PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Hub Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Hub Group or the Company), of proxies for use at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held on Thursday, May 13, 2004, and any adjournment thereof (the Annual Meeting). This Proxy Statement and accompanying form of proxy are first being sent to stockholders on or about April 12, 2004.

The Company's Class A common stock, $.01 par value (the Class A Common Stock), and the Class B common stock, $.01 par value (the Class B Common Stock, together with the Class A Common Stock, the Common Stock), are the only issued and outstanding classes of stock. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 29, 2004 (the Record Date), are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, the Company had 7,436,277 shares of Class A Common Stock (each a Class A Share) and 662,296 shares of Class B Common Stock (each a Class B Share, and collectively with the Class A Shares, the Shares) outstanding and entitled to vote.

VOTING RIGHTS AND PROCEDURES

Shares represented by an effective proxy given by a stockholder will be voted as directed by the stockholder. If a properly signed proxy form is returned to the Company and one or more proposals are not marked, it will be voted in accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Directors on all such proposals. A stockholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time prior to the voting of the proxy by giving written notice to the Secretary of the Company, by executing a later dated proxy or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Each Class A Share is entitled to one (1) vote and each Class B Share is entitled to twenty (20) votes. The holders of Shares having a majority of the votes that could be cast by the holders of all Shares, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions will be treated as Shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. If a broker indicates on the proxy that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain Shares to vote on a particular matter, those Shares will be considered as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. As of March 29, 2004, the Yeager family members own all 662,296 shares of Class B Common Stock and 894,250 shares of Class A Common Stock. Consequently, the Yeager family controls approximately 68% of the voting power of the Company on all matters presented for stockholder action. The Yeager family members are parties to a stockholders' agreement, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote all of their shares of Class B Common Stock in accordance with the vote of the holders of a majority of such shares.

Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the election inspectors appointed for the meeting and such election inspectors will determine whether or not a quorum is present.

The Board of Directors knows of no matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting other than those set forth in the Notice of 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders enclosed herewith. However, if any other matters do come before the meeting, it is intended that the holders of the proxies will vote thereon in their discretion. Any such other matter will require for its approval the affirmative vote of the holders of Shares having a majority of the votes present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting, provided a quorum is present, or such greater vote as may be required under the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, the Company's By-laws or applicable law. A list of stockholders as of the record date will be available for inspection at the Annual Meeting and for a period of ten days prior to the Annual Meeting at the Company's offices in Downers Grove.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The number of directors of the Company, as determined by the Board of Directors under Article III of the Company's By-laws, is currently six. Each director holds office until his or her successor is elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal.

The nominees for whom the enclosed proxy is intended to be voted are set forth below. Other than Mr. Mark Yeager, who is currently an executive officer of the Company, each nominee for election as director currently serves as a director of the Company. It is not contemplated that any of these nominees will be unavailable for election, but if such a situation should arise, the proxy will be voted in accordance with the best judgment of the proxyholder for such person or persons as may be designated by the Board of Directors unless the stockholder has directed otherwise.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting, provided a quorum is present. The outcome of the election is not affected by abstentions or the withholding of authority to vote in the election, or by broker non-votes. Stockholders are not allowed to cumulate their votes in the election of directors.

The Board of Directors has determined that by satisfying the requirements of the Nasdaq listing standards with a member of the Audit Committee that has the requisite financial sophistication qualifications, the Audit Committee has the financial expertise necessary to fulfill the duties and the obligations of the Audit Committee. Directors may be nominated by the Board of Directors or by shareholders in accordance with the Bylaws of the Company. As a matter of course, the Nominating and Governance Committee will review the qualifications of various persons to determine whether they might make good candidates for consideration for membership on the Board of Directors. The Nominating and Governance Committee will review all proposed nominees for the Board of Directors, including those proposed by shareholders, in accordance with the mandate contained in its charter. This will include a review of the person's judgment, experience, independence, understanding of the Company's business or other related industries and such other factors as the Nominating and Governance Committee determines are relevant in light of the needs of the Board of Directors and the Company. The Nominating and Governance Committee will select qualified candidates and review its recommendations with the Board of Directors, which will decide whether to invite the candidate to be a nominee for election to the Board of Directors.

The Company has not paid a fee to any third party to identify or assist in identifying or evaluating potential nominees. Each nominee for election as a director is either an executive officer of the Company or is standing for reelection.

For a shareholder to submit a candidate for consideration by the Nominating and Governance Committee, a shareholder must notify the Company's Secretary. In addition, the Bylaws permit shareholders to nominate directors at a shareholder meeting. The presiding officer of the annual meeting of stockholders will, if the facts warrant, refuse to acknowledge a nomination not made in compliance with the foregoing procedure, and any such nomination not properly brought before the meeting will not be considered.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file with the Commission initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Common Stock and other equity securities of the Company. Officers, directors, and greater than ten-percent stockholders are required by Commission regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Edgar Filing: HUB GROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company and written representations that no other reports were required, during the Company's 2003 fiscal year all applicable Section 16(a) filing requirements were complied with by the officers, directors, and greater than ten-percent beneficial owners, except Messrs. White, Polsen and Zeilstra each mistakenly reported one purchase transaction on a Form 5 rather than a Form 4 and Mr. Phillip Yeager was late in filing one Form 4 regarding stock held by his wife and was late in filing one Form 4 reporting stock transferred to certain family members.

Directors who are employees of the Company do not receive additional compensation for such services. Both employee and non-employee directors are reimbursed for their travel and other expenses incurred in connection with attending meetings of the Board of Directors or committees thereof. In connection with their 2003 compensation package, on December 10, 2002, Messrs. In connection with their 2004 compensation package, on December 3, 2003, Messrs. Eppen, Reaves and Slark each received a grant of 3,560 shares of restricted Class A Common Stock. This restricted stock vests ratably over a three-year period and is subject to shareholder approval of the amended and restated 2002 Long-Term Incentive Plan described below.

Board of Directors Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee approves the policies under which compensation is paid or awarded to the Company's executive officers. The Compensation Committee consists of the three independent members of the Board.

In September 2001, the Board of Directors commissioned a third party to conduct a study of the Company's compensation program. This study included a survey of compensation practices in the transportation industry using a broad sample of companies within the industry. This independent study was used as the benchmark to determine competitive compensation ranges for senior executives. The Compensation Committee implemented certain recommendations from the independent study and, using this study, determined the compensation structure for 2002. Except for individuals accepting increased responsibility, the Compensation Committee froze salary levels for the executive officers for 2003 in light of the Company's 2002 results. The Compensation Committee intends to have a third party periodically conduct an independent study of compensation practices in the transportation industry to update the Company's benchmark of competitive compensation ranges for senior executives.

The 2003 Compensation structure approved by the Compensation Committee was based on the following philosophy:

Compensation Philosophy

The Company's compensation philosophy is designed to link executive performance to long-term stockholder value, connect pay with individual performance, maintain a compensation system that is competitive with the industry standards and attract and retain outstanding executives.

Description of Compensation Programs

The Company's executive compensation program has three components—base salary, annual incentives, and long-term incentives. Base salary and annual incentives are primarily designed to reward current and past performance. Long-term incentives are primarily designed to provide strong incentives for long-term future Company growth.

Base Salary To attract and retain qualified executives, base salary is determined using competitive criteria within the transportation industry. Salary increases are based on individual performance and, to a lesser extent, trends within the industry.

Annual Incentive The Company's bonus plan recognizes and rewards executives for taking actions that build the value of the Company, generate competitive total returns for stockholders, and provide value-added solutions for the Company's customers. For most executive officers, bonus compensation is based on individual performance and Company performance. The component of the bonus based on individual performance is conditioned on the individual meeting certain pre-determined objectives and the component of the bonus based on Company performance is based on the Company meeting certain performance goals.

Long-Term Incentives The Company's Long-Term Incentive Program serves to reward executive performance that successfully executes the Company's long-term business strategy and builds stockholder value. The program allows for the awarding of options and stock appreciation rights, restricted stock and performance units.

Section 162(m) Compensation Committee Report Disclosure

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) limits the Company's deduction for compensation paid to the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table to $1 million unless certain requirements are met. The policy of the Committee with respect to section 162(m) is to establish and maintain a compensation program which will optimize the deductibility of compensation. The Committee, however, reserves the right to use its judgment, where merited by the Committee's need to respond to changing business conditions or by an executive officer's individual performance, to authorize compensation which may not, in a specific case, be fully deductible to the Company.

Compensation Administration

The Compensation Committee will follow an annual cycle to administer each of the three components of executive compensation. The independent study of competitive compensation practices within the transportation industry will continue to be used as the benchmark to determine competitive compensation ranges for senior executives. Individual performance and contribution to the achievement of strategic objectives will be considered in the determination of annual compensation for each executive. The integrity of the Company's compensation program relies on an annual performance evaluation process.

Discussion of CEO Compensation

Consistent with the Company's compensation philosophy, the Compensation Committee approved Mr. David P. Yeager's total compensation during fiscal year 2003. Mr. Yeager's base salary was based on overall performance of the Company, on relative levels of compensation for CEOs within the benchmark companies in the transportation industry and on individual performance related to strategic objectives. Mr. Yeager's incentive compensation was based on achievement of goals relating to the Company's earnings per share target.

For 2003, the Compensation Committee approved a package allowing Mr. Yeager to earn $485,000 in salary and $296,623 in bonus if the Company met its earnings goal with the possibility to earn additional bonus if the Company exceeded its earnings goal. Mr. Yeager's 2003 salary represents a decrease of $54,123 from the amount that he would have otherwise received in order to enable the Company to lease certain assets, which Mr. Yeager used for personal purposes from time to time in 2003. In addition, Mr. Yeager was awarded 70,000 options in connection with his 2003 compensation package that were valued at $242,500 at the time of their grant. Mr. Yeager was paid his salary of $485,000 during 2003 and received a bonus of $459,765 due to the Company substantially exceeding its earnings target.

Audit Committee Report

Each member of the Audit Committee is independent of the Company and its management, as required of audit committee members by the National Association of Securities Dealers listing standards. In October 2003, the Audit Committee amended its written charter. The charter specifies the scope of the Audit Committee's responsibilities and how it carries out those responsibilities. A copy of this charter is attached as Exhibit A to this Proxy Statement.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's quarterly and annual audited financial statements with management and with Ernst & Young, LLP, the Company's independent public accountants. The Company has also discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The Audit Committee has also received from Ernst & Young LLP the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, regarding their independence. The Audit Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP their independence and considered whether the provision of non-audit services referred to under Independent Public Accountants on page 23 is compatible with maintaining their independence. Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the December 31, 2003 audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for 2003.

APPROVAL OF 2002 LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN

(As Amended and Restated effective December 3, 2003)

A proposal will be presented at the Annual Meeting to approve the Hub Group, Inc. 2002 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the Plan) as amended and restated effective December 3, 2003. The Plan was adopted by the Board of Directors of Hub Group effective as of April 4, 2002, and subsequently approved by shareholders. Subject to the approval of shareholders, the Plan was amended and restated, effective December 3, 2003.

The Plan was amended in December of 2003 to provide for an increase in the number of Company shares that may be utilized for awards under the Plan. Additionally, the Plan was amended to remove the formula-based awards for Non-Employee Directors, thereby allowing the Board to determine what is the appropriate compensation with respect to the duties and responsibilities of such Non-Employee Directors.

General Description

The purpose of the Plan is to (a) attract and retain key executive and managerial employees; (b) attract and retain the services of experienced and knowledgeable directors; (c) motivate participating employees by means of appropriate incentives to achieve long-range goals; (d) provide incentive compensation opportunities that are competitive with those of other corporations; and (e) further identify participants interests with those of the Company's other shareholders through compensation that is based on the price appreciation of common stock of the Company, and thereby promote the long-term financial interest of the Company, including the growth in value of the Company's equity and enhancement of long-term shareholder return.

A committee (the Committee) comprised of members of the Board of Directors, and selected by the Board of Directors, administers the Plan. Currently, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors serves as the Committee. The Committee determines, from time to time, from among the employees who are key executives or managerial employees of Hub Group and its related companies (as defined in the Plan) or non-employee Directors of the Company (Eligible Directors), those employees or Directors who will receive awards under the Plan and thereby become participants in the Plan. The Committee may grant to employees non-qualified stock and incentive stock options, stock appreciation rights (SARs), restricted stock and performance units, subject to the terms and conditions established by the Committee. Based upon the recommendation of Directors who are not Eligible Directors, the Board may grant to Eligible Directors non-qualified stock options, SARs, restricted stock award and performance units.

The number of shares of Hub Group common stock which may be issued or granted under the Plan with respect to all participants shall not exceed 1,100,000 shares in the aggregate. Any shares of Hub Group common stock covered by an award that expires, is forfeited or is terminated for any reason without issuance of the shares may again become subject to awards under the Plan. In addition, the number of shares of Hub Group common stock that may be issued or granted under the Plan is subject to equitable adjustment in the event of a reorganization, recapitalization, stock dividend, stock split, or other capital readjustment of Hub Group common stock, and is subject to the ability to award again shares that were subject to an award but were not delivered.

The number of shares of Hub Group common stock which may be issued under the Plan with respect to options and stock appreciation rights awarded to any one participant during any one fiscal year of the Company may not exceed 250,000. The number of shares of Hub Group common stock which may be issued under the Plan with respect to awards, other than options and SARs, which are intended to be performance based compensation (as that term is used in section 162(m) of the Code) granted to any one participant during any one fiscal year of the Company may not exceed 250,000. If such awards are denominated in cash value, no more than $5,000,000 may be subject to such awards granted to any one participant during any one fiscal year of the Company. The Hub Group common stock with respect to which awards may be made under the Plan shall be shares currently authorized but unissued or currently held or subsequently acquired by the Company as treasury shares, including shares purchased in the open market or in private transactions. At the discretion of the Committee, an award under the Plan may be settled through cash payments, the delivery of Hub Group common stock, the granting of replacement awards, or any combination of the foregoing.

The Plan is unlimited in duration, and in the event of Plan termination, will remain in effect as long as any awards under it are outstanding; provided, however, that no new award shall be made under the Plan on a date that is more than ten years from the date that the Plan is adopted. The Plan may be amended or terminated at any time by the Board of Directors, without the consent of shareholders; provided, however, that no such amendment or termination may adversely affect the rights of any participant or beneficiary under any award made under the Plan prior to the date such amendment is adopted by the Board of Directors.

The Plan is not subject to any provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

Awards under the Plan are not transferable except as designated by the participant by will or by the laws of descent and distribution; provided that once the participant is in receipt of the common stock under an award and all restrictions on the award have lapsed, then the common stock awarded is transferable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may permit awards to be transferred to or for the benefit of the participant's family, subject to such limits as the Committee may establish.

Termination provisions in the event of death or termination of employment shall be in accordance with the restrictions and conditions contained in the individual awards; provided, however, that if a participant's termination of employment (or termination of service, in the case of an Eligible Director) occurs on account of retirement, death or disability, awards may expire no later than the one year anniversary of the termination and if the participant's termination of employment (or termination of service in the case of an Eligible Director) occurs for other reasons, awards may expire no later than 60 days after such termination. With respect to automatic options awarded to Eligible Directors, a participant who ceases to be a Director (and does not become an employee of Hub Group or a related company) will have three months from the date he ceases to be a Director to exercise any vested options, unless he ceases to be a Director by reason of his death, disability or retirement, in which case he (or his estate) will have twelve months to exercise any options.

The employees of the Company and related companies are eligible to become participants in the Plan. As of February 29, 2004, there were approximately 1,197 employees of the Company and related companies. As of the date of this Proxy Statement 537,000 options and 152,027 shares of restricted stock have been granted under the Plan. Included in the foregoing amounts are 95,687 shares of restricted stock that were granted subject to shareholder approval of the Plan, as amended and restated, where such awards shall become null and void in the absence of such approval.

The following table shows the number of shares of restricted stock and the dollar value for each of the listed executive officers, the executive officers as a group, the non-executive directors as a group and the non-executive officer employees as a group.

Stock Options

The Committee may determine the type and terms of stock options granted pursuant to the Plan to participants who are employees, provided that such options are either non-qualified stock options or incentive stock options (within the meaning of Section 422 of the Code); and provided that (1) the option price per share shall not be less than the greater of (a) the fair market value of a share of Hub Group common stock on the date the option is granted or (b) the par value of a share of Hub Group common stock on such date, and (2) each option must expire not later than 10 years after the date of grant. Generally, no option may be exercised by a participant prior to the date the participant completes one continuous year of employment with the Company or a related company after the date as of which the option is granted (provided that the Committee may permit earlier exercise following the participant's termination of employment (or service in the case of a director) by reason of retirement, death or disability). The exercise of any option will result in the surrender of any SARs granted in tandem therewith.

If a participant elects to exercise an option by paying all or a portion of the purchase price in common stock, as permitted and in accordance with the terms of the Plan, then such participant may, in the Committee's discretion, be issued a new option to purchase additional shares of common stock equal to the number of shares of common stock surrendered to the Company in such payment. Such new option shall have a purchase price equal to the fair market value per share on the date such new option is granted, shall first be exercisable six months from the date of grant of the new option and shall have an expiration date on the same date as the expiration date of the original option so exercised by payment of the purchase price in shares of common stock.

The Committee may award dividend equivalents with respect to non-qualified stock options and, subject to the limitations of the Code, with respect to incentive stock options. The award of dividend equivalents shall permit the participant to earn an amount equal to the dividends payable with respect to the number of shares of common stock subject to the option for the period the option is outstanding and unexercised. The right to payment of such earned dividends shall be subject to such restrictions and limitations as may be imposed by the Committee.

The Company may award non-qualified stock options to Eligible Directors. In the case of a grant of a stock option to an Eligible Director, the foregoing actions of the Committee must be taken by the Board. Incentive stock options may not be granted to Eligible Directors.

Stock Appreciation Rights

The Committee may award SARs in connection with all or any portion of a previously or contemporaneously granted option or not in connection with an option, in such number and on such terms as the Committee may decide. If an SAR is granted in connection with an option, then in the discretion of the Committee, the SAR may, but need not, be granted in tandem with the option. The SAR must expire no later than 10 years after the date of grant, or if granted in tandem with an option, the expiration date of the related option. Generally, no SAR may be exercised by a participant prior to the date the participant has completed one continuous year of employment with the Company after the date as of which the SAR is granted (provided that the Committee may permit earlier exercise following the participant's termination of employment by death or disability). An SAR entitles the participant to receive the amount by which the fair market value of a specified number of shares on the exercise date exceeds a specified price, which price shall not be less than 100% of the fair market value of a share of Hub Group common stock at the time the SAR is granted, or if granted in tandem with an option, the exercise price with respect to shares under the tandem option. Such amount shall be payable in Hub Group common stock, in cash, or in a combination thereof, as determined by the Committee. The exercise of an SAR will result in the surrender of corresponding rights under the tandem option.

The Committee may award dividend equivalents with respect to SARs. The award of dividend equivalents shall permit the participant to earn an amount equal to the dividends payable with respect to the number of shares of Stock that are subject to the SARs for the period the SARs are outstanding and unexercised. The right to payment of such earned dividends shall be subject to such restrictions and limitations as may be imposed by the Committee.

The Company may award SARs to Eligible Directors. In the case of a grant of an SAR to an Eligible Director, the foregoing actions of the Committee must be taken by the Board.

Restricted Stock

The Committee may award to participants shares of Hub Group common stock which are subject to certain restrictions as may be determined by the Committee (Restricted Stock); provided that Restricted Stock awarded under the Plan may not be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged or otherwise encumbered for a period of not less than one year after the time of the grant of such shares (the Restricted Period); and provided further that a participant who terminates employment prior to the end of the Restricted Period will forfeit all shares of Restricted Stock that remain subject to restrictions. The Committee may, in its discretion, at any time after the date of the award of Restricted Stock, adjust the length of the Restricted Period to account for individual circumstances of a participant or group of participants.

The Company may award restricted stock to Eligible Directors. In the case of a grant of restricted stock of an Eligible Director, the foregoing actions of the Committee must be taken by the Board.

Performance Units

The Committee may award performance units to participants under the Plan, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be determined by the Committee. The award of performance units entitles the participant to receive value for the units at the end of a performance period to the extent provided under the award. The number of units earned, and value received for them, will be contingent on the degree to which the performance measures established at the time of the initial award are met.

The Committee shall designate the participants to whom performance units are to be granted, the term of the performance period, and other terms and conditions of the award. The Committee will compare the actual performance to the performance measures established for the performance period and determine the number of units to be paid and their value. Payment for units earned shall be wholly in cash, wholly in common stock or in a combination of the two, in a lump sum or installments, and subject to vesting requirements and such other conditions as the Committee shall determine. The Committee will determine the number of earned units to be paid in cash and the number to be paid in common stock. For performance units valued when granted in shares of common stock, one share of common stock will be paid for each unit earned, or cash will be paid for each unit earned equal to either (a) the fair market value of a share of common stock at the end of the performance period or (b) the value of the common stock determined based on the average fair market value for a number of days determined by the Committee. For performance units valued when granted in cash, the value of each unit earned will be paid in its initial cash value, or shares of common stock will be distributed based on the cash value of the units earned divided by (a) the fair market value of a share of common stock at the end of the performance period or (b) the value of a share of common stock determined based on the average fair market value for a number of days determined by the Committee.

If a participant's termination of employment occurs during a performance period with respect to any performance shares granted to him, the Committee may determine that the participant will be entitled to receive all or any portion of the performance shares that he would otherwise receive, and may accelerate the determination and payment of the value of such performance shares or make such other adjustments as the Committee, in its sole discretion, deems desirable.

The Company may award performance units to Eligible Directors. In the case of a grant of a Performance Unit to an Eligible Director, the foregoing actions of the Committee must be taken by the Board.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

Under present Federal income tax law, awards under the Plan will have the following tax consequences.

A participant who has been granted an incentive stock option will not realize taxable income and the Company will not be entitled to a deduction at the time of the grant or exercise of such option. If the participant makes no disposition of shares acquired pursuant to an incentive stock option within two years from the date of grant of such option, or within one year of the transfer of the shares to the participant, any gain or loss realized on a subsequent disposition of such shares will be treated as a capital gain or loss. Under such circumstances, the Company will not be entitled to any deduction for Federal income tax purposes. If the holding period requirements are not satisfied, the participant will generally realize ordinary income at the time of disposition in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the excess of the fair market value of the shares on the date of exercise over the option price or (ii) the excess of the amount realized upon disposition of the shares, if any, over the option price, and the Company will be entitled to a corresponding deduction. In addition, the participant may be required to pay an alternative minimum tax on the amount of his tax preference items, if such tax exceeds the tax otherwise due, which amount of minimum tax paid may be available as a credit in future years to reduce subsequent tax liability. The exercise of an incentive stock option will generally result in an increase to alternative minimum taxable income, the basis on which the alternative minimum tax is computed, by the amount by which the fair market value of the shares at the time of exercise exceeds the exercise price.

A participant will not realize taxable income at the time of the grant of a non-qualified option. Upon exercise, however, of such non-qualified stock option, the participant will realize ordinary income in an amount measured by the excess, if any, of the fair market value of the shares on the date of exercise over the option price, and the Company will be entitled to a corresponding deduction. Upon a subsequent disposition of such shares, the participant will realize short-term or long-term capital gain or loss, with the basis for computing such gain or loss equal to the option price plus the amount of ordinary income realized upon exercise.

A participant will not realize taxable income at the time of the grant of a stock appreciation right. Upon exercise, however, the participant will realize ordinary income measured by the difference between the fair market value of the common stock of the Company on the applicable date of grant and the fair market value of such stock on the date of exercise. The Company will be entitled to a corresponding deduction in the year of exercise.

Edgar Filing: HUB GROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

A participant who has been granted a restricted stock award will not realize taxable income at the time of grant, and the Company will not be entitled to a deduction at that time, assuming that the restrictions constitute a substantial risk of forfeiture for Federal income tax purposes. Upon the vesting of shares subject to an award, the participant will realize ordinary income in an amount equal to the fair market value of the shares at such time, and the Company will be entitled to a corresponding deduction. Dividends paid to the participant during the restriction period will also be compensation income to the participant and deductible as such by the Company. The participant may elect to be taxed at the time of grant of a restricted stock award on the then fair market value of the shares, in which case (i) the Company will be entitled to a deduction at the same time and in the same amount, (ii) dividends paid to such holder during the restriction period will be taxable as dividends to such holder and not deductible by the Company, and (iii) there will be no further tax consequences when the restrictions lapse. If a participant who has made such an election subsequently forfeits the shares, he will not be entitled to any deduction or loss. The Company, however, will be required to include as ordinary income the lesser of the fair market value of the forfeited shares or the amount of the deduction originally claimed with respect to the shares.

A participant who has been granted performance units will not realize taxable income at the time of grant, and the Company will not be entitled to a deduction at that time. The participant will have compensation income at the time of payment, and the Company will have a corresponding deduction.

Payment of Option Price with Shares of Company Common Stock

The exercise of an incentive stock option through the exchange of previously acquired stock will generally be treated as a non-taxable, like-kind exchange as to the number of shares given up and the identical number of shares received under the option. That number of shares will take the same basis and, for capital gains purposes, the same holding period as the shares which are given up. However, such holding period will not be credited for purposes of the one-year holding period required for the new shares to receive incentive stock option treatment. Shares received upon such an exchange which are in excess of the number of shares given up will have a new holding period and, if cash was paid in addition to the shares exchanged, a basis equal to the amount of such cash. If a disqualifying disposition (a disposition before the end of the applicable holding period) occurs with respect to any of the shares received from the exchange, it will be treated as a disqualifying disposition of the shares with the lowest basis.

If the exercise price of an incentive stock option is paid with shares of stock of the Company acquired through a prior exercise of an incentive stock option, gain will be realized on the shares given up (and will be taxed as ordinary income) if those shares have not been held for the minimum holding period (two years from the date of grant and one year from the date of transfer), but the exchange will not affect the tax treatment, as described in the immediately preceding paragraph, of the shares received.

The exercise of a non-qualified stock option through the delivery of previously acquired stock will generally be treated as a non-taxable, like-kind exchange as to the number of shares surrendered and the identical number of shares received under the option. That number of shares will take the same basis and, for capital gains purposes, the same holding period as the shares which are given up. The value of the shares received upon such an exchange which are in excess of the number given up will be taxed to the participant at the time of the exercise as ordinary income. The excess shares will have a new holding period for capital gains purposes and a basis equal to the value of such shares determined at the time of exercise.

Withholding of Taxes

The Company may deduct, from any payment under the Plan, the amount of any tax required by law to be withheld with respect to such payment, or may require the participant to pay such amount to the Company prior to, and as a condition of, making such payment. The use of shares of Company common stock to satisfy any withholding requirement will be treated, for federal income tax purposes, as a sale of such shares for an amount equal to the fair market value of the stock on the date when the amount of taxes to be withheld is determined. If previously owned shares of Company common stock are delivered by a participant to satisfy a withholding requirement, the disposition of such shares may result in the recognition of gain or loss by the participant for tax purposes.

Limitations on Deductions

The Company's income tax deduction for awards under the Plan may be unavailable if (i) the award is deemed to be in excess of reasonable compensation, (ii) the award fails to satisfy the requirements of section 162(m) of the Code that compensation in excess of $1 million be performance-based, or (iii) the award constitutes an excess parachute payment under section 280G of the Code.

Tax Advice

The preceding discussion is based on Federal tax laws and regulations presently in effect, which are subject to change, and the discussion does not purport to be a complete description of the Federal income tax aspects of the Plan. A participant may also be subject to state and local taxes in connection with the grant of awards under the Plan. The Company suggests that participants consult with their individual tax advisors to determine the applicability of the tax rules to the awards granted to them in their personal circumstances.

Other Information

Approval of the Plan, as amended and restated, will require the affirmative vote of the holders of shares having a majority of the votes present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting, provided a quorum is present, with the result that shares which abstain from voting would count as votes against the Plan and broker non-votes would have no effect on the outcome.

The Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR this proposal.

Change of Independent Accountants in 2002

As previously reported, on May 6, 2002, the Company decided to dismiss its independent auditors, Arthur Andersen LLP (Arthur Andersen), and to engage Ernst & Young LLP to serve as its new independent auditors for 2002. The change in auditors became effective May 13, 2002. This determination was made by the Company's Audit Committee upon the recommendation of the Company's management.

Edgar Filing: HUB GROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

Arthur Andersen's reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements for each of the years ended December 31, 2001 and December 31, 2000 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 and the interim period between December 31, 2001 and May 13, 2002, there were no disagreements between the Company and Arthur Andersen on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to Arthur Andersen's satisfaction, would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with their report on such years.

In January 2002, the Company learned that its 65% owned subsidiary, Hub Group Distribution Services (HGDS), was having difficulties reconciling its general ledger balances for several accounts, including cash, accounts payable and accounts receivable. HGDS is now a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

Following an investigation into these problems, the Company determined that HGDS' balance sheets were incorrect in each of 1999, 2000 and 2001. Because HGDS' results were incorporated into the Company's consolidated financial statements, these inaccuracies resulted in the Company's net income being overstated. After completely recreating the financial statements for HGDS for 1999, 2000 and 2001, the Company determined that the Company's 1999 financial results were overstated by $1.4 million and its 2000 financial results were overstated by $1.9 million on an after-tax, post-minority interest basis, which the Company reflected by restating the financial results for those years. Additional adjustments were necessary to properly reflect the results of 2001, but since the Company had not yet finalized its results for 2001, the Company did not need to restate its 2001 results. Due to time constraints and cost, the Company did not restate its results on a quarterly basis, therefore the adjustments to properly reflect the Company's results were made in the fourth quarter of each of 1999, 2000 and 2001.

In the early stages of the investigation, Arthur Andersen notified the Company's Audit Committee that there was a material weakness with the internal controls at HGDS. Arthur Andersen also advised the Company that previously issued financial results for the years 1999, 2000 and 2001 and previously issued audit reports for 1999 and 2000 should not be relied upon. Following the Company's restatement of its financial statements for those years, the financial statements were audited by Arthur Andersen. At the conclusion of its audit, Arthur Andersen issued unqualified opinions on the Company's restated financial results for the years 1999, 2000, and 2001. Arthur Andersen was unable to review the quarterly financial data from 2001 and 2000 in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants because the Company did not restate its results on a quarterly basis. The Company announced the restated results for 1999 and 2000 and its results for 2001 in a press release on March 19, 2002.

In addition to the work resulting in the restatement of its 1999 and 2000 financial statements, the Company, with the assistance of outside counsel, conducted an investigation into the cause of the accounting problems at HGDS. The Company has concluded that the accounting problems at HGDS resulted from several factors, including (1) systems problems associated with HGDS' implementation of multiple financial accounting and operating systems; (2) the rapid growth of HGDS' business beginning in late 1998; (3) weaknesses in internal controls at HGDS; and (4) inadequate oversight by the HGDS management. The Company has taken numerous steps to address these problems to ensure that similar accounting problems will not arise in the future.

During the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 and through May 13, 2002, neither the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf consulted Ernst and Young LLP with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements, or any other matters or reportable events listed in Items 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.

PROXY SOLICITATION EXPENSE

The expense of any proxy solicitation will be paid by the Company. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by use of the mails, solicitation also may be made by telephone, telegraph or personal interview by directors, officers, and regular employees of the Company, none of whom will receive additional compensation for any such solicitation. The Company will, upon request, reimburse brokers, banks, and similar organizations for out-of-pocket and reasonable clerical expenses incurred in forwarding proxy material to their principals.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Proposals of stockholders must be received in writing by the Secretary of the Company at the principal executive offices of the Company no later than December 13, 2004, in order to be considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy relating to the next annual meeting of stockholders.

The Company anticipates that its next annual meeting of stockholders will be held in May 2005. If a stockholder desires to submit a proposal for consideration at the next annual meeting of stockholders, written notice of such stockholder's intent to make such a proposal must be given and received by the Secretary of the Company at the principal executive offices of the Company either by personal delivery or by United States mail no earlier than February 12, 2005 nor later than March 14, 2005. Each notice must describe the proposal in sufficient detail for the proposal to be summarized on the agenda for the annual meeting of stockholders and must set forth: (i) the name and address, as it appears on the books of the Company, of the stockholder who intends to make the proposal; (ii) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the Company entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at such meeting to present such proposal; and (iii) the class and number of shares of the Company which are beneficially owned by the stockholder. In addition, the notice must set forth the reasons for conducting such proposed business at the annual meeting of stockholders and any material interest of the stockholder in such business. The presiding officer of the annual meeting of stockholders will, if the facts warrant, refuse to acknowledge a proposal not made in compliance with the foregoing procedure, and any such proposal not properly brought before the annual meeting of stockholders will not be considered.

By order of the Board of Directors,

DAVID C. ZEILSTRA
Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel

Downers Grove, Illinois
April 12, 2004

Each stockholder, whether or not he or she expects to be present in person at the Annual Meeting, is requested to MARK, SIGN, DATE, and RETURN THE ENCLOSED PROXY in the accompanying envelope as promptly as possible. A stockholder may revoke his or her proxy at any time prior to voting.

EXHIBIT A

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. Purpose

The Audit Committee (the Committee) is appointed by the board of directors (the Board) to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibility relating to the quality and integrity of the financial statements, internal controls and other accounting, auditing and reporting practices of the Corporation, the compliance by the Corporation with legal and regulatory requirements, and such other duties as directed by the Board.

II. Composition

The Committee shall consist of no fewer than three members proposed by the Nominating Committee, endorsed by the Chairman of the Board and appointed by the Board annually. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the membership of the Committee and to fill vacancies in it, subject to the new members satisfying the criteria set forth below. Members of the Committee shall serve until their successors are appointed and qualify.

The members of the Committee shall satisfy the following criteria:

1. Meet the independence and other requirements of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.'s Marketplace Rules and any other applicable laws, rules and regulations.
2. Be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements including the Corporation's balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement.
3. At least one member of the Committee shall have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or any other comparable experience or background which results in the individual's financial sophistication, including being or having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities.

III. Meetings

A. In General

The Committee is expected to maintain free and open communication (including private executive sessions at least annually) with the independent auditors and management of the Corporation.

B. Frequency

The Committee shall meet at least four times each fiscal year or more often as it deems appropriate. The chairman of the Committee shall at the beginning of each year establish a schedule of meetings with additional meetings to be scheduled as required.

C. Minutes

The secretary (or a duly designated person) shall prepare minutes for all meetings of the Committee to document the Committee's discharge of its responsibilities. The draft minutes shall be approved at a subsequent meeting of the Committee and shall be retained as part of the Corporation's corporate records.

IV. Powers and Authority

The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Corporation or its outside counsel or independent auditors to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee. The Committee is empowered to investigate any matter it deems appropriate, with full power to retain outside counsel or other advisors and full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Corporation. The Committee has the ultimate authority and responsibility to select, evaluate, and, where appropriate, replace the independent auditors. The Committee also has the authority to approve the fees and other significant compensation to be paid to the independent auditors.

V. Responsibilities

A. Roles of the Committee, Management and Independent Auditors

The Committee's responsibility is one of oversight. In furtherance of this mission, the Committee will review reports prepared by the independent auditors furnished to the Committee and will provide to the independent auditors full access to the Committee (and the Board) to report on any and all matters appropriate. It is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Corporation's financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

The responsibility for the completeness and accuracy of the financial statements rests with the Corporation's management.

The Corporation's independent auditors are responsible for planning and conducting an audit of the Corporation's annual consolidated financial statements and reviewing the Corporation's quarterly financial statements. The auditors are ultimately accountable to the Board and the Committee.

B. Committee's Primary Responsibilities

The Committee's primary responsibilities include:

1. Select the Independent Auditors

The Committee will select the independent auditors who audit the financial statements of the Corporation. In so doing, the Committee will do the following:

1. discuss and consider the auditors' written statement delineating all relationships between the auditors and the Corporation (consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard) and its affirmation that the auditors are in fact independent;
2. pre-approve and/or establish guidelines regarding when and under what circumstances the Corporation may use the independent auditors for non-audit services and ensure that non-audit services performed by the independent auditors are disclosed in the Corporation's periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Committee may delegate this responsibility to one or more members of the Committee, so long as the Committee member approving any such non-audit services presents to the full Committee at its next scheduled meeting the facts and circumstances surrounding such approval);

Edgar Filing: HUB GROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

3. establish guidelines restricting the hiring of certain persons previously employed by the Corporation's independent auditors;
4. take such other action as the Committee deems appropriate to verify the auditors' independence, including a review of the non-audit services provided to the Corporation by the independent auditors and the fees for such services; and
5. review the effectiveness of the auditors' performance.

2. Approve the Audit Process

The Committee will discuss the nature, scope, and rigor of the audit process, including the plan for the annual audit, including areas of risk exposure and the adequacy of staffing.

3. Review the Financial Statements

The Committee will review the audited financial statements with management and the independent auditors. It is anticipated that these discussions will include quality of earnings, discussions of significant items subject to estimate, consideration of the suitability of accounting principles (including all alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed with management, ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosure and treatments and the treatment preferred by the independent auditors), review of highly judgmental areas, audit adjustments whether or not recorded and such other inquiries as may be appropriate and as may be required under Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. Upon completion of their review, the Committee shall make a recommendation to the Board as to whether the financial statements should be included in the Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

The Committee will also review with management and the independent auditors the quarterly financial information prior to the Corporation's filing of Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q with the SEC.

When reviewing the financial statements, the Committee will review and discuss with management as applicable, (a) major issues regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentations, including any significant changes in the Company's selection or application of accounting principles, and major issues as to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and any special audit steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies; (b) analyses prepared by management or the public accountants setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including analyses of the effects of alternative GAAP methods on the financial statements; (c) any management letter provided by the public accountants and the Company's response to that letter; (d) any problems, difficulties or differences encountered in the course of the audit work, including any disagreements with management or restrictions on the scope of the public accountants' activities or on access to requested information and management's response thereto; (e) the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives, as well as off-balance sheet structures, on the financial statements of the Company; and (f) earnings press releases (paying particular attention to any use of pro forma, or adjusted non-GAAP, information), as well as financial information and earnings guidance (generally or on a case-by-case basis) provided to analysts and rating agencies.

4. Monitor Internal Controls and Disclosure Controls

The Committee will discuss with management and the auditors the quality and adequacy of the Corporation's internal controls over financial reporting and disclosure controls including periodic updates of recommendations made by the independent auditors and others to strengthen controls and management's corrective actions.

5. Establish Procedures for Accounting Complaints and Receipt of Attorney's Reports

Establish procedures for the (a) receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters and (b) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. The Committee shall also receive attorneys' reports of evidence of a material violation of securities law or breaches of fiduciary duty and shall take appropriate actions in response.

6. Review Legal Compliance and Exposure

The Committee will discuss with the Corporation's General Counsel the Corporation's legal compliance policies, legal matters that may have a material impact on the financial statements, any material reports or inquiries received from regulators or governmental agencies, and other areas of oversight relating to legal compliance and significant financial exposure matters as may be appropriate. In addition, the Committee will obtain from the independent auditors assurance that Section 10A of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 has not been implicated.

7. Report to the Stockholders

The Committee will prepare a report of the Committee in accordance with SEC rules suitable for inclusion in the Corporation's annual proxy statement delivered to the Corporation's shareholders.

8. Report to the Board

The Committee will periodically report on Committee activities to the full Board and, as needed, issue an annual summary report (including appropriate oversight conclusions).

C. Other Responsibilities

The Committee will perform any other activities consistent with this charter, the Corporation's by-laws, and applicable law, as the Committee or the Board deems necessary or appropriate.

VI. Review and Amendment of Charter

This charter shall be reviewed annually and amended, when deemed appropriate.
