Item 1.01                   Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On May 17, 2011, Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. ("Berkshire Hills"), holding company of Berkshire Bank, and Legacy Bancorp, Inc. ("Legacy"), holding company of Legacy Banks, entered into a Letter of Agreement with the United States Department of Justice ("DOJ") regarding the divestiture of four (4) Legacy Banks branches located in Berkshire County, Massachusetts ("LOA"). The planned branch divestiture is occurring in connection with the pending acquisition of Legacy by Berkshire Hills. The four Legacy branches subject to the divestiture agreement had aggregate deposits of $158.1 million as of June 30, 2010. The divestiture is designed to resolve any competitive concerns raised by the DOJ concerning the pending merger. The pending merger is also subject to the approval or non-objection of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Office of Thrift Supervision and the stockholders of Berkshire Hills and Legacy.

The LOA provides, among other things, that the parties will take certain required steps to sell the identified branches to a competitively suitable purchaser or purchasers, which purchaser or purchasers will be subject to the prior approval of the DOJ. The agreement provides that the parties will preserve, maintain and continue to operate the subject branches prior to consummation of the divestiture to an approved purchaser or purchasers. The LOA also provides that the parties will execute an agreement to divest the branches prior to the consummation of the merger and such divestiture must occur within 180 days after the consummation of the merger and, if not complete by such time, the branches will be transferred to an independent trustee for sale. Additionally, the agreement requires that if the parties determine to discontinue retail banking services at any branch located in Berkshire County within two years following the merger, the parties will notify the DOJ and sell or lease such branch to an FDIC insured institution. A divestiture statement identifying the subject branches and other information is available on the website of each party.

Item 9.01.                   Financial Statements and Exhibits

- (a)     Financial statements of businesses acquired. Not Applicable.
- (b)     Pro forma financial information. Not Applicable.
- (c)     Shell company transactions: Not Applicable.
- (d)     Exhibits. None.
