Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(d) On November 8, 2010, the Board of Directors of JetBlue Airways Corporation (the Company, we or us) increased the number of members of the Board of Directors to eleven and appointed retired General Stanley A. McChrystal to fill the newly created vacancy. Gen. McChrystal, age 56, was one of the nation's most accomplished military leaders. A 34-year U.S. Army veteran of multiple wars, Gen. McChrystal commanded the U.S. and NATO's security mission in Afghanistan, served as the director of the Joint Staff and was the Commander of Joint Special Operations Command, where he was responsible for the nation's deployed military counter terrorism efforts. Gen. McChrystal is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, the United States Naval Command and Staff College and was a military fellow at both the Council on Foreign Relations and the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. Currently the General is teaching a seminar on leadership at the Jackson Institute for Global Affairs at Yale University and serves alongside his wife Annie on the Board of Directors for the Yellow Ribbon Fund, a non-profit organization committed to helping wounded veterans and their families. Our Board of Directors does not expect to appoint Gen. McChrystal to a committee at this time. There are no arrangements or understandings between Gen. McChrystal and any other persons pursuant to which Mr. McChrystal was selected as a director and there are no transactions in which Gen. McChrystal has an interest requiring disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K. Gen. McChrystal will be compensated in accordance with the Company's publicly disclosed director compensation policies.
