Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Operations

(a) Organization and Basis of Presentation

Intrepid Capital Corporation (the Company), incorporated in 1998, is a Florida-based financial services holding company that conducts its business through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Intrepid Capital Management, Inc. (ICM).

ICM, a registered investment advisor, manages equity, fixed-income, and balanced portfolios for public and private companies, labor unions, endowments, foundations, and high net worth individuals and families. ICM has received authority to act as an investment manager in several states to meet the needs of its customers throughout the United States.

In a transaction effective December 31, 2001, the Company acquired all of the outstanding stock of ICC Investment Advisors, Inc., the operations of which were conducted through its wholly-owned subsidiary, The Investment Counsel Company (ICC). Subsequent to the acquisition, ICC was merged with and into ICM.

During the first quarter of 2003, the Company decided to pursue the divestiture of Ewing, which formerly constituted a separate operating segment, the investment banking segment, and accordingly, the Company has reported its operations as discontinued for all periods presented. On May 2, 2003, the Company entered into a stock purchase agreement whereby the Company has agreed to sell all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Ewing.

In a transaction effective October 30, 2001, the Company discontinued its resinous material operations formerly conducted through Enviroq Corporation (Enviroq) by selling all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Sprayroq, Inc. (Sprayroq), Enviroq's 50% owned subsidiary. Enviroq remains a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company to hold the promissory notes received in connection with the sale, but conducts no operations currently, as its operations consisted solely of its investment in Sprayroq.

The interim financial information included herein is unaudited. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in the financial statements have been condensed or omitted pursuant to the rules and regulations of the SEC. The Company believes that the disclosures made herein are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and related notes contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB filed with the SEC on March 31, 2003. Except as indicated herein, there have been no significant changes from the financial data published in the Company's Annual Report. In the opinion of management, such unaudited information reflects all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring accruals, necessary for fair presentation of the unaudited information. The results of operations for the three month period ended March 31, 2003 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

March 31, 2003

(b) Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries, ICM and Enviroq. Also included are the accounts of Ewing which have been reported as discontinued operations (see note 2). Results of operations of acquired companies are included from the date of acquisition forward in accordance with purchase accounting. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

(c) Earnings Per Share

Net income per share of common stock is computed based upon the weighted average number of common shares and share equivalents outstanding during the period. Stock warrants and convertible instruments, when dilutive, are included as share equivalents. Diluted earnings per share for the three month period ended March 31, 2002 assumes dilutive warrants and convertible instruments to purchase shares of common stock had been exercised using the treasury stock method.

(e) Comprehensive Income

No differences between total comprehensive income (loss) and net income (loss) existed in the financial statements reported for the three month periods ended March 31, 2003 and 2002.

(f) Stock Option Plan

The Company applies the intrinsic value-based method of accounting prescribed by Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees (APB 25) in accounting for its stock options. As such, compensation expense would be recorded on the date of grant only if the current market price of the underlying stock exceeded the exercise price. As allowed by Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (FAS 123) and Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure (FAS 148), the Company has elected to apply the intrinsic value-based method of accounting described above, and has adopted the disclosure requirements of FAS 123 and FAS 148.

On January 21, 2003, stock options to purchase 32,500 shares were issued under the Company's Non Employee Directors Incentive Stock Option Plan. The options have a weighted average exercise price of $2.17 and a term of five years. Additionally, on January 21, 2003, non qualified stock options to purchase 240,000 shares were issued and have a weighted average exercise price of $2.04 and a term of five years.

Table of ContentsINTREPID CAPITAL CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

March 31, 2003

The per share weighted-average fair value of Non Employee Directors Incentive Stock Options and non qualified stock options granted on January 21, 2003 were $0.36 and $0.39, respectively, using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions: expected dividend yield 0%, risk free interest rate of 4%, expected volatility 50%, and an expected life of 5 years.

As permitted under FAS 148 and FAS 123, the Company has elected to continue to apply the provisions of APB 25 and provide the pro forma disclosures required by FAS 148 and FAS 123. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized for its stock options in the consolidated financial statements. Had the Company determined compensation cost based on the fair value at the date of grant for its stock options under SFAS 123, the Company's net income (loss) for the three months ended March 31 would have been reduced to the pro forma amounts indicated below:

	2003	2002
Reported net income (loss) available to common stockholders	$ (604,990)	917,260
Deduct total stock-based compensation expense determined under fair value based methods for all awards, net of related tax effects	(70,210)	—
Net income (loss) available to common stockholders pro forma	$ (675,200)	917,260

Reported net income (loss) per share	$ (0.18)	0.20
Pro forma diluted net income (loss) per share	$ (0.20)	0.20

(2) Discontinued Operations

During the first quarter of 2003, the Company decided to pursue the divestiture of Ewing, which formerly constituted a separate operating segment, the investment banking segment, and accordingly, the Company has reported its operations as discontinued for all periods presented. On May 2, 2003, the Company entered into a stock purchase agreement whereby the Company has agreed to sell all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Ewing.

The sale of Ewing is expected to be completed on or before May 31, 2003, and the Company expects to receive on that date its purchase price of cash in the amount of $300,000. A gain on sale of discontinued operations is expected and will be recognized when realized.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

March 31, 2003

Ewing's assets and liabilities as of March 31, 2003 and 2002 consisted of the following:

	2003	2002
Assets:
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 196,393	305,613
Accounts receivable	47,712	7,329

Other	33,603	32,686
	$ 47,112	89,786

Income from discontinued operations for the three months ended March 31, 2002 includes revenues of approximately $3.0 million earned under a single contract with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and expenses incurred of approximately $1.6 million. The contract, which was nonrecurring, began in January 2002 and ended in June 2002.

(3) Related Party Transactions

The Company performs certain investment management functions for Intrepid Capital, L.P., and during the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, received $16,824 and $18,075, respectively, for such services.

(4) Segments

During 2003 and 2002, the Company operated in one principal segment, investment management. The operations of Ewing formerly constituted a separate operating segment, the investment banking segment, which have been reclassified as a discontinued operation. The Company assesses and measures operating performance based upon the net income (loss) derived from each of its operating segments, exclusive of the impact of corporate expenses.

The revenues and net loss for each of the reportable segments are summarized as follows for the three month periods ended March 31, 2003 and 2002:

	Three Months Ended March 31
	2003	2002

Table of ContentsINTREPID CAPITAL CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

March 31, 2003

The total assets for each of the reportable segments are summarized as follows as of March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002. Non segment assets consist primarily of cash, certain investments and other assets, which are recorded at the parent company level.

	2003	2002
Assets:
Investment management segment	$4,480,865	4,729,825
Other	849,606	1,150,823
Discontinued operation	330,368	387,289
	$5,660,839	6,267,937

(5) Liquidity

The Company's current assets consist generally of cash, money market funds and taxes receivable. The Company has financed its operations with funds provided by operations, stockholder capital, and proceeds from notes payable. The Company has developed and is implementing a growth strategy plan that includes both internal growth and external growth through acquisitions.

The Company believes the acquisition of ICC and subsequent merger with and into ICM provides the Company a much broader distribution platform for investment management services, branding, and the ability to consolidate back-office investment management functions. The Company is currently seeking additional capital for present working capital and future strategic opportunities through multiple sources. The Company is identifying and assessing potential debt and equity capital sources from banks and private investors and also is assessing and implementing plans to reduce current costs from a strategic perspective. While management believes it will be able to meet its capital needs through several potential alternatives, there can be no assurances that such transactions will take place on terms favorable to the Company, if at all. If adequate funds are not available or terms are not suitable, the Company's growth strategy would be significantly limited and such limitation could have an effect on the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition.

(6) Goodwill and Intangible Assets

Goodwill at March 31, 2003 of $3,564,898 was recorded as a part of the purchase of ICC and, accordingly, allocated to the investment management segment. The Company's goodwill was recorded after the Company's adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets (FAS 142) and is being carried at cost. Management is assessing it periodically in accordance with FAS 142.

The Company has determined that certain identifiable intangible assets exist which are attributable to the estimated fair value of investment management contracts and customer relationships which were acquired through the purchase of ICC and have been allocated to the investment management segment. At March 31, 2003, identifiable intangible assets amounted to $751,415, net of accumulated amortization of $139,809. Amortization expense was $28,408 for the three months ended March 31, 2003.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

As provided by the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, the Company cautions that statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB that are forward-looking statements represent management's belief and assumptions based on currently available information. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as believes, intends, may, should, anticipates, expected, estimated, projected or comparable terminology, or by discussion of strategies or trends. Although the Company believes the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, it cannot give any assurances that these expectations will prove to be correct. Such statements, by their nature, involve substantial risks and uncertainties that could significantly impact expected results, and actual future results could differ materially from those described in such forward-looking statements. While it is not possible to identify all factors, the Company continues to face many risks and uncertainties. Among the factors that could cause actual future results to differ materially are the risks and uncertainties discussed in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB and those described from time to time in the Company's other filings with the SEC and the risk that the underlying assumptions made by management in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB are not, in fact, correct. Should one or more of these risks materialize (or the consequences of such a development worsen), or should the underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially from those forecasted or expected. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The discussion and analysis of the Company's financial condition and results of operations are based on the Company's consolidated financial statements which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The preparation of these financial statements requires us to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. We base these estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that management believes are reasonable under the circumstances; additionally we evaluate these results on an on-going basis. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

The Company has a significant amount of goodwill and identifiable intangible assets recorded on its financial statements. The Company's identifiable intangible assets consist of investment management contracts and customer relationships. Management's allocation of purchase price to these identifiable intangible assets requires estimates about the amount and useful lives of identifiable intangible assets acquired. These estimates require a significant degree of estimates based on management's assumptions regarding future cash flows, account retention, expected profit margins, and applicable discount rates and are subject to uncertainty and may differ significantly from actual results under different assumptions or conditions.

The Company has completed its initial assessment of impairment for goodwill and identifiable intangible assets. Management has assessed the recoverability of the identifiable intangible assets and has determined there to be no impairment based on its estimates and analysis of future cash flows. Management will continue to assess the recoverability whenever events or circumstances indicate they may be impaired and monitor the future results of the investment management segment. In addition, the Company will review goodwill and intangible assets for impairment in accordance with existing accounting pronouncements and has set an annual impairment test date for goodwill of December 31. Such review will involve the Company's determination of reporting unit fair values through estimation of projected cash flows, discount rates, future performance and other variables, which will require a significant amount of judgment by the Company's management.

Discontinued Operations

During the first quarter of 2003, the Company decided to pursue the divesture of Ewing, which formerly constituted a separate operating segment, the investment banking segment, and accordingly, the Company has reported its operations as discontinued for all periods presented. On May 2, 2003, the Company entered into a stock purchase agreement whereby the Company has agreed to sell all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Ewing. Revenues from Ewing were $583,776 and $3,416,429 for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The income from discontinued operations for Ewing was $35,202 and $1,052,765 for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's current assets consist generally of cash, money market funds and taxes receivable. The Company has financed its operations with funds provided by operations, stockholder capital, and proceeds from notes payable. The Company has developed and is implementing a growth strategy plan that includes both internal growth and external growth through acquisitions.

The Company believes the acquisition of ICC and subsequent merger with and into ICM provides the Company a much broader distribution platform for investment management services, branding, and the ability to consolidate back-office investment management functions. The Company is currently seeking additional capital for present working capital and future strategic opportunities through multiple sources. The Company is identifying and assessing potential debt and equity capital sources from banks and private investors and also is assessing and implementing plans to reduce current costs from a strategic perspective. While management believes it will be able to meet its capital needs through several potential alternatives, there can be no assurances that such transactions will take place on terms favorable to the Company, if at all. If adequate funds are not available or terms are not suitable, the Company's growth strategy would be significantly limited and such limitation could have an effect on the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition.

For the three months ended March 31, 2003, the net cash provided by operating activities of $235,884 was primarily attributable to the receipt of a tax refund and an increase in accounts payable and accrued expenses. Net cash used in investing activities of $2,105 was primarily due to the purchase of equipment. Net cash used in financing activities of $234,247 was attributable to principal payments on notes payable and preferred stock dividends paid.

Results of Operations

The Company has invested and plans to continue to focus and invest in the investment management segment. ICM has several portfolio styles, ranked by independent sources such as Effron-PSN, CheckFree Investment Services, Nelson Information and Money Manager Review, in the top percentile of all investment managers for both performance and risk control. The Company is investing in human capital through the retention of portfolio management professionals and investment management sales professionals, and has sales promotion efforts, through advertising and marketing, aimed at branding and broadening ICM's investment management market share and presence.

Although the Company is currently experiencing operational losses and is expected to during part of 2003 as a result of its investments, management projects the investments will justify the current expenses through significant increases in its investment management revenues in 2003.

Three Months Ended March 31, 2003 Compared to the Three Months Ended March 31, 2002

Total revenues were $930,114 for the three months ended March 31, 2003, compared to $847,709 for the three months ended March 31, 2002, representing a 9.7% increase.

Investment management fees increased $76,456, or 9.2%, to $909,935. Investment management fees represent revenue earned by ICM for investment advisory services. The fees earned are generally a function of the overall fee rate charged to each account and the level of Assets Under Management (AUM). Quarterly management fees are billed on the first day of each quarter based on each account value at the market close of the prior quarter. AUM was $469.1 million at December 31, 2002, compared to $458.4 million at December 31, 2001. The increase in investment management fees for the three months ended March 31, 2003 relates primarily to the increase in AUM as a result of the net addition of new clients. AUM was $487.3 million at March 31, 2003, compared to $475.5 million at March 31, 2002.

Other income increased $5,949, or 41.8%, to $20,179. The increase is primarily attributable to the addition of new fee arrangements for investment-related recordkeeping services.

Total expenses were $1,526,556 for the three months ended March 31, 2003, compared to $1,262,440 for the three months ended March 31, 2002, representing a 20.9% increase.

Compensation and benefits increased $97,760, or 13.2%, to $840,039. Compensation and benefits represent fixed salaries, commissions, temporary staffing costs, and other related employee benefits. The increase is primarily attributable to compensation and benefits associated with the hiring of several ICM sales professionals during the second and third quarters of 2002.

Advertising and marketing expenses increased $147,961, or 158.8%, to $241,117. The increase is primarily attributable to increased travel and entertainment expenses associated with additional sales professionals and an increase in ICM s advertising and marketing expenses aimed to attract prospective clients and to inform them of ICM s top-tier investment performance.

Professional and regulatory expenses increased $77,145, or 75.0%, to $179,990. The increase is primarily attributable to an increase in information technology and investment research services.

Occupancy and maintenance expenses decreased $19,177, or 18.0%, to $87,319. The decrease is primarily attributable to reduced occupancy costs as a result of the integration of the ICM and ICC operations in the Jacksonville Beach, Florida office during the first quarter of 2002.

Interest expense decreased $39,354, or 76.7%, to $11,941. The decrease is primarily attributable to interest on the AJG note prior to its conversion into shares of the Company s Class A Cumulative Convertible Pay-In-Kind Preferred Stock during the first quarter of 2002.

Other expenses decreased $8,098, or 6.9%, to $108,684. The decrease is primarily attributable to reduced costs as a result of the integration of the ICM and ICC operations in the Jacksonville Beach, Florida office during the first quarter of 2002.
