MORTON'S RESTAURANT GROUP STATES THAT ICAHN CONDITION WOULD REQUIRE BREACH OF CASTLE HARLAN MERGER AGREEMENT

New Hyde Park, NY.... Morton's Restaurant Group, Inc. (NYSE:MRG) today announced that it had advised Carl Icahn that the condition to acceptance of the latest proposal received from his affiliate High River Limited Partnership would require Morton's to breach its existing merger agreement, exposing the Company to damages and exposing its shareholders to the risk that both the Castle Harlan binding agreement and the Icahn proposal could be lost. Unlike previous offers by Mr. Icahn, his most recent proposal was conditioned on Morton's, by the close of business yesterday, exempting High River from Morton's stockholders rights agreement to permit High River to "negotiate, enter into agreements and arrangements, and otherwise join, with others, to acquire Morton's." It was apparent that Mr. Icahn desired to enter into arrangements to finance a possible acquisition of the Company with Barry Florescue. Taking the action Mr. Icahn required is clearly prohibited by a provision in the Company's existing merger agreement with Castle Harlan, and in fact that very same provision is present in every form of merger agreement proposed by High River. Morton's

Special Committee requested that Castle Harlan waive its contract right to enable the Company to satisfy the Icahn condition, and Castle Harlan declined. The Special Committee then indicated to Mr. Icahn that it would be prepared to recommend Mr. Icahn's offer over Castle Harlan's if he would drop the condition. In a letter to the Special Committee's financial advisor, Mr. Icahn refused to drop the condition and indicated that he was now willing to proceed with his transaction only under unspecified "appropriate circumstances." The advisors to Morton's Special Committee and Board of Directors were unable to advise that the Icahn conditional proposal, even if it remained outstanding, was superior to Castle Harlan's and reasonably capable of being consummated, in view of its requiring the Company to breach its contractual obligation. Based on the positions taken by Castle Harlan and Mr. Icahn, the Special Committee was unable to accept the Icahn proposal and, accordingly, the Company remains committed to its binding agreement with Castle Harlan to acquire the Company for $16.00 per share in cash.
