Item 8.01 Other Events

On August 5, 2006, Century Aluminum of West Virginia, Inc. ("CAWV"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Century Aluminum Company, announced that the membership of United Steelworkers Local 5668 voted to ratify a three-year labor agreement covering 580 hourly workers at CAWV's Ravenswood, West Virginia reduction facility. A copy of the press release announcing the tentative agreement is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Century Aluminum Company, the parent of CAWV, owns primary aluminum capacity in the United States and Iceland, as well as an ownership stake in alumina and bauxite assets in the United States and Jamaica. Century's corporate offices are located in Monterey, California.

The information in this Form 8-K and the exhibits attached hereto may contain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of U.S. federal securities laws. The Company has based its forward-looking statements on current expectations and projections about the future, however, these statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions, any of which could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those expressed in its forward-looking statements. More information about the Company's risks, uncertainties and assumptions (including risks relating to union disputes) can be found in the risk factors and forward-looking statements cautionary language contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K and in other filings made with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company does not undertake, and specifically disclaims, any obligation to revise any forward-looking statements to reflect the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events or circumstances after the date such forward-looking statements are made.
