Corporate Notes and you. A few companies, like GE Capital, offer you the ability to directly invest in their unsecured debt through corporate notes. When you invest in the corporate notes of GE Capital, you will receive the following benefits: Higher interest rates than many other cash alternatives like FDIC insured savings accounts, short term CDs, and money market mutual funds. The flexibility to redeem at anytime without a penalty. Free electronic transfers between Non-Ked bank accounts and the ability to wire funds 24/7 investment account access via internet and automated telephone service. If this short term investment sounds like a flexible way to save money and enjoy higher interest rates, you can start investing online today. Why do I get such terrific interest rates? Plain and simple, these investments are not FDIC insured. Unlike short term bond funds or money market mutual funds, they are the unsecured debt of a single company. So, your risk (and your return) is higher. When you buy these notes, you are joining more than 120,000 people like you who trust the stability of GE Capital. Some of them are current and former employees of GE or GE Capital who believe in the strength and long term success of GE Capital. But please, read; our prospectus first. Online funding consists of two parts, account verification and funds transfer. If you choose online funding, you can either verify the bank account instantly or in a few days through trial deposits made to your bank account. To fund your investment electronically, please designate a bank account that we will link to your GE Interest Plus investment. Your initial investment will be transferred from the designated bank account. In addition, subsequent investments and redemptions through the Automated Clearing House will be transferred from and to this linked account at no charge (Quick Transaction Service). Instructions The registration of the bank account you designate must match the registration of the GE Interest Plus investment. For example, if you are establishing a GE Interest Plus Investment for John and Jan Smith, the linked bank checking account should be registered to the same individuals. If you are establishing an investment registered to John Smith alone, the bank account registration should be the same.
