Dear Fellow Stockholders:

Harbinger Capital Partners Master Fund I, Ltd., an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the "Master Fund"), and Harbinger Capital Partners Special Situations Fund, L.P., a limited partnership formed under the laws of Delaware (the "Special Fund" and, together with the Master Fund, "Harbinger"), are the beneficial owners of an aggregate of 4,058,454 shares of Class A common stock, par value $5.00 per share ("Class A Stock"), of Media General, Inc., a Virginia corporation (the "Company" or "Media General"), representing approximately 18.2% of the issued and outstanding shares of Class A Stock as of February 3, 2008 (based on the information disclosed in the Company's annual report filed on Form 10-K for the year ended December 30, 2007 with the Securities and Exchange Commission). Harbinger does not believe that the current board of directors of the Company is acting in the best interests of the Company's stockholders and, therefore, Harbinger and certain of its affiliates and associates are seeking your support at the upcoming 2008 Annual Meeting of stockholders, which is scheduled to be held on Thursday, April 24, 2008, including any adjournments or postponements thereof and any special meeting that may be called in lieu thereof (the "2008 Annual Meeting"), to take the following actions:

(1) To elect Eugene I. Davis, F. Jack Liebau, Jr. and J. Daniel Sullivan (collectively the "Harbinger Nominees") to serve as the three Class A directors on the Company's board of directors; and

(2) To vote in their discretion on such other matters as may properly come before the 2008 Annual Meeting for approval by Class A stockholders.

The attached proxy statement and form of GREEN proxy card are first being furnished to the Class A stockholders of the Company on or about [], 2008.

Harbinger and certain of its affiliates and associates are soliciting proxies of Class A stockholders pursuant to this proxy statement to elect Eugene I. Davis, F. Jack Liebau, Jr. and J. Daniel Sullivan as Class A directors and to vote in their discretion on all other matters as may properly come before the 2008 Annual Meeting for approval by the Class A stockholders. Harbinger is not soliciting proxies from the holders of the Company's Class B stock, par value $5.00 per share ("Class B Stock"). The Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles of Incorporation") provide for Class A stockholders voting separately as a class to elect 30% of the Company's board of directors (or the nearest whole number if such percentage is not a whole number) and for the holders of the Class B Stock voting separately as a class to elect the balance of the Company's board of directors. Accordingly, of the nine directors to be elected at the 2008 Annual Meeting, three will be Class A directors to be elected by the Class A stockholders voting separately as a class, and six will be Class B directors to be elected by the Class B stockholders voting separately as a class. According to the Articles of Incorporation, the Class B stockholders have the sole right to vote on all other matters submitted for a vote of stockholders, except as required by law and except with respect to limited matters specifically set forth in the Articles of Incorporation.

Messrs. Davis, Liebau and Sullivan are each committed to acting in the best interest of the Company's stockholders and each has consented to being named in the attached proxy statement and, if elected, to serve as a director on the Company's board of directors. We believe that your voice in the future of Media General can best be expressed through the election of Messrs. Davis, Liebau and Sullivan at the 2008 Annual Meeting.

ACCORDINGLY, HARBINGER URGES YOU TO CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THE ATTACHED PROXY STATEMENT AND THEN SUPPORT HARBINGER'S EFFORTS BY USING THE GREEN PROXY CARD TODAY TO VOTE "FOR" THE ELECTION OF EACH OF THE HARBINGER NOMINEES AND TO GRANT DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY TO THE PROXY HOLDERS TO VOTE ON ALL MATTERS AS MAY PROPERLY COME BEFORE THE 2008 ANNUAL MEETING FOR APPROVAL BY THE CLASS A STOCKHOLDERS.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THIS PROXY SOLICITATION

Why am I being asked to vote?

Harbinger is soliciting proxies of Class A stockholders pursuant to this proxy statement to elect the Harbinger Nominees as Class A directors and to vote in their discretion on all other matters as may properly come before the 2008 Annual Meeting for approval by the Class A stockholders. Harbinger is not soliciting proxies of Class B stockholders for any of the matters which the Class B stockholders are entitled to vote on at the 2008 Annual Meeting. The Articles of Incorporation provide for Class A stockholders voting separately as a class to elect 30% of the Company's board of directors (or the nearest whole number if such percentage is not a whole number) and for the holders of the Class B Stock voting separately as a class to elect the balance of the Company's board of directors. Accordingly, of the nine directors to be elected at the 2008 Annual Meeting, three will be Class A directors to be elected by the Class A stockholders voting separately as a class, and six will be Class B directors to be elected by the Class B stockholders voting separately as a class. According to the Articles of Incorporation, the Class B stockholders have the sole right to vote on all other matters submitted for a vote of stockholders, except as required by law and except with respect to limited matters specifically set forth in the Articles of Incorporation.

You are being asked to vote:

- (1) to elect three directors to the Company's board of directors to serve as the three Class A directors as further described in this proxy statement under the heading "PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF THE HARBINGER NOMINEES AS CLASS A DIRECTORS TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS" and
- (2) to grant to the proxy holders discretion to vote on all other matters as may properly come before the 2008 Annual Meeting for approval by the Class A stockholders as further described in this proxy statement under the heading "OTHER MATTERS."

What is the recommendation of Harbinger?

Harbinger recommends you vote using the GREEN proxy card:

- (1) "FOR" the election of Eugene I. Davis, F. Jack Liebau, Jr. and J. Daniel Sullivan to serve as the three Class A directors on the Company's board of directors; and
- (2) To grant to the proxy holders discretion to vote on all other matters as may properly come before the 2008 Annual Meeting for approval by the Class A stockholders.

What do I need to do now?

This proxy statement contains important information about Harbinger, the other Harbinger Persons and the Harbinger Nominees. We urge you to read this proxy statement carefully, including its annexes. After carefully reading and considering the information set forth herein, please vote your shares of Class A Stock owned on the Record Date, or provide proper voting instructions with respect to such shares to your broker or other nominee as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the 2008 Annual Meeting.

Who may vote for the election of the Class A directors?

Class A stockholders of the Company, as recorded in the Company's stock register at the close of business on the Record Date, may vote at the 2008 Annual Meeting for the election of three Class A directors to the Company's board of directors.

The Articles of Incorporation provide for Class A stockholders voting separately as a class to elect 30% of the Company's board of directors (or the nearest whole number if such percentage is not a whole number) and for the holders of the Class B Stock voting separately as a class to elect the balance of the Company's board of directors. Accordingly, of the nine directors to be elected at the 2008 Annual Meeting, three will be Class A directors to be elected by the Class A stockholders voting separately as a class, and six will be Class B directors to be elected by the Class B stockholders voting separately as a class. According to the Articles of Incorporation, the Class B stockholders have the sole right to vote on all other matters submitted for a vote of stockholders, except as required by law and except with respect to limited matters specifically set forth in the Articles of Incorporation.

How many shares are outstanding?

According to the Company's annual report filed on Form 10-K for the year ended December 30, 2007 with the Securities and Exchange Commission as of February 3, 2008, Company shares outstanding consisted of 22,301,600 shares of Class A Stock with one vote per share and 555,992 shares of Class B Stock with one vote per share.

For the number of shares of Class A Stock and Class B Stock issued and outstanding as of the Record Date and entitled to vote at the 2008 Annual Meeting, please see the Company's definitive proxy statement when filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Who may attend the 2008 Annual Meeting?

All stockholders as of the Record Date may attend the 2008 Annual Meeting. According to the Media General preliminary proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchanges Commission on February 26, 2008 ("Media General Proxy Statement"), stockholders will be admitted to the 2008 Annual Meeting beginning at 11:00 a.m., Eastern Time on Thursday, April 24, 2008. Stockholders will need to present proof of ownership of Media General stock, such as a bank or brokerage account statement, and a form of personal identification to be admitted to the 2008 Annual Meeting.

How do I Vote?

You can vote in person at the meeting or you can vote by proxy, by telephone, on the Internet or by mail as described below. We recommend that you vote by proxy, even if you plan to attend the 2008 Annual Meeting. Your vote is critical to establish a quorum for the meeting. You can change your vote prior to or, if you are a record holder or have a "legal proxy," by voting in person at the 2008 Annual Meeting.

How do proxies work?

Harbinger is asking you to appoint Joseph Cleverdon and John McCullough as your proxy holders to vote your shares of Class A Stock at the 2008 Annual Meeting. You make this appointment by voting the enclosed GREEN proxy card or by using one of the voting methods described below. Giving us your proxy means you authorize the proxy holders to vote your shares at the 2008 Annual Meeting, according to the directions you provide. You may vote for all, some, or none of our director candidates.

Unless you indicate otherwise on the GREEN proxy card or through the telephone or Internet voting procedures, you also authorize your proxy holders to vote your shares of Class A Stock in their discretion on any matters not known by Harbinger at the time this Proxy Statement was printed and that, under the Company's By-Laws, may be properly presented for action by the Class A stockholders at the 2008 Annual Meeting.

What votes are required?

Proposal 1—Election of the Harbinger Nominees to the Company's Board of Directors

The Articles of Incorporation provide for Class A stockholders voting separately as a class to elect 30% of the Company's board of directors (or the nearest whole number if such percentage is not a whole number) and for the Class B stockholders voting separately as a class to elect the balance of the Company's board of directors. Accordingly, of the nine directors to be elected at the 2008 Annual Meeting, three will be Class A directors to be elected by the Class A stockholders voting separately as a class, and six will be Class B directors to be elected by the Class B stockholders voting separately as a class. The By-laws provide that in the election of each class of directors, those receiving the greatest number of votes of each class of stockholders entitled to vote for such directors shall be elected. If you do not wish your shares to be voted for a particular nominee on the enclosed GREEN proxy card, you may withhold your vote as provided on the proxy form or withhold authority as prompted during the telephone or Internet voting instructions. Harbinger recommends that you vote "FOR" the election of each of the Harbinger Nominees for Class A director.

If I vote using the GREEN proxy card, will I have the opportunity to vote for the remaining Class B directors seats on the Company's board of directors?

The GREEN proxy card will not authorize the proxy holders to vote for any nominees to the Company's board of directors other than the Harbinger Nominees. However, if you own Class B stock and you chose to attend the 2008 Annual Meeting and vote in person, you may vote for the three Harbinger Nominees as well as for any Class B director nominees to fill the remaining board seats to be elected by the Class B stockholders.

If the three Harbinger Nominees are elected as Class A directors, who will fill the remaining Class B directors seats on the Company's board of directors?

If the three Harbinger Nominees are elected by the Class A stockholders, the remaining seats will be filled by the Company's nominees for the Class B board seats who receive the greatest number of votes from the Class B stockholders. There can be no assurance that, if elected, such other individuals would agree to remain on the Company's board of directors. If that were to occur, the resulting board of directors would have the option of either filling the remaining seats with individuals selected by the board or to reduce the size of the board to eliminate the vacant seats. Any such reduction in the number of Class B directors could reduce the number of Class A directors up for election at the 2009 Annual Meeting of stockholders.

What is a "quorum" and why is it necessary?

According to the Company's By-laws, a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at the 2008 Annual Meeting; provided, that when any specified action is required to be voted upon by a class of stock voting as a class, holders of a majority of the shares of such class shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of such specified action. If a quorum is present, action on a matter is approved if the votes cast in favor of the action exceeds the votes cast opposing the action, except when a larger vote or a vote by class is required by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia and except that in elections of the Company's directors those receiving the greatest number of votes shall be deemed elected even though not receiving a majority.

The presence at the 2008 Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of Class A Stock issued and outstanding on the Record Date will constitute a quorum, permitting the meeting to conduct the business of the Class A stockholders. The presence at the 2008 Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of Class B Stock issued and outstanding on the Record Date will constitute a quorum, permitting the meeting to conduct the business of the Class B stockholders.

What happens if I abstain from voting?

If you give instructions to abstain from voting, your shares will not be voted on any matter. Abstentions and non-votes by brokers, banks and other nominee holders of record will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on Proposal 1 above.

What happens if I fail to instruct my broker?

If you hold your shares in street name through a broker, bank or other custodian, only it can vote your shares, and only upon your specific instruction. Because this is a "contested" meeting, if you fail to instruct your broker on how to vote your shares, your broker will not be able to vote your shares and those shares will have no effect on the outcome of the vote.

How do I vote my shares?

If your shares are held in your name, you can vote by proxy as follows:

- By telephone: Use the toll-free number listed on the GREEN proxy card. Easy-to-follow voice prompts allow you to vote your shares and confirm that your instructions have been properly received.
- By Internet: The website for Internet voting is listed on the GREEN proxy card. Internet voting allows you to confirm that your instructions have been followed.
- By mail: Sign, date and return your GREEN proxy card in the enclosed pre-addressed, postage-paid envelope.

The telephone and Internet voting procedures use a control number that appears on your GREEN proxy card to authenticate you as a stockholder of record and to allow you to confirm that your voting instructions have been correctly recorded. If you vote by Internet or telephone, you do not need to return the GREEN proxy card.

Your proxy voting instructions, whether by Internet, telephone or mail, cover all shares of Class A Stock registered in your name.

How do I vote shares I hold through a nominee?

If you hold shares through someone else, such as a stockbroker, bank or nominee, you will receive voting material from that firm. You can complete the firm's GREEN voting form and return it as requested by the firm. If the firm offers Internet or telephone voting, the voting form will contain instructions on how to access those voting methods.

If you hold your shares in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you will not be able to vote in person at the 2008 Annual Meeting unless you have previously requested and obtained a "legal proxy" from your broker, bank or other nominee and present it at the 2008 Annual Meeting.

What happens if I return a signed proxy without voting instructions?

If you do return a signed GREEN proxy card without providing voting instructions, your shares of Class A Stock will be voted: (1) "FOR" the election of the Harbinger Nominees, and (2) to grant discretionary authority to the proxy holders to vote on matters as may properly come before the 2008 Annual Meeting for approval by the Class A stockholders.

How do I revoke a proxy?

You may revoke your proxy before it is voted at the meeting by:

- submitting a revocation letter with a later date than your proxy card;
- delivering a second signed proxy card dated later than the first signed proxy card;
- voting at a later time by telephone or the Internet; or
- attending the 2008 Annual Meeting and voting in person.

If you are a street name stockholder, and you vote by proxy, you may later revoke your proxy instructions by informing the holder of record in accordance with that holder's procedures.

What do I do if I receive a white proxy card from the Company?

Proxies on the white proxy card are being solicited by the Company's board of directors. If you submit a proxy to us by signing and returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card, do not sign or return the white proxy card for Class A stockholders or follow any voting instructions provided by the Company's board of directors unless you intend to change your vote, because only your latest-dated proxy will be counted at the 2008 Annual Meeting.

If you have already sent a white proxy card to the Company for the matters to be voted on by the Class A stockholders, you may revoke it and vote "FOR" Harbinger' proposals described in this proxy statement by signing, dating and returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card or by voting by telephone or the Internet as described on the GREEN proxy card.

Should I submit a proxy if I plan to attend the 2008 Annual Meeting?

Whether you plan to attend the 2008 Annual Meeting or not, we urge you to sign, date and return a GREEN proxy card or vote by telephone or the Internet as described on the GREEN proxy card. Returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card by mail or by telephone or the Internet will not affect your right to attend the 2008 Annual Meeting and vote in person.

Will any other matters be considered at the 2008 Annual Meeting?

Harbinger does not know of any other matter that will be presented for consideration by the Class A stockholders at the Annual Meeting. If any other matter does properly come before the Annual Meeting for approval by the Class A stockholders, and you provide discretionary authority, your proxy holders will vote in their discretion on such matter.

Who can help answer my questions?

BACKGROUND TO THE SOLICITATION

Harbinger has been an investor in the Company since June 15, 2007 and is the beneficial owner of an aggregate of 4,058,454 shares of Class A Stock, representing approximately 18.2% of the issued and outstanding shares of Class A Stock as of February 3, 2008 (based on the information disclosed in the Company's annual report filed on Form 10-K for the year ended December 30, 2007 with the Securities and Exchange Commission). Harbinger constitutes the Company's second largest Class A stockholder.

Harbinger initially acquired its shares of Class A Stock because it believed that the shares represented an attractive investment. Harbinger and the other Harbinger Persons initially reported their investment on a Schedule 13G on July 2, 2007. The Harbinger Persons continued to examine the financial and operating performance of the Company and on December 17, 2007, the Harbinger Persons filed a Schedule 13D with respect to their investment in the shares of Class A Stock. In the Schedule 13D, the Harbinger Persons reported that in the course of evaluating their investment in the Company, the Harbinger Persons determined it prudent to file the Schedule 13D to reserve the right to be in contact with members of the Company's management, the members of the Company's board, other significant stockholders and others regarding alternatives that the Company could employ to maximize stockholder value, and to nominate candidates for election to the Company's board. The Harbinger Persons also reserved the right to act in concert with any other stockholder of the Company, or other persons, for a common purpose should they determine to do so, and/or to recommend courses of action to the Company's management, board and stockholders.

Subsequent to the filing of the Schedule 13D, Harbinger determined that nominating the Harbinger Nominees as Class A directors for election to the Company's board of directors represented the most appropriate course of action to enhance stockholder value at this time. On January 24, 2008, Harbinger delivered a formal notice of nomination for the 2008 Annual Meeting nominating Eugene I. Davis, F. Jack Liebau, Jr. and J. Daniel Sullivan for election to the Company's board of directors as Class A directors to replace the existing Class A directors whose terms expire at the 2008 Annual Meeting. The Harbinger Persons believe the time is appropriate to enhance the Company's corporate governance and re-examine and adjust its strategic direction in order to (i) more directly address the challenges faced by the Company, (ii) sustain and improve its long term profitability, (iii) optimize the Company's capital allocation and (iv) bring increased focus on maximizing stockholder value to the Company's decision making.

On January 25, 2008, the Company issued a press release stating that Harbinger's notice of nomination would be forwarded to the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Company's board of directors for review. The Company's press release further advised that the Company expects each of the current directors elected by the Class A stockholders to stand for re-election at the 2008 Annual Meeting, and Marshall N. Morton, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, urged Harbinger to reconsider and abandon their "ill-advised, hostile, and thoroughly unwarranted course of action."

On January 30, 2008, Philip A. Falcone, portfolio manager of Harbinger, sent the following letter to Mr. Morton, with a copy to the Company's board of directors, responding to the Company's January 25, 2008 press release:

January 30, 2008

Mr. Marshall N. Morton

President and Chief Executive Officer

Media General Inc.

333 E. Franklin Street

Richmond, VA 23219

Dear Mr. Morton:

We were disappointed by the tone of the Company's public press release in response to our notice of January 24 nominating three individuals for election to the board. Our action was neither "hostile" nor "ill-advised." We made no public press release, and we filed our notice in a manner consistent with the Company's bylaws and as is our right as a responsible shareholder. We should point out that we have no interest in altering the company's dual class share structure. Furthermore, you should know that we have a history of providing long-term support to companies that face serious challenges or are out of favor in the investing community, such as is currently the case with Media General. In this case, we seek to add value by nominating candidates who will bring fresh ideas and valuable perspective to the Company's board.

We were also surprised that you were "puzzled" by our notice and found it "thoroughly unwarranted." As you know, we currently hold 18.4% of the Company's Class A shares, making us the Company's second largest shareholder. We also note that since we first invested in Media General, the Company's stock has declined 39%. Since its peak, the Company's stock is down 72% and has been on a declining trend for four years. On the basis of this performance, as we mentioned in our notice, we believe the time is appropriate to enhance the Company's corporate governance and re-examine and adjust its strategic direction in order to (i) more directly address the challenges faced by the Company, (ii) sustain and improve its long term profitability, (iii) optimize the Company's capital allocation and (iv) bring increased focus on maximizing stockholder value to the Company's decision making.

Accordingly, we identified three very highly qualified individuals for nomination who have deep experience in and perspective on both broadcasting and publishing, a strong commitment to good governance, and a track record of advocating for, preserving and creating value for all shareholders. We hope the nominating and governance committee will give our nominees serious and fair consideration.

Media General possesses a terrific collection of assets, and we believe that with the right strategy the Company's shareholders will ultimately enjoy the benefits of ownership. We would welcome dialogue and/or a meeting with you at the earliest opportunity, and we look forward to working together to build shareholder value at Media General.

Very truly yours,

cc: Media General Board of Directors

Each of the Harbinger Nominees is committed to acting in the best interest of the Company's stockholders and has consented to being named in this proxy statement and, if elected, to serve as a director on the Company's board of directors. Harbinger expects that each of the Harbinger Nominees, if elected, would, subject to his fiduciary duties to all of the Company's stockholders, bring greater accountability and discipline to the management of the Company and bring more effective oversight of the Company's strategy. Each of the Harbinger Nominees has broad, relevant industry and/or financial expertise, and a vote in favor of each of the Harbinger Nominees will enable the stockholders of Media General to send a clear and strong message to the Company's board of directors that you agree with Harbinger's belief that change is necessary and with Harbinger's objective of implementing more effective board oversight and re-examining and re-focusing the Company's operations and strategic direction in an effort to sustain and maximize stockholder value.

Harbinger believes that it is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders for the Harbinger Nominees to be elected to the Company's board of directors. The reasons supporting this belief include the following:

- Harbinger believes that the Company has lost strategic, operational and geographic focus in recent years and has demonstrated lack of judgment in its capital allocation and growth strategy decisions. For example, Harbinger believes the Company overpaid in its acquisition of four NBC affiliate stations in 2006 by buying the stations at a multiple of 2004-2005 combined average broadcast cash flow that has caused the transaction to be dilutive to Company earnings. The Company simultaneously lost geographic focus in the transaction by acquiring stations located outside its core Southeastern US market. The Company's 2003 and 2004 investments in NTN Buzztime Inc., a publicly traded interactive entertainment company, have lost approximately 67% of their market value to date. Furthermore, Harbinger believes that the Company's recently acquired online advergaming and online social shopping portal ventures have diverted management's attention away from the Company's core businesses at a time when management's online strategy should instead serve to directly magnify the value, content and reach of its core television and newspaper properties and produce meaningful incremental cash flows.
- Fundamentally, Harbinger believes that these problems have stemmed from a lack of board independence and outside media expertise, as well as a misplaced focus on boosting top line revenue and investing in non-core ventures rather than on earnings accretion and return on capital. Based on the Company's public disclosures, none of the Company's incumbent Class A directors possess substantial media-related business experience apart from their positions as insiders on the Company's board. Furthermore, in its public statements and conference calls, the Company very rarely mentions earnings per share as a measure of the Company's performance and apparently has never addressed return on capital or any similar metric which relates directly to shareholder value, choosing instead to focus on size metrics and increases in the number and complexity of the Company's business lines.
- For these reasons, Harbinger has assembled a slate of three highly qualified individuals who, we believe, have strong financial credentials and substantial prior media industry experience – as operators, investors and/or board members – and who bring deep expertise and perspective on both broadcasting and newspapers from outside the Company. Harbinger believes the election of the Harbinger Nominees to the Company's board of directors is the most effective way to increase the board's independence and oversight, bring fresh ideas and valuable perspective to board deliberations and increase the Company's focus on maximizing shareholder value going forward. If elected, Harbinger believes that the Harbinger Nominees would seek to work constructively with the other members of the board to provide guidance and oversight to management and help the Company address more directly and effectively the challenges it faces.

The Harbinger Nominees will, if elected, constitute a minority of the Company's board of directors at the time of election. Accordingly, the Harbinger Nominees, even if they act together, will not be able to adopt any measures proposed by any particular stockholder, including Harbinger, without the support of at least some incumbent members of the current board of directors. The Harbinger Nominees should be expected to address their concerns about the Company's business activities with all of the members of the Company's board of directors. Harbinger may, depending on future events, seek to nominate additional directors to the Company's board of directors in the future.

PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF THE HARBINGER NOMINEES AS CLASS A DIRECTORS TO

THE COMPANY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Harbinger proposes that the Class A stockholders elect Eugene I. Davis, F. Jack Liebau, Jr. and J. Daniel Sullivan as the Class A directors of the Company at the 2008 Annual Meeting. Each of the Harbinger Nominees, if elected, would hold office for a term ending at the annual meeting (or special meeting in lieu thereof) of stockholders for the year 2009 or until a successor has been duly elected and qualified.

Harbinger is soliciting proxies of Class A stockholders pursuant to this proxy statement to elect the Harbinger Nominees as Class A directors and to vote on the other matters set forth herein. Harbinger is not soliciting proxies of Class B stockholders with respect to any of the matters which the Class B stockholders are entitled to vote on at the 2008 Annual Meeting. The Articles of Incorporation provide for Class A stockholders voting separately as a class to elect 30% of the Company's board of directors (or the nearest whole number if such percentage is not a whole number) and for the holders of the Class B Stock voting separately as a class to elect the balance of the Company's board of directors. Accordingly, of the nine directors to be elected at the 2008 Annual Meeting, three will be Class A directors to be elected by the Class A stockholders voting separately as a class, and six will be Class B directors to be elected by the Class B stockholders voting separately as a class. According to the Articles of Incorporation, the Class B stockholders have the sole right to vote on all other matters submitted for a vote of stockholders, except as required by law and except with respect to limited matters specifically set forth in the Articles of Incorporation. If the Harbinger Nominees are elected at the 2008 Annual Meeting by the Class A stockholders, the remaining seats will be filled by the Company's Class B nominees who receive the greatest number of votes from the Class B stockholders.

OTHER INFORMATION ABOUT THE HARBINGER NOMINEES AND HARBINGER

The Harbinger Nominees stand committed to pursuing and implementing strategies for enhancing stockholder value. However, there can be no assurance that the actions the Harbinger Nominees intend to take will be implemented if they are elected or that the election of the Harbinger Nominees will improve the Company's business or prospects or otherwise enhance stockholder value. Your vote to elect the Harbinger Nominees does not constitute a vote in favor of any value-enhancing plans of Harbinger for the Company. Neither Harbinger nor, to the knowledge of Harbinger, any other person on behalf of Harbinger has made or undertaken any analysis or reports as to whether stockholder value will be maximized as a result of the solicitation described in this proxy statement or obtained reports from consultants or other outside parties as to whether the proposals presented herein would have an effect on stockholder value. There can be no assurance that stockholder value will be maximized as a result of this solicitation or the election of the Harbinger Nominees.

According to the Media General Proxy Statement, under the Company's directors' compensation program, the Company's outside directors receive an annual retainer of $116,000 for all scheduled board meetings and two scheduled committee meetings. An additional $1,750 is paid for each unscheduled board meeting and each committee meeting attended by an outside director beyond the two included in the retainer. Pursuant to the Company's Director's Deferred Compensation Plan, each outside director receives 50% of his or her annual compensation, including any additional meeting fees, in deferred Class A Stock units and may elect to receive the other half of his or her annual compensation either fully in cash, fully in deferred stock units, or split evenly in cash and deferred stock units. Annual deferral elections must be made prior to the calendar year in which the retainer and additional meeting fees will be earned. The retainer and additional meeting fees are paid quarterly by the Company. Outside directors are reimbursed for actual expenses incurred for attending meetings.

The number of Class A Stock units is determined quarterly, based on the average of the closing trading prices for the last ten trading days of the preceding calendar quarter. Participant accounts are credited quarterly with amounts that are equivalent to dividends earned on Class A Stock.

Upon election to the Company's board of directors, the board member selects the method of account settlement. Upon termination from the Company's board of directors for any reason, the board member or beneficiary will be paid by one of the following methods: lump sum cash or common stock payment, lump sum cash or common stock payment (deferred for one year), annual cash or common stock payments ranging from two to ten years. If no election is made, the director will receive a single common stock distribution as of the date of retirement.

In 2005, to further align the interests of directors and stockholders, the Company's board of directors adopted a share ownership guideline of 5,300 shares of Class A Stock, including deferred Class A Stock units. The Company's board of directors recommended that this ownership guideline be attained within five years of a director's election to the Company's board of directors.

The Company has purchased directors' and officers' liability insurance policies for the directors of the Company. Within the limits of their coverage, the policies insure (1) the directors and officers of the Company against certain losses resulting from claims against them in their capacities as directors and officers to the extent that such losses are not indemnified by the Company, and (2) the Company to the extent that it indemnifies such directors and officers for such losses as permitted under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. The Company also provides directors with Company-provided indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by law and the Company's Articles of Incorporation and By-laws. Harbinger expects that the Harbinger Nominees, if elected, will be indemnified for service as directors of the Company to the same extent indemnification is provided to the current directors of the Company under the Company's Articles of Incorporation and By-laws. Harbinger also believes that upon election, the Harbinger Nominees will be covered by the Company's directors' and officers' liability insurance.

Harbinger and other participants hereto derived the foregoing information from the Company's public filings and are not responsible for the accuracy or completeness of such public filings.

The Harbinger Nominees will not receive any compensation from Harbinger to serve as nominees for election or as a director, if elected, of the Company. Harbinger has agreed to indemnify the Harbinger Nominees against losses incurred in connection with their service as nominees for election as directors of the Company and in connection with the solicitation of proxies in respect thereof, to the extent that indemnification is not otherwise available, including from the Company. Harbinger has also agreed to reimburse the Harbinger Nominees for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in their capacity as nominees, including, without limitation, reimbursement for reasonable travel expenses. Each Harbinger Nominee has executed a written consent agreeing to be a nominee for election as a Class A director of the Company, to be named as such in this proxy statement and to serve as a director if so elected.

Other than as set forth herein (including in Annex A hereto), none of Harbinger, the Harbinger Nominees, or any of their respective associates, has any arrangements or understandings with any person or persons with respect to any future employment by the Company or its affiliates or with respect to any future transactions to which the Company or any of its affiliates will or may be a party.

Other than as described herein (including in Annex A hereto), there are no arrangements or understandings between the Harbinger Nominees and any other party pursuant to which any such nominee was or is to be selected as a director or nominee.

Neither the Harbinger Nominees nor any of their associates has received any cash compensation, cash bonuses, deferred compensation, compensation pursuant to plans, or other compensation, from, or in respect of, services rendered on behalf of the Company.

During the last five years, and except as otherwise described herein or as would not be material to an evaluation of the ability or integrity of any such nominee to become a director of the Company:

- (1) no petition under the Federal bankruptcy laws or any State insolvency law has been filed by or against, and no receiver, fiscal agent or similar officer has been appointed by a court for the business or property of, any Harbinger Nominee, or any partnership in which any Harbinger Nominee was a general partner at or within two years before the time of such filing, or any corporation or business association of which he was an executive officer at or within two years before the time of such filing, except on February 8, 2005, High Voltage Engineering Corporation filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in the United States Bankruptcy Court in Boston (Case No. 05-10787) and Mr. Davis was the Chairman of the Board of Directors of High Voltage Engineering Corporation at the time of such filing and Mr. Davis remained on the High Voltage Engineering Corporation Board until the appointment of the Chapter 11 trustee on or about February 17, 2005.
- (2) no Harbinger Nominee has been convicted in a criminal proceeding or is a named subject of a pending criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations and other minor offenses);
- (3) no Harbinger Nominee has been the subject of any order, judgment or decree, not subsequently reversed, suspended or vacated, of any court of competent jurisdiction, permanently or temporarily enjoining such person from, or otherwise limiting, the following activities:
 - (i) acting as a futures commission merchant, introducing broker, commodity trading advisor, commodity pool operator, floor broker, leverage transaction merchant, any other person regulated by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, or an associated person of any of the foregoing, or as an investment advisor, underwriter, broker or dealer in securities, or as an affiliated person, director or employee of any investment company, bank, savings and loan association or insurance company, or engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with such activity;
 - (ii) engaging in any type of business practice; or

- (iii) engaging in any activity in connection with the purchase or sale of any security or commodity or in connection with any violation of Federal or State securities laws or Federal commodities laws;
- (4) no Harbinger Nominee has been the subject of any order, judgment or decree, not subsequently reversed, suspended or vacated, of any Federal or State authority barring, suspending or otherwise limiting for more than 60 days the right of such person to engage in any activity described in paragraph (3)(i) above, or to be associated with persons engaged in any such activity;
- (5) no Harbinger Nominee has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction in a civil action or by the Securities and Exchange Commission to have violated any Federal or State securities law, where the judgment in such civil action or finding by the Securities and Exchange Commission has not been subsequently reversed, suspended or vacated; and
- (6) no Harbinger Nominee has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction in a civil action or by the Commodities Futures Trading Commission to have violated any Federal commodities law, where the judgment in such civil action or finding by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission has not been subsequently reversed, suspended or vacated.

None of the Harbinger Nominees is a current or former officer of the Company and none of the Harbinger Nominees was an employee of the Company during fiscal year 2007. During fiscal year 2007, no executive officer of the Company served as a member of the compensation committee (or other board committee performing equivalent functions or, in the absence of any such committee, the entire board of directors) of another entity of which any Harbinger Nominee was an executive officer.

The corporate governance guidelines of the Company, which are available on the Company's website at www.mediageneral.com, provide that determinations of independence are the responsibility of the Company's board of directors. However, based on the standards of independence set forth in such guidelines, Harbinger has no knowledge of any facts that would prevent the Company's board of directors from determining that each of the Harbinger Nominees is independent.

Harbinger does not expect that any of the Harbinger Nominees will be unable to stand for election, but, in the event that such persons are unable to serve or for good cause will not serve, the shares represented by the enclosed GREEN proxy card will be voted for substitute nominees. In addition, Harbinger reserves the right to nominate substitute persons if the Company makes or announces any changes to its By-laws or takes or announces any other action that has, or if consummated would have, the effect of disqualifying any of the Harbinger Nominees. In any such case, shares of Class A Stock represented by the enclosed GREEN proxy card will be voted for such substitute nominees. Harbinger reserves the right to nominate additional persons if the Company increases the size of the Company's board of directors above its existing size. Additional nominations made pursuant to the preceding sentence are without prejudice to the position of Harbinger that any attempt to increase the size of the Company's board of directors or disqualify any of the Harbinger Nominees through By-law amendments or otherwise constitutes unlawful manipulation of the Company's corporate machinery.

Harbinger urges you to vote "FOR" the election of each of the Harbinger Nominees.

OTHER MATTERS

Except for the matters discussed above, the participants in the solicitation of proxies described in this proxy statement know of no other matters to be presented for approval by Class A stockholders at the 2008 Annual Meeting. If any other matters should properly come before the 2008 Annual Meeting for approval by Class A stockholders and you grant discretionary authority, it is intended that the persons named on the enclosed GREEN proxy card will vote those proxies on such other matters in accordance with such persons' sole discretion.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

In connection with the solicitation of proxies of Class A stockholders by Harbinger and certain of its affiliates and associates for use at the 2008 Annual Meeting, proxies may be solicited by mail, facsimile, telephone, telegraph, electronic mail, in person and by advertisements. The Harbinger Nominees may make solicitations of proxies but will not receive compensation for acting as nominees. Solicitations may be made by certain directors, officers, members and employees of Harbinger, none of whom will receive additional compensation for such solicitation.

None of the Harbinger Nominees has individually retained any person to provide proxy solicitation or advisory services in connection with the solicitation. Harbinger has retained Innisfree M&A Incorporated for solicitation and advisory services in connection with the solicitation, for which Innisfree is to receive a fee of up to $125,000. In addition, Innisfree will be reimbursed for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, and will be indemnified against certain liabilities and expenses. Innisfree will solicit proxies from individuals, brokers, banks, bank nominees and other institutional holders. Harbinger will request banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward all solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of the shares of the Class A Stock they hold of record. Harbinger will reimburse these record holders for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in so doing. It is anticipated that Innisfree will employ approximately 25 persons to solicit the Company's stockholders for the 2008 Annual Meeting.

The entire expense of soliciting proxies is being borne by Harbinger. Harbinger intends to seek reimbursement of the costs of this solicitation from the Company and does not expect to submit such reimbursement to a vote of Company's stockholders. The costs of this solicitation of proxies, and other costs specifically related to this solicitation, are currently estimated to be approximately $600,000. Harbinger estimates that through the date hereof, its total expenditures to date for, in furtherance of, or in connection with, this solicitation are approximately $[].
