Item 5.04 Temporary Suspension of Trading under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans

Among other restrictions, the insider trading policy of Newfield Exploration Company ("Newfield") generally prohibits all directors, officers and employees of Newfield and its subsidiaries from trading in Newfield's securities during the period beginning on the first day of each calendar quarter and ending at the close of trading on the second trading day following the release of Newfield's earnings announcement for that quarter. During this period participants in Newfield's 401(k) plan are prohibited from changing the percentage of future contributions to be invested in the Newfield common stock investment option under the plan and from transferring or reallocating prior contributions from or to the Newfield common stock investment option. As a result, a "blackout period" (as defined in Regulation BTR promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) will commence on July 1, 2006 and will end after the close of trading on the second trading day following the release of Newfield's quarterly earnings announcement for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2006. Newfield currently expects to release its quarterly earnings announcement during the week of July 23, 2006. Executive officers and directors of Newfield may continue to be subject to restrictions on transactions in Newfield securities after the close of trading on the second trading day following such announcement as a result of a separately announced blackout period described in the last paragraph of this item.

Inquiries about the blackout period may be directed to C. William Austin by phone at (281) 847-6069 or in writing to Newfield Exploration Company, 363 N. Sam Houston Parkway E., Suite 2020, Houston, Texas 77060.

On June 5, 2006, Newfield notified its directors and executive officers of a blackout period with respect to the Newfield Exploration Company 401(k) Plan. This blackout period also is expected to begin on July 1, 2006 and is expected to end during the week of July 23, 2006. Restrictions imposed on Newfield's executive officers and directors as a result of the blackout period described in this paragraph are unaffected by the commencement or end of the blackout period described in the first paragraph of this item. For more information on the blackout period described in this paragraph, please see Newfield's current report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on June 5, 2006.
