Market Announcement

São Paulo, Brazil, October 7th, 2008 – ULTRAPAR PARTICIPAÇÕES S.A. (“Ultrapar” – BOVESPA:UGPA4/NYSE:UGP), in response to recent questions posed by some investors and analysts, hereby informs that:

- The company maintains a conservative financial management policy, monitored by its Risks and Financial Investments Committee, which exists for more than 10 years and is composed by its Executive Board members.
- It has used for over 10 years credit rating systems to evaluate financial institutions in which it invests its liquid assets, including input from external specialized firms since 2002. Ultrapar’s financial management policy privileges liquidity and credit quality, and its liquid assets are invested in financial institutions with track record of strong credit position.
- Its foreign exchange hedge operations are made with the sole purpose of protecting the company’s exposure to foreign exchange risks. Thus, the volume of foreign exchange hedges is compatible with the company's net foreign exchange rate exposure, which includes its assets and liabilities in dollars and the near term sales of Oxitenó in dollars. The company does not use leveraged foreign exchange derivatives.
