SIGNIFICANT CONTROL OVER EXPEDIA

When the transactions are completed, USA will own between 66% and 75% of the outstanding Expedia common equity, depending on the number of Expedia shareholders who elect to receive Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, and between 90% and 94.9% of the total voting power of Expedia. As a result, USA generally will have the ability to control the outcome of any matter submitted for the vote or consent of Expedia shareholders, except where a separate vote of the holders of Expedia common stock is required by Washington law. In addition, USA will also control the board of directors of Expedia. Subject to applicable Washington law and agreements entered into as part of the transactions, USA generally will not be restricted with regard to its ability to control the election of directors of Expedia, to cause the amendment of Expedia's articles of incorporation or bylaws, or generally to exercise a controlling influence over the business and affairs of Expedia. As a result of USA's controlling interest in Expedia, USA will have the power to prevent, delay or cause a change in control of Expedia and could take other actions that might be favorable to USA but not necessarily favorable to other Expedia shareholders.

In addition, because the Expedia board of directors has approved the transactions, Expedia shareholders may not benefit from certain protections afforded by the Washington anti-takeover statute in respect of future agreements with USA or its affiliates. See "Comparison of Rights of Shareholders of Expedia and USA--Summary of Material Differences Between the Current Rights of Expedia Shareholders, the Rights of Expedia Shareholders Following the Transactions and the Rights of USA Stockholders--Business Combination Restrictions" for a more detailed description of the Washington anti-takeover statute.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST MAY ARISE BETWEEN USA AND EXPEDIA, WHICH MAY NOT BE RESOLVED IN A MANNER THAT DOES NOT ADVERSELY AFFECT EXPEDIA'S BUSINESS, FINANCIAL CONDITION OR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Conflicts of interest may arise between Expedia, on the one hand, and USA and its other affiliates, on the other hand, in areas relating to past, ongoing and future relationships, including corporate opportunities, potential acquisitions or financing transactions, sales or other dispositions by USA of its interest in Expedia and the exercise by USA of its ability to control the management and affairs of Expedia. Conflicts, disagreements or other disputes between Expedia and USA may arise and may not be resolved in a manner that does not adversely affect the business, financial condition or results of operations of Expedia.

For instance, USA is engaged in a diverse range of media and entertainment-related businesses, including businesses that may compete in one or more businesses with Expedia, including Hotel Reservations Network. In addition, USA or its affiliates may acquire additional businesses that may conflict or compete with Expedia. Subject to applicable Washington law, USA is under no obligation, and has not indicated any intention, to share any future business opportunities available to it with Expedia. Expedia's amended and restated articles of incorporation will also include provisions that provide that (1) neither USA nor any of its affiliates will have any duty to refrain from engaging in the same or similar activities or lines of business of Expedia, thereby competing with Expedia, and (2) neither USA nor any of its affiliates will have any duty to communicate or offer corporate opportunities to Expedia and none of them will be liable for breach of any fiduciary duty to Expedia, as a shareholder of Expedia or otherwise, in connection with such opportunities, provided that the procedures provided for in Expedia's articles of incorporation are followed.

EXPEDIA'S DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS MAY HAVE INTERESTS IN USA AND ITS SUBSIDIARIES WHICH COULD CREATE POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Ownership interests of directors or officers of Expedia in USA common stock, or ownership of directors or officers of USA in Expedia common stock or service as both a director or officer of Expedia and a director, officer or employee of USA, could create or appear to create potential conflicts of interest when directors and officers are faced with decisions that could have different implications for Expedia and USA. Following completion of the transactions, Mr. Diller will become Chairman of the board of directors of Expedia. A number of other members of Expedia's board of directors are also expected to be directors, officers or employees of USA. In addition, following the completion of the transactions and the appointment of the USA nominees to Expedia's board of directors, interlocking relationships may exist between certain members of the board of directors of Expedia and members of the boards of directors of other USA subsidiaries with which Expedia directly competes, including Hotel Reservations Network, Inc., and important suppliers of Expedia which also have strong business relationships with direct competitors of Expedia. See "Proposal No. 1--Approval of the Merger Agreement--Expedia after the Merger--Management and Operations of Expedia after the Transactions."

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

AN ACTIVE TRADING MARKET FOR THE SHARES OF USA PREFERRED STOCK, USA WARRANTS AND NEW EXPEDIA WARRANTS MAY NOT DEVELOP

The shares of USA preferred stock, USA warrants and new Expedia warrants to be issued in the merger or to Expedia optionholders are each a new type of security for which there is currently no public market. If these securities are traded after their initial issuance, they may trade at a discount from their initial valuations, depending on prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, the price of USA common stock and Expedia common stock, as applicable, the performance of USA or Expedia, as applicable, and other factors. In addition, neither USA nor Expedia knows whether an active trading market will develop for any of these securities.

Microsoft will be receiving a large part of the USA securities issued in the merger. While USA has agreed to have in place a registration statement covering USA securities received by Microsoft in the transactions, we cannot assure you that Microsoft will sell its USA securities or predict the timing or degree of any sales, hedging or other transactions in these securities. If Microsoft does not sell the USA securities it receives in the transactions, the market for the USA preferred stock and USA warrants will be extremely limited even if the maximum number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock is issued in the recapitalization and, as a result, the maximum number of USA securities are issued in the merger. Regardless of the size of the market for these securities, sales, hedging or other transactions by Microsoft and others may also cause these securities to trade at a discount from their initial valuations. In addition, while application will be made to have the shares of USA preferred stock and USA warrants to be issued in the merger listed on Nasdaq, the listing qualifications may not be satisfied if a sufficient number of Expedia shareholders do not elect to receive the USA securities in the transactions. If the Nasdaq listing qualifications are not satisfied, shares of USA preferred stock and USA warrants may not be listed on any exchange.

THE PRICE OF USA SECURITIES MAY BE AFFECTED BY FACTORS DIFFERENT FROM THOSE AFFECTING THE PRICE OF EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK

Upon completion of the merger, holders of Expedia Class B common stock will become holders of USA common stock, USA preferred stock and USA warrants. USA's business differs from that of Expedia, and USA's results of operations, as well as the price of USA common stock, USA preferred stock and USA warrants may be affected by factors different from those affecting Expedia's results of operations and the price of Expedia common stock. For a discussion of USA's and Expedia's businesses and certain factors to consider in connection with such businesses, see USA's Annual Report on 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000 and Expedia's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2001, which are incorporated by reference in this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement.

THE EXCHANGE RATIOS RELATING TO THE NUMBERS OF SHARES OF USA COMMON STOCK AND USA WARRANTS THAT THE HOLDERS OF EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK WILL RECEIVE IN THE MERGER MAY FLUCTUATE AND MAY NOT REFLECT THE VALUE OF THE USA SECURITIES AT THE CLOSING OF THE TRANSACTIONS

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

The exact number of shares of USA common stock and warrants to acquire USA common stock that USA will issue in exchange for shares of Expedia Class B common stock will vary based on the average closing price of USA common stock over the ten consecutive trading days ending on the second full trading day prior to the Expedia annual meeting. The USA common stock and USA warrants are both subject to a collar during the ten trading day measurement period, which provides that the exchange ratio for the common stock will vary based on a USA stock price between $23.00 and $31.00 and the exchange ratio for the warrants will fluctuate based on a USA stock price between $25.75 and $28.25. If the price of the USA common stock at the time of the merger is different from the price set during the measurement period, holders of Expedia Class B common stock will receive securities with a market value that may be higher, or lower, than the values reflected during the measurement period. We cannot tell you what the price of USA common stock will be during the measurement period, at the time we complete the merger or at any other time. We urge you to obtain current market quotations and to call MacKenzie Partners, Inc. toll-free at (800) 322-2885 at any time to obtain updated information concerning the exchange ratios in the merger.

SHAREHOLDERS ELECTING TO RECEIVE SHARES OF EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK ARE SUBJECT TO PRORATION IN THE EVENT THAT MORE THAN 37,500,000 SHARES OF EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK ELECT TO RECEIVE EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK

Because of possible proration in the recapitalization, holders of Expedia common stock that elect to exchange some or all of their shares for shares of Expedia Class B common stock may not receive Expedia Class B common stock in respect of all of their shares covered by the election form and letter of transmittal. If more than 37,500,000 shares of Expedia common stock have been surrendered for exchange, then the number of shares of Expedia common stock that are exchanged for Expedia Class B common stock will be reduced pro rata, in which event each electing holder will receive his proportionate share of Expedia Class B common stock and retain the rest in Expedia common stock.

THE MIX OF USA COMMON STOCK AND USA PREFERRED STOCK ISSUED IN THE MERGER WILL VARY DEPENDING ON WHETHER FEWER THAN 37,500,000 SHARES OF EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK ARE ISSUED IN THE RECAPITALIZATION

The exchange ratio for the USA common stock and USA preferred stock issued for each share of Expedia Class B common stock varies based on the number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock. Generally, the exchange ratio for the USA common stock increases, and the exchange ratio for the USA preferred stock decreases, as the number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock that is issued increases up to 37,500,000. For example, assuming a USA common stock price of $27.00:

- if only Microsoft receives the Expedia Class B common stock with respect to its 33,722,710 shares of Expedia common stock, then each share of Expedia Class B common stock would be converted into 0.5755 of a share of USA common stock, 0.3892 of a share of USA preferred stock and 0.4176 of a USA warrant;
- if a total of 35,500,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock are issued in the recapitalization, then each share of Expedia Class B common stock would be converted into

0.6116 of a share of USA common stock, 0.3697 of a share of USA preferred stock and 0.4176 of a USA warrant; and

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

- if the maximum number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock (37,500,000) is issued in the recapitalization, then each share of Expedia Class B common stock would be converted into 0.6481 of a share of USA common stock, 0.3500 of a share of USA preferred stock and 0.4176 of a USA warrant.

If you are an Expedia shareholder, at the time you make your election whether to retain some or all of your shares of Expedia common stock or to receive shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization and, as a result, USA securities in the merger, these exchange ratios will not yet be fixed. The actual package of USA securities you would receive in respect of shares of Expedia Class B common stock that you may elect to receive will be announced by USA as promptly as possible after the Expedia annual meeting. For a further description of these exchange ratios, see "What Expedia Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger" and "Proposal No. 1--Approval of the Merger Agreement--Structure of the Transactions--Merger."

VALUE OF USA SECURITIES TO BE RECEIVED IN THE MERGER MAY FLUCTUATE

The number of shares of USA common stock, shares of USA preferred stock and USA warrants to be received in the merger for each share of Expedia Class B common stock will be fixed as of the date of the Expedia annual meeting. Therefore, because the market price of USA common stock is subject to fluctuation, the value at the time of the merger of the consideration to be received by the holders of Expedia Class B common stock will depend on the market price of USA common stock at that time. Because of this fluctuation, we cannot assure you that the value at the time of the merger of the consideration to be received by holders of Expedia Class B common stock will be equal to the fair market value. For historical and current market prices of USA common stock, see "Summary--Comparative Per Share Market Price Information."

THE EXCHANGE RATIO RELATING TO THE NUMBER OF USA WARRANTS YOU MAY RECEIVE IN THE MERGER MAY ALSO FLUCTUATE DUE TO A TAX ADJUSTMENT

In order to preserve the tax-free nature of the transactions, USA may, under certain circumstances, decrease the USA warrant exchange ratio and increase the USA common stock exchange ratio. If this occurs, you will receive fewer USA warrants and more shares of USA common stock. Because the replacement of USA warrants with USA common stock will be determined according to a valuation mechanism that includes certain variables, it is possible that the value of the USA common stock received under this adjustment will be greater than or less than the value of the USA warrants being replaced. At the time that you make your election whether to remain a shareholder of Expedia or to receive shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, this exchange ratio will not yet be fixed. The actual package of USA securities that Expedia shareholders will receive in respect of their shares of Expedia Class B common will be announced by USA promptly after the Expedia annual meeting.

USA/EXPEDIA MAY NOT REALIZE ALL OF THE ANTICIPATED BENEFITS OF THE TRANSACTIONS

The success of the transactions will depend, in part, on the ability of USA and Expedia to realize certain anticipated growth opportunities from integrating the businesses of Expedia with the businesses of USA and its affiliates. We cannot assure you that this integration will result in the realization of the full anticipated benefits of the growth opportunities or that these benefits will be achieved within the anticipated time frame or at all. In addition, legal arrangements between USA or its affiliates and certain third parties may restrict the ability of the parties to integrate parts of their businesses with the businesses of USA or its affiliates.

MICROSOFT WILL BE ABLE TO COMPETE WITH EXPEDIA

In connection with the merger, Expedia and Microsoft have agreed to terminate the shareholder agreement between Microsoft and Expedia, which agreement includes, among other things, an agreement by Microsoft not to compete with Expedia. As a result Microsoft will be able to compete with Expedia after the transactions, which could have a negative impact on Expedia's business.

IF NEW EVENTS OR FACTS EMERGE, IN COMBINATION WITH THE EVENTS OF SEPTEMBER 11, 2001, USA MAY ASSERT THAT A MATERIAL ADVERSE EFFECT ON EXPEDIA HAS OCCURRED AND SEEK TO TERMINATE THE TRANSACTION.

In view of the events of September 11, 2001, there is a risk that if new events or facts emerge, USA may assert that there has been a material adverse effect on Expedia and that USA might seek to terminate the merger agreement and not close the transaction. USA has previously indicated that it intends to close the Expedia transaction absent new events or facts that may emerge.

FAILURE TO COMPLETE THE MERGER COULD NEGATIVELY IMPACT EXPEDIA'S STOCK PRICE AND FUTURE BUSINESS AND OPERATIONS

If the merger is not completed for any reason, Expedia may be subject to the following material risks:

- the price of Expedia common stock may decline to the extent that the current market price of Expedia common stock reflects a market assumption that the transactions will be completed;
- costs related to the transactions, such as certain legal, accounting and financial advisor fees, must be paid even if the transactions are not completed; and
- Microsoft may agree to a subsequent transaction in which some or all of the outstanding shares of Expedia common stock may be transferred with or without the consent and approval of Expedia's board of directors on terms which may be less favorable to Expedia shareholders than the terms contemplated by the merger agreement.

RISK FACTORS RELATING TO USA

USA DEPENDS ON ITS KEY PERSONNEL

USA is dependent upon the continued contributions of its senior corporate management, particularly Barry Diller, and certain key employees for its future success. Mr. Diller is the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of USA. Mr. Diller does not have an employment agreement with USA, although he has been granted options to purchase a substantial number of shares of USA common stock.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

If Mr. Diller no longer serves in his positions at USA, the business of USA, as well as the market price of USA common stock, could be substantially adversely affected. In addition, under the terms of a governance agreement, dated as of October 19, 1997, among Universal Studios, Inc., HSN, Inc. (now USA), Mr. Diller and Liberty Media Corporation, if Mr. Diller no longer serves as Chief Executive Officer of USA, then certain restrictions on Universal Studios' conduct will be eliminated, and the ability of Universal Studios (which is controlled by Vivendi Universal S.A.) to increase its equity interest in USA will be accelerated. We cannot assure you that USA will be able to retain the services of Mr. Diller or any other members of senior management or key employees of USA.

USA IS CONTROLLED BY MR. DILLER AND IN HIS ABSENCE, WILL BE CONTROLLED BY VIVENDI UNIVERSAL AND LIBERTY MEDIA

Mr. Diller, through entities he controls, currently beneficially owns or has the right to vote 100% of the shares of Class B common stock, par value $.01 per share, of USA, which is sufficient to control the outcome of any matter submitted to a vote or for the consent of USA shareholders with respect to which holders of USA common stock and USA Class B common stock vote together as a single class. See "Description of USA Capital Stock." Mr. Diller, subject to the terms of a stockholders agreement, dated as of October 19, 1997 (the "STOCKHOLDERS AGREEMENT"), among Universal Studios, Liberty Media, Mr. Diller, USA and The Seagram Company Ltd. (now controlled by Vivendi Universal S.A.), effectively controls the outcome of all matters submitted to a vote or for the consent of USA stockholders (other than with respect to the election by the holders of USA common stock of 25% of the members of the board of directors of USA (rounded up to the nearest whole number) and certain matters as to which a separate class vote of the holders of USA common stock is required under Delaware law).

Under the Stockholders Agreement, Mr. Diller, Universal Studios and Liberty Media have agreed that USA securities owned by any of Mr. Diller, Universal Studios, Liberty Media and certain of their affiliates will not be voted in favor of the taking of any action with respect to certain fundamental changes relating to USA, except with the consent of each of Mr. Diller, Universal Studios and Liberty Media. Accordingly, in respect of these matters, each of Mr. Diller, Universal Studios and Liberty Media has the ability to veto, in his or its sole discretion, the taking of any action with respect to these matters. In addition, we cannot assure you that Mr. Diller, Universal Studios and Liberty Media will agree in the future on any such transaction or action, in which case USA would not be able to engage in such transaction or take such action.

In addition, any third party seeking to acquire USA would be required to negotiate such transaction with Mr. Diller, Universal Studios and Liberty Media, and the interests of any one or more of such persons as shareholders may be different from the interests of other USA shareholders.

Upon Mr. Diller's permanent departure from USA, USA may change in various fundamental respects. For example, generally, Vivendi Universal, through Universal Studios, would be able to control USANi LLC, through which a substantial portion of USA's businesses are currently owned, and also would have the ability to directly control USA. In addition, Universal Studios and Liberty Media have certain agreements relating to the management and governance of USA, as well as the voting and disposition of their shares of USA stock.

RISK FACTORS RELATING TO EXPEDIA

DECLINES OR DISRUPTIONS IN THE TRAVEL INDUSTRY, SUCH AS THOSE CAUSED BY TERRORISM OR GENERAL ECONOMIC DOWNTURNS, COULD REDUCE EXPEDIA'S REVENUES

Expedia relies on the health and growth of the travel industry. Travel is highly sensitive to traveler safety concerns, and thus declines after acts of terrorism that affect the safety of travelers. The terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001 on the World Trade Center in New York City and the Pentagon in northern Virginia using hijacked commercial airlines resulted in the cancellation of a significant number of Expedia's existing travel bookings and a decrease in new travel bookings through Expedia, all of which will reduce Expedia's revenues for at least the quarters ended September 30, 2001 and December 31, 2001. The long-term effects of these events could include, among other things, a protracted decrease in demand for air travel due to fears regarding additional acts of terrorism, military responses to acts of terrorism and increased costs and reduced operations by airlines due, in part, to new security directives adopted by the Federal Aviation Administration. These effects, depending on their scope and duration--which Expedia cannot predict at this time--could significantly impact Expedia's long-term results of operations or financial condition.

In addition, travel is sensitive to business and personal discretionary spending levels and tends to decline during general economic downturns, which could also reduce Expedia's revenues. Other adverse trends or events that tend to reduce travel and may reduce Expedia's revenues include:

- political instability;
- regional hostilities;
- price escalation in the airline industry or other travel-related industries;
- increased occurrence of travel-related accidents;
- airline or other travel-related strikes; and

- bad weather.

EXPEDIA'S OPERATING RESULTS ARE VOLATILE AND DIFFICULT TO PREDICT

Expedia's annual and quarterly operating results have fluctuated in the past and may fluctuate significantly in the future due to a variety of factors, many of which are outside of its control. Because Expedia's operating results are volatile and difficult to predict, Expedia believes that quarter-to-quarter comparisons of its operating results are not a good indication of its future performance. It is likely that in some future quarter its operating results will fall below the expectations of securities analysts or investors. In this event, the trading price of Expedia's common stock may decline significantly.

Factors that may cause Expedia to fail to meet the expectations of securities analysts or investors include the following:

- its inability to obtain travel products on satisfactory terms from its travel suppliers;
- the ability of its competitors to offer new or enhanced websites, services or products or similar services or products with lower prices;
- its inability to obtain new customers at reasonable cost, retain existing customers or encourage repeat purchases;
- decreases in the number of visitors to its websites or its inability to convert visitors to its websites into customers;
- its inability to adequately maintain, upgrade and develop its websites, the systems that it uses to process customers' orders and payments or its computer network;
- its inability to retain existing airlines, hotels, rental car companies and other suppliers of travel services or to obtain new travel suppliers;
- fluctuating gross margins due to a changing mix of revenues;
- the termination of existing relationships with key service providers or failure to develop new ones;
- the amount and timing of operating costs relating to expansion of its operations; and
- economic conditions specific to the Internet, online commerce and the travel industry.

EXPEDIA DEPENDS ON ITS RELATIONSHIPS WITH TRAVEL SUPPLIERS AND COMPUTER RESERVATION SYSTEMS AND ADVERSE CHANGES IN THESE RELATIONSHIPS COULD AFFECT ITS INVENTORY OF TRAVEL OFFERINGS

Expedia's business relies on relationships with travel suppliers, and it would be negatively affected by adverse changes in these relationships. Expedia depends on travel suppliers to enable it to offer its customers comprehensive access to travel services and products. Consistent with industry practices, Expedia currently has few agreements with its travel suppliers obligating them to sell services or products through Expedia's websites. It is possible that travel suppliers may choose not to make their inventory of services and products available through online distribution. Travel suppliers could elect to sell exclusively through other sales and distribution channels or to restrict Expedia's access to their inventory, either of which could significantly decrease the amount or breadth of Expedia's inventory of available travel offerings. Of particular note is Orbitz, the airline direct-distribution website, which was launched in June 2001 and is owned by American Airlines, Continental Airlines, Delta Air Lines, Northwest Airlines and United Air Lines. Forester Research reports that Orbitz is the only website for consumers to find unpublished special fares on these and at least 23 other airlines. Additionally, American Airlines, United Air Lines, Northwest Airlines, Continental Air Lines, US Airways Group and America West Airlines entered into a joint venture to launch a separate site known as "Hotwire," which offers unpublished special fares on certain carriers. If a substantial number of Expedia's airline suppliers collectively agree or choose to restrict their special fares solely to Orbitz or Hotwire, such action may have a material adverse affect on Expedia's business. Expedia also depends on travel suppliers for advertising revenues. Adverse changes in any of these relationships, whether due to Orbitz, Hotwire or otherwise, could reduce the amount of inventory that Expedia is able to offer through its websites.

A DECLINE IN COMMISSION RATES AND FEES OR THE ELIMINATION OF COMMISSIONS COULD REDUCE EXPEDIA'S REVENUES AND MARGINS

A substantial majority of Expedia's online revenues depends on the commissions and fees paid by travel suppliers for bookings made through its online travel service. Generally, Expedia does not have written commission agreements with its suppliers. As is standard practice in the travel industry, Expedia relies on informal arrangements for the payment of commissions. Travel suppliers are not obligated to pay any specified commission rate for bookings made through its websites. Expedia cannot assure you that airlines, hotel chains or other travel suppliers will not reduce current industry commission rates or eliminate commissions entirely, either of which could reduce Expedia's revenues and margins.

EXPEDIA EXPECTS ITS ACCOUNTING LOSSES TO CONTINUE

To date, Expedia has incurred substantial net losses due mainly to stock-based compensation and acquisitions made by Expedia since its initial public offering. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2001, Expedia had a net loss of $78.1 million. If its revenues do not grow as expected, or if increases in its expenses are not in line with its plans, there could be a material adverse effect on Expedia's business, operating results and financial condition.

EXPEDIA COMPETES WITH A VARIETY OF COMPANIES WITH RESPECT TO EACH PRODUCT OR SERVICE IT OFFERS

These competitors include:

- Internet travel agents such as Travelocity.com, Orbitz.com and American Express Interactive, Inc.;
- local, regional, national and international traditional travel agencies;
- consolidators and wholesalers of airline tickets, hotels and other travel products, including Hotwire.com, Cheaptickets.com and Priceline.com;
- airlines, hotels, rental car companies, cruise operators and other travel

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

service providers, whether working individually or collectively, some of which are suppliers to Expedia's websites; and

- operators of travel industry reservation databases.

In addition to the traditional travel agency channel, many travel suppliers also offer their travel services as well as third-party travel services directly through their own websites. These travel suppliers include many suppliers with which Expedia does business. Suppliers also sell their own services directly to consumers, predominantly by telephone. As the market for online travel services grows, Expedia believes that travel suppliers, traditional travel agencies, travel industry information providers and other companies will increase their efforts to develop services that compete with Expedia's services by selling inventory from a wide variety of suppliers. Expedia cannot assure you that its online operations will compete successfully with any current or future competitors.

Many of Expedia's competitors have longer operating histories, larger customer bases, greater brand recognition and significantly greater financial, marketing and other resources than Expedia has and may enter into strategic or commercial relationships with larger, more established and better-financed companies. Some of Expedia's competitors may be able to secure services and products from travel suppliers on more favorable terms, devote greater resources to marketing and promotional campaigns and commit more resources to website and systems development than Expedia is able to devote. In addition, the introduction of new technologies and the expansion of existing technologies may increase competitive pressures. Increased competition may result in reduced operating margins, as well as loss of market share and brand recognition. Expedia cannot assure you that it will be able to compete successfully against current and future competitors. Competitive pressures faced by Expedia could have a material adverse effect on its business, operating results and financial condition.

IF EXPEDIA FAILS TO INCREASE ITS BRAND RECOGNITION AMONG CONSUMERS, IT MAY NOT BE ABLE TO ATTRACT AND EXPAND ITS ONLINE TRAFFIC

Expedia believes that maintaining and enhancing the Expedia-Registered Trademark- brand is a critical aspect of its efforts to attract and expand its online traffic. The number of Internet sites that offer competing services increases the importance of maintaining and enhancing brand recognition. Promotion of the Expedia brand will depend largely on its success in providing a high-quality online experience supported by a high level of customer service. In addition, Expedia intends to spend substantial amounts on marketing and advertising with the intention of continuing to expand its brand recognition to attract and retain online users and to respond to competitive pressures. However, Expedia cannot assure you that these expenditures will be effective to promote its brand or that its marketing efforts generally will achieve its goals.

INTERRUPTIONS IN SERVICE FROM THIRD PARTIES COULD IMPAIR THE QUALITY OF EXPEDIA'S SERVICE

Expedia relies on third-party computer systems and third-party service providers, including the computerized central reservation systems of the airline, hotel and car rental industries to make airline ticket, hotel room and car rental reservations and credit card verifications and confirmations.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Currently, a majority of Expedia's transactions are processed through Worldspan, L.P. and Pegasus Solutions, Inc. Expedia relies on TRX, Inc. and PeopleSupport, Inc. to provide a significant portion of its telephone and email customer support, as well as to print and deliver airline tickets as necessary. Microsoft also services a significant amount of Expedia's information systems as part of an amended and restated services agreement, which Microsoft has agreed to extend through September 2002. Any interruption in these third-party services or a deterioration in their performance could impair the quality of Expedia's service. If its arrangement with any of these third parties is terminated, Expedia may not find an alternate source of systems support on a timely basis or on commercially reasonable terms. In particular, any migration from the Worldspan system could require a substantial commitment of time and resources and hurt Expedia's business.

EXPEDIA'S SUCCESS DEPENDS ON MAINTAINING THE INTEGRITY OF EXPEDIA'S SYSTEMS AND INFRASTRUCTURE

In order to be successful, Expedia must continue to provide reliable, real-time access to its systems for its customers and suppliers. As its operations continue to grow in both size and scope, domestically and internationally, Expedia will need to improve and upgrade its systems and infrastructure to offer an increasing number of customers and travel suppliers enhanced products, services, features and functionality. The expansion of Expedia's systems and infrastructure will require it to commit substantial financial, operational and technical resources before the volume of business increases, with no assurance that the volume of business will increase. Consumers and suppliers will not tolerate a service hampered by slow delivery times, unreliable service levels or insufficient capacity, any of which could have a material adverse effect on Expedia's business, operating results and financial condition.

In this regard, Expedia's operations face the risk of systems failures. Expedia's systems and operations are vulnerable to damage or interruption from fire, flood, power loss, telecommunications failure, break-ins, earthquake and similar events. Expedia's business interruption insurance may not adequately compensate it for losses that may occur. The occurrence of a natural disaster or unanticipated problems at Expedia's facilities in Washington or Travelscape's facilities in Nevada could cause interruptions or delays in Expedia's business, loss of data or render it unable to process reservations. In addition, the failure of Expedia's computer and communications systems to provide the data communications capacity required by it, as a result of human error, natural disaster or other operational disruptions, could result in interruptions in its service. The occurrence of any or all of these events could adversely affect Expedia's reputation, brand and business.

EXPEDIA'S BUSINESS IS EXPOSED TO RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH ONLINE COMMERCE SECURITY AND CREDIT CARD FRAUD

Consumer concerns over the security of transactions conducted on the Internet or the privacy of users may inhibit the growth of the Internet and online commerce. To transmit confidential information such as customer credit card numbers securely, Expedia relies on encryption and authentication technology. Unanticipated events or developments could result in a compromise or breach of the systems Expedia uses to protect customer transaction data. Furthermore, Expedia's servers may also be vulnerable to viruses transmitted via the Internet. While Expedia proactively checks for intrusions into its infrastructure, a new and undetected virus could cause a service disruption.

To date, Expedia's results have been impacted due to reservations placed with fraudulent credit card data. Expedia records these reserves because, under current credit card practices and the rules of the Airline Reporting Corporation, Expedia may be held liable for fraudulent credit card transactions on its websites and other payment disputes with customers. Since discovering this fraudulent activity, Expedia has put additional anti-fraud measures in place above and beyond its existing credit card verification procedures; however, a failure to control fraudulent credit card transactions adequately could further adversely affect its business.

RAPID TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGES MAY RENDER EXPEDIA'S TECHNOLOGY OBSOLETE OR DECREASE THE COMPETITIVENESS OF ITS SERVICES

To remain competitive in the online travel industry, Expedia must continue to enhance and improve the functionality and features of its websites. The Internet and the online commerce industry are rapidly changing. In particular, the online travel industry is characterized by increasingly complex systems and infrastructures. If competitors introduce new services embodying new technologies, or if new industry standards and practices emerge, Expedia's existing websites and proprietary technology and systems may become obsolete. Expedia's future success will depend on its ability to do the following:

- enhance its existing services;

- develop and license new services and technologies that address the increasingly sophisticated and varied needs of its prospective customers and suppliers; and
- respond to technological advances and emerging industry standards and practices on a cost-effective and timely basis.

Developing Expedia's websites and other proprietary technology entails significant technical and business risks. Expedia may use new technologies ineffectively or Expedia may fail to adapt its websites, transaction-processing systems and network infrastructure to customer requirements or emerging industry standards. If Expedia faces material delays in introducing new services, products and enhancements, its customers and suppliers may forego the use of Expedia's services and use those of its competitors.

EXPEDIA'S INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS INVOLVE RISKS RELATING TO TRAVEL PATTERNS AND PRACTICES AND INTERNET-BASED COMMERCE

Expedia operates in the United Kingdom, Germany, Canada and Belgium and intends to expand its operations to other countries. In order to achieve widespread acceptance in each country Expedia enters, Expedia believes that it must tailor its services to the unique customs and cultures of that country. Learning the customs and cultures of various countries, particularly with respect to travel patterns and practices, is a difficult task and Expedia's failure to do so could slow its growth in those countries.

In addition, Expedia faces additional risks in operating internationally, such as:

- delays in the development of the Internet as a broadcast, advertising and commerce medium in international markets;
- difficulties in managing operations due to distance, language and cultural differences, including issues associated with establishing management systems infrastructures in individual foreign markets;
- unexpected changes in regulatory requirements;

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

- tariffs and trade barriers and limitations on fund transfers;
- difficulties in staffing and managing foreign operations;
- potential adverse tax consequences;
- exchange rate fluctuations; and
- increased risk of piracy and limits on Expedia's ability to enforce its intellectual property rights.

Any of these factors could harm its business. Expedia does not currently hedge its foreign currency exposures.

EXPEDIA MAY BE FOUND TO HAVE INFRINGED ON INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF OTHERS WHICH COULD EXPOSE IT TO SUBSTANTIAL DAMAGES AND RESTRICT ITS OPERATIONS

Expedia could face claims that it has infringed the patents, copyrights or other intellectual property rights of others. In addition, Expedia may be required to indemnify travel suppliers for claims made against them. Any claims against Expedia could require it to spend significant time and money in litigation, delay the release of new products or services, pay damages, develop new intellectual property or acquire licenses to intellectual property that is the subject of the infringement claims. These licenses, if required, may not be available on acceptable terms or at all. As a result, intellectual property claims against Expedia could have a material adverse effect on its business, operating results and financial condition.

BECAUSE EXPEDIA'S MARKET IS SEASONAL, ITS QUARTERLY RESULTS WILL FLUCTUATE

Expedia's business experiences seasonal fluctuations, reflecting seasonal trends for the products and services offered by its websites. For example, demand for travel bookings may increase in anticipation of summer vacations and holiday periods, but online travel bookings may decline with reduced Internet usage during the summer months. These factors could cause Expedia's revenues to fluctuate from quarter to quarter. Expedia's results may also be affected by seasonal fluctuations in the inventory made available to its service by travel suppliers.

EXPEDIA'S SUCCESS DEPENDS IN LARGE PART ON THE CONTINUING EFFORTS OF A FEW INDIVIDUALS AND ITS ABILITY TO CONTINUE TO ATTRACT, RETAIN AND MOTIVATE HIGHLY SKILLED EMPLOYEES

Expedia depends substantially on the continued services and performance of its senior management, particularly Richard N. Barton, its chief executive officer and president. These individuals may not be able to fulfill their responsibilities adequately and may not remain with Expedia. The loss of the services of any executive officers or other key employees could hurt Expedia's business.

As of October 15, 2001, Expedia employed approximately 900 full-time employees. In order to achieve its anticipated growth, Expedia will need to hire additional qualified employees. If Expedia does not succeed in attracting new employees and retaining and motivating its current personnel, its business will be adversely affected.

EXPEDIA'S WEBSITES RELY ON INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY, AND EXPEDIA CANNOT BE SURE

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

THAT THIS INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY IS PROTECTED FROM COPY OR USE BY OTHERS, INCLUDING POTENTIAL COMPETITORS

Expedia regards much of its content and technology as proprietary and tries to protect its proprietary technology by relying on trademarks, copyrights, trade secret laws and confidentiality agreements with consultants. In connection with its license agreements with third parties, Expedia seeks to control access to and distribution of its technology, documentation and other proprietary information. Even with all of these precautions, it is possible for someone else to copy or otherwise obtain and use Expedia's proprietary technology without its authorization or to develop similar technology independently. Effective trademark, copyright and trade secret protection may not be available in every country in which Expedia's services are made available through the Internet, and policing unauthorized use of its proprietary information is difficult and expensive. Expedia cannot be sure that the steps it has taken will prevent misappropriation of its proprietary information. This misappropriation could have a material adverse effect on Expedia's business. In the future, Expedia may need to go to court to enforce its intellectual property rights, to protect its trade secrets or to determine the validity and scope of the proprietary rights of others. This litigation might result in substantial costs and diversion of resources and management attention.

Expedia currently licenses from third parties, including Microsoft, some of the technologies incorporated into its websites. As Expedia continues to introduce new services that incorporate new technologies, it may be required to license additional technology from Microsoft and others. Expedia cannot be sure that these third-party technology licenses will continue to be available on commercially reasonable terms, if at all.

THE EXPEDIA ANNUAL MEETING

This joint prospectus/proxy and information statement is furnished to Expedia shareholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies by Expedia's board of directors from the holders of Expedia common stock for use at the annual meeting of Expedia. This joint prospectus/proxy and information statement, other than "Proposal No. 4--Election of Expedia Directors" and "Proposal No. 5--Adoption of Expedia 2001 Stock Plan," is also furnished to Expedia shareholders as a prospectus of USA in connection with the issuance by USA of the shares of USA common stock, shares of USA preferred stock and USA warrants in connection with the merger and as a prospectus of Expedia in connection with the issuance by Expedia of the Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization and the new Expedia warrants in the merger.

TIME AND PLACE; PURPOSES

The annual meeting will be held at the Embassy Suites Hotel, 3225 158th Avenue SE, Bellevue, Washington, on December 17, 2001, at 2:30 p.m., local time. At the annual meeting (and any adjournment or postponement thereof), Expedia shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon the following proposals relating to the transactions:

- a proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Under the terms of the merger agreement, among other

- Expedia will be recapitalized to have two classes of common stock, with shareholders of Expedia electing to (1) retain some or all of their shares of Expedia common stock, which will remain outstanding following the merger and will entitle their holder to receive new Expedia warrants in the merger, or (2) exchange some or all of their shares of common stock for shares of Expedia Class B common stock, which will then be converted into a package of USA securities in the merger;
  - Taipei will merge with and into Expedia, with Expedia surviving as a public company controlled by USA; and
  - USA will contribute to Expedia travel and media-related assets.
- a proposal to amend and restate Expedia's articles of incorporation to, among other things, create a high-vote and low-vote class of common stock and make other changes to the Articles of Incorporation included in Annex B to this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement; and
  - a proposal to terminate the shareholder agreement, dated as of October 1, 1999, between Expedia and Microsoft Corporation.

At the annual meeting (and any adjournment or postponement thereof), Expedia shareholders will also be asked to consider and vote upon the following proposals:

- a proposal to elect seven directors to serve until the 2002 annual meeting of Expedia shareholders, four of whom will be replaced upon closing of the transactions;
- a proposal to adopt the Expedia, Inc. 2001 Stock Plan; and
- any other matter that may properly come before the annual meeting.

Representatives from Deloitte & Touche, independent certified public accountants for Expedia, are expected to be present at the annual meeting, to have an opportunity to make a statement if they so desire and to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

RECORD DATE; VOTING RIGHTS

The board of directors of Expedia has fixed the close of business on October 15, 2001 as the record date for the determination of the holders of Expedia common stock entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the annual meeting. Only holders of record of shares of Expedia common stock on the record date are entitled to vote at the annual meeting. On October 15, 2001, the record date, there were 51,439,606 shares of Expedia common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the annual meeting held by approximately 900 holders of

VOTES REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Expedia common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the annual meeting. The affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Expedia common stock entitled to vote is required to approve each of the proposals relating to the transactions being presented to Expedia shareholders at the annual meeting. The affirmative vote of holders of a plurality of the outstanding shares of common stock represented in person or by proxy at the meeting is required to elect the seven nominees to the board of directors of Expedia. The affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock represented in person or by proxy at the meeting is required to approve the proposed adoption of the Expedia, Inc. 2001 Stock Plan.

The directors and officers of Expedia beneficially own 6,833,746 shares of Expedia common stock, representing approximately 13% of Expedia's total voting power and Microsoft and its affiliates beneficially own approximately 33,722,710 shares of Expedia common stock, representing approximately 66% of Expedia's total voting power as of October 15, 2001. Under the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement, Microsoft and its affiliates are obligated to vote in favor of each of the proposals relating to the transactions and to elect to receive Expedia Class B common stock in respect of all their Expedia common stock. Accordingly, approval of each of the proposals relating to the transactions is assured.

VOTING AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

All shares of Expedia common stock represented by properly executed proxies received prior to or at the annual meeting and not revoked will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated in such proxies. If no instructions are indicated on a properly executed returned proxy, such proxies will be voted FOR the approval of each of the proposals described above. Proxies voted against all of the proposals will not be voted in favor of any adjournment or postponement of the annual meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies.

Abstentions may be specified on all proposals. A properly executed proxy marked ABSTAIN with respect to any proposal will be counted as present for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. Because the affirmative votes required for approval of each of the proposals relating to the transactions are, as described above, a percentage of the combined voting power of the outstanding shares entitled to vote, whether or not voted, a proxy marked ABSTAIN with respect to any proposal relating to the transactions will have the effect of a vote against such proposal. In addition, the failure of a shareholder of Expedia to return a proxy and to vote in person at the annual meeting will have the effect of a vote against the proposals relating to the transactions. Abstentions with respect to the proposals to elect directors and to adopt the Expedia, Inc. 2001 Stock Plan will not have the effect of counting for or against these proposals.

Shares represented by "broker non-votes," which are shares held by brokers or nominees that are represented at a meeting but with respect to which the broker or nominee is not empowered to vote on a particular proposal, will also be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum at the annual meeting but will not be voted. Those shares will be counted for purposes of determining the combined voting power of Expedia common stock outstanding on the record date and, accordingly, will have the same effect as a vote cast against each of the proposals relating to the transactions.

A shareholder may revoke its proxy at any time prior to its use by delivering to the Secretary of Expedia a signed notice of revocation or a later-dated, signed proxy or by attending the annual meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the annual meeting will not in itself constitute the revocation of a proxy.

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be paid by Expedia. In addition to solicitation by mail, officers and regular employees of Expedia may solicit proxies in person or by mail, telephone, facsimile or other means of electronic transmission. The extent as to which this is necessary depends entirely upon how promptly proxy cards are returned. Arrangements will be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to send the proxy materials to beneficial owners and Expedia will, upon request, reimburse such brokerage houses and custodians for their reasonable expenses in so doing. Shareholders are urged to send in their proxies without delay.

SHAREHOLDERS THAT DESIRE TO ELECT TO EXCHANGE THEIR SHARES OF EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK FOR EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK IN THE RECAPITALIZATION, AND AS A RESULT, RECEIVE USA SECURITIES IN THE MERGER, MUST, PRIOR TO THE ELECTION DEADLINE, SEND IN THEIR STOCK CERTIFICATES COVERED BY THE ELECTION AND/OR ANY OTHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION TOGETHER WITH THE ELECTION FORM AND LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL ENCLOSED WITH THIS DOCUMENT.

SHAREHOLDERS SHOULD NOT SEND IN ANY STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH THEIR PROXY CARDS.

GENERAL

This joint prospectus/proxy and information statement, other than "Proposal No. 4--Election of Expedia Directors" and "Proposal No. 5--Adoption of Expedia 2001 Stock Plan" is furnished to USA stockholders in connection with action taken by the written consent of USA stockholders approving the issuance of USA securities in the transactions, which transactions are described in further detail under Proposal Nos. 1, 2 and 3 in this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement.

Under Nasdaq rules, because USA may issue in excess of 20% of its current outstanding common stock in the transactions, before we can complete the transactions, USA's stockholders must approve the issuance of the USA securities in the merger. Pursuant to a stockholders agreement, each of Universal Studios, Inc., a subsidiary of Vivendi Universal S.A., and Liberty Media Corporation has granted to Barry Diller an irrevocable proxy over all USA securities owned by Universal, Liberty and their affiliates for all matters except for a fundamental change, which requires the consent of each of Mr., Diller, Universal and Liberty. As to matters that constitute a fundamental change (which includes the merger), the proxies are only effective upon the receipt of the consent of Mr. Diller, Universal and Liberty, which consent USA has obtained. As a result, Mr. Diller, through shares owned by him as well as those owned by Liberty and Vivendi Universal, controls 71.5% of the combined voting power of USA's common stock and Class B common stock, which is sufficient for stockholder approval of the issuance of the USA securities in the merger. Mr. Diller has signed a written stockholder's consent approving the issuance of USA securities in the merger. As a result, no action is required on your part. APPROVAL OF THE ISSUANCE OF USA SECURITIES IN THE TRANSACTIONS HAS BEEN OBTAINED WITHOUT THE VOTE OF ANY OTHER USA STOCKHOLDER.

WE ARE NOT ASKING USA STOCKHOLDERS FOR A PROXY AND USA STOCKHOLDERS ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND USA A PROXY.

PROPOSAL NO. 1--APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

STRUCTURE OF THE TRANSACTIONS

Each of the Boards of Directors of USA, Expedia and Microsoft has approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions. The transactions will consist of the following steps:

RECAPITALIZATION

GENERAL. Immediately prior to the merger with Expedia, Expedia will:

- amend and restate its articles of incorporation in the form attached as Annex B to this document to, among other things, create a new class of common stock, Expedia Class B common stock, which is entitled to 15 votes per share, subject to limited exceptions. We describe the other changes to Expedia's articles of incorporation in further detail under "Proposal No. 2--Amendment and Restatement of Expedia's Articles of Incorporation;" and
- issue up to 37,500,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock to Expedia shareholders who elect to exchange, on a share-for-share basis, their shares of Expedia common stock for shares of Expedia Class B common stock, subject to proportional allocation in the event of oversubscription. Shares of Expedia Class B common stock will automatically be converted in the merger into the right to receive the package of USA securities.

ELECTION PROCEDURES. Accompanying this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement is an election form and letter of transmittal, which includes instructions on how to elect to exchange all or a portion of your shares of Expedia common stock for shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization. All elections must be validly made on the election form and letter of transmittal. Shareholders and warrant holders may submit multiple election forms and letters of transmittal.

Any election form and letter of transmittal submitted by a dissenting shareholder will be invalid and will be rejected. Expedia shareholders who exercise dissenters' rights will be treated as non-electing shareholders. If any dissenting shareholder ceases to be a dissenting shareholder but does not submit a valid election form and letter of transmittal prior to the election deadline, then each share of Expedia common stock held by that dissenting shareholder will remain outstanding without any interest or other value due other than the right to receive new Expedia warrants in the merger.

If you hold Expedia common stock in "street name" through a broker or other nominee, your broker or other nominee must make an election on your behalf. You will receive separate instructions from your broker or other nominee instructing you on how to instruct your broker or other nominee to fill out the election form and letter of transmittal. You will need to provide these instructions to your broker sufficiently in advance of the deadline for making an election in the recapitalization to permit your broker to deliver the election form and letter of transmittal together with your Expedia stock certificates prior to the deadline.

You may change or revoke your election by submitting a properly completed and signed election form and letter of transmittal (together with Expedia common stock certificates, as required) to the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. If your shares are held in "street name," you must follow the directions provided by your broker to change your election. If, however, you are an Expedia warrant holder, you cannot revoke your exercise of the warrant. You can only revoke your election to exchange the shares of Expedia common stock that you receive upon exercise of your warrant for shares of Expedia Class B common stock.

IF YOU HOLD EXPEDIA SHARES: For an election to receive Expedia Class B common stock in exchange for your shares of Expedia common stock in the recapitalization to be validly made, the exchange agent must have received a valid, properly completed and executed form of election by the election deadline. An election will be validly made only if the form of election is properly completed and executed by the shareholder in accordance with the instructions contained in that form (with the signature or signatures guaranteed to the extent required by the form of election) and is accompanied by the stock certificate or certificates representing the Expedia common stock owned by that shareholder for which the shareholder is electing to receive shares of Expedia Class B common stock, duly endorsed in blank or in another form acceptable to USA. If stock certificates are not available when the form of election is sent to the exchange agent, the shareholder may provide a Guarantee of Delivery from a member of a national securities exchange, a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or a commercial bank or trust company located in the United States. A Guarantee of Delivery in effect guarantees to USA that those stock certificates will be delivered to the exchange agent at a later date.

IF YOU HOLD OUTSTANDING EXPEDIA WARRANTS: If you hold outstanding Expedia warrants, you have the right to elect to exchange some or all of your warrants for Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization. In order for your election to be effective, you must exercise your warrants prior to the recapitalization. In addition, you must complete and submit the enclosed election form and letter of transmittal, together with a copy of your warrant, payment of your exercise price and an executed notice to exercise your warrant to the exchange agent by the election deadline of 5:00 p.m., eastern time, on December 17, 2001, the date of the Expedia annual meeting. The exercise of your warrants is irrevocable.

IF YOU HOLD EXPEDIA OPTIONS: THE FOLLOWING ONLY APPLIES TO EXPEDIA STOCK OPTIONS THAT WERE GRANTED ON OR PRIOR TO AUGUST 2, 2001. IF YOU WERE GRANTED OPTIONS AFTER THIS DATE, YOUR OPTIONS WILL NOT BE AFFECTED BY THE TRANSACTIONS AND UPON EXERCISE YOU WILL ONLY BE ISSUED EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK.

If your options are vested and you exercise prior to the date on which new Expedia warrants will be distributed to Expedia optionholders, which date will be approximately 10 days prior to the date of the Expedia annual meeting (we refer to this date in this document as the "DISTRIBUTION DATE"), you have the right to elect to exchange some or all the Expedia shares issued upon exercise for Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization by following the election procedure for shareholders described in this document. If you elect not to exchange your shares in the recapitalization, you will retain your shares of Expedia common stock and if you continue to hold these shares as of the effective time, you will receive in the merger 0.1920 Expedia warrants for each share.

If you continue to hold Expedia stock options, vested or unvested, on the distribution date, Expedia will distribute to you 0.1920 Expedia warrants for each option you hold on the distribution date, provided that if you subsequently exercise your underlying stock options after the distribution and at or prior to the effective time of the merger, you will forfeit your right to the Expedia warrants issued with respect to such options and such warrants will automatically be canceled pursuant to their terms. The Expedia warrants to be distributed to optionholders on the distribution date have terms identical to the terms of the Expedia warrants being distributed in the merger to holders of Expedia common stock, except that the warrants being distributed to Expedia optionholders are subject to the same vesting schedule as the options in respect of which the warrants are being issued and will be non-transferable and non-exercisable for a period of 90 days following the date of their issue.

THE ELECTION DEADLINE IS 5:00 P.M., EASTERN TIME, ON DECEMBER 17, 2001, THE DATE OF THE EXPEDIA ANNUAL MEETING.

USA has the right to make reasonable determinations and to establish reasonable procedures in guiding the exchange agent in its determination as to the validity of forms of election. None of Expedia, USA or the exchange agent is under any obligation to notify any Expedia shareholder of any defect in a form of election. If you have questions related to the form of election and letter of transmittal, or if you require additional copies of the form of election and letter of transmittal, please contact the proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., at (800) 322-2885.

THE FORM OF ELECTION AND LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL IS INCLUDED WITH THIS JOINT PROSPECTUS/PROXY AND INFORMATION STATEMENT. YOU SHOULD COMPLETE IT IN ACCORDANCE WITH ITS INSTRUCTIONS AND RETURN IT TO THE EXCHANGE AGENT PRIOR TO THE ELECTION DEADLINE. IN ORDER FOR AN ELECTION AND/OR OTHER DOCUMENTATION FORM AND LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL TO BE EFFECTIVE, YOU MUST ALSO INCLUDE YOUR STOCK CERTIFICATES (AND/OR WARRANTS) AS SET FORTH IN THE FORM OF ELECTION. IF YOU DO NOT PROPERLY COMPLETE AND RETURN TO THE EXCHANGE AGENT A FORM OF ELECTION PRIOR TO THE ELECTION DEADLINE, YOUR SHARES OF EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK WILL BE TREATED AS THOUGH NO ELECTION TO RECEIVE EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK IN RESPECT TO THOSE SHARES HAD BEEN MADE AND AS A RESULT THOSE SHARES WILL REMAIN OUTSTANDING FOLLOWING THE MERGER.

If you did not receive a copy of the election form and letter of transmittal because you acquired Expedia shares after the record date, you should call the proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., at (800) 322-2885 and a copy of each will be mailed to you free of charge.

MERGER

Following the recapitalization of Expedia, Taipei will merge with and into Expedia, with Expedia surviving as a public company controlled by USA. In the merger:

- Each share of Expedia common stock that is owned by Expedia as treasury stock, if any, and all shares of Expedia common stock that are owned by USA and any of its wholly owned subsidiaries immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and no consideration will be delivered for the cancellation.
- Each share of Expedia common stock, other than shares held by dissenting shareholders and shares cancelled as specified above, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will remain outstanding and will entitle its holder to receive 0.1920 of a new Expedia warrant having the terms described under "Description of Expedia Capital Stock--New Expedia Warrants."
- Each share of Expedia Class B common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger shall be converted into the right to receive a combination of:
  - (a) a number of shares of USA common stock equal to the quotient, rounded to the nearest ten thousandth (or if there is no nearest ten thousandth, the next higher thousandth) obtained by dividing (1) (A) $35.00 less (B) the product of the number of shares of USA preferred stock received in respect to each share of Expedia Class B common stock calculated in accordance with (b) below and 50, by (2) the average of the daily closing prices (as of 4:00 p.m., eastern time) per share of USA common stock, as reported on Nasdaq for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the second trading day prior to the date of the election deadline; PROVIDED that for purposes of this calculation, the average closing price of USA common stock calculated above shall not be greater than $31.00 or less than $23.00;
  - (b) a number of shares of USA preferred stock equal to the quotient, rounded to the nearest ten thousandth (or if there is no nearest ten thousandth, the next higher thousandth) obtained by dividing 13,125,000 by the number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock exchanged in the merger; and
  - (c) a number of warrants to purchase USA common stock equal to the exchange rate corresponding to the USA share price set forth on Annex F to this document.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

In the event that the parties to the merger agreement reasonably determine that the requirements of Section 368(a)(2)(E)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code would not be satisfied, then the exchange ratio relating to the USA warrants determined in accordance with (c) above will be reduced and the number of shares of USA common stock to be received in the merger will be adjusted in accordance with the formula set forth in the merger agreement. Because the replacement of warrants with common stock will be pursuant to a valuation mechanism that includes certain fixed variables, it is possible that the value of the USA common stock received under this adjustment will be greater than or less than the value of the warrants being replaced.

- The outstanding shares of Taipei, which are all held by USA, will be converted into the right to receive an aggregate number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock equal to the number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock issued in the recapitalization. After the merger, no Expedia shareholder other than USA will hold Expedia Class B common stock.

- No fractional shares will be issued in the merger, and cash equal to the value of any fraction of a share or warrant will be paid in its place.

The merger will become effective when the articles of merger are filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Washington or at such other time may be specified in the articles of merger. We expect the merger to occur in the fourth quarter of 2001, however, we cannot predict the exact timing.

CONTRIBUTION BY USA OF TRAVEL AND MEDIA-RELATED ASSETS

Immediately following the effective time of the merger, USA will contribute or cause to be contributed to Expedia the following assets, each of which is described in further detail below:

- TRAVEL CHANNEL OPTION--a two-year option to purchase one third of USA's initial equity interest in a travel channel being developed by USA. The exercise price of the travel channel option will equal one-third of USA's costs, plus interest, up to the date of exercise; and
- USA MEDIA, LLC--all of the outstanding equity of USA Media, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of USA, which has as its sole asset the right to advertising, marketing and promotion time, valued at $15 million for each of the next five years, on the various media outlets owned by USA or its controlled subsidiaries.

Within six months of completing the merger, in lieu of a two-year option to acquire all of the outstanding equity of National Leisure Group, Inc., unless USA and Expedia agree otherwise, USA will also contribute to Expedia $20 million, plus interest from the date the merger is completed, as described in further detail below.

TRAVEL CHANNEL OPTION. This option is a two-year option commencing upon completion of the merger to acquire one-third of the original equity and economic interest in a travel channel currently under development by USA. The exercise price for this option will be reimbursement of one-third of USA's costs to date of exercise, including cost plus attributable overhead that USA's subsidiaries incur, plus interest at USA's cost of funds not to exceed the prime rate plus 1%.

The terms of this option are attached as an exhibit to the registration statements of USA and Expedia of which this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement is a part.

USA MEDIA, LLC. USA Media is a direct and indirect wholly owned subsidiary of USA that has as its only asset the right to receive, at no cost to USA Media, $15 million in advertising, marketing and promotion, which we refer to in this document as "media value," at fair market value rates then in effect, for each of the five consecutive years commencing no later than July 15, 2002. The terms of USA Media's right to media value are attached as exhibit to the registration statements of USA and Expedia of which this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement is a part.

USA will deliver the media value in the United States or internationally through, at the sole discretion of USA Media, a combination of various media outlets owned by USA or its controlled subsidiaries. These media outlets include USA's basic cable networks, USA's syndicated television shows, USA and its subsidiaries' websites and/or other media properties of USA and its affiliates that are made available to comparable purchasers of media value from USA and its subsidiaries. For purposes of negotiation, placement and scheduling of advertising, USA Media will be treated equivalently to cash-paying comparable purchasers of advertising. The right to media value owned by USA Media does not accrue from year to year, cannot be accelerated from a future year and is forfeited to the extent that USA Media does not use it in any given year. USA Media's right to media value can only be used to promote the business of USA Media and its affiliates and, subject to limited exceptions, their respective partners, business affiliates and suppliers.

NLG OPTION OR $20 MILLION, PLUS INTEREST. On July 14, 2001, USA entered into an acquisition agreement to acquire 100% of the equity of National Leisure Group. On October 29, 2001, USA and National Leisure Group agreed to terminate the acquisition agreement and USA agreed to acquire a preferred interest in National Leisure Group. Under the terms of the merger agreement with Expedia, if USA did not acquire 100% of the equity of National Leisure Group within six months of completing the transactions, USA would be required to contribute to Expedia $20,000,000 plus interest. As a result of the termination of the acquisition agreement with National Leisure Group, unless USA and Expedia agree otherwise, no later than six months following the merger USA will contribute to Expedia $20,000,000, plus interest accrued at a rate of 7% per year from the effective date of the merger.

BACKGROUND

Expedia became a public company in November 1999 when Microsoft, Expedia's sole shareholder at that time, sold approximately 20% of its interest in Expedia in an initial public offering of the company's common stock. Microsoft's interest has since been diluted as a result of option exercises, subsequent share offerings and shares issued in connection with acquisitions. Since July 2000, Expedia and Microsoft had discussed the possibility of Microsoft further reducing its holdings in Expedia.

From time to time beginning in February 2001, management of USA and Expedia spoke informally regarding their companies and discussed, at a general level, whether there was any interest in a possible strategic transaction involving Expedia and USA. On April 27, 2001, members of Expedia's senior management met in Los Angeles, California with members of USA's senior management to generally explore potential merits of a strategic combination involving the two companies. Expedia and USA also executed a confidentiality agreement.

Following the meeting in Los Angeles, senior management of Expedia and USA had a series of telephone conversations to discuss issues related to how a possible transaction might be structured. Expedia management also contacted Microsoft and Expedia's board of directors, as well as Expedia's financial and legal advisors, to inform them of the preliminary discussions that USA and Expedia were having. From May 4, 2001 to June 6, 2001, Expedia's management had discussions with its advisors and with Microsoft to review possible transaction structures.

In early June 2001, Expedia's Chairman of the Board and its management had further talks with USA's management regarding a potential transaction and possible transaction structures. These discussions focused on general structural issues, including whether a tax-free transaction could be achieved, as well as the merits of a business combination. Some of these discussions included Microsoft and its advisors.

In mid-June 2001, the parties commenced due diligence. Expedia management also updated its board of directors on developments in the discussions.

The parties continued to hold discussions regarding the terms and structure of a proposed transaction periodically throughout the rest of June 2001 and in early July 2001. During that period, on July 6, 2001, Expedia management distributed an update to members of the board of directors of Expedia outlining the points of discussion and noting the outstanding issues that management was discussing with USA and Microsoft. Later that day, USA's outside legal counsel delivered an initial draft of the merger agreement.

On July 11, 2001, the Expedia board of directors met to consider the terms of the proposed transaction with USA. Expedia's management reported on the negotiations with USA and Microsoft, as well as the nature of Expedia's operations as a majority-owned subsidiary of USA. The board of directors then listened to presentations from Expedia's outside legal counsel and financial advisor regarding the financial and legal elements of the transaction. During this meeting, the board of directors directed management to seek from USA additional terms and protections before it would approve the proposed transaction. Following the board of directors meeting, Expedia's management conveyed this message to USA. In response, USA made a counteroffer that evening that aimed to address the concerns of Expedia's board of directors.

On July 13, 2001, USA's board of directors held a special meeting to consider the proposed transactions. At the meeting, USA's senior management and financial and legal advisors presented to the board of directors the background of the proposed transactions, the outline of the terms and conditions of the proposed transaction, a strategic and financial analysis of the proposed transactions and a summary of the legal issues relating to the proposed transactions. Following discussion by the board of directors, USA's board of directors unanimously approved the proposed transactions, including the proposed merger agreement and related agreements, subject to finalization by USA's management and its legal advisors of the necessary documentation.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

On July 15, 2001, Expedia's board of directors, other than one director, who was excused, considered USA's most recent proposal and all other elements of the transaction as it had developed since their last meeting. Expedia's financial advisor reviewed with the board of directors the financial terms of the transaction and rendered to the Expedia board of directors its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that as of that date, the consideration to be received by holders of shares of Expedia common stock (other than Microsoft) pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. Expedia's outside legal counsel then reviewed with the board of directors the legal elements of the transaction and again reviewed the board of directors' fiduciary duties in the context of the transaction. The directors present then unanimously resolved to approve the transaction and recommend it to Expedia shareholders.

From July 6 to July 15, 2001, the parties negotiated and finalized the terms of the transaction agreements, including the merger agreement. Upon completion of these negotiations, the parties executed the merger agreement and certain ancillary documents, copies of which have been filed as exhibits to this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement, and USA and Expedia issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement on July 16, 2001.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXPEDIA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

At a meeting held on July 15, 2001, the board of directors of Expedia, with one director excused, unanimously:

- determined that the transactions are consistent with, and in furtherance of, the long-term business strategy of Expedia and are fair to, and in the best interests of, Expedia and its shareholders;
- directed that each of the proposals relating to the transactions be submitted for consideration by the Expedia shareholders; and
- recommended that the Expedia shareholders vote FOR approval and adoption of each of the proposals relating to the transactions.

However, for the reasons described below, the Expedia board of directors has not taken a position as to whether Expedia shareholders should elect to exchange their shares of Expedia common stock for shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, and as a result receive USA securities in the merger, or remain shareholders of Expedia and, in addition, receive new Expedia warrants in the merger.

INFORMATION AND FACTORS CONSIDERED BY THE EXPEDIA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

RECOMMENDATION OF THE PROPOSALS

In reaching its decision to recommend to shareholders the adoption and approval of each of the proposals relating to the transactions, the Expedia board of directors consulted with Expedia's management, as well as its legal counsel and its financial advisor, and carefully considered the following material factors:

- (1) the financial terms and structure of the transactions, which permit each holder of Expedia common stock to choose among:
  - remaining as a shareholder of Expedia and continuing to participate in the growth of Expedia's business while at the same time receiving additional equity in Expedia in the form of new Expedia warrants;
  - becoming a stockholder of USA, a more diversified company in the media industry with a larger public float, by receiving the package of USA securities, which includes USA common stock, a security with a higher trading volume and greater liquidity than Expedia common stock, but which also includes new issues of preferred stock and warrants, which may have significantly less trading volume and liquidity than Expedia common stock; and
  - allocating Expedia shares in the recapitalization to be able to take advantage of both of the above options;
- (2) the presentation of Morgan Stanley and the opinion of Morgan Stanley, which opinion was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of July 15, 2001, and subject to the qualifications and limitations set forth in the written opinion, the consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Expedia common stock (other than Microsoft) pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. A copy of Morgan Stanley's written opinion is attached as Annex D to this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement;
- (3) the board of directors' knowledge of Expedia and the industry in which it competes and its belief that USA's contributions to Expedia in the transactions of media advertising and promotion time, the option to purchase National Leisure Group and the option to purchase a one-third interest in USA's proposed travel channel are beneficial to the long-term prospects of Expedia and its ability to develop new lines of business;
- (4) USA's historical financial and operating condition, the trading history of the USA common stock and the performance of certain USA-controlled public subsidiaries, of which Expedia would become one as a result of the transactions, as well as the strong business and investment community reputation of Barry Diller, the chairman and chief executive officer of USA;
- (5) the fact that Expedia would join the USA umbrella of entertainment, television, interactive media, travel and other businesses, enabling Expedia to potentially realize greater strategic business relationships with, and benefit from the resources of, the USA group of companies;
- (6) the fact that USA agreed in the merger agreement to certain protections regarding the independence of Expedia with respect to certain important decisions of Expedia. These provisions include USA's agreement that:
  - (a) Expedia or its subsidiaries will not be restricted from engaging in or owning an interest in any business which competes with USA or its affiliates;
  - (b) for so long as USA owns 50.1% of the aggregate voting power of Expedia, Expedia will not enter into any material contract, arrangement or transaction with USA or its affiliates without the prior approval of a majority of Expedia's independent directors; (c) there will be meaningful consultation between USA and Expedia's chief executive officer in the selection of Expedia's independent directors; and (d) Expedia's independent directors will have the right, on behalf of Expedia, to enforce the above provisions and any waiver or amendment of the above provisions requires the approval of the majority of Expedia's independent directors;

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

- (7) the fact that Microsoft had indicated to the Expedia board of directors its desire to transfer its controlling interest in Expedia for strategic purposes and to achieve greater liquidity in its investment and the fact that Microsoft could pursue a divestiture with or without the support of the Expedia board of directors and the Expedia board of directors' belief that the transactions would permit Microsoft to divest its controlling interest with minimal impact on Expedia's public shareholders and in a manner that the Expedia board of directors believes maximizes Expedia's prospects for long-term growth while at the same time affording shareholders choices and benefits which may not have been available in alternative divestiture strategies that Microsoft could have elected to pursue;
- (8) the terms of the voting and election agreement between Microsoft and USA and the fact that Microsoft has irrevocably committed to approve the transactions and each of the proposals, coupled with Microsoft's controlling ownership interest which assures the approval of the transactions and each of the proposals;
- (9) consistent with the terms of the tag-along rights set forth in the shareholder agreement, dated October 1, 1999, between Expedia and Microsoft, the fact that the public shareholders of Expedia have the choice to receive the same consideration to be received by Microsoft in the transactions. See "Proposal No. 3--Termination of the Shareholder Agreement" for a more detailed description of these tag-along rights;
- (10) Expedia's continued existence as a public company, which will permit it to continue granting Expedia stock options to its employees thereby enabling Expedia to continue to attract and retain qualified employees and enabling these employees to continue participating in the earnings and growth of Expedia's business;
- (11) the fact that although the voting power of Expedia's public shareholders will be diluted pursuant to the transactions, the Expedia public shareholders never exercised voting control due to Microsoft's majority ownership position;
- (12) the possibility that an active public trading market for the USA warrants, the USA preferred stock and the new Expedia warrants may not develop or be sustained following the transactions and that the prices for such securities in any such market may trade at a discount from the initial or anticipated valuations for such securities;
- (13) the ability to complete the merger as a reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes in which Expedia shareholders generally will not recognize any gain or loss, except for any gain or loss recognized in connection with cash received for fractional shares of USA common stock, USA preferred stock, USA warrants or new Expedia warrants;
- (14) the board of directors' belief, after considering the advice of counsel, that the parties should be able to satisfy all conditions to the completion of the transactions, including the receipt of the necessary regulatory approvals in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, while recognizing the possibility that regulators might not grant approval or may impose conditions on the grant of their approval;

- (15) the terms of the merger agreement regarding third party proposals, considered together with the terms and provisions of the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement, including provisions in the merger agreement that provide (a) that the Expedia board of directors may not solicit, furnish information to a party making, or enter into discussions regarding, a third party proposal without the prior consent of USA, (b) that the Expedia board of directors must use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from the Expedia shareholders a vote in favor of the transactions and each of the proposals relating to the transactions and must recommend to the Expedia shareholders that they so vote, (c) that the Expedia board of directors shall not be required to continue to recommend the transactions and the proposals relating to the transactions only in specific limited circumstances and (d) that Expedia cannot terminate the merger agreement in order to enter into a transaction with a third party, and the potential effect of such provisions on possible efforts by other parties to acquire or otherwise combine with Expedia. In evaluating these terms of the merger agreement, the Expedia board of directors also considered the terms of the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement described in paragraph (8) above and USA's position that it was not prepared to consider a transaction that did not include the terms in paragraph (8) and in this paragraph (15); and

- (16) the interests that certain executive officers and directors of Expedia have with respect to the transactions in addition to their interests as shareholders of Expedia generally. See "--Other Interests of Officers and Directors in the Transactions--Expedia."

The Expedia board of directors did not find it necessary to, and did not quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to, the foregoing factors or determine that any factor was of particular importance. Rather, the Expedia board of directors views its recommendation as being based on the totality of the information presented to, and considered by, it. The Expedia board of directors considered all these factors and determined that these factors, as a whole, supported the conclusions and recommendations described above. In reaching this determination, the factors described above generally figured positively, as advantages or opportunities, with the exception of the factors described in clauses (8) and (15) above, which figured both positively and negatively, and factors described in clauses (11), (12) and (16) above, which the Expedia board of directors considered to be neutral.

In considering the recommendation of the Expedia board of directors to approve and adopt the transactions and each of the proposals relating to the transactions, you should be aware that certain officers and directors of Expedia have interests in the proposed transactions that are different from and in addition to the interests of Expedia shareholders generally. The Expedia board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in approving the proposals. See "---Other Interests of Officers and Directors in the Transactions."

NO RECOMMENDATION ON THE ELECTION

For the reasons described below, the Expedia board of directors has not taken a position as to whether Expedia shareholders should elect to exchange their shares of Expedia common stock for shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, and as a result receive USA securities in the merger, or retain their Expedia common shares and therefore remain as shareholders of Expedia and also receive new Expedia warrants in the merger:

- (1) the transactions were specifically structured to provide Expedia shareholders with a choice as to whether to remain shareholders of Expedia, become shareholders of USA or split their current investment in some proportion between Expedia securities and USA securities;
- (2) the relative values of (x) the package of USA securities to be received in the merger in exchange for a share of Expedia Class B common stock and (y) a share of Expedia common stock, together with 0.1920 of a new Expedia warrant to be issued to each Expedia shareholder who does not elect to exchange his shares, will vary from time to time based, in part, on the trading values of USA common stock and Expedia common stock. As a result, the relative values of the USA securities and the Expedia securities at the time that the Expedia board of directors approved the transactions will likely differ from the relative values on the date of the mailing of this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement, the election deadline and the date we complete the transactions. Accordingly, any recommendation by the Expedia board of directors with respect to the election at the time it approved the transactions would have been based on information which could quickly become dated and could be confusing or misleading to Expedia shareholders; and
- (3) Expedia shareholders are best suited to determine whether continuing as Expedia shareholders under USA's control or making an investment in USA is the appropriate course of action, after taking into account, among other things, their views of the two companies and the financial and operating condition and growth prospects of the two companies, as well as their individual investment portfolios.

You should consult your financial advisor in connection with making the decision to determine the most appropriate election for you with respect to the recapitalization.

MICROSOFT'S ELECTION NOT A RECOMMENDATION

The terms of the USA securities reflect in part negotiations between Microsoft and USA to provide Microsoft with securities that would be more liquid than its controlling interest in Expedia. Microsoft has agreed to make an election to convert all of its interest into Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization and receive the package of USA securities in the merger, subject to proration. Because of its controlling interest in Expedia, the relatively large number of Expedia shares owned by Microsoft and the relatively small public market for Expedia common stock, Microsoft is subject to both regulatory and economic restrictions on its disposition of Expedia common stock that do not apply to other shareholders of Expedia. Microsoft's election should not be viewed as a recommendation of the suitability of the USA securities for any other person or as a recommendation concerning the investment merits of the USA securities in comparison to Expedia securities. Microsoft specifically disclaims any such recommendations.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

INFORMATION AND FACTORS CONSIDERED BY THE USA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

At a meeting held on July 13, 2001, the board of directors of USA unanimously determined that the transactions are fair to and in the best interests of USA and its stockholders. In reaching its decision to approve the transactions, including the issuance of USA securities in the merger, the USA board consulted with USA's management, as well as its legal counsel and its financial advisor, and carefully considered the following material factors:

- (1) the financial terms and structure of the transactions, including the terms of each of the USA securities to be issued in the transactions and the expectation that the transactions will be accretive to USA;
- (2) the USA board's view that the transactions will strengthen USA's e-commerce platform and enable USA to continue to build its interactive and transactional assets;
- (3) the board of directors' knowledge of Expedia and USA and its subsidiaries and the industries in which they compete;
- (4) USA's and Expedia's historical financial and operating conditions as well as the trading history of USA common stock and Expedia common stock;
- (5) the terms of the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement, pursuant to which Microsoft has granted to USA an irrevocable proxy to vote Microsoft's shares in favor of the proposals related to the transactions, which vote is sufficient to assure Expedia shareholder approval of the transactions;
- (6) the board of directors' belief, after considering the advice of counsel, that the parties should be able to satisfy all conditions to completion of the transactions, including the receipt of the necessary regulatory approvals in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, while recognizing the possibility that regulators might not grant approval or impose conditions on the grant of their approval;
- (7) the likelihood that the transactions will be completed based on the terms of the merger agreement;

- (8) the possibility that an active public trading market for the USA warrants, the USA preferred stock and the new Expedia warrants may not develop;
- (9) the interests of certain executive officers and directors of USA have with respect to the transactions in addition to their interests as stockholders of USA generally. See "--Other Interests of Officers and Directors in the Transactions--USA"; and
- (10) the matters described under "Risk Factors."

The USA board of directors did not find it necessary to, and did not quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to, the foregoing factors or determine that any factor was of particular importance. Rather, the USA board of directors views its determination as being based on the totality of the information presented to, and considered by, it. The USA board of directors considered all these factors and determined that these factors, as a whole, supported the determination to approve the transactions, including the issuance of shares in the merger.

OPINION OF EXPEDIA'S FINANCIAL ADVISOR

Under an engagement letter dated June 20, 2001, Expedia retained Morgan Stanley to provide it with financial advisory services and a financial fairness opinion in connection with the transactions. Expedia's board of directors selected Morgan Stanley to act as its financial advisor based on Morgan Stanley's qualifications, expertise and reputation and its knowledge of the business and affairs of Expedia. At the meeting of the Expedia board of directors on July 15, 2001, Morgan Stanley rendered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that as of July 15, 2001, based upon and subject to the assumptions and considerations set forth in its opinion, the consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Expedia common stock (other than Microsoft) pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

THE FULL TEXT OF MORGAN STANLEY'S OPINION, DATED AS OF JULY 15, 2001, IS ATTACHED AS ANNEX D HERETO. THE OPINION SETS FORTH, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE ASSUMPTIONS MADE, PROCEDURES FOLLOWED, MATTERS CONSIDERED AND LIMITATIONS ON THE SCOPE OF THE REVIEW UNDERTAKEN BY MORGAN STANLEY IN RENDERING ITS OPINION. WE URGE YOU TO READ THE ENTIRE OPINION CAREFULLY. MORGAN STANLEY'S OPINION IS DIRECTED TO EXPEDIA'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND ADDRESSES ONLY THE FAIRNESS FROM A FINANCIAL POINT OF VIEW OF THE CONSIDERATION TO BE RECEIVED BY THE HOLDERS OF SHARES OF EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK (OTHER THAN MICROSOFT) PURSUANT TO THE TERMS OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT AS OF THE DATE OF THE OPINION. THE OPINION DOES NOT ADDRESS ANY OTHER ASPECTS OF THE TRANSACTIONS AND DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A RECOMMENDATION TO ANY HOLDER OF EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK AS TO HOW TO VOTE AT THE EXPEDIA ANNUAL MEETING OR WHETHER OR NOT TO ELECT TO RECEIVE SHARES OF EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK IN THE RECAPITALIZATION. THE SUMMARY OF THE OPINION OF MORGAN STANLEY SET FORTH IN THIS DOCUMENT IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY REFERENCE TO THE FULL TEXT OF THE OPINION.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Morgan Stanley, among other things:

- reviewed certain publicly available financial statements and other information of Expedia and USA;
- reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning Expedia prepared by the management of Expedia;
- reviewed certain financial projections prepared by the management of Expedia;

- discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of Expedia and USA with senior executives of Expedia and USA, respectively;
- reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for the Expedia common stock and the USA common stock;
- compared the financial performance of Expedia and USA and the prices and trading activity of the Expedia common stock and the USA common stock with that of certain other comparable publicly traded companies and their securities;
- participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of Expedia and USA and their financial and legal advisors;
- reviewed the draft merger agreement dated July 15, 2001 and certain related documents;
- reviewed the terms of the new Expedia warrants, USA preferred stock and USA warrants with the management of Expedia and the terms of other comparable securities;
- reviewed the terms of the recapitalization, including governance and voting rights associated with the recapitalization; and
- considered such other factors and performed such other analyses as Morgan Stanley deemed appropriate.

Morgan Stanley assumed and relied upon without independent verification the accuracy and completeness of the information reviewed by it for the purposes of its opinion. With respect to the financial projections, Morgan Stanley assumed that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance of Expedia. Morgan Stanley was not provided with financial projections for USA and instead relied upon publicly available projections of securities research analysts for USA. In addition, Morgan Stanley assumed that the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement, including, among other things, that the merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization and/or exchange, each pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code. Morgan Stanley did not make any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of Expedia or USA, nor was Morgan Stanley furnished with any such appraisals. Morgan Stanley's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, July 15, 2001.

In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley was not authorized to solicit, and did not solicit, interest from any party with respect to the acquisition of Expedia or any of its assets.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Morgan Stanley noted that under the terms of the merger agreement, holders of shares of the Expedia common stock (other than Microsoft) are not required to, but are entitled to, elect to exchange their shares of Expedia common stock for shares of Expedia Class B common stock. Morgan Stanley also noted that shareholders whose shares are not exchanged in the recapitalization will continue to hold their shares of Expedia common stock and would receive, in addition, new Expedia warrants. In connection with this election, Morgan Stanley performed various analyses of Expedia, USA, the merger consideration to be exchanged for the Expedia Class B common stock and the new Expedia warrants to be issued to the holders of Expedia common stock who retain their shares in the merger.

The following is a brief summary of the material financial analyses performed by Morgan Stanley in connection with its oral opinion and in the preparation of its written opinion. Some of these summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses used by Morgan Stanley, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses.

EXPEDIA

TRADING RANGE. Morgan Stanley reviewed the range of closing prices of the Expedia common stock for various periods ending on July 13, 2001, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the transactions. Morgan Stanley observed the following:

PERIOD ENDING JULY 13, 2001 -----	RANGE OF CLOSING PRICES -----
Since January 2, 2001.....	$ 9.25 - $48.70
60 Days.....	$ 20.91 - $48.70
30 Days.....	$ 29.73 - $48.70

Morgan Stanley also reviewed the stock price performance of Expedia common stock during the period of January 2, 2001 to July 13, 2001 and compared that performance with the performance of the following companies during that period.

COMPANY -----	STOCK PRICE PERFORMANCE SINCE JANUARY 2, 2001 -----
Expedia.....	+423%
Priceline.....	+519%
Travelocity.....	+172%
Hotel Reservations Network.....	+80%
Nasdaq Index.....	-9%

COMPARABLE COMPANY ANALYSIS. Morgan Stanley compared publicly available financial information of Expedia with publicly available information for selected companies comparable to the business of Expedia. For this analysis, Morgan Stanley examined estimates from securities research analysts and, where appropriate, made adjustments for comparability purposes. The following table

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

presents, as of July 13, 2001, the following statistics:

- the ratio of aggregate value, defined as market capitalization plus total debt less cash and cash equivalents to calendar year 2001 gross bookings;
- the ratio of aggregate value to calendar year 2001 revenue;
- the ratio of aggregate value to calendar year 2001 gross profit; and
- the ratio of price to calendar year 2002 estimated earnings per share, commonly known as EPS.

COMPANY	AGGREGATE VALUE TO
	CY2001 GROSS BOOKINGS	CY2001 REVENUE	CY2001 GROSS PROFIT	CY2002 P/E
Expedia.....	1.0x	5.7x	18.4x	69.0x
Priceline.....	1.6x	1.6x	10.0x	87.0x
Travelocity.....	0.4x	5.9x	9.7x	53.5x
Hotel Reservations Network.....	5.6x	5.6x	22.9x	44.4x
High.....	5.6x	5.9x	22.9x	87.0x
Median.....	1.3x	5.7x	14.2x	61.3x
Low.....	0.4x	1.6x	9.7x	44.4x

Morgan Stanley noted that the ratio of Expedia's aggregate value to calendar year 2001 gross bookings, revenue and gross profit and the ratio of the price of Expedia common stock to calendar year 2002 estimated earnings per share was, in each case, within the range of comparable ratios of the comparable companies.

No other company utilized in the comparable company analysis is identical to Expedia. In evaluating the comparable companies, Morgan Stanley made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Expedia, such as the impact of competition on the businesses of Expedia and the industry in general, industry growth and the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition and prospects of Expedia or the industry or in the financial markets in general. Mathematical analysis, such as determining the average or median, is not in itself a meaningful method of using comparable company data.

SUM-OF-THE-PARTS ANALYSIS. Morgan Stanley performed a hypothetical "sum-of-the-parts" analysis of Expedia's merchant, agency and other business segments on a stand-alone basis using securities research analyst projections that were publicly available as of July 15, 2001. Based on a range of multiples of estimated calendar year 2001 gross bookings, revenue and gross profit for Expedia's merchant and agency and other business segments, which multiples were derived from the analysis of comparable companies, Morgan Stanley calculated the implied value per share of the Expedia common stock.

MERGER CONSIDERATION--USA COMMON STOCK

TRADING RANGE. Morgan Stanley reviewed the range of closing prices of the USA common stock for various periods ending on July 13, 2001, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the transactions. Morgan Stanley observed the following:

PERIOD ENDING JULY 13, 2001	RANGE OF CLOSING PRICES
Since January 2, 2001.....	$ 18.00 - $28.00
60 Days.....	$ 22.55 - $28.00
30 Days.....	$ 24.59 - $28.00

Morgan Stanley noted that the range of market prices of the USA common stock for the 30-day period ending July 13, 2001 was within the range of prices of the USA common stock implied by the USA common exchange ratio described in the merger agreement.

COMPARABLE COMPANY ANALYSIS. Morgan Stanley compared publicly available financial information of USA with publicly available information for selected companies with businesses comparable to the business of USA. For this analysis, Morgan Stanley examined estimates from securities research analysts, where appropriate. The following table presents, as of July 13, 2001, the following statistics:

- the ratio of aggregate value, defined as market capitalization plus total debt and minority interest less cash and cash equivalents to calendar year 2001 earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, commonly known as EBITDA; and
- the ratio of aggregate value to calendar year 2002 EBITDA.

Disney.....	12.7x	11.7x
High.....	46.2x	30.2x
Median.....	20.1x	15.6x
Low.....	12.7x	11.7x

Morgan Stanley noted that the ratio of USA's aggregate value to calendar year 2001 and 2002 EBITDA was, in each case, within the range of comparable ratios of the comparable companies.

No other company utilized in the comparable company analysis is identical to USA. In evaluating the comparable companies, Morgan Stanley made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of USA, such as the impact of competition on the businesses of USA and the industry in general, industry growth and the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition and prospects of USA or the industry or in the financial markets in general. Mathematical analysis, such as determining the average or median, is not in itself a meaningful method of using comparable company data.

MERGER CONSIDERATION--TOTAL CONSIDERATION

In addition to analyzing the USA common stock, Morgan Stanley also reviewed the terms of the USA preferred stock and the USA warrants to be exchanged for Expedia Class B common stock in the merger. Morgan Stanley also reviewed the terms of the new Expedia warrants to be issued to holders of the Expedia common stock in connection with the merger. Morgan Stanley analyzed the theoretical values implied by the Black-Scholes model using a range of volatility, risk-free rate and maturity assumptions for the USA preferred stock, USA warrants and new Expedia warrants to be received in the transactions. The table below summarizes the total consideration implied by the sum of the USA common stock, USA preferred stock and USA warrants to be exchanged for shares of the Expedia Class B common stock in the merger. The consideration to be exchanged for the Expedia Class B common stock is presented both on (X) a "Notional Value" basis assuming market value of $25.26 for the USA common stock as of July 13, 2001 and pursuant to the USA common exchange ratio as defined in the merger agreement and face value for the USA preferred stock and (Y) an "Estimated Value" basis assuming market value of $27.00 for the USA common stock and pursuant to the USA common exchange ratio as defined in the agreement and the Black-Scholes theoretical values for the USA preferred stock and the USA warrants assuming a range of assumptions made by Morgan Stanley. In each case, the theoretical values of the USA preferred stock, USA warrants and new Expedia warrants exclude any dilutive effects of such securities.

* As determined by Morgan Stanley's analysis

Shareholders of Expedia who do not receive shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization will continue to hold their shares of Expedia common stock, which had a market value equal to $48 45/64 per share on July 13, 2001. In addition, those shareholders will receive in the merger for each share of Expedia common stock 0.1920 of a new Expedia warrant with an estimated value per share, as determined by Morgan Stanley's analysis, to be between $3.39-$4.61.

The analyses performed on the USA common stock, USA preferred stock, USA warrants and new Expedia warrants are theoretical valuations based on a range of assumptions. No specific analysis is identical to the actual prices at which the USA common stock, USA preferred stock, USA warrants and new Expedia warrants may trade. There is currently no public market for the USA preferred stock, USA warrants and the new Expedia warrants. In evaluating the theoretical valuations, Morgan Stanley made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of USA and Expedia, such as the impact of the competition on the business of USA and Expedia and the industry in general, industry growth and the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition and prospects of USA and Expedia or the industry or in the financial markets in general.

In connection with the review of the transactions by Expedia's board of directors, Morgan Stanley performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor it considered. Morgan Stanley believes that selecting any portion of its analyses, without considering all analyses as a whole, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. In addition, Morgan Stanley may have given various analyses and factors more or less weight than other analyses and factors, and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be Morgan Stanley's view of the actual value of Expedia or USA. In performing its analyses, Morgan Stanley made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters. Many of these assumptions are beyond the control of Expedia or USA. Any estimates contained in Morgan Stanley's analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates.

Morgan Stanley conducted the analyses described above solely as part of its analysis of the fairness of the consideration to be received by holders of Expedia common stock (other than Microsoft) pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement from a financial point of view to those holders and in connection with the delivery of its opinion dated July 15, 2001 to Expedia's board of directors. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to address the prices at which the USA common stock, USA preferred stock, USA warrants, Expedia common stock or new Expedia warrants may trade at any time.

The consideration to be received by holders of Expedia common stock pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement was determined through arm's-length negotiations between Expedia, Microsoft and USA and was approved by Expedia's board of directors. Morgan Stanley provided advice to Expedia during these negotiations. Morgan Stanley did not, however, recommend any specific consideration to Expedia or its board of directors or that any specific consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the transactions.

In addition, Morgan Stanley's opinion and its presentation to Expedia's board of directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by Expedia's board of directors in deciding to approve the transactions. Consequently, the analyses described above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of Expedia's board of directors with respect to the consideration or of whether Expedia's board of directors would have been willing to agree to a different consideration.

Expedia's board of directors retained Morgan Stanley based upon Morgan Stanley's qualifications, experience and expertise. Morgan Stanley is an internationally recognized investment banking and advisory firm. Morgan Stanley, as part of its investment banking and financial advisory business, is continuously engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate, estate and other purposes. In the past, Morgan Stanley and its affiliates have provided financial advisory services for Expedia and Microsoft. In the ordinary course of Morgan Stanley's trading and brokerage activities, Morgan Stanley or its affiliates may at any time hold long or short positions, may trade or otherwise effect transactions, for its own account or for the account of customers in the senior loans, equity and other securities of Expedia, USA, Microsoft or any other parties involved in the transactions.

Under the engagement letter, Morgan Stanley provided to Expedia financial advisory services and a financial fairness opinion in connection with the transactions, and, in connection with the provision by Morgan Stanley of such services to Expedia, Expedia agreed to pay Morgan Stanley a customary fee. Expedia has also agreed to reimburse Morgan Stanley for its expenses incurred in performing its services. In addition, Expedia has agreed to indemnify Morgan Stanley and its affiliates, their respective directors, officers, agents and employees and each person, if any, controlling Morgan Stanley or any of its affiliates against certain liabilities and expenses, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws, related to or arising out of Morgan Stanley's engagement.

OWNERSHIP OF EXPEDIA AFTER THE TRANSACTIONS

Immediately after giving effect to the transactions, USA will hold between 66% to 75% of the outstanding equity (depending on the number of shareholders who remain as shareholders of Expedia after the recapitalization) and between 90% and 94.9% of the outstanding voting power of Expedia, with the former holders of Expedia owning the remaining interests in Expedia. All percentages are based on Expedia shares outstanding as of October 15, 2001, but after giving effect to the transactions.

MANAGEMENT AND OPERATIONS OF EXPEDIA AFTER THE TRANSACTIONS

Following the transactions, USA will control Expedia, Mr. Diller will become Chairman of the Board of Expedia and Mr. Barton will continue in his role as President and Chief Executive Officer of Expedia. At the effective time of the merger and through the one-year anniversary of such time, the board of directors of Expedia will consist of 11 members, six of whom will be appointed by USA. The remaining five members will be Expedia's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer and three independent directors mutually agreed to by USA and Expedia. Messrs. Maffei and Hoag, both of whom currently are directors of Expedia, will constitute two of the three independent directors following the transactions. USA expects to select its designees, and USA and Expedia expect to select the remaining independent designee, shortly before the transactions are completed.

RELATIONSHIP WITH USA

Following the transactions, USA will have voting control of Expedia and will designate a majority of the Expedia directors. In addition, USA and Expedia have agreed that their relationship would be governed by the following principles, none of which can be amended or waived without the approval of a majority of Expedia's independent directors:

- USA or any of its subsidiaries, on the one hand, and Expedia or any of its subsidiaries, on the other hand, may engage in or own interests in businesses that compete with the other;
- as long as USA owns 50.1% of Expedia's total voting power, Expedia would not enter into or amend any material arrangements with USA or any of its affiliates without the approval of a majority of Expedia's independent directors; and
- there will be meaningful consultation between USA and Expedia's Chief

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Executive Officer in the selection of Expedia's independent directors.

OTHER INTERESTS OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS IN THE TRANSACTIONS

EXPEDIA

In considering the recommendation of the Expedia board of directors with regard to the proposals relating to the transactions, you should be aware that, as described below, members of the management and board of directors of Expedia may have interests in the transactions that are different from, or in addition to, your interests, and that may create potential conflicts of interest. Richard N. Barton, the president and chief executive officer of Expedia, is a member of the seven-person Expedia board of directors that approved the transactions.

CONTINUING BOARD POSITIONS. As mentioned above in "--Expedia after the Merger--Management and Operations of Expedia after the Transactions," through the first anniversary of the effective time of the merger, the Expedia board of directors will consist of 11 members: Mr. Barton, Mr. Stanger, six directors appointed by USA, and three additional independent directors mutually agreed to by USA and Expedia, two of which will be Messrs. Maffei and Hoag, who are currently directors of Expedia. USA generally expects to fill a majority of the Expedia director positions with designees of USA.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT TERM SHEET WITH MR. BARTON. On July 15, 2001, Expedia entered into a binding term sheet with Mr. Barton, setting forth the material terms of his employment pursuant to an employment agreement that will be entered into prior to the effective time and supercede his current employment agreement. The agreement will be effective on the effective date of the merger and have a three-year term, and six months prior to the end of the term, Expedia and Mr. Barton will enter into good-faith negotiations to extend the employment term. Pursuant to the term sheet, Mr. Barton will remain as chief executive officer of Expedia and will be a member of the board of directors of Expedia. If the transactions are terminated, the term sheet will be of no further force or effect.

COMPENSATION. Mr. Barton will receive an annual base salary of $266,000 and will be eligible to receive an annual bonus of 200% of his salary, payable 50% in cash and 50% in Expedia stock options based on achieving agreed-upon Expedia budget goals. $133,000 of the cash portion of Mr. Barton's bonus is guaranteed.

Following the effective date, all of Mr. Barton's outstanding and unexercised Expedia stock options will remain outstanding in accordance with their terms. On the effective date, Mr. Barton will receive a grant of options to purchase 100,000 shares of USA's common stock at a fair market value exercise price. Mr. Barton will also receive on the effective date a grant of options to purchase 375,000 shares of Expedia's common stock at a fair market value exercise price. Such options will have a ten-year term and will vest in four equal annual installments commencing on the first anniversary of the effective date contingent upon Mr. Barton's continued employment with Expedia. Mr. Barton will also receive on the effective date an initial grant of 25,000 shares of Expedia restricted stock, vesting contingent upon Mr. Barton's continued employment with Expedia through the third anniversary of the effective date. Mr. Barton will be evaluated for future option grants in a manner consistent with similarly situated executives of USA and its subsidiaries.

Mr. Barton will be entitled to participate in welfare, health and life insurance and pension benefit and incentive programs adopted by Expedia on the same basis as similarly situated executives of Expedia, USA and their respective subsidiaries.

SEVERANCE. Upon a termination of Mr. Barton's employment by Expedia without "cause" or by Mr. Barton for "good reason" (as each term is defined in the term sheet), Expedia will continue to pay Mr. Barton his salary for the remainder of the term, as well as pay any earned, but unpaid, base salary and will pay Mr. Barton his deferred compensation balance. Expedia will also pay Mr. Barton the pro rata portion of his annual bonus following the end of the fiscal year of his termination of employment (based upon satisfaction of performance goal formulas). In addition, he will immediately vest in all options and such options will remain exercisable for one year following his date of termination of employment. Although Mr. Barton is not obligated to mitigate any severance amounts, such amounts will be reduced by any compensation earned by Mr. Barton in the event that Mr. Barton becomes employed during the remainder of the term.

CHANGE OF CONTROL. The term sheet provides that upon a change of control of Expedia, all of Mr. Barton's Expedia options (and the USA options granted on the effective date) and other Expedia equity compensation will vest immediately, and such options will remain exercisable for one year from the date of the change of control, notwithstanding any termination of employment.

RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS. The term sheet provides for Mr. Barton to be bound by a covenant not to compete with the business of Expedia (or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates) during the term of his employment and for two years after termination of employment for any reason; but if the non-compete period extends beyond the severance period (under circumstances in which Mr. Barton had been entitled to severance pay), Expedia will pay Mr. Barton $100,000 per year (pro rated on a monthly basis) to the extent it determines to continue the non-compete period beyond the severance period. In addition, Mr. Barton is bound by a two-year covenant not to solicit employees or customers of Expedia (or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates) and a confidentiality covenant. The term sheet also provides that Expedia will not restrict Mr. Barton's ability to elect to receive any shares of Expedia Class B common stock in connection with the recapitalization of Expedia.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT TERM SHEET WITH MR. STANGER. On July 15, 2001, Expedia entered into a binding term sheet with Mr. Stanger setting forth the material terms of his employment pursuant to an employment agreement that will be entered into prior to the effective date. The agreement will be effective on the effective date and have a three-year term. If the transactions are terminated, the term sheet will be of no further force or effect.

COMPENSATION. Mr. Stanger will receive an annual base salary of $175,000 and will be eligible to receive an annual bonus of 100% of his salary, payable 50% in cash and 50% in Expedia stock options based on achieving agreed-upon Expedia budget goals.

Mr. Stanger will receive on the effective date an initial grant of options to purchase 50,000 shares of Expedia common stock at a fair market value exercise price. Such options will have a ten-year term and will vest in four equal annual installments commencing on the first anniversary of the effective date contingent upon Mr. Stanger's continued employment with Expedia. Mr. Stanger will also receive on the effective date a grant of 10,000 shares of Expedia restricted stock, vesting contingent upon Mr. Stanger's continued employment with Expedia through the third anniversary of the effective date.

Mr. Stanger will be entitled to participate in welfare, health and life insurance and pension benefit and incentive programs adopted by Expedia on the same basis as similarly situated executives of Expedia, USA and their respective subsidiaries.

SEVERANCE. Upon a termination of Mr. Stanger's employment by Expedia without "cause" or by Mr. Stanger for "good reason" (as each term is defined in the term sheet), Expedia will continue to pay Mr. Stanger his salary for the remainder of the term, as well as pay his earned, but unpaid, base salary and will pay Mr. Stanger his deferred compensation balance. In addition, Mr. Stanger will automatically and immediately vest in all of his then-outstanding equity-based compensation awards granted on or prior to August 2, 2001, and such options shall remain exercisable for one year following his date of termination of employment. Mr. Stanger is obligated to use reasonable best efforts to mitigate any severance payable to him.

CHANGE OF CONTROL. The term sheet provides that upon a change of control of Expedia, all of Mr. Stanger's Expedia options and other Expedia equity compensation will vest immediately, and such options will remain exercisable for one year from the date of the change of control, notwithstanding any termination of employment.

RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS. Pursuant to the term sheet, Mr. Stanger will be bound by covenants not to compete with businesses of Expedia (or its subsidiaries or affiliates) and not to solicit employees or customers of Expedia (or its subsidiaries or affiliates) during the term of his employment and for two years after termination of employment for any reason. In addition, Mr. Stanger has agreed not to divulge or disclose any confidential information of Expedia or its affiliates.

OTHER EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS. Expedia and USA agreed in a binding term sheet that Mr. Barton may, in his discretion, cause Expedia to enter into employment agreements with Byron D. Bishop, Vice President, Transportation, Simon J. Breakwell, Senior Vice President and Managing Director, Expedia Europe, and Gregory E. Slyngstad, Senior Vice President, Destinations and Lodging, as well as 12 other members of senior management of Expedia and Travelscape.com, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Expedia, for a term of three years following the effective time.

Under the agreements, upon a termination of the employee's employment by Expedia without "cause" or a resignation by the employee with "good reason" (as each term is defined in the term sheet), the employee will be entitled to: (a) the acceleration and immediate vesting of all unvested Expedia options granted to him on or prior to August 2, 2001, and any attendant warrants granted in connection with the merger; and (b) receive the salary, target bonus and welfare benefits (and any other damages to which he would be entitled) for the remainder of the term, less an offset equal to any amounts earned during the term from other employment, with no obligation to mitigate.

As a condition to entering into the agreements, each of Messrs. Bishop, Breakwell and Slyngstad as well as the 12 other members of senior management will agree to a non-compete for a period of one year from the date of termination for any reason. The non-compete will apply to general online travel providers such as Travelocity, Orbitz and Priceline. Each of these individuals will also agree to a one-year non-solicitation covenant and standard confidentiality covenant.

The base salaries to be provided in the employment agreements will be the individuals' respective current salary, as it may be increased during Expedia's currently pending semi-annual performance review in a manner consistent with past practice, unless otherwise agreed by USA and Expedia, and subject to further review and increase at the discretion of Expedia's chief executive officer, any such increases to be approved by Expedia's compensation committee.

Each individual will be entitled to participate in stock option grants after August 2, 2001 (except that such options would not accelerate and vest upon termination without cause or resignation with good reason).

STOCK OPTIONS. All options held by Expedia's non-employee directors pursuant to the 1999 Stock Option Plan for Non-Employee Directors who are not continuing as directors after the effective time, or who cease to be directors for any reason within one year following the effective time of the merger, will become fully exercisable.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, each Expedia optionee, including members of management and the board of directors of Expedia, will be entitled to receive warrants to purchase 0.1920 shares of Expedia for each Expedia option share with respect to options issued on or prior to August 2, 2001 that remain outstanding as of the time of the warrant distribution (see "The Transaction Agreements--The Merger Agreement"). In the event the merger agreement is terminated following the warrant distribution to optionholders, Expedia has agreed that all holders of Expedia common stock (other than holders of Expedia options who have already become entitled to receive the new Expedia warrants) will receive 0.1920 new Expedia warrants for each share of Expedia common stock owned by such holder. Each new Expedia warrant issued with respect to a stock option will be subject to the same vesting schedule as the underlying stock option, which will be unchanged by the merger. Messrs. Barton, Stanger, Bishop, Breakwell and Slyngstad would, based on current option holdings, receive 268,929, 103,527, 196,284, 45,356 and 23,616 warrants, respectively, and the non-employee members of the Expedia board of directors as a group would receive 190,152 warrants.

On August 2, 2001, the compensation committee of the Expedia board of directors issued an aggregate of 1,509,145 options to acquire shares of Expedia common stock pursuant to the Expedia 1999 Stock Option Plan and the Expedia 1999 Amended and Restated Stock Option Plan for Non-Employee Directors, at exercise prices of $44.55 and $48.70.

As part of this grant, Expedia granted to Messrs. Barton, Stanger, Bishop, Breakwell and Slyngstad 125,000, 50,000, 25,000, 25,000 and 50,000 stock options, respectively. Mr. Maffei was granted 100,000 stock options and each of the remaining non-employee directors was granted 5,000 stock options on such date. As noted above, provided that these options are outstanding as of the warrant distribution date, these holders will be entitled to receive the warrants in respect of their options on the same terms as described above.

USA

Members of the management and board of directors of USA may have interests in the transactions that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as USA stockholders. Upon completion of the transactions, Barry Diller, chairman and chief executive officer of USA, will become chairman of the Expedia board of directors. USA also has the right to designate five other members of the Expedia board. Accordingly, other directors and/or officers of USA may join the Expedia board.

MICROSOFT'S INTERESTS IN THE TRANSACTIONS

Prior to completing its initial public offering in November 1999, Expedia was a wholly owned subsidiary of Microsoft. Expedia currently is controlled by Microsoft, which owns approximately 66% of the outstanding equity and voting power of Expedia. None of Expedia's directors is currently a director, officer or employee of Microsoft.

As part of Expedia's initial public offering, Expedia entered into various agreements with Microsoft relating to the provision of operating and administrative services to it by Microsoft, its licensing of intellectual property from Microsoft and the allocation of certain tax liabilities between Microsoft and Expedia. The merger agreement provides that certain of these agreements will be amended effective upon closing of the merger. The amendments to these agreements are described under "Proposal No. 4--Election of Expedia Directors--Certain Relationships and Related Transactions."

Also, in connection with Expedia's initial public offering, Microsoft entered into the shareholder agreement, which includes, among other things, an agreement by Microsoft not to compete with Expedia, various restrictions on the transfer by Microsoft of its Expedia shares and registration rights for Microsoft. The termination of the shareholder agreement is a condition to the completion of the transactions and is described under "Proposal No. 3--Termination of the Shareholder Agreement."

In connection with the transactions, each of USA and Expedia agreed to grant to Microsoft customary registration rights, including the right to underwritten offerings, relating to USA securities and Expedia securities, if any, owned by Microsoft following completion of the transactions. As part of the registration rights, each of USA and Expedia agreed to file a registration statement on Form S-3 with respect to Microsoft's USA securities and Expedia securities, respectively, and to use its reasonable best efforts to make such registration statement effective as promptly as practicable following the completion of the transactions. Microsoft's registration rights relating to its USA securities are set forth in the voting and election agreement between USA and Microsoft and are described in more detail under "The Transaction Agreements--Other Transaction Agreements--Microsoft/USA Voting and Election Agreement." Microsoft's registration rights relating to its Expedia securities are set forth in a registration rights agreement that was executed on July 15, 2001. Each of the voting and election agreement and the Microsoft/Expedia registration rights agreement is attached as an exhibit to USA's and Expedia's registration statements of which this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement is a part. The Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement is set forth as Annex E to this document.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

In addition, Microsoft and Expedia have entered into a voting agreement and irrevocable proxy pursuant to which Microsoft has agreed to elect the seven directors to serve on Expedia's board of directors until the 2002 annual meeting of Expedia shareholders as described under "Proposal No. 4--Election of Expedia Directors" and also to vote in favor of the adoption of the Expedia 2001 Stock Plan described under "Proposal No. 5--Adoption of Expedia 2001 Stock Plan".

In addition, Microsoft has had in the past, and expects to continue to have in the future, a range of business agreements and transactions with one or more of Expedia, USA and their respective affiliates.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

USA will account for the transactions as a purchase in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The purchase price by USA will be allocated to Expedia's identifiable assets and liabilities based on their estimated fair market values at the date of the completion of the transactions, and any excess of the purchase price over those fair market values will be accounted for as goodwill. As a result of the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets," goodwill resulting from a business combination completed subsequent to June 30, 2001 will not be amortized but instead will be required to be tested for impairment at least annually. The final allocation has not yet been completed. We may revise the allocation of the purchase price when additional information becomes available.

The transactions are structured such that USA will acquire less than a 95% voting interest in Expedia. Accordingly, Expedia will account for the transactions as a recapitalization and its financial statements will not reflect the purchase price paid by USA for the Expedia voting stock acquired.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

EXPEDIA

GENERAL. The following discussion describes the material federal income tax consequences of the recapitalization and the merger to holders of Expedia common stock that hold their shares of Expedia common stock and will hold their shares of Expedia Class B common stock, if any, as a capital asset at the effective time of the merger. The discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code, U.S. Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, and judicial and administrative interpretations thereof, all as in effect on the date of this document, and is subject to any changes in these or other laws occurring after such date. The discussion does not address the effects of any state, local or foreign tax laws or of any federal tax laws other than federal income tax laws.

The tax consequences of the recapitalization and the merger to an individual shareholder may vary depending upon such shareholder's particular situation, and certain shareholders (particularly any shareholder which, at the effective time of the recapitalization and the merger, is a tax-exempt entity, securities dealer, broker-dealer, insurance company or financial institution, is an investor in a pass-through entity or is an individual who acquired his or her shares of Expedia common stock pursuant to an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or holds shares of Expedia common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction) may be subject to special rules not discussed below. If a partnership holds Expedia common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend upon the status of the partner and upon the activities of the partnership. Partners of partnerships holding Expedia common stock should consult their tax advisors.

EACH EXPEDIA SHAREHOLDER IS URGED TO CONSULT ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO IT OF THE RECAPITALIZATION AND THE MERGER, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN TAX LAWS, AND OF ANY CHANGES IN ANY APPLICABLE TAX LAWS.

The obligations of the parties to consummate the recapitalization and the merger are conditioned on Expedia's receipt of an opinion of Shearman & Sterling, special counsel to Expedia, dated the closing date of the recapitalization and the merger, substantially to the effect that (1) each of the recapitalization and the merger will, taking into account all of the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement, constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and (2) no gain or loss will be recognized by the shareholders of Expedia upon the receipt of USA common stock, USA preferred stock and USA warrants in exchange for their shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the merger.

Shareholders should be aware that an opinion of counsel is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts. Shareholders should also be aware that the opinion of Shearman & Sterling will be based upon current laws and on certain representations regarding factual matters made by USA and its wholly owned subsidiary, by Expedia and by Microsoft, which, if incorrect in certain material respects, might jeopardize the conclusions reached by such counsel in its opinion.

Assuming that each of the recapitalization and the merger will qualify as a reorganization within Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the recapitalization and the merger will have the federal income tax consequences discussed below.

TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE RECAPITALIZATION AND THE MERGER TO EXPEDIA SHAREHOLDERS THAT RETAIN THEIR EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK IN THE RECAPITALIZATION. Expedia shareholders that retain their Expedia shares should not recognize any gain or loss in the recapitalization or the merger as a result of the receipt of the new Expedia warrants in the merger. However, a risk exists that the Internal Revenue Service may take the position that such Expedia shareholders have taxable gain or other income with respect to a portion of the consideration received. Assuming that the Expedia shareholders do not recognize any gain or other income, an Expedia shareholder's aggregate basis in the Expedia common stock and new Expedia warrants (including any new Expedia warrants sold by the exchange agent on behalf of the Expedia shareholder in lieu of the issuance of fractional new Expedia warrants) will be the same as the shareholder's aggregate tax basis in the Expedia common stock retained in the recapitalization. This basis will be allocated between the shares of Expedia common stock the new Expedia warrants in proportion to their relative fair market values on the date that the transactions are consummated. An Expedia shareholder's holding period in the Expedia common stock and new Expedia warrants (including any new Expedia warrants sold by the exchange agent on behalf of the Expedia shareholder in lieu of the issuance of fractional new Expedia warrants) will include the holding period of the Expedia common stock retained in the recapitalization.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

An Expedia shareholder will recognize capital gain or loss on the sale of new Expedia warrants by the exchange agent on its behalf in lieu of the issuance of fractional new Expedia warrants. The gain or loss will be the difference between the amount realized by the Expedia shareholder on the sale and the portion of the Expedia shareholder's basis in its Expedia shares that is allocable to the new Expedia warrants sold. The gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the Expedia shareholder's holding period in the new Expedia warrants (determined as described above) is more than one year at the effective time of the merger.

A holder of new Expedia warrants will not recognize gain on the exercise of new Expedia warrants. The holder's basis in the Expedia common stock received on the exercise of the new Expedia warrants will equal the holders basis in the new Expedia warrants, plus the price paid for the Expedia common stock (which will be equal to the strike price of the new Expedia warrants). The holders holding period in the Expedia common stock received on the exercise of the new Expedia warrants will begin on the date the new Expedia warrants are exercised.

TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE RECAPITALIZATION AND THE MERGER TO EXPEDIA SHAREHOLDERS THAT EXCHANGE THEIR EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK FOR EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK IN THE RECAPITALIZATION. Expedia shareholders that exchange their shares of Expedia common stock for shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization will not recognize any gain or loss on that exchange. An Expedia shareholder's aggregate basis in the Expedia Class B common stock received in the recapitalization will be the same as the shareholder's aggregate tax basis in the Expedia common stock surrendered in the recapitalization. An Expedia shareholder's holding period in the Expedia Class B common stock received in the recapitalization will include the shareholder's holding period of the Expedia common stock surrendered in the recapitalization.

On the exchange of shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the merger for USA common stock, USA preferred stock and USA warrants, exchanging Expedia shareholders will not recognize gain or loss. The aggregate tax basis of the USA common stock, USA preferred stock and USA warrants received in the merger (including shares of USA common stock, USA preferred stock or USA warrants sold by the exchange agent on behalf of the shareholder in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares of USA common stock and USA preferred stock and fractional USA warrants) will be the same as the shareholder's aggregate tax basis in the Expedia Class B common stock surrendered in the merger (determined as described above). This basis will be allocated among the USA common stock, USA preferred stock and USA warrants in proportion to their relative fair market values on the date that the transactions are consummated. The holding period of the USA common stock, USA preferred stock and USA warrants received in the merger (including shares of USA common stock, USA preferred stock or USA warrants sold by the exchange agent on behalf of the shareholder in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares of USA common stock and USA preferred stock and fractional USA warrants) will include the shareholder's holding period in the Expedia Class B common stock surrendered in the merger (determined as described above).

An Expedia shareholder will recognize capital gain or loss on the sale of USA common stock, USA preferred stock or USA warrants by the exchange agent on its behalf in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares of USA common stock or USA preferred stock or fractional USA warrants. The gain or loss will be the difference between the amount realized by the Expedia shareholder on the sale and the portion of the Expedia shareholder's basis in its Expedia shares that is allocable to the USA common stock, USA preferred stock or USA warrants sold. The gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the Expedia shareholder's holding period in the USA common stock, USA preferred stock or USA warrants (determined as described above) is more than one year at the effective time of the merger.

POTENTIAL DEEMED DISTRIBUTIONS ON USA PREFERRED STOCK. At the time of conversion, the conversion price of the USA preferred stock will be reduced for each $1.00 that the price of USA common stock exceeds $35.10 at such time in accordance with the formula described under "Description of USA Capital Stock--USA Preferred Stock--Conversion Rights." In general, a reduction in the conversion price of a convertible preferred stock, such as the USA preferred stock, may be treated as a deemed distribution. Applicable U.S. Treasury regulations provide that a change in conversion ratio or any transaction having a similar effect on the interest of any shareholder may be treated as a distribution with respect to any shareholder whose proportionate interest in the earnings and profits or assets of the corporation is increased by such change or similar transaction. A reduction in the conversion price of a convertible preferred stock will increase the preferred shareholder's proportionate interest in the earnings and profits or assets of USA.

A reduction in conversion price will not result in a deemed distribution if it represents an adjustment of the price to be paid by the issuer of the convertible preferred stock in acquiring property, including through a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. However, the authorities treating an adjustment to a conversion price or conversion ratio as a purchase price adjustment generally have involved an adjustment at single, fixed date based on the earnings of the acquired business for a specified period after the closing of the acquisition. In contrast, the conversion price of the USA preferred stock will be adjusted at the time of conversion, which could occur at any time at the election of the holder. Moreover, the adjustment of the conversion price of the USA preferred stock is based upon the performance of USA common stock, not the post-merger earnings of Expedia. As a result, it is possible that this exception from deemed distribution treatment would not apply.

If the reduction in conversion price is treated as a deemed distribution, a converting shareholder will have dividend income, taxable at ordinary income rates, to the extent of USA's current or accumulated earnings and profits. Any excess will be treated as a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of the shareholder's basis in the USA preferred stock, and thereafter as capital gain.

USA currently intends, absent a change in applicable authorities, to treat the reduction to the conversion price as a deemed dividend taxable to the converting shareholder at the time of conversion, in an amount equal to the fair market value of the additional shares of USA common stock received (and the amount of any cash received in lieu of additional fractional shares of USA common stock) as a result of the reduction in the conversion price. Generally, dividends paid to a non-U.S. shareholder will be subject to U.S. withholding tax at a 30% rate or, if a tax treaty applies, a lower rate specified by the treaty, provided that the non-U.S. holder furnishes to USA or its payment agent a duly completed Internal Revenue Service Form 8BEN (or substitute form). USA, as a withholding agent, would be liable for any withholding taxes if it should have, but did not, properly collect and pay over U.S. withholding tax. Dividends that are effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the U.S. and, if a tax treaty applies, are attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment of the non-U.S. holder, are exempt from U.S. withholding tax, provided that the non-U.S. holder furnishes to USA or its payment agent a duly completed Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI (or substitute form) certifying the exemption.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Expedia shareholders that elect to receive USA preferred stock in the merger are urged to consult their advisors concerning the proper treatment of the potential reduction in the conversion price of the USA preferred stock. Expedia shareholders that are corporations should also consult their tax advisors concerning the availability of the dividends received deduction in the event that the potential reduction in the conversion price of USA preferred stock is treated as a deemed distribution, as well as the applicability of Section 1059 of the Internal Revenue Code, which would limit the benefit of the dividends-received deduction by requiring a shareholder to reduce its basis in its USA preferred stock with respect to certain extraordinary dividends.

BACKUP WITHHOLDING. Under the U.S. backup withholding rules, an Expedia shareholder may be subject to backup withholding, unless the shareholder (1) is a corporation or comes within certain other exempt categories and, when required, demonstrates this fact or (2) provides a correct taxpayer identification number, certifies that the shareholder is not subject to backup withholding and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amount withheld under these rules will be credited against the shareholder's federal income tax liability. An Expedia shareholder that does not provide the exchange agent with its correct taxpayer identification number may be subject to penalties imposed by the Internal Revenue Service.

USA

The merger will not be a taxable transaction to USA's stockholders as the outstanding shares of USA common stock and USA Class B common stock are not being sold or exchanged in connection with the transactions.

REGULATORY MATTERS

The merger is subject to the requirements of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (the "HSR ACT") which prevents some transactions from being completed until required information and materials are furnished to the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission and specified waiting periods have expired or been terminated. On August 1, 2001, USA and Microsoft filed their Premerger Notification and Report Forms under the HSR Act with the Antitrust Division and the FTC. The waiting period was terminated early on August 10, 2001. Even though the waiting period has been terminated, either the Antitrust Division of the DOJ or the FTC could take action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, or other persons could take action under the antitrust laws, including seeking to enjoin the transactions. Additionally, at any time before or after the completion of the merger, notwithstanding that the waiting period ended, any state could take action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the transaction will not be made or that, if a challenge is made, we will prevail.

We also may be required to make filings and obtain regulatory approvals from various other governmental authorities. Where necessary, USA, Expedia and/or Microsoft intend to make such filings.

The obligations of USA, Microsoft and Expedia to consummate the transactions are subject to there being no requirement to divest any of their respective assets or limit the ownership or operations of their respective businesses. The obligations of USA, Microsoft and Expedia to consummate the transactions are also subject to the condition that there be no injunction or other order by any court or governmental entity preventing consummation of the transactions or statute, rule, regulation, order or decree prohibiting, materially restricting or making illegal consummation of any or all of the transactions.

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

THE FOLLOWING IS A BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK TO DISSENT FROM THE RECAPITALIZATION AND/OR MERGER AND RECEIVE CASH EQUAL TO THE FAIR VALUE OF THEIR EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK INSTEAD OF RECEIVING SHARES OF EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK IN THE RECAPITALIZATION, OR IN THE MERGER RECEIVING USA SECURITIES OR RETAINING THEIR SHARES OF EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK AND ALSO RECEIVING NEW EXPEDIA WARRANTS. THIS SUMMARY IS NOT EXHAUSTIVE, AND YOU SHOULD READ THE APPLICABLE SECTIONS OF CHAPTER 23B.13 OF THE WASHINGTON BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT, WHICH IS ATTACHED TO THIS JOINT PROSPECTUS/PROXY AND INFORMATION STATEMENT AS ANNEX G.

USA stockholders do not have dissenters' rights in connection with the transactions.

If you are an Expedia shareholder and wish to dissent from the recapitalization and/or merger, you should carefully review the text of Annex G, particularly the procedural steps required to perfect dissenters' rights, which are complex. You should also consult your legal counsel. If you do not fully and precisely satisfy the procedural requirements of Washington law, you will lose your dissenters' rights.

REQUIREMENTS FOR EXERCISING DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

Under Washington law, Expedia shareholders have the right to dissent from the recapitalization and/or merger and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of Expedia common stock. To preserve your right if you wish to exercise your statutory dissenters' rights, you must:

- deliver to Expedia, before the vote on the proposal to approve the merger

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

agreement is taken at the annual meeting, written notice of your intent to demand the fair value for your Expedia common stock if the recapitalization and/or merger, as applicable, is consummated and becomes effective; and

- not vote your shares of Expedia common stock at the annual meeting in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the recapitalization and merger.

Merely voting against the merger agreement, including the recapitalization and merger, will not preserve your dissenters' rights. Chapter 23B.13 of the Washington Business Corporation Act is reprinted in its entirety and attached to this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement as Annex G. Failure to precisely comply with all procedures required by Washington law will result in the loss of your dissenters' rights. If you do not satisfy each of the statutory requirements, you cannot exercise dissenters' rights and you will be bound by the terms of the merger agreement.

Submitting a proxy card that does not direct how the Expedia common stock represented by that proxy is to be voted will constitute a vote in favor of each of the proposals being presented to Expedia shareholders at the annual meeting and a waiver of your statutory dissenters' rights. In addition, voting against the proposal to approve the merger agreement will not satisfy the notice requirement referred to above. You must file the written notice of the intent to exercise dissenters' rights with Expedia at: Expedia, Inc., 18310 SE Eastgate Way, Suite 400, Bellevue, WA 98005, Attn: Corporate Secretary.

DISSENTERS' NOTICE PROCEDURE

Within ten days after the proposed merger has been effected, Expedia will send written notice to all shareholders who have properly given written notice under the dissenters' rights provisions and have not voted in favor of the merger agreement as described above. The notice will contain:

- the address where the demand for payment and certificates representing shares of Expedia common stock must be sent and the date by which they must be received;
- any restrictions on transfer of uncertificated shares that will apply after the demand for payment is received;
- a form for demanding payment that states the date of the first announcement to the news media or to shareholders of the proposed transactions and requires certification of the date the shareholder, or the beneficial owner on whose behalf the shareholder dissents, acquired the Expedia common stock or an interest in it;
- a date by which Expedia must receive the payment demand; and
- a copy of the dissenters' rights provisions of Washington law.

If you wish to assert dissenters' rights, you must demand payment and deposit your Expedia certificates within 30 days after the notice is given. If you fail to make demand for payment and deposit your Expedia certificates within the 30-day period, you will lose the right to receive fair value for your shares under the dissenters' rights provisions, even if you filed a timely notice of intent to demand payment.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Except as provided below, within 30 days of the later of the effective time of the recapitalization and/or merger, as applicable, or Expedia's receipt of a valid demand for payment, Expedia will remit to each dissenting shareholder who complied with the requirements of Washington law the amount Expedia estimates to be the fair value of the shareholder's Expedia common stock, plus accrued interest. Expedia will include the following information with the payment:

- financial data relating to Expedia;
- Expedia's estimate of the fair value of the shares and the accrued interest and a brief description of the methods used to reach those estimates;
- an explanation of how the interest was calculated;
- a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under Chapter 23B.13.280 of the Washington Business Corporation Act;
- a copy of Chapter 23B.13 of the Washington Business Corporation Act; and
- a brief description of the procedures to be followed in demanding supplemental payment.

For dissenting shareholders who were not the beneficial owner of the shares of Expedia common stock before October 15, 2001, Expedia may withhold payment and instead send a statement setting forth its estimate of the fair value of their shares and offering to pay such amount, with interest, as a final settlement of the dissenting shareholder's demand for payment. Expedia will also send an explanation of how it estimated the fair value of the shares and calculated the interest, and a statement of the dissenter's right to payment under Chapter 23B.13.280 of the Washington Business Corporation Act.

If you are dissatisfied with your payment or offer, you may, within 30 days of the payment or offer for payment, notify Expedia in writing of and demand payment of your estimate of the fair value of your shares and the amount of interest due. If any dissenting shareholder's demand for payment is not settled within 60 days after receipt by Expedia of the payment demand, Section 23B.13.300 of the Washington Business Corporation Act requires that Expedia commence a proceeding in King County Superior Court and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest, naming all the dissenting shareholders whose demands remain unsettled as parties to the proceeding.

The court may appoint one or more appraisers to receive evidence and make recommendations to the court as to the amount of the fair value of the shares. The fair value of the shares as determined by the court is binding on all dissenting shareholders and may be less than, equal to or greater than the market price of the Expedia common stock and new Expedia warrants to be retained and issued to nondissenting and nonelecting shareholders for their Expedia common stock. The dissenters have the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings. If the court determines that the fair value of the shares is in excess of any amount remitted by Expedia, then the court will enter a judgment for cash in favor of the dissenting shareholders in an amount by which the value determined by the court, plus interest, exceeds the amount previously remitted.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

The court will determine the costs and expenses of the court proceeding and assess them against Expedia, except that the court may assess part or all of the costs against any dissenting shareholders whose actions in demanding supplemental payments are found by the court to be arbitrary, vexatious or not in good faith. If the court finds that Expedia did not substantially comply with the relevant provisions of Sections 23B.13.200 through 23B.13.280 of the Washington Business Corporation Act, the court may also assess against Expedia any fees and expenses of attorneys or experts that the court deems equitable. The court may also assess those fees and expenses against any party if the court finds that the party has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith in bringing the proceedings. The court may award, in its discretion, fees and expenses of an attorney for the dissenting shareholders out of the amount awarded to the shareholders, if it finds the services of the attorney were of substantial benefit to the other dissenting shareholders and that those fees should not be assessed against Expedia.

A shareholder of record may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in the shareholder's name only if he or she dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies Expedia in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he or she asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of the partial dissenting shareholder are determined as if the shares as to which he or she dissents and his or her other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders. Beneficial owners of Expedia common stock who desire to exercise dissenters' rights themselves must obtain and submit the registered owner's written consent at or before the time they file the notice of intent to demand fair value.

For purposes of Washington law, "fair value" means the value of Expedia common stock immediately before the effective time of the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger, unless that exclusion would be inequitable. Under Section 23B.13.020 of the Washington Business Corporation Act, an Expedia shareholder has no right, at law or in equity, to set aside the approval and adoption of the merger or the consummation of the merger except if the approval, adoption or consummation fails to comply with the procedural requirements of Chapter 23B.13 of the Washington statute, Revised Code of Washington Sections 25.10.900 through 25.10.955, Expedia's articles of incorporation or Expedia's By-laws, or was fraudulent with respect to that shareholder or Expedia.

FEDERAL SECURITIES LAWS CONSEQUENCES

All shares of USA common stock, USA preferred stock, USA warrants and new Expedia warrants that will be issued in connection with the merger will be freely transferable, except for certain restrictions on holders of new Expedia warrants received on the distribution date and on "affiliates" of USA or Expedia. Shares of USA common stock, USA preferred stock and USA warrants and new

Expedia warrants received by persons who are deemed to be affiliates of Expedia may be resold by them only in transactions permitted by the resale provisions of Rule 145 (or Rule 144 in the case of such persons who become affiliates of USA) or as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of USA or Expedia generally include certain officers, directors and significant shareholders of USA or Expedia, respectively. The merger agreement requires Expedia to use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of its affiliates to execute a written agreement to the effect that such persons will not offer or sell or otherwise dispose of any of the shares of USA securities issued to them in the merger in violation of the Securities Act or the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC thereunder.

This joint prospectus/proxy and information statement does not cover resales of USA common stock, USA preferred stock, USA warrants or new Expedia warrants to be received by the shareholders of Expedia in the merger, and no person is authorized to make any use of this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement in connection with any such resale. In addition, this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement does not cover the issuance of new Expedia warrants to Expedia optionholders prior to the Expedia annual meeting or the subsequent resales of those new Expedia warrants.

THE TRANSACTION AGREEMENTS

The following is a description of the material terms of the transaction agreements, copies of which are attached as Annexes to this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement or as exhibits to the registration statements of USA and Expedia of which this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement is a part and are incorporated in this document by reference. To receive copies of the incorporated documents, see "Summary--Where You Can Find More Information."

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

THE DESCRIPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT INCLUDED BELOW DESCRIBES THE MATERIAL TERMS OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT THAT ARE NOT PREVIOUSLY DESCRIBED IN "PROPOSAL NO. 1--APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT." THE FULL TEXT OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT IS ATTACHED AS ANNEX A TO THIS JOINT PROSPECTUS/ PROXY AND INFORMATION STATEMENT. ALL SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO READ THE MERGER AGREEMENT IN ITS ENTIRETY FOR A MORE COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE MERGER.

EFFECTIVE TIME AND THE SURVIVING CORPORATION

EFFECTIVE TIME OF THE MERGER AND CLOSING. The merger will become effective at the time and date the articles of merger relating to the merger are filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Washington. The closing will be on the third business day immediately following the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the merger (other than those conditions to be satisfied or waived at the closing) or on another date as USA, Expedia and Microsoft agree.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND BY-LAWS. At the effective time of the merger, Expedia's amended and restated articles of incorporation, which are attached as Annex B to this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement will be the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation. At the effective time of the merger, Taipei's amended and restated bylaws, which are attached as Annex C to this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement, will be the bylaws of the surviving corporation.

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS. Following the transactions, Barry Diller will become Chairman of Expedia and Richard N. Barton will continue in his role as

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

President and Chief Executive Officer of Expedia. At the effective time of the merger and through the one-year anniversary of such time, the board of directors of Expedia will consist of 11 members, six of whom will be appointed by USA. The remaining five members will be Expedia's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer and three independent directors, of whom two will be Gregory B. Maffei and Jay C. Hoag, current directors of Expedia. The officers of Expedia immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be the officers of the surviving corporation until their successors are duly appointed or elected.

TREATMENT OF SECURITIES IN THE MERGER

CONVERSION OF EXPEDIA SHARES. At the effective time of the merger (other than the distribution of new Expedia warrants to optionholders as discussed below) and without any action on the part of the shareholders, each share of Expedia capital stock shall be treated as follows (subject to the treatment of fractional shares described below):

- Each share of Expedia common stock that is owned by Expedia as treasury stock, if any, and all shares of Expedia common stock that are owned by USA and any of its wholly owned subsidiaries immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and will cease to exist and no consideration will be delivered for the cancellation.
- Each share of Expedia Class B common stock issued in the recapitalization and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive a combination of:
  - a number of validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares of USA common stock equal to the quotient, rounded to the nearest ten thousandth (or if there is no nearest ten thousandth, the next higher thousandth) obtained by dividing (1) (A) $35.00 less (B) the product of the number of shares of USA preferred stock received for each share of Expedia Class B common stock (as determined below) and 50, by (2) the average of the daily closing prices (as of 4:00 p.m., eastern time) per share of USA common stock, as reported on the Nasdaq Stock Market for the ten consecutive full trading days immediately preceding the second full trading day prior to the date of the election deadline; PROVIDED that for the purposes of this calculation the average of the daily closing prices, as determined above shall not be greater than $31.00, nor less than $23.00;
  - a number of validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares of USA preferred stock equal to the quotient, rounded to the nearest ten thousandth (or if there is no nearest ten thousandth, the next higher thousandth) obtained by dividing (A) 656,250,000 divided by the number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock exchanged in the merger, by (B) 50; and
  - a number of validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable USA warrants equal to the ratio corresponding to the USA share price as set forth on Annex F to this joint prospect/proxy and information statement.
- Each share of Expedia common stock, other than shares held by dissenting shareholders and shares cancelled as described above, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will remain outstanding and will entitle its holder to receive 0.1920 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable new Expedia warrants. The new Expedia warrants are described under "Description of Expedia Capital Stock--New Expedia Warrants."

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

TREATMENT OF OUTSTANDING EXPEDIA WARRANTS. Each outstanding Expedia warrant for which no election has been made and that is not exercised prior to the recapitalization will be terminated in accordance with its terms unless their terms explicitly provide otherwise, in which case, if the warrant is exercised after the recapitalization, the holder will receive both Expedia common stock and 0.1920 of a new Expedia warrant for each share of Expedia common stock subject to the outstanding Expedia warrant.

TREATMENT OF EXPEDIA OPTIONS. Each option to acquire Expedia common stock issued under the Expedia stock option plans will remain outstanding in accordance with its terms. On the distribution date, which will be prior to the listing of the Expedia warrants on Nasdaq, the American Stock Exchange or another exchange acceptable to Expedia, the holders of Expedia options, whether vested or unvested, but which were issued under Expedia employee benefit plans on or prior to August 2, 2001 will receive 0.1920 of a restricted Expedia warrant for each outstanding option to acquire a share of Expedia common stock. The additional restricted Expedia warrants to be distributed on the distribution date will have economic terms identical to the terms of the new Expedia warrants being distributed to holders of Expedia common stock in the merger, except that the restricted Expedia warrants will be subject to vesting schedules identical to those of the related Expedia options and will not be transferable or exercisable for a period of 90 days from the date of their issue. Expedia will take all reasonable steps necessary to ensure that no optionholder receives both the distribution to optionholders on the distribution date and either the USA securities or Expedia securities to be received in the merger.

CONVERSION OF TAIPEI SHARES. In the merger, USA will merge Taipei, its wholly owned subsidiary, into Expedia. As a result, all of the issued and outstanding shares of Taipei will be converted into the right to receive a number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of Expedia Class B common stock equal to the number of shares of Expedia Class B common stock issued in the recapitalization, which shares of Expedia Class B common stock will, following the merger, have the same rights and characteristics as the Expedia Class B common stock possessed following the recapitalization and immediately prior to the merger. Immediately following the merger, no Expedia shareholder other than USA will hold Expedia Class B common stock. The rights and privileges of Expedia Class B common stock are identical in all respects to those of Expedia common stock, except that instead of one vote per share, Expedia Class B common stock has 15 votes per share, provided, however, that no Expedia shareholder can generally hold more than 94.9% of the total outstanding voting power of Expedia. See "Description of Expedia Capital Stock" for a more detailed description of the classes of Expedia's common stock.

TAX ADJUSTMENT. In the event that counsel for the parties to the merger agreement reasonably determine that the requirement of Section 368(a)(2)(E)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code would not otherwise be satisfied, then the number of USA warrants received for each share of Expedia Class B common stock will be reduced to the extent necessary to satisfy this requirement and the number of shares of USA common stock to be received for each share of Expedia Class B common stock shall be increased by an amount equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (a) the product of (1) the reduction in the number of USA warrants received for each share of Expedia Class B common stock multiplied by (2) the Black-Scholes value of a USA warrant determined as of the closing date (assuming 40% volatility and a risk-free interest rate of 5.66%), by (b) the average of the daily closing prices (as of 4:00 p.m. eastern time) per share of USA common stock, as reported on the Nasdaq Stock Market for the ten consecutive full trading days immediately preceding the closing date. Because the replacement of warrants with common stock will be pursuant to this valuation mechanism that includes variable factors, it is possible that the value of the USA common stock received under this adjustment will be greater than or less than the value of the warrants being replaced.

FRACTIONAL SHARES. No fractional shares of USA common stock, USA preferred stock, USA warrants or new Expedia warrants will be issued in the merger. Instead of any fractional shares of USA common stock, USA preferred stock and USA warrants, each holder of shares of Expedia Class B common stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fraction of a share of USA common stock, USA preferred stock and/or USA warrants pursuant to the merger agreement will be paid an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the holder's proportionate interest in the net proceeds from the sale or sales in the open market by an exchange agent agreeable to both USA and Expedia on behalf of all of the holders of Expedia Class B common stock, of the aggregate fractional shares of USA common stock, USA preferred stock and USA warrants issued pursuant to the merger. Instead of any fractional shares of new Expedia warrants, each holder of shares of Expedia common stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fraction of a share of new Expedia warrants pursuant to the merger agreement will be paid an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the holder's proportionate interest in the net proceeds from the sale or sales in the open market by the exchange agent on behalf of all of the holders of Expedia common stock (other than dissenting shareholders), of the aggregate fractional shares of new Expedia warrants issued pursuant to the merger.

EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

DEPOSIT OF SECURITIES WITH THE EXCHANGE AGENT. As soon as practicable after the effective time of the merger, USA will deposit with a bank or trust company mutually agreeable to USA and Expedia, which will serve as the exchange agent for the transactions, certificates representing shares of USA common stock, shares of USA preferred stock and USA warrants, in each case sufficient to effect the conversion of Expedia Class B common stock in the merger. At the same time, Expedia will deposit with the exchange agent certificates representing new Expedia warrants sufficient to effect the payment relating to Expedia common stock in the merger. USA and Expedia will enter into an exchange agent agreement with the exchange agent relating to the transactions.

EXCHANGE AND PAYMENT PROCEDURES. Included with this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement is an election form and letter of transmittal, which is being sent to each holder of record of Expedia common stock and outstanding Expedia warrants as of the record date of the annual meeting. If you did not receive a copy of the election form and letter of transmittal because you acquired Expedia shares after the record date you should call the proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., at (800) 322-2885 and a copy of each will be mailed to you free of charge. The election form and letter of transmittal contains instructions explaining the procedure for exchanging all or a portion of a holder's shares of Expedia common stock (including shares issuable upon exercise of outstanding Expedia warrants) for shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, and as a result, USA securities in the merger. Elections to receive Expedia Class B common stock made by holders of outstanding Expedia warrants will not be effective unless the warrants relating to the shares of Expedia common stock covered by the election form and letter of transmittal are exercised prior to the recapitalization. Once the recapitalization and merger are complete, the former holders of Expedia Class B common stock will receive in exchange for their Expedia Class B common stock certificates representing the number of shares of USA securities determined in accordance with the conversion formulas described above and cash in place of any fractional shares of USA securities. Holders who elect to retain their Expedia common stock, or who are not able to exchange all of their shares of Expedia common stock in the recapitalization due to oversubscription, will retain their shares of Expedia common stock and, following the effective time of the merger, will also receive a certificate representing the new Expedia warrants to which the shareholder is entitled and cash in place of any fractional new Expedia warrants. In the event the merger consideration is to be delivered to any person who is not the person in whose name the certificate surrendered is registered in the transfer records of Expedia, the merger consideration may be delivered to a transferee if the certificate is presented to the exchange agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect the transfer and by evidence satisfactory to the exchange agent that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. No interest will be paid or will accrue on any cash payable to holders of Expedia stock certificates in connection with these payment procedures.

TERMINATION OF EXCHANGE AGENT. Any certificates representing USA securities that are deposited with the exchange agent and not exchanged within six months after the effective time of the merger will be returned by the exchange agent to USA, which will serve as the exchange agent for those securities after that time. All funds held by the exchange agent for payment to the holders of unsurrendered certificates and unclaimed at the end of one year from the effective time of the merger will be returned to USA, and after that time any holder of unsurrendered certificates shall look as a general creditor only to USA for payment of any funds to which the holder may be due, subject to applicable law.

ESCHEAT. Neither USA nor Expedia will be liable to any person for any securities or funds delivered to a public official under any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

LOST CERTIFICATES. In the event that any certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, a person may make of an affidavit of that fact and, if USA reasonably requires, post a bond in an amount that USA reasonably determines to be necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate. Following the affidavit and posting of the bond, if any, the exchange agent will issue in exchange the USA securities, if an election had properly been made with respect to the shares underlying the certificate and was not subject to proration, or a replacement certificate for Expedia common stock and the applicable number of new Expedia warrants.

NO SOLICITATION

Under the merger agreement, Expedia and Microsoft have agreed that, prior to the effective time of the merger, without the prior written consent of USA, neither Expedia nor Microsoft will, and each will cause its subsidiaries and each of its and its subsidiaries' officers, director, agents, advisors and affiliates not to, solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to, or engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information to, or have any discussions with, any person relating to any tender offer or exchange offer for, or any proposal for the acquisition of a substantial equity interest in, or of a substantial portion of the assets of, or any merger, consolidation or other business combination with, Expedia or any of its subsidiaries. These restrictions will not prohibit the board of directors of Expedia from, following receipt of a transaction proposal, taking and disclosing to its shareholders information required under the proxy rules to the extent permitted by the proviso set forth in the following paragraph.

Expedia will use reasonable best efforts to cause the annual meeting to be held as soon as reasonably practicable after the date of the merger agreement. The Expedia board of directors will recommend to its shareholders that they approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby,

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

including the recapitalization and the merger, the amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia, and the termination of the shareholder agreement, and the Expedia board of directors will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the foregoing approvals from its shareholders; PROVIDED that the board of directors of Expedia will not be required to use such reasonable best efforts to obtain the vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement or to make or continue to make a recommendation if, after consultation with and consideration of the advice of outside counsel, the board of directors has determined that the making of a reasonable best effort to obtain the vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement or the making or continued making of a recommendation would cause the members of the board of directors to breach their fiduciary duties under applicable laws. Expedia has agreed that in any event it will submit the proposals for approval at the annual meeting with or without the recommendation of Expedia's board of directors and having recognized that special circumstances, as provided in Section 23B.11.030 of the Washington Business Corporation Act, may exist in light of the provisions of the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement, Expedia will not alter its recommendation in a manner that would prevent Expedia from complying with its agreement to bring the proposals before the annual meeting.

OTHER AUTHORIZATIONS

USA and Expedia have agreed to, and to cause their respective subsidiaries to, use their reasonable best efforts to take or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable, to comply promptly with all legal requirements that may be imposed on such party or its subsidiaries with respect to the merger, and obtain any material consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any governmental entity and any third party that is required to be obtained in connection with the transactions. However, none of USA, Expedia or Microsoft or their respective affiliates will be required to divest any of their respective assets or corporations or will be required to enter into any agreements that in any way limit the ownership or operation of any of their or their respective affiliates business in order to obtain any material consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any governmental entity and any other third party that is required to be obtained by Expedia or USA or any of their respective subsidiaries. In addition, without the prior written consent of USA and Microsoft, Expedia will not agree to divest any assets or business of Expedia or its subsidiaries.

LISTING OF USA COMMON STOCK, USA PREFERRED STOCK, USA WARRANTS AND NEW EXPEDIA WARRANTS

USA has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of USA common stock, shares of USA preferred stock and USA warrants that are to be issued in the merger to be authorized for quotation on Nasdaq, or if the Nasdaq eligibility requirements are not satisfied or waived, on the American Stock Exchange or another exchange acceptable to USA and Microsoft, prior to the effective time of the merger. In addition, Expedia has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of new Expedia warrants that are to be issued in the merger to be authorized for quotation on Nasdaq, or if the Nasdaq eligibility requirements are not satisfied or waived, on the American Stock Exchange or another exchange acceptable to Expedia, prior to the recapitalization. If the USA preferred stock, USA warrants and/or new Expedia warrants do not meet the eligibility requirements for listing or quotation on an acceptable exchange prior to the effective time of the merger or recapitalization, as appropriate, USA and/or Expedia, as the case may be, will use its reasonable best efforts to have the securities listed or quoted as soon as the eligibility requirements are satisfied or waived.

EXPEDIA'S RELATIONSHIP WITH USA

USA and Expedia have agreed that following the transactions, their relationship will be governed by the following principles:

- Neither anything contained in the merger agreement nor the ownership of shares of Expedia common stock or Expedia Class B common stock, except as may be provided in Expedia's amended and restated articles of incorporation, shall restrict USA or any of its subsidiaries from engaging in or owning an interest in any business which competes with Expedia or any subsidiary of Expedia, or restrict Expedia or any of its subsidiaries from engaging in or owning an interest in any business which competes with USA or any of its subsidiaries;

- For so long as USA owns at least 50.1% of the aggregate voting power of Expedia, Expedia will not enter into any material contract, arrangement or transaction with USA or any of its affiliates, or enter into any material amendment of any of the foregoing, without the approval of a majority of Expedia's independent directors;
- There shall be meaningful consultation between USA and Expedia's Chief Executive Officer in the selection of the independent directors of Expedia; and
- The independent directors of Expedia's board of directors will have the right, on behalf of Expedia, to enforce the above provisions. Any amendment or waiver to any of the above provisions will require the approval of a majority of Expedia's independent directors.

FURTHER ASSURANCES

If after the transactions are completed any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the merger agreement, the parties to the merger agreement and their respective subsidiaries will take all necessary action as may be reasonably requested by USA.

EXPEDIA WARRANT DISTRIBUTION

On the distribution date and prior to the listing on an exchange of the Expedia warrants and subject to applicable law, Expedia will distribute to the holders of options granted on or prior to August 2, 2001 under the Expedia stock option plans, and who continue to hold such options on the distribution date, 0.1920 restricted Expedia warrants for each share of Expedia common stock underlying such person's Expedia options, whether or not the option has vested. Any Expedia warrants distributed in accordance with the previous sentence that are unvested will be restricted and will become exercisable upon the vesting of the related Expedia options. In addition, Expedia will take all steps necessary to ensure that no optionholder receives both the distribution described in this paragraph and either the USA securities or Expedia securities to be received in the merger. The restricted Expedia warrants issued pursuant to this paragraph will be non-exercisable and non-transferable for a period of 90 days after their distribution. In the event that the merger agreement is terminated following the distribution referred to in this paragraph, Expedia has agreed that all holders of Expedia common stock and outstanding Expedia warrants (other than holders of Expedia options who have already become entitled to receive or have received the Expedia warrants and holders of outstanding Expedia warrants that by their terms will be equitably adjusted to give effect to the distribution) shall receive 0.1920 Expedia warrants for each share of Expedia common stock owned by such holder.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

TAX COVENANT

The parties agreed that no tax sharing, allocation or indemnification agreements with Microsoft will survive the effective time of the merger, other than the tax allocation agreement, dated as of October 1, 1999, by and between Microsoft and Expedia. The aggregate liability of Expedia, however, to make payments after the date of the merger agreement under the Microsoft tax allocation agreement will not exceed $36,300,000 with respect to any past, present or future taxable periods. In addition, the term "Inherent Bargain Element," as used in the Microsoft tax allocation agreement, will not include any amount with respect to any option to purchase Expedia common stock granted on or after July 15, 2001. Microsoft also agreed to indemnify and hold harmless USA and Expedia for certain tax liabilities.

ADVISE OF CHANGES

USA and Expedia have agreed that each will promptly advise the other parties to the merger agreement of any change or event having a material adverse effect on it, and each of USA, Expedia and Microsoft will each promptly advise the other parties to the merger agreement of any change or event that it believes would or would be reasonably likely to cause or constitute a material breach of any of its or its subsidiaries, representations, warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement.

REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENTS

The merger agreement provides that prior to the effective time of the merger, USA and Expedia will enter into a registration rights agreement relating to USA's shares of Expedia Class B common stock on no less favorable terms than those contained in the shareholder agreement between Expedia and Microsoft. In addition, Expedia and Microsoft have entered into the registration rights agreement described under "Proposal No. 1--Approval of the Merger Agreement--Microsoft's Interests in the Transactions." The terms of these registration rights agreements are attached as exhibits to the registration statements of USA and/or Expedia, of which this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement is a part.

CONDITIONS

The merger agreement generally provides that the respective obligations of each party to consummate the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement are subject to customary conditions, including the following:

SHAREHOLDER APPROVAL. Approval by the shareholders of Expedia of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the recapitalization and the merger, the amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia and the termination of the shareholder agreement.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

NASDAQ CLEARANCE. Approval or indication of no-action in writing of Nasdaq with respect to Expedia's dual class structure contemplated in the transactions. (This approval has already been obtained.)

NASDAQ/AMERICAN STOCK EXCHANGE LISTINGS. Approval of shares of USA common stock, shares of USA preferred stock, USA warrants and new Expedia warrants, and, if required, Expedia Class B common stock to be issued in the merger, for quotation or listing, as appropriate, to the extent eligible for such quotation or listing, on Nasdaq or the American Stock Exchange or other exchange acceptable to Microsoft and USA.

OTHER APPROVALS. The expiration or termination of any waiting period applicable under the HSR Act, and all other material notifications, consents, authorizations and approvals required to be made or obtained from any competition or antitrust authority have been made or obtained for the transactions contemplated by the merger. On August 10, 2001, Expedia and USA received notification of early termination of the HSR Act waiting period.

NO INJUNCTION OR RESTRAINTS; ILLEGALITY. Absence of any injunction that would prevent consummation of any or all of the transactions or of any statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any governmental entity which prohibits, materially restricts or makes illegal consummation of any or all of the transactions.

EFFECTIVENESS OF REGISTRATION STATEMENTS. Declaration of effectiveness of the registration statements of which this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement is a part and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statements shall have been initiated or threatened by the SEC.

TAX OPINION. Counsel to Expedia shall have delivered an opinion to the effect that, among other things, each of the recapitalization and the merger should be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a tax-free reorganization and that shareholders of Expedia will recognize no gain or loss on the receipt of USA securities in the merger. Furthermore, the obligations of Microsoft to consummate the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement are conditioned on its receipt of a similar opinion from its counsel.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. The representations and warranties of each of Expedia, USA and Microsoft contained in the merger agreement and, if applicable, the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement are, to the extent qualified by materiality (including material adverse effect), true and correct, and to the extent not so qualified, true and correct in all material respects, in each case, when made and generally as of the closing date as though made on and as of the closing date.

PERFORMANCE. Each of Expedia, USA and Microsoft shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it at or prior to the closing under the merger agreement and, if applicable, the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement.

SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT TERMINATION. As a condition to Microsoft's consent to the recapitalization and merger and USA's obligation to consummate the recapitalization and merger, the termination of the shareholder agreement must have been approved and effected.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

USA/MICROSOFT REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT. The registration rights agreement between USA and Microsoft relating to USA securities owned by Microsoft following the merger shall have been executed.

Each of the foregoing conditions is waivable by USA, Expedia or Microsoft, as the case may be, to the extent legally permissible, except that Expedia must obtain Microsoft's consent to waive any conditions solely applicable to Expedia.

TERMINATION

TERMINATION BY ANY OF USA, MICROSOFT OR EXPEDIA. The merger agreement may be terminated by mutual consent of USA, Microsoft and Expedia, or by either USA, Microsoft or Expedia if:

- (a) any governmental entity that must grant a regulatory approval has denied approval of the merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final nonappealable order permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of any or all of the transactions;
- (b) the merger has not been consummated by April 15, 2002, PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the party seeking to terminate did not fail to fulfill any obligation causing the merger not to be consummated by that date, and PROVIDED, FURTHER, that such date shall be automatically extended to July 15, 2002 in the event that the delay is a direct result of the failure to have obtained the requisite regulatory approvals;
- (c) provided that the party desiring to terminate is not then in breach, there has been a breach by any other party of any of its respective covenants or agreements or, if applicable, any of its respective representations and warranties in the merger agreement or in the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate, would constitute, if occurring or continuing on the closing date, the failure of the conditions to the obligations of each of Expedia and USA which is not cured within 30 days or which cannot by its nature be cured prior to the closing date; or
- (d) any litigation or proceeding is pending before any court or has been threatened to be instituted by any governmental body, which in the good faith judgment of the terminating party's board of directors, would reasonably be likely to result in an order, decree or ruling seeking substantial damages in respect of, or substantially impairing the benefits to that party of, the transactions.

TERMINATION BY USA. The merger agreement may be terminated by USA if Microsoft breaches any of its covenants or agreements set forth in the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement, which breach is not cured within ten days of written notice or by its nature is not capable of being cured prior to the closing date, or the Expedia board of directors does not submit the recapitalization and merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement for approval by its shareholders at the annual meeting or alters its recommendation in a manner which would prevent it from doing so.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

CONSULTATION BETWEEN EXPEDIA AND MICROSOFT. The merger agreement provides that prior to any decision of either Expedia or Microsoft to terminate pursuant to (c) or (d) above, Expedia or Microsoft, as applicable, shall give notice to the other of the proposed termination and shall consult with one another over the proposed termination. The period of consultation will end on the earlier of the receipt of consent from the other party to give the notice of termination or 20 days after delivery of the notice of proposed termination. Any termination following the lapse of the 20-day period will be limited to one or more of the grounds set forth in the notice.

EFFECT OF TERMINATION. The merger agreement generally provides that, in the event of termination of the merger agreement, the merger agreement will become void and have no effect and no party will have any liability or further obligation to any other party to the merger agreement, except with regard to the confidential treatment of information, the distribution of the new Expedia warrants and the payment of expenses described below and except that no party will be relieved of liability for any willful breach of the merger agreement.

EXPENSES

All cost and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such expense, except that the costs and expenses of printing and mailing the joint prospectus/proxy and information statement, and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC or in respect of antitrust filings, in connection with the transactions, shall be borne equally by USA, Microsoft and Expedia.

AMENDMENT; EXTENSION; WAIVER

The parties to the merger agreement may by action taken or authorized by their respective board of directors and signed in writing by USA, Expedia and Microsoft, amend the merger agreement, and to the extent legally allowed, extend the time for performance of any obligations of the other parties and waive breaches or compliance with agreements, PROVIDED that, after the approval of the merger agreement by Expedia shareholders, there can be no amendment, extension or waiver that changes the amount or form of the consideration to be delivered to the shareholders without further approval of Expedia's shareholders.

REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND AGREEMENTS DO NOT SURVIVE. None of the representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements, other than confidentiality agreements, will survive the completion of the transactions other than those agreements which by their terms apply after that time.

OTHER TRANSACTION AGREEMENTS

MICROSOFT/USA VOTING AND ELECTION AGREEMENT

Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, USA, Microsoft and Microsoft E-Holdings, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Microsoft which holds Microsoft's Expedia shares, entered into the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement. Pursuant to the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement, Microsoft and Microsoft E-Holdings generally agreed to vote all Expedia common stock and Expedia Class B common stock that each owns or has the right to vote for approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia, the termination of the shareholder agreement and any other matters submitted to the holders of Expedia capital stock in furtherance of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement at any meeting at which the matters are considered or any adjournment thereof or by written consent and also to irrevocably appoint USA as its proxy. As of October 15, 2001, Microsoft and Microsoft E-Holdings collectively beneficially owned or had the right to vote or direct the voting of Expedia common stock constituting approximately 66% of the outstanding voting power of Expedia. Microsoft and Microsoft E-Holdings also agreed in the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement to irrevocably and unconditionally elect to receive Expedia Class B common stock in respect of all of the shares they own in Expedia, subject to potential proration.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

In addition, each of Microsoft and Microsoft E-Holdings agreed in the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement that, until the termination of the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement or the effective time of the merger:

- to vote against any transaction proposal and against any action or agreement that would result in a breach in any material respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of Expedia under the merger agreement or that would otherwise be inconsistent with, prevent or materially delay the consummation the transactions or of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- not to sell, transfer, pledge, encumber, assign or otherwise dispose of, or enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the sale, transfer, pledge, encumbrance, assignment or other disposition of, or limitation on the voting rights of Expedia shares held by, or the shares of Expedia Class B common stock to be received in the recapitalization by Microsoft and Microsoft E-Holdings;
- not to grant any proxies or powers of attorney, deposit any Expedia shares held by, or the shares of Expedia Class B common stock to be received in the recapitalization by Microsoft and Microsoft E-Holdings, into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement with respect to such shares;
- not to take any action that would cause any representation or warranty of Microsoft or Microsoft E-Holdings in the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement to become untrue or incorrect or have the effect of preventing or disabling either of them from performing their obligations under the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement;
- not to commit or agree to take any of the actions in the previous three bullets.

Any transfer of Expedia shares held by, or the shares of Expedia Class B common stock to be received in the recapitalization by Microsoft and Microsoft E-Holdings in contravention of the above will be null and void and may be enjoined. In addition, Microsoft and Microsoft E-Holdings have consented to the placement of a stop transfer order on their Expedia shares.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

The Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement will be terminated automatically on the termination of the merger agreement and shall be deemed satisfied in full and terminated upon the consummation of the transactions; PROVIDED that if the effective time of the merger occurs some provisions shall survive.

The Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement also provides that USA shall prepare and file as soon as reasonably practicable a registration statement on Form S-3 with respect to the USA securities to be received by Microsoft and Microsoft E-Holdings in the merger and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective within two business days of the date of the closing and keep it effective until the earlier of (1) the date Microsoft and Microsoft E-Holdings no longer own any shares of USA securities received in the merger or upon exercise of such securities and (2) the one-year anniversary of the effective time of the merger if USA has filed all reports required to be filed by the Securities Exchange Act in the 12 months preceding such date, and otherwise the two-year anniversary of the date of the closing; PROVIDED that USA may suspend the effectiveness of such registration for certain periods.

Expedia is a third party beneficiary to, and therefore has the right to enforce, the following provisions of the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement:

- Microsoft's and Microsoft E-Holdings' agreements to vote in favor of the transactions and against any other transaction proposal, to appoint USA as their proxy, and to elect to receive shares of Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization;
- the restrictions on transfer; and
- the placement of the stop transfer order.

AMENDMENTS TO OPERATING AGREEMENTS BETWEEN MICROSOFT AND EXPEDIA

Microsoft and Expedia are parties to various operating agreements relating to Expedia's business. ### USA UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The following unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements have been prepared to give effect to the acquisition by USA of Expedia as well as other transactions completed by USA during the twelve months ended December 31, 2000 and during the six months ended June 30, 2001. USA will account for its acquisition of Expedia under the purchase method of accounting. The other transactions made by USA in 2000 and 2001 include:

- (1) on April 5, 2000, USA acquired Precision Response Corporation ("PRC"), a leader in outsourced customer care for both large corporations and high growth internet-focused companies;
- (2) on July 27, 2000, USA and Styleclick.com Inc., completed the merger of Internet Shopping Network and Styleclick.com ("STYLECLICK"), forming a new company named Styleclick, Inc.; and
- (3) on January 31, 2001, Ticketmaster Online-Citysearch, Inc. ("TMCS") and Ticketmaster Corporation ("TM"), both of which are subsidiaries of USA, completed a transaction which combined the two companies.

Expedia will account for the transactions as a recapitalization. Accordingly, the transactions will not significantly impact Expedia's financial information and no pro forma information for Expedia is deemed necessary.

The pro forma combined condensed financial statements of USA reflect some assumptions regarding the transactions and are based on the historical financial statements of USA and the historical and pro forma financial statements of Expedia. The combined condensed financial statements of USA, including the notes accompanying them, are qualified in their entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, USA's and Expedia's audited and unaudited financial statements, including the notes accompanying them, which are incorporated by reference into this joint prospectus/ proxy and information statement.

The pro forma combined condensed balance sheet as of June 30, 2001 gives effect to the acquisition of Expedia as if it had occurred on June 30, 2001.

The pro forma combined condensed statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2001 reflects USA's and Expedia's unaudited statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2001, adjusted for the pro forma effects of the acquisition of Expedia, as well as the completion of the other USA transactions listed above, as if such transactions had occurred as of January 1, 2000.

The pro forma combined condensed statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2000 reflects USA's audited statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2000 and Expedia's results for the twelve months ended December 31, 2000, derived from the audited statement of operations for the year ended June 30, 2000 and the unaudited statement of operations for the six months ended December 31, 2000, adjusted for the pro forma effects of the acquisition of Expedia, as well as the completion of the other transactions listed above, as if such transactions had occurred as of January 1, 2000.

USA is in the process of evaluating the fair value of Expedia's assets acquired and liabilities assumed in order to make a final allocation of the excess purchase price, including allocation to intangibles other than goodwill. Accordingly, the purchase accounting information is preliminary and has been made solely for the purpose of developing such unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial information. Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets," provides that goodwill resulting from a business combination completed subsequent to June 30, 2001 will not be amortized but instead is required to be tested for impairment at least annually.

THE PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED BALANCE SHEET AND STATEMENTS OF OPERATIONS ARE NOT NECESSARILY INDICATIVE OF THE RESULTS OF OPERATIONS OR FINANCIAL POSITION, WHICH ACTUALLY WOULD HAVE BEEN REPORTED HAD THESE TRANSACTIONS OCCURRED AS OF JUNE 30, 2001 OR AS OF JANUARY 1, 2000, NOR ARE THEY NECESSARILY INDICATIVE OF USA'S FUTURE FINANCIAL RESULTS OF OPERATIONS.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (IN THOUSANDS, EXCEPT PER SHARE DATA)

- (1) Represents the financial position and results of operations for Expedia based on historical information of Expedia.
- (2) Acquisition costs and the preliminary determination of the unallocated excess of merger consideration over net assets acquired are set forth below:

Value of equity securities expected to be issued by USA.....	$1,596,250
Contribution in lieu of NLG option.....	20,000

Under the terms of the definitive agreement, Expedia shareholders will have the option, subject to proration, to elect to exchange in a tax-free merger transaction each Expedia share for:

- a fraction of a share of USA common stock ranging in value from $15.54 (if Microsoft is the only shareholder that elects to receive Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization) to $17.50 (if the maximum number of 37,500,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock are issued in the recapitalization) if the measurement period value of a share of USA common stock ranges from $23.00 to $31.00. If the measurement period value is either greater than $31.00 or less than $23.00, the exact USA common stock exchange ratio will be based on the fraction obtained assuming the measurement period value was $31.00 or $23.00, respectively. The measurement period value for USA common stock is the average closing price of USA common stock over a ten consecutive trading-day period ending on the second trading day prior to the date of the annual meeting;
- a fraction of a share of USA preferred stock ranging from 0.3892 (if Microsoft is the only shareholder that elects to receive Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization) to 0.3500 (if the maximum number of 37,500,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock are issued in the recapitalization). Each share of USA preferred stock has a $50 face value, a 1.99% annual dividend, two votes per share, and is convertible at any time into USA common stock at a conversion price of $33.75 per USA share, subject to downward adjustment to the extent that the average share price of USA common stock over a ten trading-day period prior to conversion is greater than $35.10; and
- a fraction of a USA warrant ranging from 0.3873 to 0.4524, the exact fractional amount to be based on a measurement period value for USA common stock ranging from $25.75 to $28.25 per share. The exact USA warrant exchange ratio will be based on the measurement period value for USA common stock as set forth in Annex F to this document. Each USA warrant has a seven-year term and an exercise price of $35.10 per share of USA common stock.

Expedia shareholders who do not exchange their shares for USA securities will retain their shares of Expedia common stock and receive for each share of Expedia common stock held 0.1920 of a new Expedia warrant with a seven-year term and an exercise price of $52.00 per share. The amount reflects USA's attributable share of Expedia, after giving effect to the minority interest in Expedia.

The pro forma financial statements are prepared assuming that 37,500,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock are issued in the recapitalization and the measurement period value of a share of USA common stock is the midpoint between $23.00 and $31.00. As a result the value of the USA common stock is assumed to be $17.50 per Expedia share.

The value of the newly issued preferred shares and warrants to acquire USA and Expedia common stock were determined based upon internal valuations. The amount reflects USA's attributable share of Expedia, after giving effect to the minority interest in Expedia.

USA will contribute $75 million in media time over five years and an option to participate in USA's proposed travel channel. In addition, for purposes of the pro forma combined condensed financial statements, a $20 million contribution from USA to Expedia is reflected in the merger consideration in lieu of the option to acquire NLG. The media time and the option to participate in the proposed travel channel are not valued in the merger consideration and are not reflected in the pro forma combined condensed financial statements.

- (3) Reflects the elimination of Expedia's historical equity.
- (4) Reflects the pro forma results of other transactions completed by USA in 2000 and 2001. The transactions include the acquisitions of PRC and Styleclick by USA and the combination of TMCS and TM. All acquisitions, except the TMCS/TM combination, were accounted for under the purchase method of accounting. The TMCS/TM combination has been accounted for as entities under common control in a manner similar to a pooling of interest. See USA's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000 and Form 10-Q for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001 for more information on the USA transactions. The other transactions completed by Expedia in the twelve months ended December 31, 2000 include the acquisition of Travelscape and Vacation Spot on March 17, 2000. See Expedia's 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2001 for more information on these transactions.
- (5) The unallocated excess of acquisition costs over net assets acquired has been preliminarily allocated to goodwill. Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets", provides that goodwill resulting from business combinations completed subsequent to June 30, 2001 will not be amortized but instead is required to be tested for impairment at least annually. In connection with finalizing the purchase price allocation, USA is currently evaluating the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in the transaction. Following the conclusion of the evaluation, USA will use this information to make a final allocation of the purchase price, including allocation to intangibles other than goodwill. Accordingly, the purchase accounting information is preliminary.

USA recorded $568.0 million and $201.0 million of goodwill amortization during the year ended December 31, 2000 and the six months ended June 30, 2001, respectively. Expedia recorded $16.1 million and $10.2 million of goodwill amortization during the year ended December 31, 2000 and the six months ended June 30, 2001, respectively. No periodic amortization of goodwill will be recorded subsequent to December 31, 2001.

- (6) Represents the minority interest in the financial position and the results of operations of Expedia, based upon a 74.7% expected equity ownership by USA of Expedia.
- (7) Represents the 1.99% preferred stock dividend.

PROPOSAL NO. 2--AMENDMENT AND RESTATEMENT OF EXPEDIA'S ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

As part of the transactions, Expedia is proposing to adopt the amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia to, among other things, create two classes of common stock and to make other changes as provided in the proposed amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia attached as Annex B to this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement. We urge you to read the amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia in its entirety.

The following is a description of the material differences between Expedia's current articles of incorporation and the proposed amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia. Expedia will continue to be a corporation incorporated in the State of Washington and otherwise subject to the laws of Washington, including the Washington Business Corporation Act.

CAPITAL STOCK

If the proposal to amend and restate Expedia's articles of incorporation is adopted, Expedia's articles of incorporation will be amended and restated to authorize for issuance 770,000,000 shares of capital stock, consisting of 20,000,000 shares of Expedia preferred stock and 750,000,000 common shares, of which 600,000,000 common shares will be Expedia common stock and 150,000,000 common shares will be Expedia Class B common stock.

Expedia's current articles authorize for issuance 130,000,000 shares of capital stock, consisting of 10,000,000 shares of Expedia preferred stock and 120,000,000 shares of one class of common stock.

The following provisions, which are included in the amended and restated articles of incorporation, describe the relative rights of the Expedia common stock and the Expedia Class B common stock. Where applicable, we have described both the proposed new provision reflected in the amended and restated Expedia articles of incorporation and the current provision in the Expedia articles.

VOTING RIGHTS

AMENDED ARTICLES. Holders of Expedia common stock will be entitled to one vote for each share of such stock held, and holders of Expedia Class B common stock will be entitled to 15 votes for each share of such stock held, on all matters presented to Expedia shareholders, provided, however, that no Expedia shareholder can generally hold more than 94.9% of the total outstanding voting power of Expedia. We describe the voting rights of Expedia common stock and Expedia Class B common stock in further detail under "Description of Expedia Capital Stock--Expedia Common Stock and Expedia Class B Common Stock."

The amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia also provide that, except as otherwise required by law, the holders of USA common stock and Expedia Class B common stock will vote together as one class.

CURRENT EXPEDIA ARTICLES. Currently, each share of Expedia common stock is entitled to one vote per share.

DIVIDEND RIGHTS

AMENDED ARTICLES. Subject to the rights of holders of all classes of stock outstanding at the time and having prior rights as to dividends, to the extent the board of directors of Expedia declares dividends on the common shares of Expedia, the holders of Expedia common stock and Expedia Class B common stock will each be entitled to receive such dividends, on a share for share basis, when, as and if declared by the board of directors.

STOCK DIVIDENDS, STOCK SPLITS OR COMBINATIONS

AMENDED ARTICLES. In the event that a stock dividend, stock split or combination of stock is declared or made with respect to the Expedia common stock and/or Expedia Class B common stock all shares of Expedia common stock and Expedia Class B common stock then outstanding shall be treated equally.

LIQUIDATION

AMENDED ARTICLES. Subject to the rights of holders of all classes of stock at the time outstanding having prior liquidation rights, upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Expedia, the assets of Expedia shall be distributed to the holders of Expedia common stock and Expedia Class B common stock, on a share for share basis.

ACTION BY MAJORITY VOTE

AMENDED ARTICLES. Except as otherwise set forth in the Expedia articles, to the maximum extent permitted under Chapter 23B of the RCW, any corporate action that would otherwise require the affirmative vote of more than a simple majority of the voting power of the shareholders of the Corporation entitled to vote on such action, including amending its articles, approving a merger or share exchange, or the sale of assets, other than in the regular course of business, may be approved by the affirmative vote of a simple majority of the voting power of the shareholders of the Corporation entitled to vote on such action.

CURRENT EXPEDIA ARTICLES. The current Expedia articles of incorporation provide that a merger, share exchange, sale of substantially all of Expedia's assets or dissolution must be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of Expedia's outstanding shares entitled to vote, or if separate voting by voting groups is required then by not less than a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast by that voting group.

ACTION BY SHAREHOLDERS WITHOUT A MEETING

Under Washington law, shareholders of a public company, of which Expedia currently is and will be after the merger, may only act by written consent where the action is unanimously approved by all shareholders.

AMENDED ARTICLES. The amended and restated articles of Expedia include the following provisions governing the relationship of USA and its affiliates, on the one hand, and Expedia and its subsidiaries, on the other hand. Provisions governing the relationship between Expedia and Microsoft have been eliminated.

COMPETING ACTIVITIES. Except as otherwise expressly agreed, the shareholders of Expedia, including USA and its affiliates, may engage or invest in any business activity of any type or description, including those that might be the same or similar to Expedia's business or the business of one of its subsidiaries and neither Expedia nor its subsidiaries or shareholders shall have any rights with respect to such engagement or investment or any income or proceeds derived from the business activity.

CORPORATE OPPORTUNITY. For so long as USA owns common stock of Expedia representing at least 20% of the voting power of all classes of outstanding capital stock of Expedia and at least one person who is a director or officer of Expedia is also a director or officer of USA, Expedia shall have no interest in any investment or business opportunity or prospective economic advantage which is received by USA or an affiliate of USA and that Expedia could but for this provision have an interest or expectancy, except that any person who is an officer of Expedia and who is also a director of USA but not an officer or employee of USA and receives an opportunity in such person's capacity as an officer of Expedia may not take such opportunity for himself or herself. The Amendment also provides that this provision, so long as USA owns common stock representing at least 20% of the voting power of all classes of outstanding capital stock of Expedia, cannot be amended or terminated prospectively without the approval of 80% of the total voting power of all classes of outstanding capital of Expedia.

CURRENT ARTICLES. Expedia's articles of incorporation currently contain provisions governing the relationship between Expedia and Microsoft relating to the contractual relations and other business relations of Expedia and Microsoft and certain other entities and to the rights, duties and liabilities of Expedia in connection with these agreements.

NO PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

Under both the proposed and current Expedia articles, holders of Expedia common stock (and, after the closing, Expedia Class B common stock) do not have any preemptive rights to subscribe for any additional shares of capital stock or other obligations convertible into or exercisable for shares of capital stock that may hereafter be issued by Expedia.

The affirmative vote of a majority of all votes entitled to be cast will be required to approve the amended and restated articles of incorporation. The amendment and restatement of the articles of incorporation is conditioned on approval of all of the other proposals relating to the transactions to be considered at the annual meeting. Under the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement, Microsoft is obligated to vote in favor of the amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia. Accordingly, approval and adoption of the amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia is assured.

THE EXPEDIA BOARD OF DIRECTORS, WITH ONE DIRECTOR EXCUSED, UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE AMENDED AND RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.

DESCRIPTION OF EXPEDIA CAPITAL STOCK

Set forth below is a description of Expedia's capital stock. The following statements are brief summaries of, and are subject to the provisions of, the amended and restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws of Expedia (each as in effect after the effective time of the merger, the Expedia warrant agreement and the relevant provisions of the Business Corporation Act of the State of Washington. The following description assumes that the amended and restated articles of incorporation and bylaws of Expedia have been adopted.

GENERAL

Expedia is authorized to issue up to 770,000,000 shares of capital stock, consisting of 600,000,000 shares of Expedia common stock, par value $0.01 per share, 150,000,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. As of October 15, 2001, there were 51,439,606 shares of Expedia common stock outstanding held of record by approximately 900 persons and no shares of Expedia Class B common stock or Expedia preferred stock outstanding. After the completion of the merger, and assuming issuance and exercise of the maximum number of new Expedia warrants and restricted Expedia warrants, there will be outstanding up to approximately 25,000,000 shares of Expedia common stock, up to 37,500,000 shares of Expedia Class B common stock and no shares of Expedia preferred stock. If preferred stock is issued, Expedia's board of directors may fix the designation, relative rights, preferences and limitations of the shares of each series.

EXPEDIA COMMON STOCK AND EXPEDIA CLASS B COMMON STOCK

Expedia has a "dual class" common stock structure, consisting of Expedia common stock and Expedia Class B common stock. The rights and preferences of the Expedia common stock and the Expedia Class B common stock are identical to each other, except that holders of Expedia Class B common stock have 15 votes per share, compared with one vote per share for the Expedia common stock; provided that if at any time a person and its affiliates would hold in aggregate more than 94.9% of the aggregate voting power of Expedia, then the number of votes for each share of Expedia Class B common stock shall be reduced pursuant to the following formula:

$$v = \frac{(0.949w - y)}{(z - 0.949x)}$$

where v = votes per share of Expedia Class B common stock held by the person;
w = total number of outstanding shares of Expedia common stock;
x = total number of outstanding shares of Expedia Class B common stock;
y = total number of outstanding shares of Expedia common stock held by the person; and z = total number of outstanding shares of Expedia Class B common stock held by the person, provided, further, that (1) subject to clause (3) below, in no event shall the application of the formula result in the aggregate voting power of a person being less than or greater than 94.9% of the aggregate voting power of Expedia, (2) Expedia's Board of Directors shall be authorized to adjust the formula set forth in the first proviso of this paragraph in the event that there are outstanding any voting securities of Expedia other than the common stock and the Class B common stock, as appropriate, to provide that, subject to clause (3) of this proviso, the aggregate voting power of the person is not greater than or less than 94.9% of the aggregate voting power of Expedia, and (3) in the event that pursuant to the formula in the first proviso of this paragraph (as adjusted from time to time pursuant to clause (2) of this proviso), the votes per share of Class B common stock held by the person either (A) cannot be determined or (B) would be a negative number, in each case, which occurs when that person owns more than 94.9% of the outstanding Expedia common stock as well as 94.9% or more of the Expedia Class B common stock, the first proviso of this paragraph shall be disregarded and be of no further force and effect and each share of Class B common stock shall be entitled to fifteen (15) votes per share.

No holders of either class of Expedia's common stock have cumulative voting rights, preemptive or conversion rights. There are no redemption or sinking fund provisions available to either class of Expedia common stock. All outstanding shares of each class of Expedia common stock are fully-paid and non-assessable. Taking into consideration preferences that may be applicable to any then-outstanding Expedia preferred stock, holders of either class of Expedia common stock will be entitled to receive ratably any dividends that may be declared by the board of directors of Expedia out of funds legally available for these dividends. In the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Expedia, holders of either class of Expedia common stock will be entitled to share ratably in all assets remaining after payment of liabilities and any liquidation preference to any then-outstanding holders of Expedia preferred stock.

NEW EXPEDIA WARRANTS

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

New Expedia warrants will be issued under a warrant agreement entered into prior to completion of the transactions between Expedia and Mellon Investor Services LLC, as warrant agent, a form of which has been filed as an exhibit to the registration statements of which this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement is a part.

Each Expedia shareholder who retains his shares of Expedia common stock in the recapitalization will receive, after the completion of the merger, 0.1920 of a new Expedia warrant for each retained share of Expedia common stock. There are currently no new Expedia warrants outstanding. Each new Expedia warrant will entitle its holder to purchase one share of Expedia common stock at an exercise price of $52.00 per share of Expedia common stock. The exercise price must be paid in cash. Each new Expedia warrant may be exercised on any business day on or after its date of issuance until the seventh anniversary of its date of issuance. Any new Expedia warrant not exercised before the expiration of this period will become void, and all rights of the holder of the new Expedia warrant will cease. Holders of new Expedia warrants will not be entitled, by virtue of being such holders, to have any rights of holders of Expedia common stock until they exercise their warrants.

The number of shares of Expedia common stock issuable upon exercise of the new Expedia warrants and the exercise price of the new Expedia warrants will be subject to adjustment from time to time upon the occurrence of any of the following events after the completion of the merger: any stock split; any stock consolidation, combination or subdivision; any stock dividend or other distribution; and any repurchase, reclassification, recapitalization or reorganization.

Expedia will keep in reserve at all times before the expiration date of the new Expedia warrants sufficient authorized but unissued shares of Expedia common stock for issuance in the event of exercises by the holders of new Expedia warrants. In addition, the new Expedia warrants and any Expedia common stock issued upon exercise of the new Expedia warrants will be registered under the Securities Act.

TRANSFER AGENT

The transfer agent for the shares of Expedia common stock is Mellon Investor Services LLC.

DESCRIPTION OF USA CAPITAL STOCK

Set forth below is a description of USA's capital stock. The following statements are brief summaries of, and are subject to the provisions of, USA's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, the USA warrant agreement and the relevant provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

As of the date of this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement, the authorized capital stock of USA consists of 1,600,000,000 shares of USA common stock, par value $0.01 per share, 400,000,000 shares of USA Class B common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 15,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. Prior to the completion of the transactions, USA's certificate of incorporation will be amended to, among other things, increase the authorized number of shares of preferred stock of USA to 100,000,000 shares.

USA COMMON STOCK AND USA CLASS B COMMON STOCK

As of October 15, 2001, there were 313,996,640 shares of USA common stock outstanding held of record by approximately 37,000 stockholders and 63,033,452 shares of USA Class B common stock outstanding held of record by seven stockholders. Upon consummation of the transactions, based on the number of shares of USA common stock outstanding as of October 15, 2001 and assuming the maximum number of USA securities are issued in the merger, there would be outstanding approximately 342,529,249 shares of USA common stock and 63,033,452 shares of USA Class B common stock.

With respect to matters that may be submitted to a vote or for the consent of the USA stockholders, including the election of directors, each holder of USA Class B common stock is entitled to ten votes for each share of USA Class B common stock held and will vote together with the holders of USA common stock as a single class. Each holder of USA common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of USA common stock held. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the holders of USA common stock, acting as a single class, are entitled to elect 25% of the total number of directors, and, in the event that 25% of the total number of directors shall result in a fraction of a director, then the holders of USA common stock, acting as a single class, are entitled to elect the next higher whole number of directors.

Shares of USA Class B common stock are convertible into shares of USA common stock at the option of the holder thereof at any time on a share-for-share basis. Such conversion ratio will in all events be equitably preserved in the event of any recapitalization of USA by means of a stock dividend on, or a stock split or combination of, outstanding USA common stock or USA Class B common stock, or in the event of any merger, consolidation or other reorganization of USA with another corporation. Upon the conversion of USA Class B common stock into shares of USA common stock, those shares of USA Class B common stock will be retired and will not be subject to reissue. Shares of USA common stock are not convertible into shares of USA Class B common stock.

In all other respects, the USA common stock and the USA Class B common stock are identical. The holders of USA common stock and the holders of USA Class B common stock are entitled to receive, share for share, such dividends as may be declared by USA's board of directors out of funds legally available therefor. In the event of a liquidation, dissolution, distribution of assets or winding-up of USA, the holders of USA common stock and the holders of USA Class B common stock are entitled to share ratably in all the assets of USA available for distribution to its stockholders, after the rights of the holders of the USA preferred stock, if any, have been satisfied.

In connection with its acquisition of Studios USA from Universal Studios, USA granted to Universal Studios and Liberty Media preemptive rights which generally provide that each of Universal Studios and Liberty Media may elect to purchase a number of shares of USA stock, or shares of a subsidiary of USA exchangeable for shares of USA stock, referred to as LLC shares, so that the percentage equity interest such entity owned of USA after its acquisition of Studios USA will be the same as before such acquisition, in each case, assuming the exchange of all LLC shares owned by Universal Studios and Liberty Media and shares of Home Shopping Network owned by a subsidiary of Liberty Media. The purchase price for shares of USA stock pursuant to a preemptive right election is the fair market value of the USA stock, or LLC share, purchased. Subject to specified limits set forth in the governance agreement, Universal Studios may elect to receive shares of USA common stock or USA Class B common stock in connection with a preemptive exercise, or LLC shares exchangeable for shares of USA stock; Liberty's preemptive exercises are for USA common stock only, or LLC shares exchangeable for shares of USA common stock.

The USA certificate of incorporation provides that there can be no stock dividends or stock splits or combinations of stock declared or made on USA common stock or USA Class B common stock unless the shares of USA common stock and USA Class B common stock then outstanding are treated equally and identically.

The shares of USA common stock to be issued in connection with the merger will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

USA PREFERRED STOCK

As of the record date, there were no shares of preferred stock of USA outstanding. Shares of preferred stock of USA may be issued from time to time in one or more series. The USA board of directors has authority, by resolution, to designate the powers, preferences, rights and qualifications, limitations and restrictions of preferred stock of USA.

SERIES A CUMULATIVE CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK

GENERAL. In connection with the transactions, USA will issue an aggregate of 13,125,000 shares of its preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, as "Series A Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock," each having a $50.00 face value and a term of 20 years. We refer to Series A Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock in this document as USA preferred stock. Prior to the completion of the transactions, USA's certificate of incorporation will be amended, to, among other things, increase the authorized number of shares of preferred stock of USA from 15,000,000 to 100,000,000 and allow amendments to the number of authorized shares of preferred stock, or the number of shares of any class or series of preferred stock, so long as the holders of a majority of the voting power of USA's stock approve the amendment.

THE FOLLOWING IS A DESCRIPTION OF THE MATERIAL TERMS OF THE USA PREFERRED STOCK, THE POWERS, PREFERENCES, RIGHTS AND QUALIFICATIONS, LIMITATIONS AND RESTRICTIONS OF WHICH ARE SET FORTH IN THE FORM OF CERTIFICATE OF DESIGNATIONS OF THE USA PREFERRED STOCK ATTACHED AS AN EXHIBIT TO THE REGISTRATION STATEMENTS OF USA AND EXPEDIA OF WHICH THIS JOINT PROSPECTUS/PROXY AND INFORMATION STATEMENT IS A PART AND INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE IN THIS DOCUMENT. WE URGE YOU TO READ THE CERTIFICATE OF DESIGNATIONS IN ITS ENTIRETY.

VOTING RIGHTS. Holders of USA preferred stock will be entitled to two votes for each share of USA preferred stock held on all matters presented to such shareholders. Except as otherwise required by Delaware law, or any special voting rights of USA preferred stock as described in this document, the holders of USA common stock, USA Class B common stock and USA preferred stock entitled to vote with the common shareholders will vote together as one class. No separate class vote of USA preferred stock will be required for the approval of any matter except as required by Delaware law.

DIVIDENDS. Each share of USA preferred stock is entitled to receive dividends equal to the sum of (1) 1.99% of the face value per year, payable quarterly in cash or USA common stock, at USA's option, plus (2) the excess, if any, of the aggregate value of any dividends paid on the USA common stock underlying the USA preferred stock over the amount described in (1). If USA elects to pay the dividends in USA common stock, the price will be based on the trailing ten day average price of USA common stock prior to the payment date. No other preferred stock of USA will rank senior to USA preferred stock with respect to payment of dividends.

CONVERSION RIGHTS. Each share of USA preferred stock is convertible, at the option of the holder at any time after the effective time of the merger, into that number of shares of USA common stock equal to the quotient obtained by dividing $50 by the conversion price per share of USA common stock. The initial conversion price is equal to $33.75 per share of USA common stock. The conversion price will be adjusted downward if the share price of USA common stock exceeds $35.10 at the time of conversion pursuant to the following formula (rounded to the nearest cent):

$$\frac{$50 \times (\text{USA}_i)}{(\text{USA}_i \times 1.4815) + (0.4792 \times (\text{USA}_i - 35.10))}$$

where  $\text{USA}_i$  = trailing ten-day average price of USA common stock.

The certificate of designations also includes an anti-dilution adjustment provision so that the number of shares of USA common stock to be received upon conversion of a share of USA preferred stock is adjusted from time to time in the event of any stock split, stock consolidation, combination or subdivision, stock dividend or other distribution and any repurchase, reclassification, recapitalization or reorganization of USA.

REDEMPTION BY USA. Commencing on the tenth anniversary of the effective time of the merger, USA shall have the right from time to time to redeem at least 25% of the original aggregate face value and up to 100% of the original aggregate face value of the outstanding USA preferred stock at a redemption price per USA preferred stock equal to face value plus any accrued and unpaid dividends. Any payment by USA pursuant to a redemption by USA may be made in cash or USA common stock, at the option of USA.

REDEMPTION BY THE HOLDER OF USA PREFERRED STOCK. During the 20 business day period preceding each of the fifth, seventh, tenth and fifteenth anniversaries of the effective time of the merger, a holder of USA preferred stock shall have the right to require USA to purchase all or a portion of the shares of USA preferred stock held by such holder for face value plus any accrued and unpaid dividends. Any payment by USA pursuant to a redemption by the holder of USA preferred stock may be made in cash or USA common stock, at the option of USA.

LIQUIDATION RIGHTS. In the event of a voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of USA, holders of USA preferred stock shall be entitled to receive in preference to any holder of USA common shares an amount per share equal to all accrued and unpaid dividends plus the greater of (a) face value, or (b) the liquidating distribution that would be received had such holder converted the USA preferred stock into USA common stock immediately prior to the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of USA. No other preferred stock of USA will rank senior to USA preferred stock with respect to payment upon liquidation.

RESERVATION OF SHARES OF USA COMMON STOCK. USA will keep in reserve at all times during the term of the USA preferred stock sufficient authorized but unissued shares of USA common stock for issuance in the event of exercises by the holders of USA preferred stock.

REGISTRATION OF SHARES UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933. The USA preferred stock and any USA common stock issued upon conversion of the USA preferred stock will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933.

USA WARRANTS

USA warrants will be issued under a warrant agreement to be entered into prior to completion of the transactions between USA and The Bank of New York, as warrant agent, a form of which has been filed as an exhibit to the registration statements of which this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement is a part.

Each Expedia shareholder who properly elects to receive and receives Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization will automatically receive, among other things, a fraction of a USA warrant equal to the exchange ratio corresponding to the measurement period value of USA common stock set forth on Annex F to this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement. There are currently no USA warrants outstanding. Each USA warrant will entitle its holder to purchase one share of USA common stock at an exercise price of $35.10 per share of USA common stock. The exercise price must be paid in cash. Each USA warrant may be exercised on any business day on or after its date of issuance until the seventh anniversary of its date of issuance. Any USA warrant not exercised before the expiration of this period will become void, and all rights of the holder of the USA warrant will cease. Holders of USA warrants will not be entitled, by virtue of being such holders, to have any rights of holders of USA common stock until they exercise their warrants.

The number of shares of USA common stock issuable upon exercise of the USA warrants and the exercise price of the USA warrants will be subject to adjustment from time to time upon the occurrence of any of the following events after the completion of the merger: any stock split; any stock consolidation, combination or subdivision; any stock dividend or other distribution; and any repurchase, reclassification, recapitalization or reorganization.

USA will keep in reserve at all times before the expiration date of the USA warrants sufficient authorized but unissued shares of USA common stock for issuance in the event of exercises by the holders of USA warrants. The transfer agent for the shares of USA common stock is The Bank of New York.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS OF EXPEDIA AND USA

USA is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, while Expedia is incorporated under the laws of the State of Washington. After the completion of the merger, Expedia shareholders who elect not to receive Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization will remain shareowners of Expedia, and their rights as such will continue to be governed by the Washington Business

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Corporation Act (the "WBCA"), the amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia and the amended and restated bylaws of Expedia. By contrast, Expedia shareholders who elect to receive Expedia Class B common stock in the recapitalization, and therefore the USA securities in the merger (to the extent they are not prorated), will become stockholders of USA, and their rights as such will be governed by the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), the restated certificate of incorporation of USA and the amended and restated bylaws of USA.

While there are substantial similarities between the WBCA and the DGCL as well as between the charters and bylaws of USA and Expedia, a number of differences do exist. The following is a summary of certain material differences between the current rights of USA and Expedia shareowners under the DGCL and WBCA, respectively, and under the respective charters and bylaws of USA and Expedia. The identification of specific differences is not intended to indicate that other equally or more significant differences do not exist. The following summary does not purport to be a complete description of these rights and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the DGCL, the WBCA, and the governing corporate instruments of USA and Expedia. Copies of such governing corporate instruments are available by following the instructions described under "Summary--Where You Can Find More Information."

PROPOSAL NO. 3--TERMINATION OF THE SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT

On October 1, 1999, Expedia and Microsoft entered into a shareholder agreement that provided for, among other things, the following:

- tag-along rights for all Expedia shareholders with respect to any transfer to a third party of Expedia common stock by Microsoft or any subsequent holder of Expedia common stock. This requires that any such transfer be conditioned on all of the holders of Expedia common stock being offered the same per share consideration as that being received by Microsoft or the subsequent holder;
- registration rights for Microsoft with respect to its shares of Expedia common stock; and
- restrictions on Microsoft's ability to compete with Expedia.

As part of the transactions, each of USA and Microsoft has required, as a condition to the completion of the transactions, that the shareholder agreement be terminated. Upon consummation of the transactions, assuming the proposal to terminate the shareholder agreement is approved by the requisite vote of Expedia shareholders, the relationship between Microsoft and Expedia will be governed by any ongoing agreements they may have and applicable law. The relationship between Expedia and USA will be governed by certain terms of the amended and restated articles of incorporation of Expedia, by the Washington Business Corporation Act, any agreements between Expedia and USA, or their respective affiliates, as well as other applicable law.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

The affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding Expedia common stock entitled to vote is required to adopt and approve the termination of the shareholder agreement. The termination of the shareholder agreement is conditioned on approval of all of the other proposals relating to the transactions to be considered at the annual meeting. Under the Microsoft/USA voting and election agreement, Microsoft is obligated to vote in favor of the termination of the shareholder agreement. Accordingly, approval and adoption of this proposal is assured.

PROPOSAL NO. 4--ELECTION OF EXPEDIA DIRECTORS

Expedia's board of directors currently consists of seven members. Expedia's board of directors has nominated each of the seven persons named below to serve for an additional one-year term. All seven directors are to be elected at the annual meeting, to hold office until the 2002 annual meeting of shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualified. However, as discussed below, certain of the directors elected at the annual meeting will resign upon consummation of the transactions. Expedia also expects that each of the nominees will be available for election, but if any of them is not a candidate at the time the election occurs, Expedia expects that proxies, unless otherwise directed, will be voted for the election of another nominee to be designated by the board of directors to fill the vacancy. Microsoft has agreed to vote all its shares of Expedia common stock in favor of this Proposal No. 4 and has granted Expedia an irrevocable proxy to vote its shares in favor of this Proposal No. 4. The vote of Microsoft's shares is sufficient to ensure approval of Proposal No. 4. THE EXPEDIA BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES TO THE EXPEDIA BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Following the consummation of the transactions, Expedia's board of directors will consist of eleven members, including Mr. Barton, Mr. Stanger, six directors appointed by USA, one of whom will be Mr. Diller, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of USA, who will serve as chairman of the board of Expedia, and three additional independent directors mutually agreed to by USA and Expedia, two of whom will be Messrs. Maffei and Hoag, who are currently directors of Expedia. As a result, upon consummation of the transactions, Brad Chase, Gerald Grinstein, Richard Nanula and Laurie McDonald Jonsson will resign from Expedia's board of directors in order to permit Mr. Stanger and the USA nominees to be appointed to the board of directors. Although it is currently anticipated that the transactions will be consummated shortly after the approval of the shareholders is obtained at the annual meeting, the parties cannot guarantee that the transactions will be consummated as anticipated. If the transactions are not consummated, the seven directors elected at the annual meeting will hold office until the 2002 annual meeting of shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualified.

The "value realized" figures are based on the fair market value of Expedia's common stock at the exercise date, minus the per share exercise price, multiplied by the number of options exercised. The "value of unexercised in-the-money options" figures in the right-hand column are based on the fair market value of Expedia's common stock at June 30,

RICHARD N. BARTON EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

During fiscal 2001, Expedia had an employment agreement with Richard N. Barton, which provides that, if he is terminated by Expedia during his first two years of employment for reasons set forth in the agreement, he will receive the salary and stock option vesting which he would have otherwise received as an Expedia employee.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

During fiscal 2001, Expedia's compensation program for officers was designed to attract and retain outstanding employees with a compensation package including competitive salaries, incentive bonuses, benefits and stock options. The compensation committee of the board of directors approves guidelines and actual allocations for each officer's annual compensation package. These annual compensation packages are targeted to be in line with the 50th percentile of total compensation paid by comparable companies in high-technology and other industries. The comparable companies selected for compensation comparison purposes differ from the companies included in the Morgan Stanley Internet Commerce Index, which is used in the Performance Graph included below.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

The compensation program for executive officers focuses on long-term incentives and, therefore, officers' salaries are generally less than those paid by comparable companies in the Internet and technology industries. Individual salary levels are based the officer's level of responsibility, historical performance, relevant experience and breadth of knowledge. Pursuant to Expedia's Annual Incentive Plan for Officers, the compensation committee established a target bonus for Richard N. Barton, Expedia's president and chief executive officer, equal to 50% of his salary for fiscal 2001 and for each of the other officers equal to 30% of their respective salaries for fiscal 2001. Under the plan, the compensation committee then took the sum of these target bonuses to establish a target bonus pool. If Expedia met two objective performance metrics, then the target bonus pool could be increased by a maximum of 100%. Executive officers were eligible to receive anywhere from 0% to 200% of their target bonus depending on the size of the target bonus pool and how the compensation committee felt that officer performed over the fiscal year. Each officer is also eligible for annual stock option grants under Expedia's 1999 Stock Option Plan structured to promote Expedia's success by aligning employee financial interests with long-term shareholder value. Stock option grants are based on various subjective factors, including each officer's responsibilities, their expected future contributions to Expedia, and their prior option grants.

The compensation committee reviews and approves stock option grants for Mr. Barton on a semi-annual basis. The compensation committee reviews all other compensation for Mr. Barton on an annual basis. As an executive officer of the company, Mr. Barton is subject to the same compensation guidelines as all other executive officers. In fiscal 2001, Mr. Barton received a bonus under the Annual Incentive Plan for Officers, which was approximately 90% of his salary. The compensation committee awarded this bonus based upon Mr. Barton's individual performance and Expedia's overall performance during fiscal 2001, as well as the fact that Mr. Barton's salary is significantly lower than that of chief executive officers of comparable companies.

As indicated above, Expedia's compensation policy is primarily based upon the practice of pay-for-performance. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code imposes a limitation on the deductibility of nonperformance-based compensation in excess of $1 million paid to the Named Executive Officers. The committee believes that Expedia should be able to manage the stock option-related compensation of the Named Executive Officers so as to preserve the related federal income tax deductions, although exceptions may occur.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

To the Board of Directors:

We have reviewed and discussed with management Expedia's audited financial statements as of and for the year ended June 30, 2001.

We have discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

We have received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from Deloitte & Touche LLP required by Independence Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Independence Standards Board, and have discussed with the auditors the auditors' independence.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, we recommend to the Board of Directors that the financial statements referred to above be included in Expedia's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2001.

We have also considered whether the provision of services by Deloitte & Touche LLP not related to the audit of the financial statements referred to above and to the reviews of the interim financial statements included in Expedia's Forms 10-Q for the quarters ended September 30, 2000, December 31, 2000 and March 31, 2001 is compatible with maintaining Deloitte & Touche LLP's independence.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following Performance Graph compares, for fiscal 2001, the cumulative total shareholder return for Expedia, The Nasdaq Stock Market (U.S. Companies) Index (the "NASDAQ MARKET INDEX"), and The Morgan Stanley Internet Commerce Index (the "MORGAN STANLEY INDEX"). The Performance Graph assumes that $100 was invested beginning on the date of Expedia's initial public offering in each of Expedia and the indexes. Total return performance for the Nasdaq Market Index and the Morgan Stanley Index is weighted based on the market capitalization of the companies included in each index and assumes that dividends are reinvested. In fiscal 2001, Expedia did not declare or pay any dividends on the Expedia common stock. Immediately following the Performance Graph is a chart of the numerical plot-points that support the graph. The stock price performance shown in the graph below should not be considered indicative of potential future stock price performance of Expedia.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

EXPEDIA RELATIONSHIP WITH MICROSOFT

In October 1996, Microsoft launched its online travel services through Expedia. On October 1, 1999, Microsoft separated the Expedia assets and contributed them to Expedia in exchange for 33,000,000 shares of common stock or 100% of Expedia's outstanding common stock at that date. As of October 15, 2001, Microsoft owned approximately 66% of Expedia's outstanding common stock. Following the completion of the transactions, Microsoft will no longer own a controlling interest in Expedia.

At the time of Expedia's separation from Microsoft, Microsoft assigned to Expedia a number of contracts having to do with the Expedia business. Many of these have intellectual property components. Generally, where the contract only impacted the Expedia business and no other units of Microsoft, it was assigned to Expedia. To Expedia's knowledge, Microsoft obtained all necessary consents to these assignments where applicable.

At the time of Expedia's separation from Microsoft, Expedia also entered into a number of other agreements with Microsoft that were necessary to separate the Expedia assets from Microsoft and to facilitate the operation of the Expedia assets after such separation. As part of the transactions, and as provided by the merger agreement, each of the agreements relating to Expedia's separation from Microsoft has been amended and restated or will be amended and restated prior to the closing of the transactions, except for the license agreement which will only be amended and restated in the event Expedia and Microsoft do not enter into a patent assignment agreement prior to the closing. In addition, Expedia and Microsoft recently entered into two additional agreements that will also govern their relationship following the closing of the transactions. Each of these agreements is summarized below.

AMENDED AND RESTATED CARRIAGE AND CROSS PROMOTION AGREEMENT. In June 2001, Expedia and Microsoft entered into an amended and restated carriage and cross promotion agreement. Under this agreement, Microsoft's domestic and international MSN websites promote co-branded versions of the Expedia websites that include the logos of both Expedia and MSN in the United States, the United Kingdom, Germany and Canada, the countries in which Expedia is currently present. These co-branded websites are the preferred travel transaction services offered on MSN, except in international markets where Expedia does not have a presence. Under the agreement, the parties also agreed to certain restrictions regarding the promotion of competitors on MSN.com and on the MSN Expedia co-branded travel websites accessed via MSN.com. The amended and restated agreement has a four-year term.

Expedia pays Microsoft slotting fees and performance fees under the amended and restated carriage and cross promotion agreement. These fees are calculated in accordance with the terms of the agreement and, in certain cases, a letter agreement entered into by Expedia and Microsoft in July 2001. Expedia pays Microsoft an annual slotting fee of $500,000 for the U.S. co-branded travel website. This fee is credited toward the performance fees that Expedia is required to pay Microsoft. Expedia pays Microsoft an annual slotting fee of $250,000 for each non-U.S. co-branded travel website. These fees are credited towards the performance fees Expedia is required to pay Microsoft only if these non-U.S. websites exceed specified revenue targets. The performance fees Expedia pays to Microsoft are based on the number of transactions of each transaction type that occur on the co-branded websites multiplied by the average gross profit per transaction achieved by Expedia for each transaction type multiplied by the agreed percentage of gross profit to be shared for each transaction type.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

AMENDED AND RESTATED SERVICES AGREEMENT. On October 1, 1999, Expedia and Microsoft entered into a services agreement whereby Microsoft agreed to provide Expedia with certain administrative and operational services. This agreement was subsequently amended and restated effective January 1, 2001 and further amended effective July 1, 2001. Expedia and Microsoft intend to amend further the terms under which Microsoft provides Expedia with these services by entering into a second amended and restated services agreement prior to the completion of the transactions.

Under the second amended and restated services agreement, Microsoft will continue to provide Expedia with specified administrative and operational services. In return, Expedia will pay Microsoft fees based on the total direct and indirect costs incurred by Microsoft in providing these services to Expedia. The current amended and restated services agreement is effective through June 30, 2002 and the second amended and restated services agreement will be effective through September 30, 2002. The amended and restated agreement is cancelable by Expedia upon 30 days written notice and, in limited circumstances, by Microsoft upon 180 days written notice. The second amended and restated agreement will contain comparable termination provisions and will also provide that Microsoft may terminate specified services if it determines in good faith, after consultation with Expedia and USA, that it is inappropriate for Microsoft to continue providing these services to an unaffiliated third party. Expedia has been developing and will continue to develop its own resources in these areas and currently intends to discontinue some or all of the services provided by Microsoft before the end of the second amended and restated agreement.

HOSTING SERVICES AGREEMENT. On August 14, 2001, in connection with the transactions, Expedia and Microsoft entered into a hosting services agreement under which Microsoft provides Expedia with internet service provider services for the Expedia websites. Microsoft previously provided these services to Expedia under the amended and restated services agreement. The hosting services agreement has a four-year term. Expedia pays Microsoft for the hosting services on a cost basis.

LICENSE AGREEMENT. On October 1, 1999, Expedia and Microsoft entered into a license agreement under which Microsoft provides Expedia with rights to intellectual property used in its business. Microsoft assigned to Expedia the trademarks and domain names associated with the name "Expedia." In addition, Microsoft assigned to Expedia copyrights for software relating to online travel services.

Expedia licenses the right to use some of Microsoft's retail products and other technology under the license agreement with Microsoft. All of the licenses relating to Expedia specific software content and data and patents are royalty-free, irrevocable and perpetual. Upon completion of the transactions, the license agreement will be terminated, however, the perpetual licenses will remain.

AMENDED AND RESTATED MAP SERVER LICENSE AGREEMENT. On October 1, 1999, Expedia and Microsoft entered into a map server agreement under which Microsoft licenses to Expedia certain server technology related to the Expedia Maps service. In connection with the transactions, Expedia and Microsoft entered into an amended and restated map server license agreement effective August 15, 2001 to amend some of the terms under which Microsoft provides Expedia with such technology.

Under the amended and restated map server license agreement, Microsoft will develop, maintain, host and serve maps to the Expedia websites. This agreement has a four-year term. The maps will be customized for the Expedia websites and will include both Expedia's logo and Microsoft's MapPoint.Net logo. Expedia has agreed to pay Microsoft on a per transaction basis for each map served.

AGREEMENT TO ASSIGN PATENT APPLICATIONS AND ROYALTY SHARING AGREEMENT. On November 6, 2001, Microsoft and Expedia entered into an assignment agreement pursuant to which Microsoft assigned to Expedia all of Microsoft's patents relating to the operation of Expedia's websites. The assignment agreement includes a limited license of such patents from Expedia to Microsoft. Further, the assignment agreement includes a royalty sharing arrangement under which Expedia will pay a percentage of any royalties collected by Expedia to Microsoft for licenses to such patents that are granted by Expedia to third parties for use in products and/or services other than online travel services.

AMENDED AND RESTATED REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT. On July 15, 2001, in connection with the transactions, Expedia and Microsoft entered into a registration rights agreement. This agreement was subsequently amended and restated by the parties. Under the amended and restated agreement, Expedia agreed to grant to Microsoft customary registration rights, including the right to underwritten offerings, relating to Expedia securities, if any, owned by Microsoft following completion of the transactions. Expedia agreed to file a registration statement on Form S-3 with respect to Microsoft's Expedia securities and to use its reasonable best efforts to make such registration statement effective as promptly as practicable following the completion of the transactions.

TAX ALLOCATION AGREEMENT. Effective October 1, 1999, Expedia entered into a tax allocation agreement with Microsoft. For periods during which Expedia was included in Microsoft's consolidated U.S. federal tax return, the agreement generally adopts the "percentage of tax liability" method of Regulations section 1.1552-1(a)(2) as its "basic method" and the "percentage" method of Regulations section 1.1502-33(d)(3) as its complementary method.

Under the "percentage of tax liability" method, a member's allocable share of consolidated tax liability is equal to the tax liability of the group multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the separate return tax liability of such member and the denominator of which is the sum of the separate return tax liability of all the members.

This basic allocation method is modified by the complementary "percentage" method. Under the percentage method, in the event a loss or credit is generated by a member, such member is compensated at the time the loss or credit is absorbed by the other members of the Microsoft group. In Expedia's case, however, 7.5% of the benefit Expedia generates and is absorbed by the other members of the Microsoft group will be retained by Microsoft as a "fee" because Expedia is being paid for tax attributes prior to the time Expedia could have used them to reduce Expedia's tax liability.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Expedia may be reimbursed by Microsoft for tax losses incurred during the period from October 1, 1999 to March 17, 2000 which are utilized on the Microsoft consolidated U.S. federal tax return. On March 18, 2000, Microsoft's investment in Expedia fell below 80% ownership. As such, from March 18, 2000 onward, Expedia must file a separate tax return. Any losses not utilized by Microsoft during the period that Expedia was included in Microsoft's consolidated return will be carried forward by Expedia and can be used on Expedia's separate return to offset any future taxable income.

Under the terms of this agreement, Microsoft is entitled to the benefit of the compensation deduction attributable to the Microsoft stock options that Expedia assumed at the time of Expedia's initial public offering. Expedia and Microsoft take this deduction into account under the normal tax accounting rules, so the deduction generally occurs on the exercise of the options. The portion of this cost that Microsoft deducts is equal to the excess of the fair market value of the shares to be acquired on exercise of the option on the date Expedia employs the optionee over the exercise price of the assumed option. Expedia determined this amount on the date that Expedia employed each optionee.

The parties have agreed in the merger agreement that the aggregate liability of Expedia to make payments after the date of the merger agreement to no more than $36,300,000 with respect to any past, present or future taxable periods. In addition, the parties have agreed that the term "Inherent Bargain Element," as used in the Microsoft tax allocation agreement, will not include any amount with respect to any option to purchase Expedia common stock granted on or after July 15, 2001. Microsoft has also agreed to indemnify and hold harmless USA and Expedia for certain tax liabilities. For further information regarding this amendment, see "The Transaction Agreements--The Merger Agreement--Covenants and Agreements--Tax Covenant."

On November 9, 2001, Expedia and Microsoft entered into an agreement setting forth the manner in which Expedia is to compensate Microsoft for the compensation deductions attributable to the "Inherent Bargain Element" as used in the Microsoft tax allocation agreement. Under this agreement,

Expedia generally will be required to compensate Microsoft for the actual federal and state tax savings that Expedia realizes as a result of the use of the compensation deductions, as and when Expedia realizes such tax savings. A copy of this agreement is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part.

SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT. Microsoft has entered into a shareholder agreement with Expedia that provides for, among other things, the following:

- tag-along rights for all Expedia shareholders with respect to any transfer to a third party of Expedia common stock by Microsoft or any subsequent holder of Expedia common stock. This requires that any such transfer be conditioned on all of the holders of Expedia common stock being offered the same per share consideration as that being received by Microsoft or the subsequent holder;
- registration rights for Microsoft with respect to its shares of Expedia

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

common stock; and

- restrictions on Microsoft's ability to compete with Expedia.

As part of the transactions, each of USA and Microsoft has required, as a condition to the completion of the transactions, that the shareholder agreement be terminated. Expedia's shareholders will be asked to approve a proposal to terminate the shareholder agreement at the annual meeting. For further information regarding this proposal, see "Proposal No. 3--Termination of the Shareholder Agreement."

EXPEDIA'S RELATIONSHIP WITH TECHNOLOGY CROSSOVER VENTURES ("TCV") AND MICROSOFT VENTURES RESULTING FROM THE PRIVATE PLACEMENT OF SHARES WITH TCV IV, L.P., TCV IV STRATEGIC PARTNERS, L.P. AND MICROSOFT IN AUGUST 2000. Jay Hoag is a founding general partner of TCV and a managing member of Technology Crossover Management IV, L.L.C., which is the general partner of the TCV IV Funds. As part of the private placement, Mr. Hoag became a director of Expedia.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICIES. Expedia's articles of incorporation currently contain provisions governing the relationship between Expedia and Microsoft relating to the contractual relations and other business relations of Expedia and Microsoft and certain other entities and to the rights, duties and liabilities of Expedia in connection with these relations.

As part of the transactions, and as a condition to the completion of the transactions, Expedia's articles of incorporation will be amended and restated. Provisions governing the relationship between Expedia and Microsoft will be eliminated in the amended and restated articles of incorporation that Expedia's shareholders will be asked to approve at the annual meeting. In addition, Expedia's amended and restated articles of incorporation will contain provisions governing the relationship between USA and its affiliates, on the one hand, and Expedia and its subsidiaries, on the other hand. For further information regarding the proposal to amend and restate Expedia's articles of incorporation and the provisions that will govern Expedia's relationship with USA, see "Proposal No. 2--Amendment and Restatement of Expedia's Articles of Incorporation."

PROPOSAL NO. 5--ADOPTION OF EXPEDIA 2001 STOCK PLAN

You are being asked to approve the Expedia, Inc. 2001 Stock Plan (the "PLAN"), which was adopted by Expedia's board of directors, in November 2001, subject to the approval of Expedia's shareholders. The Plan provides for the issuance of up to 6,800,000 shares of Expedia common stock. The Plan will become effective immediately upon approval by Expedia's shareholders. Upon its effectiveness, approximately 900 individuals will be eligible to participate in the Plan.

The following summary of the main features of the Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Plan, which is set forth as Annex I to this joint prospectus/proxy and information statement.

The purposes of the Plan are to attract and retain the best available personnel for positions within Expedia, to provide additional incentive to

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Expedia's employees, consultants and directors (collectively referred to as "Service Providers") and to promote the success of Expedia's business.

The Plan provides for the grant of nonstatutory stock options, restricted stock and stock purchase rights ("SPRS") to Service Providers including employees (including officers and employee directors) of Expedia or its affiliates. The Plan will also provide for a one-time grant to holders of Expedia stock options, prior to the date of the annual meeting, of 0.1920 of an Expedia warrant for each unvested and vested Expedia option issued under the Expedia employee benefit plans on or prior to August 2, 2001, who continue to hold such options on the date of the grant of the warrants. The terms of the Expedia warrants will be identical to the terms of the Expedia warrants being distributed in the merger, except that the warrants issued under the Plan with respect to unvested options will be subject to the same vesting schedule as the options with respect to which they are being issued, and will not be transferable for 90 days following the grant of the warrant. Unless terminated sooner, the Plan will terminate automatically in 10 years.

The administrator of the Plan has the power to determine whether and to what extent options, restricted stock and SPRs or any combination thereof are to be granted, to grant options, restricted stock, SPRs, the terms of the options, restricted stock or SPRs granted, the number of shares subject to each option, grant of restricted stock or SPR, the exercisability of options and SPRs and the form of consideration payable upon such exercise. In addition, the Board has the authority to amend, suspend or terminate the Plan, provided that no such action may be made without shareholder approval if such approval is necessary to comply with any tax or regulatory requirement applicable to the Plan, and no such action may be made without the consent of participants if such action would impair the rights of such participant. No optionee may be granted options and warrants for more than an aggregate of 2,000,000 shares of Expedia common stock in any calendar year. Directors who are not employees of Expedia or any of its subsidiaries may be granted stock options with respect to a maximum of 15,000 shares of Expedia common stock in their initial year as a director and stock options with respect to 10,000 shares of Expedia common stock in any calendar year thereafter. Participants in the Plan may receive up to 2,000,000 shares of restricted stock subject to performance-vesting conditions in any calendar year.

Options, restricted stock and SPRs granted under the Plan are generally not transferable by the optionee or grantee, other than by will or the laws of descent or distribution or in respect of vested rights, transfer by gift, or, with the consent of the administrator, for value, to immediate family members or charitable organizations of the optionee or grantee or charitable organizations, and each option, grant of restricted stock and SPR is exercisable during the lifetime of the award holder only by such award holder. Options granted under the Plan generally must be exercised within three months after the end of the optionee's status as a Service Provider of Expedia or its affiliates, within 18 months in the case of termination by disability or within 12 months in the case of termination in the event of the death of the optionee. In the case of termination as a result of disability or death, only those options may be exercised that would have vested within 12 months of the date of termination. In the case where the optionee is not a Service Provider at the time of their death, those options may be exercised within 12 months of the date of death but in no event later than the expiration of the option's term.

In the case of SPRs, unless the administrator determines otherwise, the restricted stock purchase agreement will grant Expedia a repurchase option exercisable upon the voluntary or involuntary cessation of being a Service Provider to Expedia for any reason (including death or disability). The purchase price for shares repurchased pursuant to the restricted stock purchase agreement will be the original price paid by the purchaser and may be paid by cancellation of any indebtedness of the purchaser to Expedia. The repurchase option will lapse at a rate determined by the administrator.

The exercise price of the warrants will be $52.00 per share. The exercise price of nonstatutory stock options and SPRs granted under the Plan is determined by the administrator, but with respect to nonstatutory stock options and warrants intended to qualify as "performance-based compensation" within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Code, the exercise price must be at least equal to the fair market value of the Expedia common stock on the date of grant.

The administrator may provide at the time of grant that restricted stock cannot vest unless applicable performance goals are satisfied. These performance goals must be based on the attainment of one or any combination of the following: earnings per share, sales, net profit after tax, gross profit, operating profit, cash generation, unit volume, return on equity, change in working capital, return on capital, shareholder return, market share or any other objective performance measure established by the committee. Such performance goals also may be based on the attainment of specified levels of Expedia's performance under one or more of the measures described above relative to the performance of other corporations. The provisions of restricted stock awards (including any applicable performance goals) need not be the same with respect to each grantee. Restricted stock may not be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged or otherwise encumbered. Restricted stock will be forfeited upon the grantee's ceasing to be a Service Provider, unless otherwise provided by the administrator. Other than these restrictions on transfer and any other restrictions the administrator may impose, the participant will have all the rights of a holder of stock holding the class or series of stock that is the subject of the restricted stock award.

The Plan provides that in the event of a merger of Expedia with or into another corporation, or a sale of substantially all of Expedia's assets, each option, grant of restricted stock and SPR will be assumed or equivalent option or shares of restricted stock substituted by the successor corporation. The number of shares, that may be issued under the Plan may be increased by the number of options assumed in the merger under the Plan and, in the case of a substitution, by the net increase in the number of shares subject to options before and after the substitution under the Plan. If the outstanding options, restricted stock and SPRs are not assumed or substituted for by the successor corporation, the administrator will provide for the optionee to vest and to have the right to exercise the option or SPR as to all of the optioned stock, including shares as to which it would not otherwise be vested or exercisable, and all restrictions on shares of restricted stock will lapse. If the administrator makes an option or SPR vested and exercisable in full in the event of a merger or sale of assets, the administrator will notify the optionee that the option or SPR will be fully exercisable for a period of 15 days from the date of such notice, and the option or SPR will terminate upon the expiration of such period. In the event of a corporate transaction described above, the warrants granted under the Plan will be treated in the same manner as warrants held by Expedia shareholders.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion of the federal income tax consequences of the Plan is intended to be a summary of applicable federal law as currently in effect. State and local tax consequences may differ, and tax laws may be amended or interpreted differently during the term of the Plan or of awards or grants thereunder. Because the federal income tax rules governing awards and related payments are complex and subject to frequent change, and they depend on the participant's individual circumstances and the nature of the award, participants in the Plan are advised to consult their tax advisors prior to exercise of options or other awards or dispositions of stock acquired pursuant to awards.

Incentive stock options and nonstatutory stock options are treated differently for federal income tax purposes. Incentive stock options are intended to comply with the requirements of Section 422 of the Code. Nonstatutory stock options need not comply with such requirements.

In general, an optionee is not taxed, and Expedia is not entitled to a tax deduction, on the grant or, except as described below, exercise of an incentive stock option. The difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of the shares of Expedia common stock underlying the option on the exercise date will, however, be a preference item for purposes of the alternative minimum tax, and thus an optionee could be subject to the alternative minimum tax as a result of the exercise of an incentive stock option. If an optionee holds the shares acquired upon exercise of an incentive stock option for at least two years following the option grant date and at least one year following exercise, the optionee's gain, if any, upon a subsequent disposition of such shares is long-term capital gain. The measure of the gain is the difference between the proceeds received on disposition and the optionee's basis in the shares (which generally equals the exercise price). If an optionee disposes of shares acquired pursuant to exercise of an incentive stock option before satisfying the one and two-year holding periods described above, the optionee may recognize both ordinary income and capital gain in the year of disposition and Expedia will generally be entitled to a tax deduction equal to the amount of the ordinary income recognized by the optionee. The amount of the ordinary income will be the lesser of (i) the excess of the amount realized on disposition over the optionee's adjusted basis in the shares (usually the exercise price) or (ii) the excess of the fair market value of the shares on the exercise date over the exercise price. The balance of the consideration received on such a disposition will be long-term capital gain if the stock had been held for at least one year following exercise of the incentive stock option.

An optionee is not taxed on the grant of a nonstatutory stock option. On exercise, however, the optionee generally recognizes ordinary income equal to the excess of the fair market value of the shares acquired on the date of exercise over the exercise price, and Expedia generally is entitled to a tax deduction equal to such amount. Any gain on subsequent disposition of the shares is long term capital gain if the shares are held for at least one year following exercise. The warrants and the exercise of the warrants should be taxed and Expedia should receive tax deductions in the same manner as the nonstatutory stock options.

Options and SPRs granted under the Plan may provide for delayed vesting of the recipient's rights to the shares purchasable thereunder. Unless the recipient makes a valid election under Section 83(b) of the Code within 30 days after the receipt of restricted shares of Expedia common stock, the recipient generally will not be taxed on the receipt of such restricted shares until the restrictions on such shares lapse or are removed. When the restrictions lapse or are removed, the recipient will recognize ordinary income (and Expedia generally will be entitled to a deduction) in an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of the shares at that time over the purchase price. However, if the recipient makes a valid Section 83(b) election within 30 days of the receipt of restricted shares of Expedia common stock, he or she will recognize ordinary income (and Expedia will be entitled to a deduction) equal to the excess of the fair market value of such shares on the date of receipt (determined without regard to the effect on value of the restrictions) over the purchase price.

A recipient of a grant of restricted stock may make a Section 83(b) election to have the grant taxed as compensation income at the date of receipt, with the result that any future appreciation (or depreciation) in the value of the shares of stock granted will be taxed as capital gains (or loss) upon a subsequent sale of the shares. However, if the recipient does not make a Section 83(b) election, then the grant will be taxed as compensation income at the full fair market value on the date that the restrictions imposed on the shares expire. Unless a recipient makes a Section 83(b) election, any dividends paid on stock subject to the restrictions are compensation income to the recipient and compensation expense to Expedia. Expedia is generally entitled to an income tax deduction for any compensation income taxed to the participant, subject to the provisions of Section 162(m) of the Code (see below).

Special rules will apply in cases where a recipient of an award under the Plan pays the exercise or purchase price of the award or applicable withholding tax obligations under the Plan by delivering previously owned shares or by reducing the number of shares otherwise issuable pursuant to the award. The surrender or withholding of such shares will in certain circumstances result in the recognition of income with respect to such shares or a carryover basis in the shares acquired, and may constitute a disposition for purposes of applying the incentive stock option holding periods discussed above. Expedia generally will be required to withhold any applicable income and employment taxes in connection with the ordinary income recognized by a participant upon exercise or payment of an award under the Plan, and may require the participant to pay such taxes as a condition to exercise of an award under the Plan.

The terms of the agreements or other documents pursuant to which specific awards are made under the Plan may provide for accelerated vesting or payment of an award in connection with a change in ownership or control of Expedia. In that event and depending upon the individual circumstances of the participant, certain amounts with respect to such awards may constitute "excess parachute payments" under the "golden parachute" provisions of the Code. Pursuant to these provisions, a participant will be subject to a 20% excise tax on any "excess parachute payments" and Expedia will be denied any deduction with respect to such payments. Participants should consult their tax advisors as to whether accelerated vesting of an award in connection with a change of ownership or control of Expedia would give rise to an excess parachute payment.

As described above, options, warrants and restricted stock granted under the Plan may qualify as "performance-based compensation" under Section 162(m) of the Code in order to preserve federal income tax deductions by Expedia with respect to any compensation relating to an award that is paid to a "covered employee" (as defined in Section 162(m)). Compensation for any year that is attributable to an award granted to a covered employee and that does not so qualify may not be deductible by Expedia to the extent such compensation, when combined with other compensation paid to such employee for the year, exceeds $1,000,000.

VOTE REQUIRED AND BOARD RECOMMENDATION

WHEREAS, the parties desire to make certain representations, warranties and agreements in connection with the Transactions and the other transactions contemplated hereby and also to prescribe certain conditions to the Transactions and the other transactions contemplated hereby.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained herein, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound hereby, agree as follows:

ARTICLE I THE TRANSACTIONS

Section 1.1 THE CONTRIBUTION. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, immediately following the Effective Time (as defined herein), Parent and Company shall effect the Contribution as follows: Parent shall contribute, transfer, assign and convey (collectively, "CONTRIBUTE") or cause to be Contributed to the Company, (i) an option having the terms set forth on EXHIBIT G hereto to acquire Parent's equity interest in the entity listed on such EXHIBIT G, (ii) an option having the terms set forth on EXHIBIT H hereto to acquire a one-third equity interest in the entity listed on such EXHIBIT H, (iii) 100% of the equity interest in USA Media Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned Subsidiary (as defined herein) of Parent, and (iv) 99% of the membership interests in USA Media, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company.

Section 1.2 THE RECAPITALIZATION.

(a) GENERAL. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, on the Closing Date (as defined herein), immediately prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take all actions necessary to effect the Recapitalization as follows: (i) the Company shall amend its Articles of Incorporation pursuant to the Certificate of Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "ARTICLES AMENDMENT") substantially as set forth on EXHIBIT I hereto, which Articles Amendment shall, among other things, create Company Class B Common Stock, and (ii) immediately following the effectiveness of the Articles Amendment and subject to the provisions of Section 1.2(b), 1.2(f) and 1.4, each share of Company Common Stock (including shares issuable upon exercise of Existing Company Warrants (as defined herein)) held of record by a shareholder of the Company or warrant holder, as the case may be, who has elected to exchange its shares of Company Common Stock for shares of Company Class B Common Stock in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.2 (the "ELECTING SHAREHOLDERS") shall be exchanged for one share of Company Class B Common Stock.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(b) ELECTION. Subject to the immediately following sentence, each record holder of shares of Company Common Stock and each record holder of Existing Company Warrants shall, up to and including the date of the Special Meeting of Shareholders (the "SHAREHOLDER MEETING"), be entitled to elect to exchange each of its shares of Company Common Stock (including shares issuable upon exercise of the Existing Company Warrants) for one share of Company Class B Common Stock (an "ELECTION"). Notwithstanding the foregoing and subject to Section 1.2(c), the maximum aggregate number of shares of Company Common Stock (including shares issuable upon exercise of the Existing Company Warrants) that will be exchanged into Company Class B Common Stock shall be 37,500,000 (the "MAXIMUM ELECTION NUMBER"). Elections shall be made on a form designed for that purpose (a "FORM OF ELECTION"). A holder of record of shares of Company Common Stock or Existing Company Warrants who holds such shares or Existing Company Warrants as nominee, trustee or in another representative capacity (a "REPRESENTATIVE") may submit multiple Forms of Election, and each such Form of Election may cover all or a portion of the shares of Company Common Stock or Existing Company Warrants held by such Representative for a particular beneficial owner. To be effective a Form of Election relating to the election with respect to Company Common Stock (but not with respect to Existing Company Warrants) must be accompanied by a Certificate or Certificates representing all of the shares of Company Common Stock held by the shareholder making an Election and a Letter of Transmittal as described in Section 3.2(b).

(c) PRORATION OF ELECTION SHARES; NO FRACTIONAL SHARES. If the aggregate number of shares of Company Common Stock (including Company Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Existing Company Warrants) covered by Elections (the "ELECTION SHARES") exceeds the Maximum Election Number, holders of Election Shares shall be reduced PRO RATA so that no greater than the Maximum Election Number of Company Common Stock is exchanged for Company Class B Common Stock in the Recapitalization. To the extent such proration results in fractional Election Shares, following such proration, each such fractional Election Share shall be rounded up to the nearest whole share, following which the Exchange Agent shall select from among the Election Shares, by random selection, a sufficient number of Election Shares that will not be exchanged for Company Class B Common Stock such that the Company issues exactly the Maximum Election Number of shares of Company Class B Common Stock in the Recapitalization.

(d) FORM OF ELECTION. For an Election to be effective, a Form of Election, Certificate or Certificates representing all of the shares of Company Common Stock held by the shareholder making an Election and a Letter of Transmittal must be properly completed, signed and submitted to the Exchange Agent (as defined herein). Parent shall have the discretion, which it may delegate in whole or in part to the Exchange Agent, to determine whether Forms of Election and other required documentation have been properly completed, signed and submitted or revoked and to disregard immaterial defects in Forms of Election. The decision of Parent (or the Exchange Agent) in such matters shall be conclusive and binding. Neither Parent nor the Exchange Agent shall be under any obligation to notify any person of any defect in a Form of Election submitted to the Exchange Agent. The Exchange Agent shall also make all computations contemplated by this Section 1.2, and all such computations shall be conclusive and binding on the holders of shares of Company Common Stock.

(e) NO ELECTIONS. For the purposes hereof, a holder of shares of Company Common Stock or Existing Company Warrants who does not submit a proper Form of Election that is received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline ("NO ELECTION SHARES") shall be treated as not having made an Election. All Dissenting Shares shall also be deemed No Election Shares. If Parent or the Exchange Agent shall determine that any purported Election was not properly made, the shares subject to such improperly made Election shall be treated as No Election Shares.

(f) ELECTION DEADLINE. Unless otherwise agreed to by Parent and the Company, Forms of Election and Letters of Transmittal shall be mailed to the record holders of the shares of Company Common Stock as of the voting record date of the Shareholder Meeting (the "Voting Record Date") together with the Joint Prospectus/Proxy Statement (as defined herein), and shall also be mailed to each holder of shares of Company Common Stock who so requests them from the Exchange Agent (as defined herein). A Form of Election must be received by the Exchange Agent by 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the date of the Shareholder Meeting (the "ELECTION DEADLINE") in order to be effective. All elections may be revoked until the Election Deadline in writing by the record holders or Representatives thereof submitting Forms of Election.

Section 1.3 THE MERGER. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company (the "MERGER") in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Business Corporation Act of the State of Washington (the "WBCA"). The Company shall be the surviving corporation in the Merger (the "SURVIVING CORPORATION") and shall continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Washington. As a result of the Merger, the Company shall become a Subsidiary of Parent and the separate corporate existence of the Merger Sub shall terminate. The Merger shall have the effects and consequences specified in Section 23B.11.060 of the WBCA.

Section 1.4 TREATMENT OF EXISTING COMPANY WARRANTS. In order for the election of a holder of Existing Company Warrants to be effective, such holder must comply with the provisions set forth in this Article I and must exercise its Existing Company Warrants prior to the Recapitalization, it being understood that all of the Existing Company Warrants, other than those Existing Company Warrant(s) relating to an aggregate of 68,853 shares of Company Common Stock which by their terms explicitly provide otherwise (each such Existing Company Warrant, a "SURVIVING EXISTING COMPANY WARRANT"), shall, in accordance with their terms, terminate immediately upon the Effective Time. In the event that (i) a holder of a Surviving Existing Company Warrant neither makes a valid Election nor exercises its Surviving Existing Company Warrant prior to the Effective Time, and (ii) the terms of the Surviving Existing Company Warrant or underlying warrant agreement do not provide for equitable adjustment with respect to the Merger, the Company shall distribute, upon exercise, to the holders of such Surviving Existing Company Warrants immediately prior to the Effective Time, a number of Company Warrants equal to the Company Warrant Exchange Ratio with respect to each such Surviving Existing Company Warrant.

Section 1.5 CLOSING; EFFECTIVE TIME. The closing of the Merger (the "CLOSING") shall take place at the offices of Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, at 10:00 a.m., Eastern time, on the third Business Day (as defined herein) immediately following the date on which the last of the conditions set forth in Article IX hereof is satisfied or waived (other than conditions that by their nature are required to be performed on the Closing Date, but subject to satisfaction of such conditions), or at such other time and date and place as Parent, Stockholder and the Company shall mutually agree (the "CLOSING DATE"). The term "EFFECTIVE TIME" shall mean the time and date of the filing of the articles of merger relating to the Merger ("ARTICLES OF MERGER") with the Secretary of State of the State of Washington (or such other date and time as may be specified in such articles as may be permitted by Washington law). The term "BUSINESS DAY" shall mean any day, other than Saturday, Sunday or a day on which the banks in the states of New York or Washington are closed.

Section 1.6 TAX CONSEQUENCES. It is intended that each of the Recapitalization and the Merger constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and the parties hereto agree to treat such transactions consistently with this intention for all purposes at all times prior to and following the Closing, to the extent permitted by law.

Section 1.7 SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT TERMINATION; STOCKHOLDER REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT. Immediately prior to the Effective Time, the Company and Stockholder shall (i) terminate the Shareholder Agreement, and such Shareholder Agreement Termination shall be submitted to the Company's shareholders for approval at the Shareholder Meeting in accordance with Section 4.3 below, and (ii) execute the Stockholder Registration Rights Agreement.

ARTICLE II DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND CHARTER DOCUMENTS

Section 2.1 DIRECTORS. The Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation at, and through the one-year anniversary of, the Effective Time shall consist of eleven members as follows: six directors appointed by Parent, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, the Company's Chief Financial Officer and three additional directors who shall be independent, shall serve for at least a one-year term and shall be mutually agreed to by Parent and the Company.

Section 2.3 CHARTER DOCUMENTS. At the Effective Time, (i) the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Company, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time (and after giving effect to the Recapitalization), shall be the Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided by law, and (ii) the by-laws of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, and which by-laws shall be substantially similar to the by-laws of other publicly-held Subsidiaries controlled by Parent, shall be the by-laws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation and such by-laws.

ARTICLE III

TREATMENT OF SHARES

Section 3.1 EFFECT OF THE MERGER ON CAPITAL STOCK. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of any holder of any capital stock of the Company or Merger Sub:

(a) CANCELLATION OF CERTAIN COMPANY STOCK. Each share of Company Stock that is owned by the Company as treasury stock, if any, and all shares of Company Stock that are owned by Parent and any of its wholly owned Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be canceled and shall cease to exist, and no stock of Parent or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(b) CONVERSION OF COMPANY STOCK. By virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof:

(i) each share of Company Common Stock, other than Dissenting Shares and shares canceled pursuant to Section 3.1(a), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain outstanding and the holder of the Company Common Stock shall be entitled to receive a number of validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable Company Warrants equal to the Company Warrant Exchange Ratio (as defined below) (the "COMMON CONSIDERATION"), and

(ii) each share of Company Class B Common Stock, other than shares canceled pursuant to Section 3.1(a), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive a combination of (A) a number of validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the Parent Common Exchange Ratio (as defined below), (B) a number of validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares of Parent Preferred Stock equal to the Parent Preferred Exchange Ratio (as defined below), and (C) a number of validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable Parent Warrants equal to the Parent Warrant Exchange Ratio (as defined below) ((A), (B) and (C) together, the "CLASS B CONSIDERATION").

The "COMPANY WARRANT EXCHANGE RATIO" shall be equal to 0.1920. The "PARENT COMMON EXCHANGE RATIO" shall be equal to the quotient, rounded to the nearest ten thousandth (or if there shall not be a nearest ten thousandth, the next higher ten thousandth), obtained by dividing (i) (A) 35.00 less (B) the product of (x) the Parent Preferred Exchange Ratio, and (y) 50, by (ii) the Parent Share Price (as defined below); PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that for purposes of this calculation, the Parent Share Price shall not be greater than $31.00 or less than $23.00. The "PARENT PREFERRED EXCHANGE RATIO" shall be equal to the quotient, rounded to the nearest ten thousandth (or if there shall not be a nearest ten thousandth, the next higher thousandth), obtained by dividing (A) 656,250,000 divided by the number of shares of Company Class B Common Stock exchanged in the Merger (the "EXCHANGED CLASS B SHARE NUMBER"), by (B) 50. The "PARENT WARRANT EXCHANGE RATIO" shall be equal to the Parent Warrant Exchange Ratio corresponding to the Parent Share Price set forth on SCHEDULE A of EXHIBIT C hereto. The "PARENT SHARE PRICE" shall be equal to the average of the daily closing prices (as of 4:00 p.m. eastern time) per share of Parent Common Stock, as applicable, as reported on the Nasdaq Stock Market ("NASDAQ") (as published in The Wall Street Journal or, if not published therein or incorrectly published therein, in another authoritative source mutually selected by Parent and the Company) for the ten consecutive full trading days immediately preceding the second full trading day prior to the date of the Election Deadline.

(c) TAX ADJUSTMENT OF CLASS B CONSIDERATION. In the event that counsel for Parent, the Company and Stockholder reasonably determine (which determination shall be based on a Black-Scholes valuation using an appropriate volatility and risk-free interest rate as of the Closing Date) that the requirement of Section 368(a)(2)(E)(ii) of the Code would not otherwise be satisfied with respect to the Merger, the Parent Warrant Exchange Ratio shall be reduced to the extent necessary, in the opinion of counsel to Parent, the Company and Stockholder, to satisfy such requirement, and the Parent Common Exchange Ratio shall be increased by an amount equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (i) the product of (A) the reduction in the Parent Warrant Exchange Ratio multiplied by (B) the Black-Scholes value of a Parent Warrant as of the Closing Date (assuming 40% volatility and a risk-free interest rate of 5.66%), by (ii) the average of the daily closing prices (as of 4:00 p.m. eastern time) per share of Parent Common Stock, as reported on Nasdaq (as published in The Wall Street Journal or, if not published therein or incorrectly published therein, in another authoritative source mutually selected by Parent and the Company) for the ten consecutive full trading days immediately preceding the Closing Date; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that adjustments to the Parent Warrant Exchange Ratio in the manner provided above shall, in the opinion of counsel to Parent, the Company and Stockholder, be sufficient to cause the requirement of Section 368(a)(2)(E)(ii) to be satisfied.

(d) CONVERSION OF MERGER SUB COMMON STOCK. All of the shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share, of Merger Sub (the "MERGER SUB COMMON STOCK") that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into the right to receive an aggregate number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of Company Class B Common Stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation equal to the Exchanged Class B Share Number, which shares of Company Class B Common Stock shall, following the Merger, have the same rights and characteristics as the Company Class B Common Stock possessed following the Recapitalization and immediately prior to the Merger.

(e) DISSENTING SHARES. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, with respect to each share of Company Stock as to which the holder thereof shall have properly complied with the provisions of Chapter 23B.13 of the WBCA as to dissenters' rights (each a "DISSENTING SHARE"), such holder will be entitled to payment, solely from the Surviving Corporation, of the appraised value of such Dissenting Shares to the extent permitted by and in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 23B.13 of the WBCA; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that (i) if any holder of Dissenting Shares, under the circumstances permitted by the WBCA, affirmatively withdraws his demand for appraisal of such Dissenting Shares, (ii) if any holder fails to establish his entitlement to rights to payment as provided in such Chapter 23B.13, or (iii) if any holder of Dissenting Shares takes or fails to take any action the consequence of such action or failure is that such holder is not entitled to payment for his shares under Chapter 23B.13 of the WBCA, such holder will forfeit such right to payment for such Dissenting Shares pursuant to such Chapter 23B.13 and, such holder's certificate(s) representing Company Stock will remain outstanding, without any interest thereon or other value due. Any and all amounts paid by the Surviving Corporation to holders of Dissenting Shares shall be paid by the Surviving Corporation solely out of its cash on hand or its own borrowings. In no event shall Parent or any of its affiliates (other than the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries) provide, directly or indirectly, any funds to the Surviving Corporation in respect of payments to holders of Dissenting Shares or the repayment of such borrowings. The Company shall not settle any claim with respect to Dissenting Shares without the consent of Parent.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(f) ANTI-DILUTION PROVISIONS. If, prior to the consummation of the Merger, the outstanding shares of Company Stock shall have been increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, in each case, other than the Recapitalization, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made to the Merger Consideration.

Section 3.2 EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES.

(a) DEPOSIT WITH EXCHANGE AGENT. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit with a bank or trust company mutually agreeable to Parent and the Company (the "EXCHANGE AGENT"), pursuant to an agreement in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Parent and the Company, certificates representing (1) shares of Parent Common Stock, (2) shares of Parent Preferred Stock and (3) Parent Warrants, in each case sufficient, in the good faith estimate of Parent, to effect the conversion of Company Stock in accordance with Section 3.1(b). Simultaneously with such deposit, the Company shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, pursuant to the same agreement certificates representing Company Warrants sufficient, in the good faith estimate of the Company, to effect the conversion of Company Stock in accordance with Section 3.1(b).

(b) EXCHANGE AND PAYMENT PROCEDURES. Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record as of the Voting Record Date for the Shareholder Meeting as soon as practicable after the effective date of the Joint Prospectus/Proxy Statement: (i) the Joint Prospectus/Proxy and Information Statement, (ii) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the certificates shall pass, only upon actual delivery of the certificates to the Exchange Agent) and (iii) instructions for effecting the surrender of the certificates representing shares of Company Common Stock (each a "CERTIFICATE") with respect of which the holder wishes to make an Election. Following the Merger, the former holders of Company Class B Shares shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor (i) a certificate representing that number of shares of Parent Common Stock, Parent Preferred Stock and Parent Warrants (together, the "PARENT SHARES") into which the shares of Company Stock previously represented by such Certificates are converted in accordance with Section 3.1(b), and (ii) cash in lieu of fractional Parent Shares to which such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 3.2(d) (the shares of Parent Common Stock, Parent Preferred Stock, Parent Warrants and cash described in clauses (i) and (ii) above being referred to collectively as the "PARENT MERGER CONSIDERATION"). Following the Merger, each holder of Company Common Stock shall retain its Certificates and shall be entitled to receive in respect of each share of Company Common Stock (i) a certificate representing the Company Warrants to which the Shareholder has become entitled and (ii) cash in lieu of fractional Warrant Shares to which such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 3.2(d) (the Company Warrants and cash described in clause (ii) above being referred to collectively as the "COMPANY MERGER CONSIDERATION," and the Company Merger Consideration or the Parent Merger Consideration, as appropriate, being referred to as the "MERGER CONSIDERATION"). In the event the Merger Consideration is to be delivered to any person who is not the person in whose name the Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered in the transfer records of the Company, the Merger Consideration may be delivered to a transferee if the Certificate is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and by evidence satisfactory to the

Exchange Agent that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid.
Until surrendered as contemplated by this

A-13

Section 3.2, each Certificate (other than a certificate representing shares of Company Common Stock to be canceled in accordance with Section 3.1(a)) shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the Merger Consideration contemplated by this Section 3.2. No interest will be paid or will accrue on any cash payable to holders of Certificates pursuant to provisions of this Article III.

(c) DISTRIBUTIONS WITH RESPECT TO UNEXCHANGED SHARES. No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time with respect to Parent Shares with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to Parent Shares represented thereby and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 3.2(d) until the holder of record of such Certificate shall surrender such Certificate. Subject to the effect of unclaimed property, escheat and other applicable laws, following surrender of any such Certificate, there shall be paid to the record holder of the certificates representing whole Parent Shares issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) at the time of such surrender, the amount of any cash payable in lieu of a fractional share of Parent Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.2(d) and the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole Parent Shares and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to surrender and a payment date subsequent to surrender payable with respect to such whole Parent Shares.

(d) NO FRACTIONAL SECURITIES. In lieu of any fractional securities, each holder of Company Stock who would otherwise have been entitled to a fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock, Parent Preferred Stock and/or Parent Warrant, on the one hand, or Company Warrants, on the other hand, upon surrender of Certificates for exchange pursuant to this Article III will be paid an amount in cash (without interest) equal to such holder's proportionate interest in the net proceeds from the sale or sales in the open market by the Exchange Agent, on behalf of all such holders, of the aggregate fractional shares of Parent Common Stock, Parent Preferred Stock and/or Parent Warrants or Company Warrants issued pursuant to this Article III. As soon as practicable following the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall determine the excess of (i) (A) the number of full shares of Parent Common Stock, Parent Preferred Stock and/or Parent Warrants delivered to the Exchange Agent by Parent over (B) the aggregate number of full shares of Parent Common Stock, Parent Preferred Stock and/or Parent Warrants to be distributed to holders of Company Stock (such excess respectively being herein called the "EXCESS PARENT COMMON SHARES," the "EXCESS PARENT PREFERRED SHARES," the "EXCESS PARENT WARRANTS" and collectively, the "EXCESS PARENT SECURITIES"), and (ii) (A) the number of full Company Warrants delivered to the Exchange Agent by the Company over (B) the aggregate number of full Warrants to be distributed to holders of Company Stock (such excess respectively being herein called the "EXCESS COMPANY WARRANTS"). The Exchange Agent, as agent for the former holders of Company Stock, shall sell the Excess Parent Securities and the Excess Company Warrants at the prevailing prices on Nasdaq. The sales of the Excess Parent Securities and the Excess Company Warrants by the Exchange Agent shall be executed on the Nasdaq through one or more member firms of the Nasdaq and shall be executed in round lots to the extent practicable. Parent shall pay all commissions, transfer taxes and other out-of-pocket transaction costs, including the expenses and compensation of the Exchange Agent, incurred in connection with such sale of Excess Parent Securities and Excess Company Warrants. Until the net proceeds of such sale have been distributed to the former holders of Company Stock that were converted into the right to receive Parent Shares or Company Warrants, as applicable, the Exchange Agent will hold such proceeds in trust for such former holders. As soon as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash to be paid to former holders of Company Stock in lieu of any fractional interests of Parent Shares or Company Warrants, as applicable, the Exchange Agent shall make available in accordance with this Agreement such amounts to such former holders.

(e) CLOSING OF TRANSFER BOOKS. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Surviving Corporation, they shall either (i) be canceled and exchanged for certificates representing the appropriate number of Parent Shares or (ii) returned together the appropriate number of Company Warrants, in each case, as provided in Section 3.1 and in this Section 3.2.

(f) TERMINATION OF EXCHANGE AGENT. Any certificates representing Parent Shares deposited with the Exchange Agent pursuant to Section 3.2(a) and not exchanged within six months after the Effective Time pursuant to this Section 3.2 shall be returned by the Exchange Agent to Parent, which shall thereafter act as Exchange Agent. All funds held by the Exchange Agent for payment to the holders of unsurrendered Certificates and unclaimed at the end of one year from the Effective Time shall be returned to Parent, after which time any holder of unsurrendered Certificates shall look as a general creditor only to Parent for payment of such funds to which such holder may be due, subject to applicable law.

(g) ESCHEAT. The Company shall not be liable to any person for such shares or funds delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(h) LOST CERTIFICATES. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if reasonably required by Parent and the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Parent may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate the Merger Consideration deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Except as disclosed in the Company disclosure schedule delivered to Parent concurrently herewith (the "COMPANY DISCLOSURE SCHEDULE"), the Company hereby represents and warrants to Parent as follows:

Section 4.1 CORPORATE ORGANIZATION. (a) The Company is a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Washington. The Company has the corporate power and authority to own or lease all of its properties and assets and to carry on its business as it is now being conducted, and is duly licensed or qualified to do business in each jurisdiction in which the nature of the business conducted by it or the character or location of the properties and assets owned or leased by it makes such licensing or qualification necessary, except where the failure to be so licensed or qualified would not, either individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. As used in this Agreement, the term "MATERIAL ADVERSE EFFECT" means, with respect to Parent or the Company, as the case may be, a material adverse effect on (i) the business, operations, results of operations or financial condition of such entity and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole or (ii) the ability of such entity to timely consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. As used in this Agreement, the word "SUBSIDIARY" when used with respect to any entity, means any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other organization, whether incorporated or unincorporated, which is consolidated with such entity for financial reporting purposes. True and complete copies of the Articles of Incorporation of the Company (the "COMPANY CHARTER") and the By-Laws of the Company, as in effect as of the date of this Agreement, have previously been made available by the Company to Parent.

(xvi) agree to take, make any commitment to take, or adopt any resolutions of its board of directors in support of, any of the actions prohibited by this Section 7.2.

ARTICLE VIII ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

Section 8.1 REGULATORY MATTERS. (a) As promptly as practicable after the date hereof, Parent and the Company shall prepare and file with the SEC, the Registration Statements, which will contain (i) the prospectus of Parent relating to the shares of Parent Common Stock (including shares issuable upon conversion of Parent Preferred Stock and exercise of Parent Warrants), shares of Parent Preferred Stock and Parent Warrants to be issued in the Merger, (ii) the prospectus of the Company relating to shares of Company Class B Common Stock to be issued in the Recapitalization, (iii) the prospectus of the Company relating to the Company Warrants (and the shares of Company Common Stock issuable upon conversion thereof) to be issued in the Distribution, and (iv) the proxy statement of the Company relating to the Shareholder Meeting (collectively, the "JOINT PROSPECTUS/PROXY STATEMENT"). Each of Parent and the Company shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to have each Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, and the Company shall thereafter mail or deliver the Joint Prospectus/Proxy Statement to its shareholders in accordance with Section 3.2. Each of Parent and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or "Blue Sky" permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and the Company shall furnish all information concerning the Company and the holders of the Company Capital Stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

(b) The parties hereto shall cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities which are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such Governmental Entities. Parent, Stockholder and the Company shall have the right to review in advance, and, to the extent practicable, each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, all the information relating to Parent, Stockholder or the Company, as the case may be, and any of their respective Subsidiaries, which appears in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party or any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, PROVIDED that Parent, Stockholder or the Company can restrict access to such documents that discuss the pricing or dollar value of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties hereto shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. The parties hereto agree that they will consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated herein.

(c) Parent, Stockholder and the Company shall, upon request, furnish the other parties hereto with all information concerning themselves, their Subsidiaries and their and their Subsidiaries' affiliates, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the Joint Prospectus/Proxy Statement, the Registration Statements or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Parent, Stockholder or the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any Governmental Entity in connection with the Transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(d) The Company, Stockholder and Parent shall, and Parent shall cause Merger Sub to, promptly advise the other parties hereto upon receiving any communication from any Governmental Entity whose consent or approval is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any Requisite Regulatory Approval (as defined herein) will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval will be materially delayed.

Section 8.2 ACCESS TO INFORMATION. (a) Upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, each of the parties hereto shall cause each of their respective Subsidiaries to, afford to the officers, employees, accountants, counsel and other representatives of the other parties, access, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time, to all its properties, books, contracts, commitments and records. Access shall be reasonably related to the purposes of verifying the representations and warranties of the other and preparing for the Merger and the other matters contemplated by this Agreement. During such period, each of the parties hereto shall, and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to, make available to the other parties (i) a copy of each report, schedule, registration statement and other document filed or received by it during such period pursuant to the requirements of federal securities laws (other than reports or documents which such party is not permitted to disclose under applicable law) and (ii) all other information concerning its business, properties and personnel as such party may reasonably request. No party hereto shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate or prejudice the rights of its customers, jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the institution in possession or control of such information or contravene any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment, decree, fiduciary duty or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement. The parties hereto will make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

(b) Each of the parties hereto shall hold all information furnished by or on behalf of any other party or any of such party's Subsidiaries or representatives pursuant to Section 8.2(a) in confidence to the extent required by, and in accordance with, the provisions of the non-disclosure agreement between Parent and the Company, dated as of April 27, 2001, and the non-disclosure agreement between Parent and Stockholder, effective as of July 7, 2001 (collectively, the "CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENTS").

(c) No investigation by any of the parties or their respective representatives shall affect the representations and warranties of the other set forth herein.

Section 8.3 NO SOLICITATION. Without the prior written consent of Parent, neither the Company nor Stockholder shall, and each shall cause its Subsidiaries and each of its and its Subsidiaries' officers, directors, agents, advisors and affiliates not to, solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to, or engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information to, or have any discussions with, any person relating to any tender offer or exchange offer for, or any proposal for the acquisition of a substantial equity interest in, or of a substantial portion of the assets of, or any merger, consolidation or other business combination with, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (a "TRANSACTION PROPOSAL"), PROVIDED, that the foregoing shall not prohibit the Company's Board of Directors from, following receipt of a Transaction Proposal and after providing prior written notice to Parent, taking and disclosing to its shareholders information required under the proxy rules to the extent permitted by the proviso to the second sentence of Section 8.4. The Company or Stockholder, as the case may be, shall promptly, but in any event within 24 hours, advise Parent of its receipt of any such proposal or inquiry, of the substance thereof, and of the identity of the person making such proposal or inquiry. Each of the Company and Stockholder shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted prior to the date of this Agreement with any parties other than the parties hereto with respect to any of the foregoing; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that neither the Company nor any of its affiliates (including Stockholder) shall waive any standstill or confidentiality provisions.

Section 8.4 SHAREHOLDERS' APPROVAL. The Company shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the Shareholder Meeting to be held as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof for the purpose of obtaining the requisite shareholder approval required in connection with this Agreement, the Articles Amendment and the Shareholder Agreement Termination, and the other transactions contemplated hereby (collectively, the "SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS"). The Company's Board of Directors shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from the shareholders of the Company the vote required by the WBCA in favor of the adoption of (i) this Agreement, including the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Recapitalization and the Merger, (ii) the Articles Amendment, and

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(iii) the Shareholder Agreement Termination, and shall recommend to the shareholders of the Company that they so vote; PROVIDED that the Company's Board of Directors shall not be required to use such reasonable best efforts to obtain the vote in favor of the adoption of this Agreement or to make or continue to make such recommendation if such Board of Directors, after having consulted with and considered the advice of outside counsel, has determined that the making of such reasonable best efforts to obtain the vote in favor of the adoption of this Agreement or making or continuing to make such recommendation would cause the members of the Company's Board of Directors to breach their fiduciary duties under applicable laws. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, (i) the Company shall be required to submit the Shareholder Proposals for approval by its shareholders at the Shareholder Meeting, whether with or without the recommendation of the Company's Board of Directors, and (ii) recognizing that special circumstances, as provided in Section 23B.11.030 of the WBCA, may exist in light of the provisions of the Voting and Election Agreement, the Company shall not alter its recommendation in a manner that would prevent the Company from complying with its agreement described in the preceding clause (i) of this sentence.

Section 8.5 LEGAL CONDITIONS TO THE MERGER. Each of Parent and the Company shall, and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to, use their reasonable best efforts (a) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable to comply promptly with all legal requirements that may be imposed on such party or its Subsidiaries with respect to the Merger and, subject to the conditions set forth in Article IX, to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (b) to obtain (and to cooperate with the other party to obtain) any material consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any Governmental Entity and any other third party that is required to be obtained by Parent or the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, (i) the Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent and Stockholder, agree to divest any assets or businesses of the Company or any of its affiliates or to in any way limit the ownership or operation of any business of the Company or its affiliates, (ii) none of Parent, Stockholder or the Company shall be required to (x) divest any assets or corporations of Parent, Stockholder or the Company, respectively, or any of their respective affiliates or (y) enter into any agreements that in any way limit the ownership or operation of any business of Parent, Stockholder or the Company, respectively, or any of their respective affiliates.

Section 8.6 AFFILIATES. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause each person, listed on EXHIBIT J hereto (other than Stockholder) to deliver to Parent, as soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement, and in any event prior to the Effective Time, a written agreement, in the form of EXHIBIT K hereto, as applicable, providing that such person will not sell, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of any shares of Parent Common Stock, Parent Preferred Stock or Parent Warrants to be received by such "affiliate" in the Merger, other than as contemplated in such written agreement. Other than those persons listed on EXHIBIT J, there are no "affiliates" (for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act) of the Company.

Section 8.7 NASDAQ QUOTATION. Parent shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Parent Common Stock, shares of Parent Preferred Stock and Parent Warrants to be issued in the Merger to be authorized for quotation on Nasdaq (or if the eligibility requirements are not satisfied or waived, on the American Stock Exchange or other exchange acceptable to Parent and Stockholder) prior to the Effective Time, and the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the Company Warrants to be issued in the Merger to be authorized for quotation on Nasdaq (or if the eligibility requirements are not satisfied or waived, on the American Stock Exchange or other exchange acceptable to the Company) prior to the Recapitalization. In the event that Parent Preferred Stock, Parent Warrants and/or Company Warrants do not meet the eligibility requirements for listing or quotation on an acceptable exchange prior to the Effective Time or Recapitalization, as appropriate, Parent and/or the Company, as the case may be, shall use its reasonable best efforts to have such securities listed or quoted as soon as the eligibility requirements with respect thereto are satisfied or waived.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Section 8.8 ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, the proper officers and directors of each party to this Agreement and their respective Subsidiaries shall take all such necessary action as may be reasonably requested by Parent.

Section 8.9 ADVICE OF CHANGES. Parent and the Company shall each promptly advise the other parties hereto of any change or event having a Material Adverse Effect on it, and each of Parent, the Company and Stockholder shall each promptly advise the other parties hereto of any change or event that it believes would or would be reasonably likely to cause or constitute a material breach of any of its or its Subsidiaries' representations, warranties or covenants contained herein.

Section 8.10 SECTION 16. Prior to the Effective Time, each of the Company and Parent shall take all such steps as may be required to cause the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including any dispositions of Company Stock (including derivative securities with respect to the Company Stock) and acquisitions of Parent Common Stock, Parent Preferred Stock, Parent Warrants and Company Warrants (including derivative securities with respect to Parent Common Stock, Parent Preferred Stock, Parent Warrants and Company Warrants) by each Person who is or will be subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to the Company or Parent, as the case may be, to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

Section 8.11 RELATIONSHIP WITH PARENT. (a) Neither anything contained in this Agreement nor the ownership of shares of Company Common Stock or Company Class B Common Stock (except as may be provided in the Company's Articles of Incorporation) shall (i) restrict Parent or any of its Subsidiaries from engaging in or owning an interest in any business which competes with the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company, or (ii) restrict the Company or any of its Subsidiaries from engaging in or owning an interest in any business which competes with Parent or any of its Subsidiaries.

(b) For so long as Parent owns at least 50.1% of the aggregate voting power of the Company, the Company shall not enter into any material contract, arrangement or transaction with Parent or any of its affiliates, or enter into any material amendment of any of the foregoing without the approval of a majority of the Company's independent directors.

(c) There shall be meaningful consultation between USA and the Company's CEO in the selection of the independent directors of the Company.

(d) The independent directors of the Company's Board of Directors shall have the right, on behalf of the Company, to enforce the provisions of this Section 8.11. Any amendment or waiver to any of the provisions of this Section 8.11 shall require the approval of a majority of the independent directors of the Company's Board of Directors.

Section 8.12 COMPANY WARRANT DISTRIBUTION. Prior to the listing of the Company Warrants on Nasdaq, the American Stock Exchange or other exchange acceptable to the Company, the Company shall, subject to applicable law, distribute (the "DISTRIBUTION") to holders of the options issued under the Company Stock Option Plans that are outstanding on the date of the Distribution a number of Company Warrants equal to the Company Warrant Exchange Ratio with respect to each share of Company Common Stock underlying any such Company option that was outstanding as of August 2, 2001, whether or not then vested; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that, subject to the following sentence, Company

Warrants distributed in respect of unvested Company options shall be restricted and shall become exercisable and transferable upon the vesting of the related Company option; and PROVIDED, FURTHER, that the Company shall take all steps necessary to ensure that no holder of Company options (for purposes hereof, subsequent holders of shares of Company Common Stock issued in respect of Company options that were the subject of the Distribution shall be treated as the holder of such Company options) receives, in respect of a Company option (including shares of Company Common Stock received upon exercise of such option), both the Company Warrants contemplated hereby and either (i) the distribution contemplated by the last sentence of this Section 8.12, or (ii) the Merger Consideration. With respect to all Company Warrants issued in the Distribution, whether vested or unvested, the Company shall instruct its transfer agent to place a stop transfer order on certificates representing Company Warrants issued in the Distribution for a period of 90 days following the date of Distribution and no Company Warrant issued in the Distribution shall be exercisable during such 90-day period. The Company agrees to terminate such stop transfer order immediately upon expiration of such 90-day period. The Company shall take all reasonable steps necessary to ensure that it is informed promptly by its transfer agent of any exercise or disposition of Company Warrants. If the Recapitalization and the Merger shall not have occurred and this Agreement shall have been terminated, the Company shall cause to be distributed to all holders of Company Common Stock and Existing Company Warrants (other than Existing Company Warrants which by their terms or the terms of their underlying warrant agreements would be equitably adjusted to give effect to such distribution), but not to holders of Company options (including holders of shares of Company Common Stock received upon exercise of Company options with respect to which the Distribution was made) a number of Company Warrants equal to the Company Warrant Exchange Ratio with respect to each such share of Company Stock and each such Existing Company Warrant.

Section 8.13 TAX COVENANT. Any Tax sharing, allocation or indemnification agreement between the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and Stockholder or any of its Subsidiaries, on the other hand, other than the Tax Allocation Agreement dated as of October 1, 1999 by and between Stockholder and the Company (the "1999 TAX ALLOCATION AGREEMENT") shall terminate as of the Effective Time, and no party shall be required to make any further payments thereunder with respect to any past, present or future taxable period. The 1999 Tax Allocation Agreement shall not be amended at or prior to the Effective Time without Parent's prior written consent and shall remain in effect following the Closing; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the aggregate liability of the Company to make payment after the date of this Agreement under the 1999 Tax Allocation Agreement with respect to any past, present or future taxable period shall not exceed $36,300,000 and that the term "Inherent Bargain Element," as used in the 1999 Tax Allocation Agreement, shall not include any amount with respect to any option to purchase Company Common Stock granted on or after the date of this Agreement. Stockholder shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company and Parent from and against (i) any and all liability for Taxes with respect to any "Consolidated Return," "Foreign Combined Return" or "State/Local Combined Return" (as such terms are defined in the 1999 Tax Allocation Agreement) and (ii) any and all liability under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-6 (or any analogous provision of state, local or foreign law) as a result of the Company's membership in any consolidated, combined or unitary group of which Stockholder or any of its Subsidiaries is or was the common parent; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that nothing herein shall be deemed to give Company, Parent or any party related thereto the right to review any Tax Return of the MS Affiliated Group (as such term is defined in the 1999 Tax Allocation Agreement) or any member thereof. Stockholder agrees not to carry back for federal, state, local or foreign tax purposes any net operating loss, capital loss or credit against Tax of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any "separate return year" (as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-1).

Following the Effective Time, neither Stockholder, the Surviving Corporation, Parent nor any of their affiliates shall knowingly take any action, cause any action to be taken, fail to take any commercially reasonable action or cause any commercially reasonable action to fail to be taken, which action or failure to act would reasonably be expected to cause the Recapitalization or the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Section 8.15 PARENT REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT. At or prior to the Effective Time, Parent and the Company shall enter into a registration rights agreement relating to Parent's shares of Company Common Stock on no less favorable terms than those contained in the Shareholder Agreement.

Section 8.16 ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION AND BY-LAW AMENDMENT. Promptly following the date hereof, and no event later than thirty (30) days from the date hereof, the Company shall (i) file with the Secretary of State of the State of Washington Articles of Correction correcting the reference in Article VIII thereof to "Class B Common Shares" to "Common Shares" and (ii) amend its bylaws to permit a special meeting of the stockholders to be called by the holders of a majority of the voting power of the Company.

(e) EFFECTIVENESS OF REGISTRATION STATEMENTS. The Registration Statements shall have become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of any of the Registration Statements shall have been issued and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated or threatened by the SEC.

The representations and warranties of Parent and Stockholder set forth in this Agreement and the Voting and Election Agreement that are qualified by materiality (including Material Adverse Effect) shall be true and correct and all other representations and warranties of Parent and Stockholder set forth in this Agreement and the Voting and Election Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects, in each case as of the date of this Agreement and (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of a specified date) as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date. The Company shall have received certificates signed on behalf of Parent and Stockholder by a respective appropriate executive officer to such effect.

(c) STOCKHOLDER AGREEMENT TERMINATION. The Shareholder Agreement Termination shall have been approved and effected as contemplated by Section 1.7.

ARTICLE X TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

Section 10.1 TERMINATION. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the shareholders of the Company:

(a) by mutual consent of Parent, Stockholder and the Company in a written instrument;

(b) by any of Parent, Stockholder or the Company if any Governmental Entity that must grant a Requisite Regulatory Approval has denied approval of the Merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final nonappealable order permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of any or all of the Transactions;

A-40

(c) by Parent, Stockholder or the Company if the Effective Time shall not have occurred on or before the nine month anniversary of the date of this Agreement (the "TERMINATION DATE"), unless the failure of the Effective Time to occur by such date shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth herein or in the Voting and Election Agreement; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the Termination Date shall automatically be extended for three months if the Merger shall not have been consummated as a direct result of the Requisite Regulatory Approvals not having been received;

(d) by Parent, Stockholder or the Company (provided that the terminating party is not then in breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein or in the Voting and Election Agreement) if there shall have been a breach by any other party of any of its respective covenants or agreements or any its respective representations or warranties set forth or expressly incorporated in this Agreement or in the Voting and Election Agreement, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate, would constitute, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of the conditions set forth in Section 9.2(a) or, 9.2(b), in the case of termination by the Company or Stockholder, or Sections 9.3(a) or 9.3(b), in the case of a termination by Parent, and which is not cured within thirty (30) days following written notice to the party committing such breach or by its nature or timing cannot be cured prior to the Closing Date;

(e) by Parent, Stockholder or the Company if any litigation or proceeding is pending before any court of competent jurisdiction or has been threatened to be instituted by any governmental body, which in the good faith judgment of the terminating party's Board of Directors, would reasonably be likely to result in an order, decree or ruling seeking substantial damages in respect of, or substantially impairing the benefits to such party of, the Transactions;

(f) by Parent if there shall have been a breach by Stockholder of any of the covenants or agreements set forth in the Voting and Election Agreement, which breach is not cured within ten days following written

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

notice to Stockholder or by its nature or timing cannot be cured prior to the Closing Date; or

(g) by Parent if the Company shall have breached its obligations contained in the last sentence of Section 8.4.

(h) Before any notice of termination shall be given by either the Company or Stockholder under Section 10.1(d) or 10.1(e), Company or Stockholder, as applicable, shall give notice of a proposed termination to the other, upon the receipt of which Stockholder and the Company shall consult with one another. The period of consultation will end on the earlier of (i) the delivery by the party to which the notice of proposed termination was delivered of written consent to give the notice of termination or (ii) 20 days after the delivery of the notice of proposed termination. The notice of proposed termination shall set forth the grounds for giving the notice of termination. If the period of consultation ends as a result of the lapse of 20 days, the grounds for giving the notice of termination shall be limited to one or more of the grounds set forth in the notice of proposed termination.

Section 10.2 EFFECT OF TERMINATION. In the event of termination of this Agreement by Parent, Stockholder or the Company as provided in Section 10.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, and none of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of the officers or directors of any of them shall have any liability of any nature whatsoever hereunder, or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, except that (i) Sections 8.2(b), 8.12 and 11.2 and this Section 10.2 shall survive any termination of this Agreement, and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, no party shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its willful breach of any provision of this Agreement.

Section 10.3 AMENDMENT. Subject to compliance with applicable law, this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented at the Shareholder Meeting by the shareholders of the Company; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that after any approval of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by the shareholders of the Company, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment of this Agreement that changes the amount or the form of the consideration to be delivered hereunder to the holders of Company Stock other than as contemplated by this Agreement. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by Parent, Stockholder and the Company.

Section 10.4 EXTENSION; WAIVER. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Board of Directors, may, to the extent legally allowed, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that after any approval of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by the shareholders of the Company, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any extension or waiver of this Agreement or any portion thereof which reduces the amount or changes the form of the consideration to be delivered to the holders of Company Stock hereunder, other than as contemplated by this Agreement. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party, but such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

Section 11.5 COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile and in counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties, it being understood that all parties need not sign the same counterpart.

Section 11.6 ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement (including the documents and the instruments referred to herein) constitutes the entire agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof other than the Confidentiality Agreement.

inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding. The parties hereto further agree, to the extent permitted by law, that final and unappealable judgment against any of them in any action or proceeding contemplated above shall be conclusive and may be enforced in any other jurisdiction within or outside the United States by suit on the judgment, a certified copy of which shall be conclusive evidence of the fact and amount of such judgment.

(c) To the extent that any party hereto has or hereafter may acquire any immunity from jurisdiction of any court or from any legal process (whether through service or notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution, execution or otherwise) with respect to itself or its property, each party hereto hereby irrevocably waives such immunity in respect of its obligations with respect to this Agreement.

(d) Each party hereto waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Section 11.8 PUBLICITY. Except as otherwise required by applicable law or the rules of Nasdaq, none of the parties hereto shall, or shall permit any of its Subsidiaries to, issue or cause the publication of any press release or other public announcement with respect to, or otherwise make any public statement concerning, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement without the consent of the other parties hereto, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld (provided that the consent of Parent shall be deemed to be the consent of and Merger Sub).

Agreement, and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement or any related agreement, including the Voting and Election Agreement. A party is entitled to seek injunctive relief to prevent any breach and to enforce terms or provisions if such breach would serve as a basis of terminating this Agreement or the Voting and Election Agreement by such party. No party seeking such relief shall be required to post bond or other security or to prove the inadequacy of available remedies at law in order to obtain such relief. The rights provided by this section are in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity including an action seeking damages.

The authority of the Board with respect to each series of Preferred Stock shall include, but not be limited to, the determination or fixing of the following:

- (a) The number of shares of such series;
- (b) The designation of such series;
- (c) The dividends of such series, the conditions and dates upon which such dividends shall be payable, the relation which such dividends shall bear to the dividends payable on any other class or classes of stock and whether such dividends shall be cumulative or noncumulative;
- (d) Whether the shares of such series shall be subject to redemption by the Corporation and, if made subject to such redemption, the times, prices, rates, adjustments, and other terms and conditions of such redemption;
- (e) The terms and amounts of any sinking fund provided for the purchase or redemption of the shares of such series;

B-1

- (g) The extent, if any, to which the holders of the shares of such series shall be entitled to vote with respect to the election of the members of the Board of Directors (the "Directors") or otherwise, including the right to elect a specified number or class of directors, the number or percentage of votes required for certain actions, and the extent to which a vote by class or series shall be required for certain actions;
- (h) The restrictions, if any, on the issue or reissue of any Preferred Stock;

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

- (i) The rights of the holders of the shares of such series upon the dissolution of, or upon the distribution of the assets of, the Corporation; and
- (j) The extent, if any, to which any committee of the Board may fix the designations and any of the preferences or rights of the shares of such series relating to dividends, redemption, dissolution, any distribution of assets of the Corporation or the conversion into or exchange of such shares for shares of any other class or classes of stock of the Corporation or any other series of the same or any other class or classes of stock of the Corporation, or fix the number of shares of any such series or authorize the increase or decrease in the shares of such series.

SECTION 2.3 AUTHORIZED COMMON STOCK.

(a) DIVIDEND RIGHTS. Subject to the prior rights of holders of all classes of stock at the time outstanding having prior rights as to dividends, the holders of the Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock, on a share for share basis, shall be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the Board, out of any assets of the Corporation legally available therefor, such dividends as may be declared from time to time by the Board.

(b) LIQUIDATION RIGHTS. Subject to the prior rights of holders of all classes of stock at the time outstanding having prior liquidation rights, upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed to the holders of the Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock, on a share for share basis.

(c) REDEMPTION. The Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock are not redeemable; provided however, that the Company's repurchase of shares of its capital stock pursuant to agreements approved by the Board shall not be deemed "redemptions" and shall be allowed, subject to limitations on "distributions" pursuant to corporate law.

(d) VOTING RIGHTS. Except as otherwise provided herein or required by applicable law, (i) each holder of Common Stock shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each share of Common Stock held as of the applicable record date on any matter that is submitted to a vote or for the consent of the shareholders of the Corporation, and (ii) each holder of Class B Common Stock shall be entitled to fifteen (15) votes for each share of Class B Common Stock held as of the applicable record date on any matter that is submitted to a vote or for the consent of the shareholders of the Corporation, PROVIDED that if at any time a Person and its Affiliates would hold in aggregate more than 94.9% of the aggregate voting power of the Corporation (without regard to this proviso) (such Person together with its Affiliates, a "Controlling Person"), then the number of votes for each share of Class B Common Stock shall at such time be reduced pursuant to the following formula:

(0.949w-y)

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

$v = \frac{(z - 0.949x)}{w}$

where  $v$  = votes per share of Class B Common Stock held by the Controlling Person;
 $w$  = total number of outstanding shares of Common Stock;
 $x$  = total number of outstanding shares of Class B Common Stock;
 $y$  = total number of outstanding shares of Common Stock held by the Controlling Person; and $z$  = total number of outstanding shares of Class B Common Stock held by the Controlling Person, PROVIDED, further, that (1) subject to clause (3) of this proviso, in no event shall the application of the formula result in the aggregate voting power of a Controlling Person (as defined in the preceding proviso) being less than or greater than 94.9% of the aggregate voting power of the Corporation, (2) the Board shall be authorized to adjust the formula set forth in the first proviso to this Section 2.3(d) in the event that there are outstanding any voting securities of the Corporation other than the Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock, as appropriate, to provide that, subject to clause (3) of this proviso, the aggregate voting power of the Controlling Person is not greater than or less than 94.9% of the aggregate voting power of the Corporation, and (3) in the event that pursuant to the formula in the preceding proviso (as adjusted from time to time pursuant to clause (2) of this proviso), the votes per share of Class B Common Stock held by the Controlling Person either (A) cannot be determined or (B) would be a negative number, the first proviso to this Section 2.3(d) shall be disregarded and be of no further force and effect and each share of Class B Common Stock shall be entitled to fifteen (15) votes per share.

Holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall be entitled to notice of any shareholders' meeting in accordance with the Bylaws of the Corporation. Except as otherwise required by applicable law, the Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock shall vote together as a single class on all matters submitted to a vote or for the consent of the shareholders of the Corporation. Holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall not be entitled to cumulate their votes for the election of directors or any other matter submitted to a vote of the shareholders.

(e) STOCK DIVIDENDS, STOCK SPLITS OR COMBINATIONS. In no event shall any stock dividends or stock splits or combinations of stock be declared or made with respect to the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock unless all shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock then outstanding are treated equally.

SECTION 2.4 ISSUANCE OF SHARES. The Corporation may from time to time issue and dispose of any of the Authorized Shares for such consideration as may be fixed from time to time by the Board, without action by the shareholders. The Board may provide for payment therefor to be received by the Corporation in cash, property, services or such other consideration as is approved by the Board. Any and all such Authorized Shares of the Corporation, the issuance of which has been so authorized, and for which consideration so fixed by the Board has been paid or delivered, shall be deemed fully paid stock and shall not be liable to any further call or assessment thereon.

ARTICLE III. PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

No preemptive rights shall exist with respect to shares of stock or securities convertible into shares of stock of the Corporation, except to the extent provided by written agreement with the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV. ACTION BY MAJORITY VOTE

Except as otherwise set forth herein, to the maximum extent permitted under Chapter 23B of the RCW, any corporate action that would otherwise require the affirmative vote of more than a simple majority of the voting power of the shareholders of the Corporation entitled to vote on an action may be approved by the affirmative vote of a simple majority of the voting power of the shareholders of the Corporation entitled to vote on such action. This Article IV is specifically intended to reduce the voting requirements otherwise prescribed under RCW 23B.10.030, 23B.11.030, 23B.12.020 and 23B.14.020, in accordance with RCW 23B.07.270.

ARTICLE V. DIRECTORS

The number of directors of the Corporation shall be determined in the manner provided by the Bylaws and may be increased or decreased from time to time in the manner provided therein. Election of directors need not be by written ballot except and to the extent provided by the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VI. BYLAWS

The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt, amend or repeal the Bylaws subject to the power of the shareholders to amend or repeal such Bylaws. The shareholders shall also have the power to amend or repeal the Bylaws and to adopt new Bylaws.

ARTICLE VII. ACTION BY SHAREHOLDERS WITHOUT A MEETING

To the maximum extent permitted under Chapter 23B of the RCW, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Corporation's shareholders may be taken without a meeting.

ARTICLE VIII. CONDUCT OF CERTAIN AFFAIRS OF THE CORPORATION

SECTION 8.1 DEFINITIONS. As used in this Article VIII, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "AFFILIATE" shall mean any Person controlling, controlled by or under common control with such Person. For the purposes of this definition of "Affiliate," "control," when used with respect to any specified Person, shall mean the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of such Person, directly or indirectly, whether through ownership of voting securities or partnership or other ownership interests, by contract or otherwise; and the terms "controlling" and "controlled" shall have correlative meanings.

(b) "CORPORATE OPPORTUNITY" shall mean an investment or business opportunity or prospective economic advantage in which the Corporation could, but for the provisions of this Article VIII, have an interest or expectancy.

(c) "PARENT" shall mean USA Networks, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and any of its Affiliates.

(d) "PERSON" shall mean any individual, corporation, partnership, firm, group (as such term is used in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act of 1934, as amended), joint venture, association, trust, limited liability company, unincorporated organization, estate, trust or other entity.

(e) "SUBSIDIARY" shall mean any corporation, partnership, joint venture or other legal entity of which such Person (either directly or through or together with any other Subsidiary of such Person), owns, directly or indirectly, 50% or more of the stock or other equity interests the holders of which are generally entitled to vote for the election of the board of directors or similar governing body of such corporation, partnership, joint venture or other legal entity.

B-4

SECTION 8.2 COMPETING ACTIVITIES. Except as otherwise expressly provided in an agreement between the Corporation and any shareholder or among the Corporation and any two or more shareholders, (a) the shareholders of the Corporation, including, without limitation, Parent and its officers, directors, agents, employees, shareholders, members, partners and Affiliates, may engage or invest in, independently or with others, any business activity of any type or description, including without limitation those that might be the same as or similar to the Corporation's business or the business of any Subsidiary of the Corporation; (b) neither the Corporation, any Subsidiary of the Corporation nor any shareholder of the Corporation shall have any right in or to such business activities or ventures or to receive or share in any income or proceeds derived therefrom; and (c) to the extent required by applicable law in order to effectuate the purpose of this provision, the Corporation shall have no interest or expectancy, and specifically renounces any interest or expectancy, in any such business activities or ventures.

SECTION 8.3 CORPORATE OPPORTUNITIES.

(a) If Parent (or, as set forth below, any of its officers, directors, agents, employees, shareholders, members, partners or Affiliates) acquires knowledge of a potential transaction or matter which may be a Corporate Opportunity or otherwise is then exploiting any Corporate Opportunity, the Corporation shall have no interest in such Corporate Opportunity and no expectancy that such Corporate Opportunity be offered to the Corporation, any such interest or expectancy being hereby renounced, so that, as a result of such renunciation, and for the avoidance of doubt, such Person (i) shall have no duty to communicate or present such Corporate Opportunity to the Corporation, (ii) shall have the right to hold any such Corporate Opportunity for its (and/or its officers', directors', agents', employees', shareholders', members', partners' or Affiliates') own account or to recommend, sell, assign or transfer such Corporate Opportunity to Persons other than the Corporation or any Subsidiary of the Corporation, and (iii) shall not breach any fiduciary duty to the Corporation, in such Person's capacity as a shareholder of the Corporation or otherwise, by reason of the fact that such Person pursues or acquires such Corporate Opportunity for itself, directs, sells, assigns or transfers such Corporate Opportunity to another Person, or does not communicate information regarding such Corporate Opportunity to the Corporation.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8.3(a) of this Article VIII, the Corporation does not renounce any interest or expectancy it may have in any Corporate Opportunity that is offered to any person who is an officer of the Corporation and who is also a director, but not an officer or employee, of Parent if such opportunity is expressly offered to such person in his or her capacity as an officer of the Corporation.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(c) For purposes of this Article VIII only, (i) a director of the Corporation who is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Corporation or of a committee thereof shall not be deemed to be an officer of the Corporation by reason of holding such position (without regard to whether such position is deemed an officer of the corporation under the Bylaws of the Corporation), unless such person is a full-time employee of the Corporation; and (ii) the term "Corporation" shall mean the Corporation and, except where the context requires otherwise, shall also include all corporations, partnerships, joint ventures, associations and other entities in which the Corporation beneficially owns (directly or indirectly) 50% or more of the outstanding voting stock, voting power, partnership interests or similar voting interests.

(d) Anything in these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation to the contrary notwithstanding, (i) this Section 8.3 shall expire on the date that (A) Parent ceases to beneficially own Authorized Common Stock representing at least 20% of the total voting power of all classes of outstanding capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote in the election of directors and (B) no person who is a director or officer of the Corporation is also a director or officer of Parent; and (ii) in addition to any vote of the shareholders required by law, until the time that Parent ceases to beneficially own Authorized Common Stock representing at least 20% of the total voting power of all classes of outstanding capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote in the election of directors, the affirmative vote of the holders of more than 80% of the total voting power of all such classes of outstanding capital stock of the Corporation shall be required to alter, amend or repeal in a manner adverse to the interests of Parent, or to adopt any provision adverse to the interests of Parent and inconsistent with, any provision of this Article VIII. Neither the alteration, amendment or repeal of this Article VIII nor the adoption of any provision of this Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation inconsistent with this Article VIII shall eliminate or reduce the effect of this Article VIII in respect of any matter occurring, or any cause of action, suit or claim that, but for this Article VIII, would accrue or arise prior to such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption.

SECTION 8.4 NOTICE TO HOLDERS. Any person purchasing or otherwise acquiring any interest in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be deemed to have notice of and to have consented to the provisions of this Article VIII.

ARTICLE IX. LIMITATION OF DIRECTOR LIABILITY

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, except for:

- (a) Acts or omissions involving intentional misconduct by the director or a knowing violation of law by the director;
- (b) Conduct violating RCW 23B.08.310 (which involves certain distributions by the Corporation);
- (c) Any transaction from which the director will personally receive a benefit in money, property, or services to which the director is not legally entitled.

If the Washington Business Corporation Act is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Washington Business Corporation Act, as so amended. Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the shareholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation with respect to any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

ARTICLE X. INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION 10.1 INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS. The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each individual who is or was serving as a director or officer of the Corporation or who, while serving as a director or officer of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against any and all liability incurred with respect to any proceeding to which the individual is or is threatened to be made a party because of such service, and shall make advances of reasonable expenses with respect to such proceeding, to the fullest extent permitted by law, without regard to the limitations in RCW 23B.08.510 through 23B.08.550; provided that no such indemnity shall indemnify any director or officer from or on account of (a) acts or omissions of the director or officer finally adjudged to be intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (b) conduct of the director or officer finally adjudged to be in violation of RCW 23B.08.310; or (c) any transaction with respect to which it was finally adjudged that such director or officer personally received a benefit in money, property, or services to which the director or officer was not legally entitled. If the Washington Business Corporation Act is amended to authorize further indemnification of directors or officers, then directors and officers of the Corporation shall be indemnified to the fullest extent permitted by the Washington Business Corporation Act as so amended.

SECTION 10.2 INSURANCE. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or, who, while a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against liability asserted against or incurred by the individual in that capacity or arising from the individual's status as a director, officer, employee, or agent, whether or not the Corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against such liability under RCW 23B.08.510 or 23B.08.520.

SECTION 10.3 NON-EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS. To the extent permitted by law, the rights to indemnification and advance of reasonable expenses conferred in this Article X shall not be exclusive of any other right which any individual may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Bylaws, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article X shall be a contract right upon which each director or officer shall be presumed to have relied in determining to serve or to continue to serve as such. Any amendment to or repeal of this Article X shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director or officer occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

ARTICLE XI. SAVINGS CLAUSE

If any provision of these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Directors.

Section 3. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called only by the Chairman or a majority of the Directors then serving on the Corporation's Board of Directors.

Section 4. NOTICE. Written notice stating the date, time and place of the meeting, and in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes thereof, shall be given to each shareholder entitled to vote thereat not less than ten (10) (unless a greater period of notice is required by law in a particular case) nor more than sixty (60) days prior thereto, either personally or by mail or facsimile, addressed to each shareholder at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation.

If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice be by facsimile or personally, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when confirmation of receipt is received by the sender. provides) any special meeting of the shareholders may be canceled, by resolution of the Board of Directors upon public notice given prior to the date previously scheduled for such meeting of shareholders.

Section 5. ADJOURNED MEETINGS. The Chairman or a majority of the voting power of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting from time to time, whether or not there is a quorum. #### (A) ANNUAL MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS.

(1) Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors of the Corporation and the proposal of business to be considered by the shareholders may be made at an annual meeting of shareholders (a) pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting, (b) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (c) by any shareholder of the Corporation who was a shareholder of record at the time of giving of notice provided for in these Bylaws, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in these Bylaws.

(2) For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a shareholder pursuant to clause (c) of paragraph (A) (1) of these Bylaws, the shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation and such other business must otherwise be a proper matter for shareholder action. To be timely, a shareholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 60th day nor earlier than the close of business on the 90th day prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 60 days after such anniversary date, notice by the shareholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the 90th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 60th day prior to such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the Corporation. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment of an annual meeting commence a new time period for the giving of a shareholder's notice as described above. Such shareholder's notice shall set forth (a) as to each person whom the shareholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as a Director all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of Directors in an election contest, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and Rule 14a-11 thereunder (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a Director if elected); (b) as to any other business that the shareholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such shareholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (c) as to the shareholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made (i) the name and address of such shareholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner and (ii) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such shareholder and such beneficial owner.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in the second sentence of paragraph (A) (2) of these Bylaws to the contrary, in the event that the number of Directors to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation is increased and there is no public announcement by the Corporation naming all of the nominees for Director or specifying the size of the increased Board of Directors at least 70 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a shareholder's notice required by these Bylaws shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for any new positions created by such increase, if it shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation.

(B) SPECIAL MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS. Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of shareholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting. Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at a special meeting of shareholders at which Directors are to be elected pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting (a) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (b) provided that the Board of Directors has determined that Directors shall be elected at such meeting, by any shareholder of the Corporation who is a shareholder of record at the time of giving of notice provided for in these Bylaws, who shall be entitled to vote at the meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in these Bylaws. In the event the Corporation calls a special meeting of shareholders for the purpose of electing one or more Directors to the Board of Directors, any such shareholder may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be), for election to such position(s) as specified in the Corporation's notice of meeting, if the shareholder's notice required by paragraph (A)(2) of these Bylaws shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not earlier than the close of business on the 90th day prior to such special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 60th day prior to such special meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at such meeting. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment of a special meeting commence a new time period for the giving of a shareholder's notice as described above.

(C) GENERAL.

(1) Only such persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in these Bylaws shall be eligible to serve as Directors and only such business shall be conducted at a meeting of shareholders as shall have been brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in these Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Chairman of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made or proposed, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedures set forth in these Bylaws and, if any proposed nomination or business is not in compliance with these Bylaws, to declare that such defective proposal or nomination shall be disregarded.

(2) For purposes of these Bylaws, "public announcement" shall mean disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of these Bylaws, a shareholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in these Bylaws. Section 10. INSPECTORS OF ELECTIONS; OPENING AND CLOSING THE POLLS. The Board of Directors by resolution shall appoint one or more inspectors, which inspector or inspectors may include individuals who serve the Corporation in other capacities, including, without limitation, as officers, employees, agents or representatives, to act at the meetings of shareholders and make a written report thereof. One or more persons may be designated as alternate inspectors to replace any inspector who fails to act. If no inspector or alternate has been appointed to act or is able to act at a meeting of shareholders, the Chairman shall appoint one or more inspectors to act at the meeting. Each inspector, before discharging the duties of an inspector, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of the inspector's ability. The inspectors shall have the duties prescribed by law.

The Chairman shall fix and announce at the meeting the date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the shareholders will vote at a meeting.

Section 11. ACTION WITHOUT MEETING. To the maximum extent permitted under Chapter 23B of the RCW, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Corporation's shareholders may be taken without a meeting.

ARTICLE IV DIRECTORS

Section 1. NUMBER AND TENURE. The business and affairs, property and interests of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors. In addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon the Board of Directors by these Bylaws and the Articles of Incorporation, the Board of Directors may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts as are not prohibited by the Business Corporation Act. The number of Directors shall be fixed from time to time pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the Board of Directors or by the shareholders, or by a duly adopted amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation. Such number of Directors serving on the Board of Directors may be increased or decreased at any time. Each Director shall serve for a term ending on the date of the annual meeting of shareholders following the annual meeting at which such Director was elected; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that each Director shall serve until his or her successor is duly elected or until his or her death, resignation or removal. Notice of any meeting of the Board of Directors shall set out a detailed agenda of the matters to be discussed, but any subject properly brought before the meeting may be addressed.

If notice be by facsimile, such notice shall be deemed to be adequately delivered when the notice is transmitted at least 72 hours before such meeting. If by telephone or by hand delivery, the notice shall be given at least 72 hours prior to the time set for the meeting. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice of such meeting. A meeting may be held at any time without notice if all the Directors are present or if those not present waive notice of the meeting in accordance with Article X of these Bylaws.

Section 7. QUORUM. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the total number of Directors then serving on the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the act of a majority of the Directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be an act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum is not present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the Directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice, until a quorum shall be present. The Directors present at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough Directors to leave less than a quorum. A Director present at a meeting shall be counted in determining the presence of a quorum, regardless of whether a contract or transaction between the Corporation and any other Corporation, partnership, association, or other reorganization in which such Director is a Director or officer or has a financial interest, is authorized or considered at such meeting.

Section 8. ACTION WITHOUT MEETING. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors or such committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors, except that, in his absence, he may designate another member of the Board of Directors to so preside. Any such committee, to the extent provided in such resolution, shall have and may exercise all of the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation and may authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers that may require it, except that no committee shall have the power or authority to amend the Articles of Incorporation, to amend, adopt or repeal the bylaws, to authorize or approve a distribution except according to a general formula or method prescribed by the Board of Directors, to approve or propose to shareholders action that the Business Corporation Act requires to be approved by shareholders, to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors or on any of its committees, to approve a plan of merger not requiring shareholder approval, to authorize or approve the issuance or sale or contract for sale of shares, or determine the designation and relative rights, preferences, and limitations of a class or series of shares, except that the Board of Directors may authorize a committee, or senior executive officer of the Corporation to do so within limits specifically prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Section 12. COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS. The Directors may be paid their expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors and may be paid a fixed sum for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors or a stated salary as Director. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in their absolute discretion, think proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for such other purpose as the Board of Directors shall think conducive to the interests of the Corporation, and the Board of Directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

ARTICLE IX FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be established by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE X WAIVER OF NOTICE

Whenever any notice is required to be given by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, a written waiver thereof, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting.

ARTICLE XI SEAL

The corporate seal of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. Said seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise imprinted upon the subject document or paper.

Section 2. EMERGENCY BYLAWS. The Board of Directors may adopt emergency Bylaws ("Emergency Bylaws") to the broadest extent permitted under RCW 23B.02.070 and related provisions of the Business Corporation Act. ### ARTICLE XIII INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

Section 1. INDEMNIFICATION. The Corporation shall, to the fullest extent authorized by the Business Corporation Act as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment), indemnify and hold harmless any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, investigation or proceeding, whether civil, criminal or administrative by reason of the fact that he or a person of whom he is the legal representative is or was a Director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was a Director or officer of the Corporation serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director, officer or employee of another Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise (whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a Director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a Director or officer) against all expenses, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by him in connection therewith; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that except as provided in this Bylaw, the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors. The right to indemnification conferred in this Bylaw shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition, such advances to be paid by the Corporation within twenty (20) days after the receipt by the Corporation of a statement or statements from the claimant requesting such advance or advances from time to time; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that if the Business Corporation Act requires, the payment of such expenses incurred by a Director or officer in his capacity as a Director or officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such person while a Director or officer, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding, shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such Director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under this Bylaw or otherwise.

To obtain indemnification under this Bylaw, a claimant shall submit to the Corporation a written request, including therein or therewith such documentation and information as is reasonably available to the claimant and is reasonably necessary to determine whether and to what extent the claimant is entitled to indemnification. Any indemnification (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct. Upon written request by a claimant for indemnification pursuant to the preceding sentence, a determination, if required by applicable law, with respect to a claimant's entitlement thereto shall be made as follows: (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit, investigation or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested Directors so directs, or by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the shareholders of the Corporation. If it is so determined that the claimant is entitled to indemnification, payment to the claimant shall be made within ten (10) days after such determination.

If a claim under this Bylaw is not paid in full by the Corporation within twenty (20) days after a written claim pursuant to this Bylaw has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required undertaking, if any is required, has been tendered to the Corporation) that the claimant has not met the standard of conduct which makes it permissible under the Business Corporation Act for the Corporation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors or shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Business Corporation Act, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors or shareholders) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

If a determination shall have been made pursuant to this Bylaw that the claimant is entitled to indemnification, the Corporation shall be bound by such determination in any judicial proceeding commenced pursuant to this Bylaw.

Furthermore, the Corporation shall be precluded from asserting in any judicial proceeding commenced pursuant to this Bylaw that the procedures and presumptions of this Bylaw are not valid, binding and enforceable and shall stipulate in such proceeding that the Corporation is bound by all the provisions of this Bylaw.

The right to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in this Bylaw shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any statute, provision of the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, agreement, contract, vote of shareholders or disinterested Directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. No repeal or modification of this Bylaw shall in any way diminish or adversely affect the rights of any Director or officer of the Corporation (or employee or agent of the Corporation to which rights to indemnification have been granted) hereunder in respect of any occurrence or matter arising prior to any such repeal or modification.

The indemnification and advancement of expenses shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification, and rights to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition, to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Bylaw with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses to Directors and officers of the Corporation.

If any provision or provisions of this Bylaw shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever: (1) the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Bylaw (including, without limitation, each portion of any paragraph of this Bylaw containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that is not itself held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby; and (2) to the fullest extent possible, the provisions of this Bylaw (including, without limitation, each such portion of any paragraph of this Bylaw containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall be construed so as to give effect to the intent manifested by the provision held invalid, illegal or unenforceable.

Any notice, request or other communication required or permitted to be given to the Corporation under this Bylaw shall be in writing and either delivered in person or sent by facsimile, overnight mail or courier service, or certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the Secretary and shall be effective only upon receipt by the Secretary.

Section 2. INSURANCE. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or will be a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or will be a Director or officer of the Corporation serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director, officer, employee or agent of another Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Business Corporation Act. To the extent that the Corporation maintains any policy or policies providing such insurance, each such Director or officer, and each such agent or employee to which rights to indemnification have been granted, shall be covered by such policy or policies in accordance with its or their terms to the maximum extent of the coverage thereunder for any such Director, officer, employee or agent.

Board of Directors
Expedia, Inc.

Members of the Board:

We understand that Expedia, Inc. ("Expedia" or the "Company"), USA Networks, Inc. ("USA"), Taipei, Inc, a wholly owned subsidiary of USA ("Merger Sub"), and Microsoft Corporation ("Microsoft"), propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Recapitalization and Merger, substantially in the form of the draft dated July 15, 2001 (the "Agreement"), which provides for the acquisition by USA of a majority of the outstanding stock of Expedia through a series of transactions. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, Expedia will take all actions necessary to effect a recapitalization (the "Expedia Recapitalization") of the Company, in which holders of shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share, of Expedia ("Expedia Common Stock") shall elect whether or not to receive an equal number of shares of Class B common stock, par value $.01 per share, of Expedia ("Expedia Class B Common Stock"), subject to a maximum exchange of 37,500,000 shares of Expedia Common Stock for Expedia Class B Common Stock.

Subsequent to the Expedia Recapitalization, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company (the "Merger"), pursuant to which, depending on such shareholder's election in the Expedia Recapitalization, (a) each share of Expedia Common Stock, other than shares held in treasury or held by USA or as to which dissenters' rights have been perfected, shall be converted into a right to receive a combination of (i) one share of Expedia Common Stock, and (ii) 0.1920 warrants to acquire Expedia Common Stock having the terms described in the Agreement (the "Expedia Warrants") (collectively, the "Expedia Consideration"), and (b) each share of Expedia Class B Common Stock, other than shares held in treasury or held by USA, shall be converted into a right to receive a combination of (i) a number of shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share, of USA ("USA Common Stock") determined pursuant to a certain formula set forth in the Agreement, (ii) a number of shares of Series A preferred stock, par value $.01 per share, of USA having the designations, preferences and other rights described in the Agreement ("USA Preferred Stock") determined pursuant to a certain formula set forth in the Agreement, and (iii) a number of warrants to acquire USA Common Stock having the terms described in the Agreement (the "USA Warrants") determined pursuant to a certain formula set forth in the Agreement (collectively, the "USA Consideration", and together with the Expedia Consideration, the "Consideration").

We also note that the Agreement contemplates that USA will contribute (the "Contribution") to Merger Sub certain assets specified in the Agreement which will become assets of Expedia upon consummation of the Merger and that Microsoft will enter into a Voting and Election Agreement pursuant to which it will vote in favor of the Agreement and elect to exchange all of its shares of Expedia Common Stock for Expedia Class B Common Stock. All capitalized undefined terms shall have meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Expedia Recapitalization, the Merger and the Contribution are more fully set forth in the Agreement. We further understand that approximately 67% of the outstanding shares of Expedia Common Stock are owned by Microsoft.

You have asked for our opinion as to whether the Consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Expedia Common Stock (other than Microsoft) pursuant to the terms of the Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

For purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (i) reviewed certain publicly available financial statements and other information of Expedia and USA;
- (ii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning Expedia prepared by the management of Expedia;
- (iii) reviewed certain financial projections prepared by the management of Expedia;
- (iv) discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of Expedia and USA with senior executives of Expedia and

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

USA, respectively;

- (v) reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for the Expedia Common Stock and USA Common Stock;
- (vi) compared the financial performance of Expedia and USA and the prices and trading activity of the Expedia Common Stock and USA Common Stock with that of certain other comparable publicly-traded companies and their securities;
- (vii) participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of Expedia and USA and their financial and legal advisors;
- (viii) reviewed the draft Agreement dated July 15, 2001 and certain related documents;
- (ix) reviewed the terms of the Expedia Warrants, USA Preferred Stock and USA Warrants with the management of Expedia and the terms of other comparable securities; and
- (x) reviewed the terms of the Expedia Recapitalization, including governance and voting rights associated with such Expedia Recapitalization; and
- (xi) considered such other factors and performed such other analyses as we have deemed appropriate.

We have assumed and relied upon without independent verification the accuracy and completeness of the information reviewed by us for the purposes of this opinion. With respect to the financial projections, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance of the Company. We have not been provided with financial projections for USA and have instead relied upon publicly available projections of research analysts for USA. In addition, we have assumed that the transactions contemplated by the Agreement will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement, including, among other things, that the Merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization and/or exchange, each pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. We have not made any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of Expedia or USA, nor have we been furnished with any such appraisals. Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof.

In arriving at our opinion, we were not authorized to solicit, and did not solicit, interest from any party with respect to the acquisition of the Company or any of its assets.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with this transaction and will receive a fee for our services. In the past, Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated and its affiliates have provided financial advisory and financing services for Expedia and Microsoft and have received fees for the rendering of these services.

It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company and may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent, except that this opinion may be included in its entirety in any filing made by the Company in respect of the transaction with the Securities and Exchange Commission. In addition, this opinion does not in any manner address whether or the prices at which the USA Common Stock, USA Preferred Stock, USA Warrants, Expedia Common Stock, Expedia Class B Common Stock or Expedia Warrants may trade at any time and Morgan Stanley expresses no opinion or recommendation as to how the shareholders of Expedia should vote or make their elections with respect to their Expedia Common Stock at the shareholders' meeting held in connection with the Expedia Recapitalization and Merger.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion on the date hereof that the Consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Expedia Common Stock (other than Microsoft) pursuant to the Agreement, is fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

Very truly yours,
MORGAN STANLEY & CO. INCORPORATED

VOTING AND ELECTION AGREEMENT

This VOTING AND ELECTION AGREEMENT (this "AGREEMENT"), is dated as of July 15, 2001, by and among USA Networks, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("USA"), and Microsoft Corporation, a Washington corporation ("MICROSOFT") and Microsoft E-Holdings, Inc., a Nevada corporation ("SUB") (Microsoft and Sub are collectively referred to as "STOCKHOLDER").

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, USA, Expedia, Inc., a Washington corporation (the "COMPANY"), Taipei, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of USA ("MERGER SUB"), and Stockholder have entered into the Agreement and Plan of Recapitalization and Merger, dated as of the date hereof (the "MERGER AGREEMENT"), providing for, among other things, the Transactions on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein (capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Merger Agreement);

WHEREAS, as of the date hereof, Stockholder beneficially owns the number of Voting Shares (as defined herein) set forth on ATTACHMENT A hereto (the "OWNED SHARES");

WHEREAS, as a condition to USA's willingness to enter into and perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement, USA has required that Stockholder agree, and Stockholder has agreed, (i) to vote all of the Owned Shares, together with any shares of Company Stock acquired after the date of this Agreement, whether upon the exercise of options, conversion of convertible securities or otherwise, and any other voting securities of the Company (whether acquired heretofore or hereafter) that are beneficially owned by Stockholder or over which Stockholder has, directly or indirectly, the right to vote (collectively, the "VOTING SHARES"), in favor of (a) the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Recapitalization and the Merger, (b) the Articles Amendment, (c) the termination of the Stockholders Agreement, and (d) any other matters submitted to the holders of Company Stock in furtherance of the Transactions, (ii) to elect to receive Class B Common Stock in respect of all of its shares of Company Common Stock owned, directly or indirectly, immediately prior to the Recapitalization (the "ELECTION SHARES") and (iii) to take the other actions described herein; and

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

WHEREAS, Stockholder desires to express its support for the Transactions and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and for other good and valuable consideration given to each party hereto, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. AGREEMENT TO VOTE; IRREVOCABLE PROXY AND ELECT PARENT CONSIDERATION.

1.1 AGREEMENT TO VOTE. Stockholder hereby agrees that, during the time this Agreement is in effect, at any meeting of the stockholders of the Company, however called, or any adjournment thereof, or by written consent, Stockholder shall be present (in person or by proxy) and vote (or cause to be voted) all of its Voting Shares (a) in favor of approval of (1) the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Recapitalization and the Merger, (2) the Articles Amendment, (3) the termination of the Stockholders Agreement and, (4) any other matter that is required to facilitate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and (b) against any Transaction Proposal and against any action or agreement that would result in a breach in any material respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of the Company under the Merger Agreement or that would otherwise be inconsistent with, prevent or materially delay the consummation of the Transactions or of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

1.2 IRREVOCABLE PROXY. Solely with respect to the matters described in Section 1.1, for so long as this Agreement has not been terminated pursuant to its terms, Stockholder hereby irrevocably appoints USA as its proxy (which proxy is irrevocable and which appointment is coupled with an interest, including for purposes of Section 23B.07.220 of the Washington Business Corporation Law) to vote solely on the matters described in Section 1.1, and in accordance therewith. Stockholder agrees to execute any further agreement or form reasonably necessary or appropriate to confirm and effectuate the grant of the proxy contained herein.

1.3. AGREEMENT TO ELECT CLASS B COMMON STOCK. Stockholder hereby agrees to and shall validly, irrevocably and unconditionally elect to receive Class B Common Stock in the Recapitalization in respect of all of the Election Shares.

2. SHELF REGISTRATION STATEMENT.

2.1 FILING; EFFECTIVE PERIOD. USA shall prepare and file with the SEC as soon as reasonably practicable a Registration Statement on Form S-3 (or other appropriate form should Form S-3 be unavailable for USA) with respect to the Registrable Securities (as defined below) received by Stockholder in the Merger and shall use reasonable best efforts to cause such Registration Statement to become effective within two (2) business days following the Closing Date and remain effective until the earlier of (i) the date on which Stockholder no longer owns any shares of Registrable Securities, and (ii) the one-year anniversary of the Effective Time if Parent has filed all reports required to be filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in the twelve months preceding such date, and otherwise the two-year anniversary of the Closing Date; PROVIDED, that Parent may suspend the effectiveness of such Registration Statement if and only for so long as USA determines that such registration would require premature disclosure of material information relating to a pending corporate development; PROVIDED, FURTHER, that (i) any period of continuous suspension shall not exceed twenty (20) business days, and (ii) the Registration Statement shall not be suspended for an aggregate of greater than sixty (60) business days in any calendar year. Parent's obligation under this Section 2 is subject to Stockholder's timely cooperation in connection with preparation and filing of the Registration Statement. Nothing herein shall be interpreted as affecting the right of Stockholder to sell shares of Registrable Securities in open market transactions as permitted by Rule 145. Parent hereby agrees that it will not take a position that Stockholder is an "affiliate" of Parent for purposes of Rule 145. Subject to the effectiveness of the Registration Statement described in this Section 2, the certificates representing shares of Registrable Securities issued to Stockholder in the Merger shall be issued free of any restrictive legends.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

2.2 REGISTRABLE SECURITIES. For purposes of this Agreement "Registrable Securities" shall mean shares of Parent Common Stock, Parent Preferred Stock and Parent Warrants, received by Stockholder in the Merger and shares of Parent Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of the Parent Warrants and the conversion of Parent Preferred Stock.

2.3 REGISTRATION STATEMENT EXPENSES. All fees, disbursements and out-of-pocket expenses and costs incurred by USA in connection with the preparation of the Registration Statement under Section 2.1 and in complying with applicable securities and blue sky laws (including, without limitation, all attorneys' fees of USA) shall be borne by USA. Stockholder shall bear all printing costs, listing fees, SEC filing fees, underwriting fees and/or brokerage discounts, fees and commissions, if any, applicable to the Registrable Securities being registered and the fees and expenses of its counsel.

2.4 STOCKHOLDER REVIEW OF REGISTRATION STATEMENT AND COMMENT LETTERS. Stockholder and its counsel shall have a reasonable period, not to exceed ten (10) business days, to review the proposed Registration Statement or any amendment thereto, prior to filing with the SEC, and USA shall provide Shareholder with copies of any comment letters received from the SEC with respect thereto within two (2) business days of receipt thereof.

2.5 INSPECTION OF RECORDS. USA shall make reasonably available for inspection by Stockholder, any lead underwriter selected pursuant to Section 2.7 participating in any disposition pursuant to the Registration Statement, and any attorney, accountant or other agent retained by Stockholder or any such underwriter all relevant financial and other records, and pertinent corporate documents of USA, and supply all information reasonably requested by Stockholder or any such underwriter, attorney, accountant or agent in connection with the Registration Statement, in each case, as is customary for similar due diligence examinations; provided, however, any party receiving such information shall enter into a customary confidentiality agreement with USA to the effect that all records, information and documents that are designated in writing by USA, in good faith, as confidential, proprietary or containing any non-public information shall be kept confidential by the Stockholder and any such underwriter, attorney, accountant or agent, unless such disclosure is made pursuant to judicial process in a court proceeding (after first giving USA an opportunity promptly to seek a protective order or otherwise limit the scope of the information sought to be disclosed) or is required by law, or such records, information or documents become available to the public generally or through a third party not in violation of an accompanying obligation of confidentiality; provided further that the foregoing shall be conducted in a manner which does not disrupt in any significant respect the conduct by USA of its business. Such inspection and information gathering shall, to the maximum extent possible, be coordinated on behalf of Stockholder and the other parties entitled thereto by

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

2.6 QUALIFICATIONS. USA shall qualify any of the Registrable Securities for sale in such states as Stockholder reasonably designates and shall furnish indemnification in the manner provided in Section 5 hereof. However, USA shall not be required to qualify in any state which will require an escrow or other restriction relating to USA and/or the sellers, or which will require USA to qualify to do business in such state or require USA to file therein any general consent to service of process or otherwise subject USA or its subsidiaries to any adverse business or financial consequences, including without limitation being subject to state income or other state taxes.

2.7 MANNER OF SALE. In the event Stockholder desires to use an underwriter in connection with any sale of Registrable Securities hereunder, USA shall select such underwriter, which shall be reasonably acceptable to Stockholder.

3. COOPERATION WITH USA; REPRESENTATION. Stockholder will cooperate with USA in all respects in connection with this Agreement, including timely supplying all information reasonably requested by USA (which shall include all information regarding Stockholder and the proposed manner of sale of the Registrable Securities required to be disclosed in the Registration Statement) and executing and returning all documents reasonably requested in connection with the registration and sale of the Registrable Securities and entering into and performing its obligations under any underwriting agreement, if the offering is an underwritten offering, in usual and customary form, with the managing underwriter or underwriters of such underwritten offering. Stockholder's obligations under this Section shall include compliance by Stockholder with respect to information to be provided by Stockholder in connection with the Registration Statement, the Prospectus or any supplement or amendment thereto, with the provisions of Sections 4(a), (e) and (f).

Stockholder represents and warrants to USA that any sale by Stockholder of Registrable Securities, whether pursuant to a Registration Statement or otherwise, shall be made in compliance with federal and applicable state securities laws.

4. REGISTRATION PROCEDURES. If and whenever USA is required by any of the provisions of this Agreement to effect the registration of any of the Registrable Securities under the Securities Act, USA shall (except as otherwise provided in this Agreement), as expeditiously as possible, subject to the Stockholder's assistance and cooperation as reasonably required:

(a) (i) prepare and file with the SEC such amendments and supplements to the Registration Statement and the Prospectus as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the sale or other disposition of all securities covered by such registration statement whenever Stockholder shall desire to sell or otherwise dispose of the Registrable Securities (including prospectus supplements with respect to the sales of securities from time to time in connection with a registration statement pursuant to Rule 415 promulgated under the Securities Act) and (ii) take all lawful action such that each of (A) the Registration Statement and any amendment thereto does not, when it becomes effective, contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading and (B) the Prospectus, and any amendment or supplement thereto, does not at any time during the Effective Period include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the obligations of USA set forth in this subparagraph shall not apply to the extent that such statement or omission relates to information to be provided by Stockholder, so long as USA has included such information as provided by Stockholder (or failed to include it due to Stockholder's failure to provide);

(b) (i) prior to the filing with the SEC of any Registration Statement (including any amendments thereto) and the distribution or delivery of the Prospectus (including any supplements thereto), provide draft copies thereof to Stockholder and reflect in such documents all such comments as Stockholder (and its counsel) reasonably may propose and (ii) furnish to Stockholder such numbers of copies of the Prospectus including a preliminary prospectus or any amendment or supplement to the Prospectus, as applicable, in conformity with the requirements of the Securities Act, and such other documents, as Stockholder may reasonably request in order to facilitate the public sale or other disposition of the Registrable Securities;

(c) comply with the blue sky laws with respect to the Registrable Securities, and do any and all other acts and things which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable Stockholder to consummate the public sale or other disposition in such jurisdiction of the Registrable Securities, except that USA shall not for any such purpose be required to qualify to do business as a foreign corporation in any jurisdiction wherein it is not so qualified or to file therein any general consent to service of process;

(d) list such Registrable Securities on each securities exchange or quotation system on which similar securities issued by USA or the Company, as applicable, are then listed, if the listing of such Registrable Securities is then permitted under the rules of such exchange or quotation system or if the listing requirements are waived, or list such Registrable Securities on a mutually agreeable securities exchange or quotation system if the listing of such Registrable Securities is then permitted under the rules of such exchange or quotation system or if the listing requirements are waived. If listing on an exchange cannot be immediately effected, then it shall be accomplished as soon as possible. If the initial listing is not on Nasdaq, USA agrees to list any of the Registrable Securities on Nasdaq as soon as such Registrable Securities become eligible for Nasdaq listing;

(e) (i) notify Stockholder at any time when the Prospectus is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the happening of any event of which it has knowledge as a result of which the Prospectus, as then in effect, includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances then existing, and (ii) prepare and file a curative amendment or curative supplement under Section 4(a) as quickly as commercially possible;

(f) as promptly as practicable after becoming aware of such event, notify Stockholder (or, in the event of an underwritten offering, the managing underwriters) of the issuance by the SEC or any state authority of any stop order or other suspension of the effectiveness of the Registration Statement at the earliest possible time and take all lawful action to effect the withdrawal, rescission or removal of such stop order or other suspension;

(g) in the event of an underwritten offering, promptly include or incorporate in a prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment to the Registration Statement such information as the managing underwriters reasonably agree should be included therein and to which USA does not reasonably object and make all required filings of such prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment as soon as practicable after it is notified of the matters to be included or incorporated in such prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment; and

(h) maintain a transfer agent for its securities.

5. INDEMNIFICATION.

5.1 INDEMNIFICATION BY USA. USA agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Stockholder and each person, if any, who controls Stockholder within the meaning of the Securities Act (together with Stockholder, the "DISTRIBUTING STOCKHOLDER") against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities, joint or several (which shall, for all purposes of this Agreement, include, but not be limited to, all reasonable costs of defense and investigation and all reasonable attorneys' fees), to which the Distributing Stockholder may become subject, under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in the Registration Statement, or any related preliminary prospectus, the Prospectus or amendment or supplement thereto, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein in light of the circumstances under which they were made not misleading; provided, however, that USA will not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage or liability arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in the Registration Statement, preliminary prospectus, the Prospectus or amendment or supplement thereto in reliance upon, and in conformity with, written information furnished to USA by the Distributing Stockholder specifically for use in the preparation thereof. This Section 5.1 shall not inure to the benefit of any Distributing Stockholder with respect to any person asserting such loss, claim, damage or liability who purchased the Registrable Securities which are the subject thereof if the Distributing Stockholder failed to send or give a copy of the Prospectus, or any amendment or supplement thereto, to such person at or prior to the written confirmation to such person of the sale of such Registrable Securities, where the Distributing Stockholder was obligated to do so under the Securities Act or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. This indemnity agreement, together with the contribution agreement contained herein, shall be the sole remedy of a Distributing Stockholder with respect to the matters described herein.

5.2 INDEMNIFICATION BY STOCKHOLDER. Distributing Stockholder agrees that it will, jointly and severally, indemnify and hold harmless USA, and each officer, director of USA or person, if any, who controls USA within the meaning of the Securities Act, against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities, joint or several (which shall, for all purposes of this Agreement, include, but not be limited to, all reasonable costs of defense and investigation and all reasonable attorneys' fees) to which USA or any such officer, director or controlling person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in the amendment or supplement thereto, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or the alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein in light of circumstances under which they were made not misleading, but in each case only to the extent that such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission was made in the Registration Statement, preliminary prospectus, the Prospectus or amendment or supplement thereto in reliance upon, and in conformity with, written information furnished to USA by such Distributing Stockholder specifically for use in the preparation thereof. This indemnity agreement will be in addition to any liability which the Distributing Stockholder may otherwise have.

5.3 NOTIFICATION. Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party under this Section 5 of notice of the commencement of any action, such indemnified party will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against the indemnifying party under this Section 5, notify the indemnifying party of the commencement thereof; but the omission so to notify the indemnifying party will not relieve the indemnifying party from any liability which it may have to any indemnified party except to the extent of actual prejudice demonstrated by the indemnifying party. In case any such action is brought against any indemnified party, and it notifies the indemnifying party of the commencement thereof, the indemnifying party will be entitled to participate in, and, to the extent that it may wish, jointly with any other indemnifying party similarly notified, assume the defense thereof, subject to the provisions herein stated, and after notice from the indemnifying party to such indemnified party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the indemnifying party will not be liable to such indemnified party under this Section 5 for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation, unless the indemnifying party shall not pursue the action to its final conclusion. The indemnified party shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action and to participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall not be at the expense of the indemnifying party (nor shall such party control the defense thereof) if the indemnifying party has assumed the defense of the action with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party; provided, however, that the fees and expenses of counsel to the indemnified party shall be at the expense of the indemnifying party if (i) the employment of such counsel has been specifically authorized in writing by the indemnifying party, or (ii) the named parties to any such action (including any impleaded parties) include both the Distributing Stockholder and USA and the indemnified party shall have been advised by such counsel in writing that there may be one or more legal defenses available to the indemnifying party in conflict with any legal defenses which may be available to the indemnified party (in which case the indemnifying party shall not have the right to assume the defense of such action on behalf of the indemnified party, it being understood, however, that the indemnifying party shall, in connection with any one such action or separate but substantially similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances, be liable only for the reasonable fees and expenses of one separate firm of attorneys for the indemnified party, which firm shall be designated in writing by the indemnified party and be approved by the indemnifying party). No settlement of any action against an indemnified party shall be made without the prior written consent of the indemnified party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, PROVIDED FURTHER, that a settlement which does not include an admission of liability by the indemnified party nor the payment of any monetary or other damages by such party shall not require such consent.

5.4 INDEMNIFICATION EXPENSES. All fees and expenses of the indemnified party (including reasonable costs of defense and investigation in a manner not inconsistent with this Section and all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) shall be promptly paid to the indemnified party, as incurred, within ten (10) business days of written notice thereof (accompanied by customary documentation detailing such expenses) to the indemnifying party; provided, however, that the indemnifying party may require such indemnified party to undertake to reimburse all such fees and expenses to the extent it is finally judicially determined that such indemnified party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder.

6. CONTRIBUTION.

6.1 CONTRIBUTION GENERALLY. In order to provide for just and equitable contribution under the Securities Act in any case in which (i) the indemnified party makes a claim for indemnification pursuant to Section 5 hereof but is judicially determined (by the entry of a final judgment or decree by a court of competent jurisdiction and the expiration of time to appeal or the denial of the last right of appeal) that such indemnification may not be enforced in such case notwithstanding the fact that the express provisions of Section 5 hereof provide for indemnification in such case, or (ii) contribution under the Securities Act may be required on the part of any indemnified party, then USA and the applicable Distributing Stockholder shall contribute to the payment or satisfaction of the aggregate losses, claims, damages or liabilities to which they may be subject (which shall, for all purposes of this Agreement, include, but not be limited to, all reasonable costs of defense and investigation and all reasonable attorneys' fees), in either such case (after contribution from others) on the basis of relative fault as well as any other relevant equitable considerations, which shall include both the relative fault of the parties and the relative benefits to the parties. The relative fault shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by USA on the one hand or the applicable Distributing Stockholder on the other hand, and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. USA and the Distributing Stockholder agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 6 were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in this Section 6. The amount paid or payable by an indemnified party as a result of the losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) referred to above in this Section 6 shall be deemed to include any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating or defending any such action or claim. No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

7. TERMINATION.

7.1 TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT. This Agreement shall (i) terminate automatically on the termination of the Merger Agreement, in accordance with its terms and (ii) shall be deemed satisfied in full and terminated upon the consummation of all of the Transactions, PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that if the Effective Time occurs, the provisions of Section 2 through and including Section 6, Section 10.4, Section 12.5 and Section 12.6, shall survive in accordance with their terms.

7.2 EFFECT OF TERMINATION. In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1, this Agreement shall become void and of no effect with no liability on the part of any party hereto; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, no such termination shall relieve any party hereto from any liability for any breach of this Agreement occurring prior to such termination; PROVIDED FURTHER, that if the Effective Time occurs, Sections 2 through and including 6, 10.4, 12.5 and 12.6 shall not be void and the parties shall continue to be liable in connection therewith.

In addition USA acknowledges that Stockholder is entering into this Agreement and the Merger Agreement in reliance on the material accuracy of the representations and warranties of USA made in Article V of the Merger Agreement.

10. CERTAIN COVENANTS OF STOCKHOLDER. Stockholder hereby covenants and agrees with USA as follows:

10.1 RESTRICTION ON TRANSFER, PROXIES AND NON-INTERFERENCE. Any transfer of Voting Shares or Election Shares not permitted hereby shall be null and void. Stockholder agrees that any such prohibited transfer may and should be enjoined. If any involuntary transfer of any of the Voting Shares or Election Shares shall occur (including, but not limited to, a sale by Stockholder's trustee in any bankruptcy, or a sale to a purchaser at any creditor's or court sale), the transferee (which term, as used herein, shall include any and all transferees and subsequent transferees of the initial transferee) shall take and hold such Voting Shares or Election Shares subject to all of the restrictions, liabilities and rights under this Agreement, which shall continue in full force and effect.

Except as set forth in the preceding sentence, nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement. This Agreement shall not be assigned by operation of law or otherwise and shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each party hereto.

12.3 AMENDMENTS. This Agreement may not be modified, amended, altered or supplemented, except upon the execution and delivery of a written agreement executed by each of the parties hereto. Sections 1, 10 and 11 shall not be modified, amended, altered or supplemented without the prior written consent of the Company.

12.5 GOVERNING LAW. (a) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of laws thereof.

(b) Each party hereto irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of any Delaware state court or any federal court sitting in the State of Delaware in any action arising out of or relating to this Agreement, and hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of such action may be heard and determined in such Delaware state or federal court. Each party hereto hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding. The parties hereto further agree, to the extent permitted by law, that final and unappealable judgment against any of them in any action or proceeding contemplated above shall be conclusive and may be enforced in any other jurisdiction within or outside the United States by suit on the judgment, a certified copy of which shall be conclusive evidence of the fact and amount of such judgment.

(c) To the extent that any party hereto has or hereafter may acquire any immunity from jurisdiction of any court or from any legal process (whether through service or notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution, execution or otherwise) with respect to itself or its property, each party hereto hereby irrevocably waives such immunity in respect of its obligations with respect to this Agreement.

(d) Each party hereto waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Each party hereto certifies that it has been induced to enter into this Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waivers and certifications set forth above in this Section.

12.6 REMEDIES. Each of Stockholder and USA recognize and acknowledge that a breach by it of any covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement will cause the other party to sustain irreparable injury and damages, for which money damages would not provide an adequate remedy, and therefore each of Stockholder and USA agrees that in the event of any such breach by the other, Stockholder or USA, as the case may be, shall be entitled to the remedy of specific performance of such covenants and agreements and injunctive and other equitable relief.

12.7 COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile and in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same Agreement.

12.8 DESCRIPTIVE HEADINGS. The descriptive headings used herein are inserted for convenience of reference only and are not intended to be part of or to affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

12.9 SEVERABILITY. Whenever possible, each provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement will be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law but if any provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable law or rule in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other provision or portion of any provision in such jurisdiction, and this Agreement will be reformed, construed and enforced in such jurisdiction as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision or portion of any provision had never been contained herein.

(2) "Dissenter" means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under RCW 23B.13.020 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by RCW 23B.13.200 through 23B.13.280.

(3) "Fair value," with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effective date of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(4) "Interest" means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.

(5) "Record shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.

(6) "Beneficial shareholder" means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.

(7) "Shareholder" means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

23B.13.020. Right to dissent.

(1) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

- (a) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party
  - (i) if shareholder approval is required for the merger by RCW 23B.11.030, 23B.11.080, or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger, or
  - (ii) if the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under RCW 23B.11.040;
- (b) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;
- (c) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one year after the date of sale;
- (d) An amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under RCW 23B.06.040; or
- (e) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

(2) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter may not challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action fails to comply with the procedural requirements imposed by this title, RCW 25.10.900 through 25.10.955, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws, or is fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(3) The right of a dissenting shareholder to obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares shall terminate upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

- (a) The proposed corporate action is abandoned or rescinded;
- (b) A court having jurisdiction permanently enjoins or sets aside the corporate action; or
- (c) The shareholder's demand for payment is withdrawn with the written consent of the corporation.

1991 c 269 Section 37; 1989 c 165 Section 141.

23B.13.030. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

(1) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the shareholder's name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the dissenter dissents and the dissenter's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if:

- (a) The beneficial shareholder submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and
- (b) The beneficial shareholder does so with respect to all shares of which such shareholder is the beneficial shareholder or over which such shareholder has power to direct the vote.

1989 c 165 Section 142.

23B.13.200. Notice of dissenters' rights.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under RCW 23B.13.020 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this chapter and be accompanied by a copy of this chapter.

(2) If corporate action creating dissenters' rights under RCW 23B.13.020 is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation, within ten days after [the] effective date of such corporate action, shall notify in writing all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters' rights that the action was taken and send them the dissenters' notice described in RCW 23B.13.220.

1989 c 165 Section 143.

23B.13.210. Notice of intent to demand payment.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under RCW 23B.13.020 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights must (a) deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for the shareholder's shares if the proposed action is effected, and (b) not vote such shares in favor of the proposed action.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(2) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) of this section is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter.

1989 c 165 Section 144.

23B.13.220. Dissenters' notice.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under RCW 23B.13.020 is authorized at a shareholders' meeting, the corporation shall deliver a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of RCW 23B.13.210.

(2) The dissenters' notice must be sent within ten days after the effective date of the corporate action, and must:

- (a) State where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;
- (b) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;
- (c) Supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action and requires that the person asserting dissenters' rights certify whether or not the person acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;

G-3

- (d) Set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than thirty nor more than sixty days after the date the notice in subsection (1) of this section is delivered; and

- (e) Be accompanied by a copy of this chapter.

1989 c 165 Section 145.

23B.13.230. Duty to demand payment.

(1) A shareholder sent a dissenters' notice described in RCW 23B.13.220 must demand payment, certify whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenters' notice pursuant to RCW 23B.13.220(2)(c), and deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.

(2) The shareholder who demands payment and deposits the shareholder's stock certificates under subsection (1) of this section retains all other rights of a shareholder until the proposed corporate action is effected.

(3) A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit the shareholder's stock certificates where required, each by the date set in the dissenters' notice, is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter.

1989 c 165 Section 146.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(1) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is effected or the restriction is released under RCW 23B.13.260.

(2) The person for whom dissenters' rights are asserted as to uncertificated shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until the effective date of the proposed corporate action.

23B.13.250. Payment.

(1) Except as provided in RCW 23B.13.270, within thirty days of the later of the effective date of the proposed corporate action, or the date the payment demand is received, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with RCW 23B.13.230 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the shareholder's shares, plus accrued interest.

(2) The payment must be accompanied by:

- (a) The corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;
- (b) An explanation of how the corporation estimated the fair value of the shares;
- (c) An explanation of how the interest was calculated;
- (d) A statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under RCW 23B.13.280; and
- (e) A copy of this chapter.

G-4

1989 c 165 Section 148.

23B.13.260. Failure to take action.

(1) If the corporation does not effect the proposed action within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing stock certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release any transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

(2) If after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation wishes to undertake the proposed action, it must send a new dissenters' notice under RCW 23B.13.220 and repeat the payment demand procedure.

23B.13.270. After-acquired shares.

(1) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by RCW 23B.13.250 from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenters' notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(2) To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (1) of this section, after taking the proposed corporate action, it shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demand. The corporation shall send with its offer an explanation of how it estimated the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under RCW 23B.13.280.

1989 c 165 Section 150.

23B.13.280. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer.

(1) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate, less any payment under RCW 23B.13.250, or reject the corporation's offer under RCW 23B.13.270 and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and interest due, if:

- (a) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under RCW 23B.13.250 or offered under RCW 23B.13.270 is less than the fair value of the dissenter's shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;
- (b) The corporation fails to make payment under RCW 23B.13.250 within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment; or
- (c) The corporation does not effect the proposed action and does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment.

(2) A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter notifies the corporation of the dissenter's demand in writing under subsection (1) of this section within thirty days after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares.

23B.13.300. Court action.

(1) If a demand for payment under RCW 23B.13.280 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within sixty days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the sixty-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(2) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the superior court of the county where a corporation's principal office, or, if none in this state, its registered office, is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

(3) The corporation shall make all dissenters, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unsettled, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(4) The corporation may join as a party to the proceeding any shareholder who claims to be a dissenter but who has not, in the opinion of the corporation, complied with the provisions of this chapter. If the court determines that such shareholder has not complied with the provisions of this chapter, the shareholder shall be dismissed as a party.

(5) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) of this section is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(6) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment (a) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation, or (b) for the fair value, plus accrued interest, of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under RCW 23B.13.270.

23B.13.310. Court costs and counsel fees.

(1) The court in a proceeding commenced under RCW 23B.13.300 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess the costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under RCW 23B.13.280.

(2) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

- (a) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of RCW 23B.13.200 through 23B.13.280; or
- (b) Against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by chapter 23B.13 RCW.

(3) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited.

ANNEX H

AGREEMENT BETWEEN
MICROSOFT CORPORATION AND EXPEDIA, INC.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

THIS AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into as of July 15, 2001 by and between MICROSOFT CORPORATION, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Washington ("Microsoft"), and EXPEDIA, INC., a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Washington ("Expedia"). Microsoft and Expedia are hereinafter referred to as the "Parties."

WHEREAS, the Parties have entered into an Amended and Restated Services Agreement dated as of January 1, 2001 (the "Services Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Parties have entered into a License Agreement dated as of October 1, 2001 (the "License Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Parties have entered into a Map Server License Agreement dated as of October 1, 2001 (the "Map Server License Agreement", and, collectively with the Services Agreement and the License Agreement is hereinafter referred to as the "Agreements"); and

WHEREAS, the Parties have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Recapitalization and Merger dated as of the date of this Agreement (the "APRM").

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

1. The Parties will enter into an agreement amending the Services Agreement effective as of the Effective Date, as that term is defined in the APRM, to:

- (a) extend the Services Agreement with respect to the Services being provided to Expedia by Microsoft through as of the Effective Date through September 30, 2002, provided, however that (i) in the event that Microsoft determines, in good faith and after consultation with Expedia and USA Networks, Inc., that provision of the Services would be inappropriate to provide to an unaffiliated third party (e.g., provision of Services which would pose a security risk to Microsoft's corporate network, would cause Microsoft to be in breach of an existing agreement with a third party, or would be unduly burdensome), Microsoft will not be obligated to provide the inappropriate Services, but Microsoft and Expedia will in good faith negotiate mutually agreeable accommodations with respect to such Services, and (ii) Expedia will use its best efforts to discontinue use of each of the Services at the earliest practicable date; and
- (b) either (i) extend the portion of the Services Agreement that provides hosting services for Expedia for a reasonable time to be negotiated in good faith by the parties (which Expedia has requested be until June 30, 2004), or (ii) enter into a separate agreement for the provision of the same hosting services, on the same terms and conditions as currently provided for under the Services Agreement, for a reasonable time to be negotiated in good faith by the parties (which Expedia has requested be until June 30, 2004).

2. The Parties will enter into an agreement amending the License Agreement effective as of Effective Date to:

- (a) Microsoft itself shall not, nor shall Microsoft grant to (i) any of the EI Named Competitors as defined in the Amended and Restated MSN Carriage and Cross Promotion Agreement between the parties, dated June 29, 2001, or (ii) any CRS (Worldspan, Amadeus, Pegasus, Galileo and Sabre) the right to use, license or grant a sublicense to the Microsoft Patents. For purposes of clarity, the parties agree that Microsoft may license any generally available Microsoft product that is based upon the Microsoft Patents or provide services related to such product, provided that such product or service is not targeted to the EI Named Competitors or any CRS.

- (b) Except for Third Party Software that Microsoft does not have a right to sublicense or loses such right to sublicense and so long as Microsoft does not incur any additional cost (administrative or otherwise), Microsoft shall use reasonable efforts to provide a sublicense to the Third Party Software for a period of two (2) years from the Effective Date at the same price that Microsoft or its affiliates pay and shall continue to pass through any warranties and/or indemnification provided on the Third Party Software during that time. Expedia will use its best efforts to obtain the Third Party Software from a source other than Microsoft as soon as reasonably possible during that period. Microsoft shall continue to provide Expedia with any and all Updates and Error Corrections that Microsoft receives for the Third Party Software during that period.
- (c) Except for Third Party Content that Microsoft does not have a right to sublicense or loses such right to sublicense and so long as Microsoft does not incur any additional cost (administrative or otherwise), Microsoft shall use reasonable efforts to provide Expedia with a sublicense to the Third Party Content for a period of two (2) years from the Effective Date at the same price that Microsoft or its affiliates pay, and continue to pass through any warranties and/or indemnification provided on the Third Party Content. Expedia will use its best efforts to obtain the Third Party Content from a source other than Microsoft as soon as reasonably possible during that period. Microsoft shall continue to provide Expedia with any and all Updates and Error Corrections that Microsoft receives for the Third Party Content during that period.

3. The Parties agree to use good faith efforts to negotiate and execute a new Map Server License Agreement between the Effective Date and the Closing Date, as that term is defined in the APRM.

4. From the date hereof through to and including the closing of the transactions contemplated by the APRM, the parties shall not amend, waive or adopt any provision inconsistent with any provision hereof, or terminate this agreement, in each case, without the prior written consent of USA Networks, Inc. ("USA"), such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. USA shall be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement solely for purposes of this Section 4.

5. All capitalized terms not defined in this Agreement shall have the meaning set forth in the applicable Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date.

If any grant of Restricted Stock is forfeited, or if any Option, Stock Purchase Right or Warrant terminates, expires or lapses without being exercised in full, the forfeited or unpurchased Shares which were subject thereto shall become available for future grant or sale under the Plan (unless the Plan has terminated); provided, however, that Shares that have actually been issued under the Plan, whether upon exercise of an Option, Stock Purchase Right or Warrant or upon lapsing of restrictions on Restricted Stock, shall not be returned to the Plan and shall not become available for future distribution under the Plan, except that if Shares of Restricted Stock are repurchased by the Company at their original purchase price, such Shares shall become available for future grant under the Plan. ## Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A the Company and to Options, Stock Purchase Rights, Restricted Stock and Warrants granted under the Plan; or (ii) the Board.

(b) POWERS OF THE ADMINISTRATOR. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Administrator shall have the authority, in its discretion:

(i) to grant Options, Restricted Stock, Stock Purchase Rights and Warrants pursuant to the terms of the Plan to Service Providers;

(ii) to determine the Fair Market Value;

(iii) to select the Service Providers to whom Options, Restricted Stock, Stock Purchase Rights and Warrants may be granted hereunder; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of this Plan, grants to Consultants shall be made solely by the Board, subject to its authority to delegate pursuant to Section 4(c);

I-4

(iv) to determine the number of shares of Common Stock to be covered by each Option, Restricted Stock award, Stock Purchase Right and Warrant granted hereunder;

(v) to approve forms of agreement for use under the Plan;

(vi) to determine the terms and conditions (which need not be the same with respect to each Grantee), not inconsistent with the terms of the Plan, of any Option, Restricted Stock award or Stock Purchase Right granted hereunder. Such terms and conditions include, but are not limited to, the exercise price, the time or times when Options or Stock Purchase Rights may be exercised (which may be based on performance criteria), any vesting acceleration or waiver of forfeiture restrictions, and any restriction or limitation regarding any Option, grant of Restricted Stock or Stock Purchase Right or the shares of Common Stock relating thereto, based in each case on such factors as the Administrator, in its sole discretion, shall determine;

(vii) to construe and interpret the terms of the Plan and awards granted pursuant to the Plan and interpret, administer, reconcile any inconsistency, correct any default and/or supply any omission in the Plan and any instrument or agreement relating to any Option, Restricted Stock award, Stock Purchase Right or Warrant granted under the Plan; provided, however, that the Committee may not adjust upwards the amount payable with respect to a Qualified Performance-Based Award or alter the Performance Goals associated therewith;

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(viii) to prescribe, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to the Plan, including rules and regulations relating to sub-plans established for the purpose of qualifying for preferred tax treatment under foreign tax laws;

(ix) to modify or amend each Option, Restricted Stock grant, Stock Purchase Right or Warrant (subject to Section 17(c) of the Plan), including the discretionary authority to extend the post-termination exercisability period of Options longer than is otherwise provided for in the Plan;

(x) to allow Optionees and Grantees to satisfy withholding tax obligations by electing to have the Company withhold from the Shares to be issued upon exercise of an Option, Warrant or Stock Purchase Right or lapsing of restrictions on Restricted Stock that number of Shares having a Fair Market Value equal to the amount required to be withheld. The Fair Market Value of the Shares to be withheld shall be determined on the date that the amount of tax to be withheld is to be determined. All elections by an Optionee or a Grantee to have Shares withheld for this purpose shall be made in such form and under such conditions as the Administrator may deem necessary or advisable;

(xi) to authorize any person to execute on behalf of the Company any instrument required to effect the grant of an Option, Restricted Stock, Stock Purchase Right or Warrant previously granted by the Administrator; and

(xii) to make all other determinations deemed necessary or advisable for administering the Plan.

(c) EFFECT OF ADMINISTRATOR'S DECISION. The Administrator's decisions, determinations and interpretations shall be final, binding and conclusive on all Optionees and Grantees, and all other persons having an interest herein. No member of the Committee shall be liable for any action or determination made in good faith with respect to the Plan or any award hereunder.

The Administrator may act only by a majority of its members then in office, except that the Administrator may, except to the extent prohibited by applicable law or the applicable rules of a stock exchange, allocate all or any portion of its responsibilities and powers to any one or more of its members and may delegate all or any part of its responsibilities and powers to any person or persons selected by it; provided that no such delegation may be made that would cause awards or other transactions under the Plan to cease to be exempt from Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act or cause an award designated as a Qualified Performance-Based award not to qualify for, or to cease to qualify for, the Section 162(m) Exemption. Any such allocation or delegation may be revoked by the Administrator at any time.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

5. ELIGIBILITY. Non-statutory Stock Options, Restricted Stock, Stock Purchase Rights and Warrants may be granted to all Service Providers. Warrants may only be granted pursuant to the specific provisions of Section 13 of the Plan.

Except as may specifically be provided by the Administrator from time to time, in order to receive a grant of Options, Restricted Stock or Stock Purchase Rights under the Plan, a Service Provider must agree not to (a) solicit employees of the Company or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates, (b) compete with the Company or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates and (c) reveal confidential information of the Company or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates. The terms, conditions, and provisions relating to these non-solicitation, non-competition and confidentiality provisions shall be determined by the Administrator.

6. LIMITATIONS.

(a) Each Option granted under the Plan shall be designated in the Option Agreement as a Non-statutory Stock Option.

(b) The following limitations shall apply to grants of Options and Qualified Performance-Based Awards:

(i) No Service Provider shall be granted, more than 2,000,000 Options or more than 2,000,000 Qualified Performance-Based Awards during any calendar year. No Non-Employee Director shall be granted more than 15,000 Options with respect to such Non-Employee Director's first calendar year as a Non-Employee Director and no Non-Employee Director shall be granted more than 10,000 Options with respect to any calendar year thereafter.

(ii) The foregoing limitations shall be adjusted proportionately in connection with any change in the Company's capitalization as described in Section 15.

(iii) If an Option is canceled in the same fiscal year of the Company in which it was granted (other than in connection with a transaction described in Section 15), the canceled Option will be counted against the limits set forth in subsections (i) and (ii) above. For this purpose, if the exercise price of an Option is reduced, the transaction will be treated as a cancellation of the Option and the grant of a new Option.

7. TERM OF PLAN. Subject to Section 21 of the Plan, the Plan shall become effective upon its adoption by the Board. It shall continue in effect for a term of ten (10) years unless terminated earlier under Section 17 of the Plan.

8. TERM OF OPTION. The term of each Option shall be stated in the Option Agreement.

9. OPTION EXERCISE PRICE AND CONSIDERATION.

(a) EXERCISE PRICE. The per share exercise price for the Shares to be issued pursuant to exercise of an Option shall be determined by the Administrator. In the case of a Non-statutory Stock Option intended to qualify as "performance-based compensation" within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Code, the per Share exercise price shall be no less than 100% of the Fair Market Value per Share on the date of grant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Options may be granted with a per Share exercise price of less than 100% of the Fair Market Value per Share on the date of grant pursuant to a merger or other corporate transaction.

(b) WAITING PERIOD AND EXERCISE DATES. At the time an Option is granted, the Administrator shall fix the period within which the Option may be exercised and shall determine any conditions which must be satisfied before the Option may be exercised.

I-6

(c) FORM OF CONSIDERATION. The Administrator shall determine the acceptable form of consideration for exercising an Option, including the method of payment. The Administrator shall determine the acceptable form of consideration at the time of grant or the agreement. Such consideration may consist entirely of:

(i) cash;

(ii) check;

(iii) promissory note;

(iv) other than as provided in subsection (v), other Shares (by delivery or attestation) which (A) in the case of Shares acquired upon exercise of an option, have been owned by the Optionee for more than six months on the date of delivery (or attestation) or which were acquired in the open market, and (B) have a Fair Market Value on the date of delivery (or attestation) equal to the aggregate exercise price of the Shares as to which said Option shall be exercised;

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(v) consideration received by the Company under the cashless exercise program that is implemented by the Company from time to time in connection with the Plan;

(vi) any combination of the foregoing methods of payment; or

(vii) such other consideration and method of payment for the issuance of Shares to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws.

10. EXERCISE OF OPTION.

(a) PROCEDURE FOR EXERCISE; RIGHTS AS A STOCKHOLDER. Any Option granted hereunder shall be exercisable according to the terms of the Plan and at such times and under such conditions as determined by the Administrator and set forth in the Option Agreement. Unless the Administrator provides otherwise, vesting of Options granted hereunder shall be tolled during any unpaid leave of absence. An Option may not be exercised for a fraction of a Share.

An Option shall be deemed exercised when the Company receives: (i) written or electronic notice of exercise (in accordance with the Option Agreement) from the person entitled to exercise the Option, and (ii) full payment for the Shares with respect to which the Option is exercised. Full payment may consist of any consideration and method of payment authorized by the Administrator and permitted by the Option Agreement and the Plan. Shares issued upon exercise of an Option shall be issued in the name of the Optionee or, if requested by the Optionee, in the name of the Optionee and his or her spouse. Until the Shares are issued (as evidenced by the appropriate entry on the books of the Company or of a duly authorized transfer agent of the Company), no right to vote or receive dividends or any other rights as a stockholder shall exist with respect to the Optioned Stock, notwithstanding the exercise of the Option. The Company shall issue (or cause to be issued) such Shares promptly after the Option is exercised. No adjustment will be made for a dividend or other right for which the record date is prior to the date the Shares are issued, except as provided in Section 15 of the Plan.

Exercising an Option in any manner shall decrease the number of Shares thereafter available, both for purposes of the Plan and for sale under the Option, by the number of Shares as to which the Option is exercised, except as otherwise provided in Section 3 of the Plan.

(b) TERMINATION OF RELATIONSHIP AS A SERVICE PROVIDER. If an Optionee ceases to be a Service Provider, other than upon the Optionee's death or Disability, the Optionee may exercise his or her Option within such period of time as is specified in the Option Agreement to the extent that the Option is vested on the date of termination (but in no event later than the expiration of the term of such Option as set forth in the Option Agreement). In the absence of a specified time in the Option Agreement, the Option shall remain exercisable for three months following the Optionee's termination, unless such termination is for Cause, in which case the Option will immediately terminate and expire.

I-7

If, on the date of termination, the Optionee is not vested as to his or her entire Option, the Shares covered by the unvested portion of the Option shall revert to the Plan. If, after termination, the Optionee does not exercise his or her Option within the time specified by the Administrator, the Option shall terminate, and the Shares covered by such Option shall revert to the Plan.

(c) DISABILITY OF OPTIONEE. If an Optionee ceases to be a Service Provider as a result of the Optionee's Disability, the Optionee may exercise his or her Option, but only to the extent that the Option would have otherwise vested had the Optionee remained a Service Provider for a period of twelve (12) months after the date on which the Service Provider ceased to be a Service Provider as a result of the Disability. Such exercise must occur within eighteen (18) months (or such shorter time as is specified in the Option Agreement) from the date on which the Service Provider ceased to be a Service Provider as a result of the Disability (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of such Option as set forth in the Option Agreement). If, after termination, the Optionee does not exercise his or her Option within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate, and the Shares covered by such Option shall revert to the Plan.

(d) DEATH OF OPTIONEE. In the event of the death of an Optionee:

(i) who is at the time of death a Service Provider, the Option may be exercised, at any time within twelve (12) months following the date of death (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of such Option as set forth in the Option Agreement), by the Optionee's estate or by a person who acquired the right to exercise the option by bequest or inheritance, but only to the extent that the Option would have otherwise vested had the Optionee continued living and continued to be a Service Provider twelve (12) months after the date of death; or

(ii) who is at the time of death not a Service Provider but whose Option has not yet expired, the Option may be exercised, at any time within twelve (12) months following the date of death (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of such Option as set forth in the Option Agreement), by the Optionee's estate or by a person who acquired the right to exercise the Option by bequest or inheritance, but only to the extent that the Option would have otherwise vested at the date of termination.

If the Option is not so exercised within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate, and the Shares covered by such Option shall revert to the Plan.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(e) BUYOUT PROVISIONS. The Administrator may at any time offer to buy out for a payment in cash or Shares an Option previously granted based on such terms and conditions as the Administrator shall establish and communicate to the Optionee at the time that such offer is made.

11. STOCK PURCHASE RIGHTS.

(a) RIGHTS TO PURCHASE. Stock Purchase Rights may be issued either alone, in addition to, or in tandem with other awards granted under the Plan and/or cash awards made outside of the Plan. After the Administrator determines that it will offer Stock Purchase Rights under the Plan, it shall advise the offeree in writing or electronically, by means of a Notice of Grant, of the terms, conditions and restrictions related to the offer, including the number of Shares that the offeree shall be entitled to purchase, the price to be paid, and the time within which the offeree must accept such offer. The offer shall be accepted by execution of a Restricted Stock Purchase Agreement in the form determined by the Administrator.

(b) REPURCHASE OPTION. Unless the Administrator determines otherwise, the Restricted Stock Purchase Agreement shall grant the Company a repurchase option exercisable upon the Grantee voluntary or involuntary ceasing to be a Service Provider for any reason (including death or Disability). The purchase price for Shares repurchased pursuant to the Restricted Stock Purchase Agreement shall be the original price paid by the purchaser and may be paid by cancellation of any indebtedness of the purchaser to the Company. The repurchase option shall lapse at a rate determined by the Administrator.

(c) OTHER PROVISIONS. The Restricted Stock Purchase Agreement shall contain such other terms, provisions and conditions not inconsistent with the Plan as may be determined by the Administrator in its sole discretion.

(d) RIGHTS AS A STOCKHOLDER. Once the Stock Purchase Right is exercised, the purchaser shall have the rights equivalent to those of a stockholder, and shall be a stockholder when his or her purchase is entered upon the records of the duly authorized transfer agent of the Company. No adjustment will be made for a dividend or other right for which the record date is prior to the date the Stock Purchase Right is exercised, except as provided in Section 15 of the Plan.

12. RESTRICTED STOCK.

(a) ADMINISTRATION. Shares of Restricted Stock may be awarded either alone or in addition to other awards granted under the Plan. The Administrator shall determine the Service Providers to whom and the time or times at which grants of Restricted Stock will be awarded, the number of Shares to be awarded to any Service Providers, the conditions for vesting, the time or times within which such awards may be subject to forfeiture and any other terms and conditions of the awards, in addition to those contained in Section 12(c).

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(b) AWARDS AND CERTIFICATES. Shares of Restricted Stock shall be evidenced in such manner as the Administrator may deem appropriate, including book-entry registration or issuance of one or more stock certificates. Any certificate issued in respect of shares of Restricted Stock shall be registered in the name of such participant and shall bear an appropriate legend referring to the terms, conditions, and restrictions applicable to such award, substantially in the following form:

"The transferability of this certificate and the shares of Common Stock represented hereby are subject to the terms and conditions (including forfeiture) of the Expedia, Inc. 2001 Stock Plan and a Restricted Stock Agreement. Copies of such Plan and Agreement are on file at the offices of Expedia, Inc., 13810 SE Eastgate Way, Suite 400, Bellevue, WA 98005."

The Administrator may require that the certificates evidencing such Shares be held in custody by the Company until the restrictions thereon shall have lapsed and that, as a condition of any award of Restricted Stock, the participant shall have delivered a stock power, endorsed in blank, relating to the Common Stock covered by such award.

(c) TERMS AND CONDITIONS. Shares of Restricted Stock shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

(i) The Administrator may, prior to or at the time of grant, designate an award of Restricted Stock as a Qualified Performance-Based Award, in which event the Administrator shall condition the grant or vesting, as applicable, of such Restricted Stock upon the attainment of Performance Goals. If the Administrator does not designate an award of Restricted Stock as a Qualified Performance-Based Award, it may also condition the grant or vesting thereof upon the attainment of Performance Goals. Regardless of whether an award of Restricted Stock is a Qualified Performance-Based Award, the Administrator may also condition the grant or vesting thereof upon the continued service of the Grantee. The conditions for grant or vesting and the other provisions of Restricted Stock grants (including without limitation any applicable Performance Goals) need not be the same with respect to each Grantee. The Administrator may at any time, in its sole discretion, accelerate or waive, in whole or in part, any of the foregoing restrictions; provided, however, that in the case of Restricted Stock that is a Qualified Performance-Based Award, the applicable Performance Goals have been satisfied.

I-9

(ii) Subject to the provisions of the Plan and the Restricted Stock

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Agreement referred to in Section 12(c)(vi), during the period, if any, set by the Administrator, commencing with the date of such award for which such Grantee's continued service is required (the "Restriction Period"), and until the later of (i) the expiration of the Restriction Period and (ii) the date the applicable Performance Goals (if any) are satisfied, the Grantee shall not be permitted to sell, assign, transfer, pledge or otherwise encumber shares of Restricted Stock; provided that the foregoing shall not prevent a Grantee from pledging Restricted Stock as security for a loan, the sole purpose of which is to provide funds to pay the option price for Options.

(iii) Except as provided in this paragraph (iii) and Sections 12(c)(i) and 12(c)(ii) and the Restricted Stock Agreement, the Grantee shall have, with respect to the shares of Restricted Stock, all of the rights of a stockholder of the Company holding the class or series of Common Stock that is the subject of the Restricted Stock, including, if applicable, the right to vote the shares and the right to receive any cash dividends. If so determined by the Administrator in the applicable Restricted Stock Agreement, (A) cash or other dividends on the class or series of Common Stock that is the subject of the Restricted Stock Award shall be automatically deferred and reinvested in additional Restricted Stock, held subject to the vesting of the underlying Restricted Stock, or held subject to meeting Performance Goals applicable only to dividends, and (B) dividends payable in Common Stock shall be paid in the form of Restricted Stock of the same class as the Common Stock with which such dividend was paid, held subject to the vesting of the underlying Restricted Stock, or held subject to meeting Performance Goals applicable only to dividends; provided that reinvestment of dividends in additional Restricted Stock at the time of any dividend payment shall only be permissible if sufficient shares of Common Stock are available under Section 3 for such reinvestment.

(iv) Except to the extent otherwise provided in the applicable Restricted Stock Agreement or Section 12(c)(i), 12(c)(ii), 12(c)(v) or upon a Grantee ceasing to be a Service Provider for any reason during the Restriction Period or before the applicable Performance Goals are satisfied, all shares still subject to restriction shall be forfeited by the Grantee; provided, however, that the Administrator shall have the discretion to waive, in whole or in part, any or all remaining restrictions (other than, in the case of Restricted Stock with respect to which a Grantee is a "Covered Employee" within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Code, satisfaction of the applicable Performance Goals unless the Grantee's employment is terminated by reason of death or Disability) with respect to any or all of such Grantee's Shares of Restricted Stock.

(v) If and when the Restriction Period expires without a prior forfeiture of the Restricted Stock (and any applicable Performance Goals are satisfied), unlegended certificates for such Shares shall be delivered to the participant upon surrender of the legended certificates.

(vi) Each award shall be confirmed by, and be subject to, the terms of a Restricted Stock Agreement.

13. WARRANTS.

(a) Prior to the listing of the Warrants on Nasdaq, the American Stock Exchange or other exchange acceptable to the Company (as contemplated by the Transaction Agreement), the Company shall, subject to applicable law, distribute under the Plan (the "Distribution"), to holders of Old Options on the date of the Distribution, 0.1920 Warrants with respect to each Share underlying any such Old Option, whether or not then vested; provided, however, that, subject to the following sentence, Warrants distributed in respect of unvested Old Options shall be restricted and shall become exercisable and transferable solely upon the vesting of such related Old Option.

(b) With respect to all Warrants, whether vested or unvested, for a period of 90 days following the date of Distribution, (i) such Warrants shall not be exercisable, and (ii) the Company shall instruct its transfer agent to place a stop transfer order on certificates representing such Warrants. The Company shall terminate such stop transfer order immediately upon expiration of such 90-day period.

(c) The Warrants shall not terminate upon the termination of employment of a holder of an Old Option and shall not be subject to the restrictions in Section 14 hereof.

(d) Except as specifically provided for in this Plan, Warrants shall have the same terms and conditions as the Company Warrants described in Section 8.12 of the Transaction Agreement.

14. NON-TRANSFERABILITY OF OPTIONS, RESTRICTED STOCK AND STOCK PURCHASE RIGHTS. Unless determined otherwise by the Administrator, an Option, a grant of Restricted Stock or a Stock Purchase Right may not be sold, pledged, assigned, hypothecated, transferred, or disposed of in any manner other than by will or by the laws of descent or distribution and may be exercised, during the lifetime of the Optionee, only by the Optionee. However, an Option, a grant of Restricted Stock or a Stock Purchase Right is transferable, in whole or in part, by gift or, with the consent of the Administrator, for value, to Immediate Family of the Optionee or Grantee, partnerships of which the only partners are members of the Optionee's or Grantee's Immediate Family, and trusts established solely for the benefit of the Optionee's or Grantee's Immediate Family, provided such transferability shall be limited to vested rights. Transfers to the Optionee's or Grantee's immediate family are subject to the terms and conditions of this Plan and the terms and conditions of any relevant agreement pursuant to which they were granted and shall not be permitted to effect a cashless exercise. The Optionee's or Grantee's Immediate Family do not have the right to further transfer those rights other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution. In addition, an Option, a grant of Restricted Stock or a Stock Purchase Right shall also be transferable by the Optionee or Grantee, in whole or in part, with the consent of the Administrator, to charitable organizations, provided such transferability shall be limited to vested rights. Transfers to charitable organizations shall also be subject to the terms and conditions of this Plan and the terms and conditions of any relevant agreement pursuant to which they were granted, and charitable organizations shall not be permitted to effect a cashless exercise. In addition, such charitable organizations shall not have the right to further transfer those rights. If the Administrator makes an Option, grant of Restricted Stock or a Stock Purchase Right transferable, such Option, grant of Restricted Stock or Stock Purchase Right shall contain such additional terms and conditions as the Administrator deems appropriate.

15. ADJUSTMENTS UPON CHANGES IN CAPITALIZATION, DISSOLUTION, MERGER OR ASSET SALE.

(a) CHANGES IN CAPITALIZATION. Subject to any required action by the stockholders of the Company, the number of shares of Restricted Stock, the number of Shares covered by each outstanding Option and Stock Purchase Right, the number or kind of Shares which have been authorized for issuance under the Plan but as to which no Options, Shares of Restricted Stock or Stock Purchase Rights have yet been granted or which have been returned to the Plan upon cancellation, expiration or forfeiture of an Option, shares of Restricted Stock or Stock Purchase Right, as well as the price per Share covered by each such outstanding Option or Stock Purchase Right shall be proportionately adjusted for any increase or decrease in the number or kind of issued shares of Common Stock resulting from a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, combination or reclassification of the Common Stock, or any other increase or decrease in the number of issued Shares effected without receipt of consideration by the Company; provided, however, that conversion of any convertible securities of the Company shall not be deemed to have been "effected without receipt of consideration;" provided further, that the number of shares of Restricted Stock or Shares subject to an Option or Stock Purchase Right shall always be a whole number. Such adjustment shall be made by the Board, whose determination in that respect shall be final, binding and conclusive. Except as expressly provided herein, no issuance by the Company of shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into shares of stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number or price of shares of Common Stock subject to an Option, shares of Restricted Stock or Stock Purchase Right.

(b) DISSOLUTION OR LIQUIDATION. In the event of the proposed dissolution or liquidation of the Company, the Administrator shall notify each Optionee as soon as practicable prior to the effective date of such proposed transaction. The Administrator in its discretion may provide for an Optionee to have the right to exercise his or her Option until ten (10) days prior to such transaction as to all of the Optioned Stock covered thereby, including Shares as to which the Option would not otherwise be exercisable. In addition, the Administrator may provide that any Company repurchase option (as described in Section 11(b) of the Plan) applicable to any Shares purchased upon exercise of an Option or Stock Purchase Right shall lapse as to all such Shares and that all restrictions with respect to any Restricted Stock shall lapse as to all such Restricted Stock, provided that the proposed dissolution or liquidation takes place at the time and in the manner contemplated. To the extent it has not been previously exercised, an Option or a Stock Purchase Right will terminate immediately prior to the consummation of such proposed action.

(c) MERGER OR ASSET SALE. In the event of a merger of the Company with or into another corporation, or the sale of substantially all of the assets of the Company, all outstanding Options, shares of Restricted Stock or Stock Purchase Rights shall be assumed or an equivalent option, share of restricted stock or right shall be substituted by the successor corporation or a Parent or Subsidiary of the successor corporation. The number of Shares reserved pursuant to Section 3 may be increased by the corresponding number of Options assumed in connection with such a transaction and, in the case of a substitution, by the net increase in the number of Shares subject to Options before and after the substitution. In the event that the successor corporation refuses to assume or substitute for the Option, Restricted Stock or Stock Purchase Right, the Optionee or Grantee shall fully vest in and have the right to exercise the Option or Stock Purchase Right as to all of the Optioned Stock, including Shares as to which it would not otherwise be vested or exercisable, and all restrictions on Restricted Stock shall lapse, as the case may be. If an Option or Stock Purchase Right becomes fully vested and exercisable in lieu of assumption or substitution in the event of a merger or sale of assets, the Administrator shall notify the Optionee or Grantee in writing or electronically that the Option or Stock Purchase Right shall be fully vested and exercisable for a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of such notice, and the Option or Stock Purchase Right shall terminate upon the expiration of such period. For the purposes of this paragraph, the Option, Stock Purchase Right or Restricted Stock shall be considered assumed if, following the merger or sale of assets, the option, right or share of restricted stock confers the right to purchase or receive, for each Share of Optioned Stock subject to the Option or Stock Purchase Right, Share granted as Restricted Stock immediately prior to the merger or sale of assets, the consideration (whether stock, cash, or other securities or property) received in the merger or sale of assets by holders of Common Stock for each Share held on the effective date of the transaction (and if holders were offered a choice of consideration, the type of consideration chosen by the holders of a majority of the outstanding Shares); provided, however, that if such consideration received in the merger or sale of assets is not solely common stock of the successor corporation or its Parent, the Administrator may, with the consent of the successor corporation, provide for the consideration to be received upon the exercise of the Option or Stock Purchase Right for each Share of Optioned Stock subject to the Option or Stock Purchase Right or upon the lapse of the restrictions with respect to the Restricted Stock, respectively, to be solely common stock of the successor corporation or its Parent equal in fair market value to the per share consideration received by holders of Common Stock in the merger or sale of assets.

16. DATE OF GRANT. The date of grant of an Option, a share of Restricted Stock or a Stock Purchase Right shall be, for all purposes, the date on which the Administrator makes the determination granting such Option, Restricted Stock or Stock Purchase Right or such other later date as is determined by the Administrator. Notice of the determination shall be provided to each Optionee or Grantee within a reasonable time after the date of such grant. The date of grant of a Warrant shall be the date of Distribution.

17. AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION OF THE PLAN.

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

(a) AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION. The Board may at any time amend, alter, suspend or terminate the Plan, provided that no such amendment, alteration, suspension, discontinuation or termination shall be made without shareholder approval if such approval is necessary to comply with any tax or regulatory requirement applicable to the Plan (including as necessary to prevent Options, Stock Purchase Rights, Restricted Stock and Warrants granted under the Plan from failing to qualify as "performance-based compensation" for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Code); and provided further that any such amendment, alteration, suspension, discontinuance or termination that would impair the rights of any Optionee or Grantee shall not to that extent be effective without the consent of the affected Optionee, Grantee, holder or beneficiary.

(b) STOCKHOLDER APPROVAL. The Company shall obtain stockholder approval of any Plan amendment to the extent necessary and desirable to comply with Applicable Laws.

(c) SERVICE PROVIDERS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES. The Administrator shall have the authority to adopt such modifications, procedures, and subplans as may be necessary or desirable to comply with provisions of the laws of foreign countries in which the Company or its Subsidiaries may operate to assure the viability of the benefits from Options, Restricted Stock or Stock Purchase Rights granted to Service Providers in such countries and to meet the objectives of the Plan.

(d) EFFECT OF AMENDMENT OR TERMINATION. No amendment, alteration, suspension or termination of the Plan shall impair the rights of any Optionee or Grantee, unless mutually agreed otherwise between the Optionee or Grantee and the Company, which agreement must be in writing and signed by the Optionee or Grantee and the Company. Termination of the Plan shall not affect the Administrator's ability to exercise the powers granted to it hereunder with respect to Options or Restricted Stock granted under the Plan prior to the date of such termination.

18. CONDITIONS UPON ISSUANCE OF SHARES.

(a) LEGAL COMPLIANCE. Shares shall not be issued pursuant to the exercise of an Option, Stock Purchase Right or Warrant and shares of Restricted Stock shall not be released from the custody of the Company if so held, unless the exercise of such Option, Stock Purchase Right or Warrant and the issuance and delivery of such Shares shall comply with Applicable Laws and shall be further subject to the approval of counsel for the Company with respect to such compliance.

(b) INVESTMENT REPRESENTATIONS. As a condition to the exercise of an Option, Stock Purchase Right or Warrant, the Company may require the person exercising such Option, Stock Purchase Right or Warrant to represent and warrant at the time of any such exercise that the Shares are being purchased only for investment and without any present intention to sell or distribute such Shares if, in the opinion of counsel for the Company, such a representation is required.

19. INABILITY TO OBTAIN AUTHORITY. The inability of the Company to obtain authority from any regulatory body having jurisdiction, which authority is deemed by the Company's counsel to be necessary to the lawful issuance and sale of any Shares hereunder, shall relieve the Company of any liability in respect of the failure to issue or sell such Shares as to which such requisite authority shall not have been obtained.

20. RESERVATION OF SHARES. The Company, during the term of this Plan, will at all times reserve and keep available such number of Shares as shall be sufficient to satisfy the requirements of the Plan.

21. STOCKHOLDER APPROVAL. The Plan shall be subject to approval by the stockholders of the Company within twelve (12) months after the date the Plan is adopted. Such stockholder approval shall be obtained in the manner and to the degree required under Applicable Laws.

I-13

22. GOVERNING LAW. The terms of this Plan shall be governed by the Laws of the State of Washington without reference to principles of conflict of laws, as applied to contracts executed in and performed wholly within the State of Washington.

23. TAX WITHHOLDING.

(a) An Optionee or Grantee may be required to pay to the Company or any Parent, Subsidiary or other Affiliate, and the Company or any Parent, Subsidiary or other Affiliate shall have the right and is hereby authorized to withhold from any Shares or other property deliverable under any award under the Plan or from any compensation or other amounts owing to an Optionee or Grantee the amount (in cash, Shares or other property) of any required tax withholding and payroll taxes in respect of the grant or exercise or lapse of restrictions with respect to an award, and to take such other action as may be necessary in the opinion of the Company, to satisfy all obligations for the payment of such taxes.

(b) Without limiting the generality of clause (a) above, if so provided in a Restricted Stock Agreement, a Stock Option agreement, Warrant agreement or Stock Purchase Right agreement, a Grantee or an Optionee may satisfy, in whole or in part, the foregoing withholding liability (but no more than the minimum required withholding liability) by delivery of Shares owned by the Grantee or the Optionee (which are not subject to any pledge or other security interest) with a Fair Market Value equal to such withholding liability or by having the Company withhold from the number of Shares otherwise issuable pursuant to the exercise of the Option, Stock Purchase Right or Warrant or lapse of restrictions on the Restricted Stock a number of shares with a Fair Market Value equal to such withholding liability.

24. PRIVILEGES OF STOCK OWNERSHIP. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, no person shall be entitled to the privileges of ownership in respect of shares of Stock which are subject to Options, Stock Purchase Rights or Warrants hereunder until such shares have been issued to that person.

25. CLAIM TO AWARDS AND EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS. No Service Provider shall have any claim or right to be granted Restricted Stock, Options, Stock Purchase Rights or Warrants under the Plan or, having been selected for the grant of an award, to be selected for a grant of any other award. Neither the Plan nor any action taken hereunder shall be construed as giving any Optionee or Grantee any right to be retained in the employ or service of the Company, Subsidiaries or Affiliates.

ITEM 20. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Article VII of our Articles of Incorporation authorizes us to indemnify any present or former director or officer to the fullest extent not prohibited by the Washington Business Corporation Act ("WBCA") or other applicable law now or hereafter in force. Chapter 23B.08.510 and Section .570 of the WBCA authorize a corporation to indemnify its directors, officers, employees, or agents in terms sufficiently broad to permit such indemnification under specific circumstances for liabilities, including provisions permitting advances for expenses incurred, arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

In addition, we maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance under which our directors and officers are insured against loss, as defined in the policy, as a result of claims brought against them for their wrongful acts in such capacities.

ITEM 22. UNDERTAKINGS

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (a) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities

Edgar Filing: EXPEDIA INC - Form S-4/A

Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial BONA FIDE offering thereof.

(b) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(c) That every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (e) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offering therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial BONA FIDE offering thereof.

(d) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in the documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(e) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
