Proxy Statement

GENERAL INFORMATION

We are furnishing this Proxy Statement in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Rand Capital Corporation for the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on April 28, 2008. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on March 14, 2008, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, and at any adjournment thereof. On that date Rand had outstanding 5,718,934 Common Shares, par value $.10 per share (shares).

Each share entitles the holder to one vote. Shares cannot be voted at the meeting unless the shareholder is present or represented by proxy. If the enclosed form of proxy is returned properly executed, the shares represented thereby will be voted at the meeting in accordance with the instructions contained in the proxy, unless the proxy is revoked prior to its exercise. Any shareholder may revoke a proxy by executing a subsequently dated proxy or a notice of revocation, provided that the subsequent proxy or notice is delivered to us prior to the taking of a vote, or by voting in person at the meeting.

Under the New York Business Corporation Law (the BCL) and our by-laws, the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding stock is necessary to constitute a quorum of the shareholders to take action at the annual meeting. The shares that are present at the meeting or represented by a proxy will be counted for quorum purposes. Proxies submitted with abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted in determining whether or not a quorum is present. Under the BCL and our by-laws, once a quorum is established, Directors standing for election may be elected by a plurality of the votes cast.

This Proxy Statement and accompanying form of proxy are being mailed to shareholders on or about April 3, 2008. A copy of Rand s 2007 Annual Report, which contains financial statements, accompanies this Proxy Statement.

We will bear the cost of soliciting proxies in the accompanying form. We do not expect to pay any compensation for the solicitation of proxies, but may pay brokers, nominees, fiduciaries and other custodians their reasonable fees and expenses for sending proxy materials to beneficial owners and obtaining their instructions. In addition to solicitation by mail, our Directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies in person or by telephone, and they will receive no additional compensation therefore.

Our office is located at 2200 Rand Building, Buffalo, New York 14203; telephone number 716-853-0802.

1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Seven Directors are to be elected at the meeting, each to serve until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor has been elected and qualified. Unless marked to the contrary, the proxies received will be voted FOR the election of the seven nominees below.

Each of the nominees is presently a member of the Board of Directors and was recommended for election by the Governance and Nominating Committee, which is comprised of non-management, independent Directors. Each of the nominees has consented to serve as a Director, if elected. If at the time of the meeting any nominee should be unable to serve, it is the intention of the persons designated as proxies to vote, in their discretion, for such other person as may be designated as a nominee by the Board of Directors. Each of the nominees was elected at Rand's last Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Director Independence

The Board of Directors affirmatively determined that four of the six non-management Directors, Erland E. Kailbourne, Ross B. Kenzie, Jayne K. Rand and Robert M. Zak are Independent Directors under the rules of the SEC and under the rules and guidelines of the National Association of Security Dealers (NASD) for NASDAQ listed companies and, therefore, that a majority of a corporation's seven-person Board of Directors is currently independent as so defined. The Board of Directors has determined that there are no relationships between Rand and the Directors classified as independent other than service on its Board of Directors and compensation paid to Directors.

Three of the Directors are deemed to be Interested Persons under Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 with respect to Rand: Allen F. Grum because he is an executive officer of Rand, and Willis S. McLeese and Reginald B. Newman, II, because each of them beneficially owns more than 5% of Rand's outstanding common shares. Persons who are Interested Persons are not independent directors under the rules and guidelines of the NASD.

The independence determination of the Board of Directors under the SEC rules and under the NASD rules and guidelines also included conclusions of the Board of Directors that:

each of the members of the Audit Committee and of the Governance and Nominating Committee, and a majority of the members of the Compensation Committee are independent under the standards described above for purposes of membership on each of those committees;

the 2007 compensation of the senior executive officers was determined by a majority of the independent Directors of the Board; and each of the members of the Audit Committee also meets the additional independence requirements under SEC Rule 10A-3(b) and NASDAQ Rule 4350(d).

Proxy 4

Table of ContentsProxy Statement Rand Capital Corporation

Mr. Kailbourne is currently serving as the lead independent Director for purposes of scheduling and setting the agenda for the executive sessions of the independent Directors. It is presently contemplated that these executive sessions will occur at least twice during the fiscal year ending December 31, 2008, in conjunction with regularly scheduled Board meetings, in addition to the separate meetings of the standing committees of the Board of Directors.

Shareholder Communications

Communications to an individual Director, to non-management Directors as a group, or to the entire Board, should be addressed as follows: Reginald B. Newman, II, Security Holder Board Communications, 2200 Rand Building, Buffalo, New York, 14203, with an indication of the individual or subgroup (if any) to whose attention the communication is directed. All security holder communications addressed in that manner will be delivered directly to Mr. Newman, who will receive communications for the Board and non-management Directors, and who will deliver the communication unopened to any individual indicated Director.

Meeting Attendance

Last year all Directors attended the Annual Meeting of Stockholders, and they are expected to do so this year. A meeting of the Board of Directors will take place on the same day and at the same place as the Annual Meeting of Stockholders, and Directors are expected to attend all Board and Committee meetings of Rand and the annual meeting of shareholders, but such attendance is not required.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee advises the independent members of the Board of Directors with respect to the compensation of senior executive officers and reviews the criteria that form the basis for management compensation.

The 2007 compensation levels of the President and Executive Vice President were submitted to the independent members of the Board of Directors, representing a majority of its membership, for approval.

The Compensation Committee has a Charter, a current copy of which can be accessed at Rand's website, www.randcapital.com.

Governance and Nominating Committee

The primary purposes of the Governance and Nominating Committee include:
developing, recommending to the Board and assessing corporate governance policies for Rand;

overseeing the evaluation of the Board;

recommending to the Board of Directors the individuals qualified to serve on Rand's Board of Directors for election by shareholders at each annual meeting of shareholders and to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors.

The Governance and Nominating Committee has a Charter, a current copy of which can be accessed at Rand's website, www.randcapital.com. None of the persons on the Governance and Nominating Committee are interested persons as defined in section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act of 1940.

Nomination of Directors

Our Governance and Nominating Committee, as part of the responsibilities under its Charter, performs nominating committee functions and oversees the identification of qualified individuals to serve on the Board.

We seek Directors who have the required and appropriate skills and characteristics including; business experience and personal skills in finance, marketing, business, and other areas that are expected to contribute to an effective board. We identify new Director candidates from prominent business persons and professionals in the communities Rand serves. We consider nominees of shareholders in the same manner as other nominees.

Once a Board vacancy occurs, the Governance and Nominating Committee may recommend a replacement candidate to the Board. The Board may appoint the new Director to fill the unexpired term of the seat. Annually, the Governance and Nominating Committee will recommend a slate of new and/or continuing candidates for the Board of Directors. The Board will select a slate of nominees for Director from recommendations of the Governance and Nominating Committee, and submit the slate of nominees to be voted on by shareholders at Rand's next Annual Meeting.

Our by-laws provide that an Annual Meeting of Shareholders shall be held on the fourth Tuesday in April, or such other time within 30 days before or after such date as the Chairman or Board of Directors shall determine. The number of Directors is determined by the Board of Directors, but in no event may it be less than three.

Procedure for Shareholders to Nominate Directors

Any shareholder who intends to present a Director nomination proposal for consideration at the 2009 Annual Meeting and intends to have that proposal included in the proxy statement and related materials for the 2009 Annual Meeting must deliver a written copy of the proposal to Rand no later than the deadline, and in accordance with the procedures, specified under "Shareholder Proposals" in this proxy statement, and in accordance with the requirements of SEC Rule 14a-8.

If a shareholder does not comply with the foregoing procedures, the shareholder may use the procedures set forth in Rand's by-laws, although Rand would not in the latter case be required to include the nomination as a proposal in its proxy statement and proxy card mailed to stockholders in connection with the next annual meeting.

The shareholder nomination proposal referred to above must set forth (1) the name and address of the shareholder who intends to make the nomination and of the person or persons to be nominated; (2) a representation that the shareholder is a shareholder of record of Rand common shares entitled to vote at the meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the proposal; (3) a description of the arrangements or understandings between the shareholder and each nominee or any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are being made by the shareholder; (4) such other information regarding each nominee proposed by the shareholder as would have been required to be included in a proxy statement filed under the proxy rules of the SEC had each nominee been nominated or intended to be nominated by the Board of Directors; and (5) the consent of each nominee to serve as a Director of the Corporation if elected. The Governance and Nominating Committee may refuse to acknowledge a proposal for the nomination of any person not made in accordance with the foregoing procedure. Recommendations for nominees should be sent to: Rand Capital Corporation, Attention: Board Nominations, 2200 Rand Building, Buffalo, New York 14203.

Rand did not receive any nominations from shareholders for the 2008 Board of Director election.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

Rand has adopted a Code of Ethics which applies to Rand's chief executive officer, chief financial officer, and controller, and a Business Ethics Policy applicable to Rand's Directors, officers and employees. The Code of Ethics and the Business Ethics Policy are available in the Governance section of Rand's website located at www.randcapital.com. They are also available in print to any shareholder who requests it. Rand will disclose any substantive amendments to or waiver from provisions of the Code of Ethics made with respect to the chief executive officer, chief financial officer or controller via its website.

Audit Committee

The Board of Directors has determined that the members of the Audit Committee are independent, as described above under Director Independence. The Board of Directors has determined that Ross B. Kenzie is an Audit Committee financial expert (as defined by SEC regulations) (see Mr. Kenzie's relevant work experience in this Proxy's Table of Information Regarding Nominees for Director). Mr. Kenzie is an independent member of Rand's Board of Directors (as defined by SEC and NASD regulations).

The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Audit Committee and Board of Directors. The Charter can be accessed on Rand's website at www.randcapital.com. The Audit Committee reviews the scope and results of the annual audit, receives reports from Rand's independent public accountants, and reports the Audit Committee's findings and recommendations to the Board of Directors.

The Audit Committee has adopted necessary reporting procedures for the confidential submission, receipt, retention and treatment of accounting and auditing complaints.

Independent Auditor Appointment

Independent Auditors Appointment

Rand Capital Corporation's Audit Committee has appointed Rand's current independent auditors, Freed Maxick & Battaglia, CPAs, PC, (Freed), to examine the accounts of Rand for the 2008 fiscal year. The Audit Committee members approving such selection are not interested persons of Rand as defined in the 1940 Act. Freed audited the accounts of Rand for the 2007, 2006 and 2005 fiscal years.

A representative of Freed is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, will have the opportunity to make a statement if desired, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Independent Accountant Fees

The aggregate fees for each of the last two fiscal years for services rendered by Freed Maxick & Battaglia, CPAs, PC (Freed) are as follows:

Audit Fees

This category consists of fees for the audit of annual financial statements, review of financial statements included in quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and services that are normally provided by the independent auditor in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or audit engagements for those fiscal years.

Freed provided professional services for the audit of Rand's annual financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 were $50,000 and $46,500, respectively.

Audit Related Fees

This category consists of assurance and related services by the independent accountant that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit and review of financial statements and are not reported under audit fees.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, Freed performed services related to entity level control recommendations for a fee of $2,400. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, Rand did not incur any fees for assurance and related services.

Tax Fees

This category consists of professional services rendered by the independent accountant for tax compliance and tax planning. The services for the fees disclosed under this category include tax return preparation and technical advice.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, Rand was billed $20,550 in tax fees and for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, the Corporation was billed $17,500 by Freed.

All Other Fees

This category consists of fees not covered by Audit Fees, Audit Related Fees and Tax Fees.

For the fiscal years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006, Rand did not receive or pay for any products or services in this category from Freed.

For fiscal years 2007 and 2006, all of the services of Freed described in the above categories were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

Rand's annual audit, quarterly review and tax related fees which are estimated to be paid during the year are submitted annually to the Audit Committee for their review and pre-approval and then budgeted for by Rand. All other non-audit services must be pre-approved by the Audit Committee prior to engagement, as required by the Committee's Charter.

Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed Rand's audited consolidated financial statements with management. In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with Rand's independent accountants, Freed Maxick & Battaglia, CPAs, PC, the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended (AICPA, Professional Standards, Vol. 1 AU section 380), as adopted by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board in Rule 3200T.

The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent accountants required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), as adopted by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board in Rule 3600T and has discussed with the independent accountant the independent accountant's independence. The Audit Committee also has considered the independent accountant's provision of non-audit services to Rand and has concluded that such services are compatible with Freed's independence.

Based on the Audit Committee's discussions with management and the independent accountants, the Audit Committee's review of the representations of management, and the report of the independent accountants, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in Rand Capital Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

This report is respectfully submitted by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Rand's Chief Executive Officer, Executive Vice President, Controller and Office Manager are salaried employees of Rand. Rand pays the salaries and other employee benefits of these employees. Rand has a wholly owned subsidiary, Rand Capital SBIC, L.P. ("Rand SBIC"). The Chief Executive Officer and the Executive Vice President serve as the Management Committee of the subsidiary and they are parties to a Profit Sharing Plan of Rand SBIC that was adopted by Rand as a requirement for the licensing of Rand SBIC.

Rand's principal executive officers are its Chief Executive Officer, Allen F. Grum, and its Executive Vice President/Chief Financial Officer, Daniel P. Penberthy.

The Compensation Committee, a majority of which are independent members of the Board, advises the Board of Directors with respect to the compensation of the principal executive officers. The Compensation Committee recommendations are then reviewed by the independent members of the Board, who are then responsible for establishing such compensation. Rand's Chief Executive Officer is responsible for the compensation levels of its Controller and Office Manager.

Introduction

This Compensation Discussion and Analysis is designed to provide shareholders with an understanding of our compensation philosophy and objectives as well as the analysis that we performed in setting executive compensation. It discusses the Compensation Committee's determination of how and why, in addition to what, compensation actions were taken for the executive officers who are identified in the Summary Compensation Table (the "Named Executive Officers").

Objectives of Rand's Compensation Programs and What it is Designed to Reward

For its long-term success and enhancement of long-term stockholder value, Rand depends on the management and analytical abilities of its executive officers, who are employees of, and are compensated by, Rand. The Compensation Committee's compensation objectives are to provide a critical oversight function of compensation and appropriate levels of compensation, reward above average corporate performance, recognize individual initiative and achievement, assist Rand in attracting and retaining qualified management to contribute to its success, and motivate management to enhance stockholder value.

Key Elements of Rand's Compensation Plans and Why it is Paid:

Base Salary Our philosophy is that base salaries should meet the objectives of attracting and retaining the executive officers needed to successfully manage the business. Actual individual salary amounts are not objectively determined, but instead reflect the Committee's judgment with respect to each executive officer's responsibility, performance, experience, the individual's historical compensation, internal equity considerations and other factors, including any retention concerns. Rand sets a base salary for its executive officers at levels that are intended to be appropriate given the scope of their duties and responsibilities.

Proxy Statement Rand Capital Corporation

Bonus Rand may pay annual bonuses to executive officers at levels that are intended to motivate them to achieve Rand's principal business and investment goals and to bring their total compensation to competitive levels. The bonus is based on a qualitative consideration of individual performance. The Committee considers, and may make appropriate adjustments for unusual items that were not included in the Corporation's budget and are deemed to be outside the control of the executives.

Profit Sharing Plan Rand provides long term incentives to its executive officers through its Profit Sharing Plan, which allows them to participate in the growth of its portfolios and aligns their long term interests with those of Rand's shareholders. The terms of Rand's license to maintain its Small Business Investment Company (SBIC) subsidiary require that it maintain a Profit Sharing Plan, which provides for payment by Rand of designated percentages of the net realized capital gains of the subsidiary. The Committee does not have discretion to change the quantitative amounts due under the Plan.

Equity Although we believe that equity ownership by management aligns management's interests with increasing stockholder value, restrictions imposed by the Investment Company Act preclude Rand from offering stock options or other equity incentives to its executive officers at any time when it also allows them to participate in a profit sharing plan. Rand has a stock option plan that was adopted in 2001 (see Option Plan, below), but no options have been or will be granted under it while the Profit Sharing Plan is in effect.

Standard Employee Benefits Rand also provides standard employee benefits that are considered appropriate to provide competitive employee compensation and necessary to attract and retain talented personnel. Rand maintains a 401(k) Plan for its employees. Under the plan, participants may elect to contribute up to 20% of their compensation on a pretax basis, up to a maximum of $15,500 for 2007. Rand makes a flat contribution of 1% of compensation for each participant and matches participant contributions up to 5% of compensation. Rand may also elect to contribute annual discretionary amounts under the 401(k) Plan as determined by the Board. Rand also provides life insurance and automobile reimbursement benefits to its executive officers.

How the Amounts of Each Element of the Compensation are Determined and How They Fit Into Rand's Overall Compensation Objectives

Salary and Bonus

The Compensation Committee determined that the salary and bonuses paid to Rand employees during the 2007 fiscal year were at levels that were in the best interests of our stockholders. In making its determination, the Compensation Committee considered whether the salaries and bonuses paid by Rand to its executive officers were consistent with the compensation philosophies described above.

The Analysis Used in Setting Compensation Levels

When making compensation decisions for individual executive officers, the Committee takes many factors into account, including the individual's role and responsibilities, performance, tenure, and experience; the overall performance of the Corporation; the recommendations of Board

Proxy 16

Table of Contents

Proxy Statement Rand Capital Corporation

Committee Chairmen; the individual's historical compensation; and comparison to other executive officers of the Corporation. The Corporation did not utilize any benchmarking or performance targets to set its compensation levels.

Specifically, the Committee has considered factors such as:

total compensation in relation to Rand's size and the composition and performance of its investments;

Rand's success in identifying appropriate investment opportunities and returns;

the value of Rand's assets; and the responsibilities and duties of the executive officers.

Evaluating Performance

The Committee evaluates the performance of the Named Executive Officers on an annual basis. The Committee consults with the other directors and Committee Chairmen regarding the performance of the Named Executive Officers. The Committee also seeks the advice of the Chief Executive Officer in connection with the performance evaluation for other executive officers; however, the Chief Executive Officer is not present when the Committee meets to evaluate his performance and determine his compensation.

Individual Performance

The Committee uses discretion in a qualitative evaluation of individual performance and considers the following factors, among others, in approving the annual incentive awards of the Named Executive Officers: the input of other Board Committee Chairmen, the NEO's leadership, management, strategic planning, business development, and investment returns.

Change of Control and Termination Benefits

The Corporation does not provide any employment contracts, change of control and/or termination benefits.

Accounting and Tax Treatments of Compensation

The Committee's policy is to structure compensation that will be fully deductible where doing so will further the purposes of executive compensation programs. The Committee also considers it important to retain flexibility to design compensation programs that recognize a full range of criteria important to our success, even where compensation payable under the programs may not be fully deductible.

Profit Sharing Plan

We believe Rand's provisions for salaries and bonuses create an appropriate focus on longer term objectives and promote executive retention. We also believe that the Profit Sharing Plan is an effective means of promoting long-term stockholder value and providing for executive retention.

Under the Profit Sharing Plan, Rand will pay its executive officers aggregate profit sharing payments equal to 12% of the net realized capital gains of its SBIC subsidiary, net of all realized capital losses and unrealized depreciation of the subsidiary, for the fiscal year, computed in accordance with the Plan and the Corporation's interpretation of such policies.

The profit sharing payments will be split equally between Rand's two executive officers, who are fully vested in the Plan. Under Investment Company Act requirements, the aggregate amount of benefits which may be paid or accrued under the Profit Sharing Plan and any other profit sharing plan maintained by Rand during any fiscal year may not in any event exceed 20% of Rand's net income after taxes for that fiscal year. In accordance with Investment Company Act requirements, a majority of the members of the Board who were not Interested Persons approved the Profit Sharing Plan on the basis that the plan is reasonable and fair to Rand's shareholders, does not involve overreaching of Rand or its shareholders on the part of any person concerned, and is consistent with the interests of the shareholders of Rand.

No payments have been made or accrued under the Profit Sharing Plan since its inception in 2002.

Conclusion

Through the compensation and incentive structure described above, a significant portion of the amounts that may be payable as compensation has been, and will continue to be, contingent on Rand's performance, and realization of incentive benefits is closely linked to increases in long-term stockholder value. Rand remains committed to this philosophy of pay for performance, recognizing that the competitive market for talented executives and the volatility of Rand's business may result in highly variable compensation from year to year.

Based on the factors identified, the independent members of the Board approved the 2008 salary levels of the executive officers in January 2008. Based on the same factors, in January 2008 the Independent Directors approved bonuses of $25,000 payable to each of Mr. Grum and Mr. Penberthy for their services in 2007. Rand accrued these amounts in its 2007 financial statements.

Summary Compensation Table

The following table sets forth information with respect to the compensation paid or earned for the 2007 and 2006 fiscal years to each named executive officer, and to each officer of Rand with aggregate compensation from Rand in excess of $100,000. Rand is not part of a fund complex.

Name and Principal Position (1)	Year	Salary (2)	Bonus	All Other	Total
			(2)(3)	Compensation (4)(5)
Allen F. Grum, President & Director	2007	$160,000	$25,000	$12,640	$212,531
				$14,891(5)
	2006	$155,000	$50,000	$9,521	$214,521

Name and Principal Position (1)	Year	Salary (2)	Bonus	All Other	Total
			(2)(3)	Compensation (4)(5)
Daniel P. Penberthy, Treasurer	2007	$140,000	$25,000	$11,548	$176,548
	2006	$130,000	$50,000	$7,847	$187,847

(1) Mr. Grum is Rand's principal executive officer, and Mr. Penberthy is Rand's principal financial officer. Neither of them has an employment contract with Rand.

(2) Represent amounts earned, prior to employee 401(k) contributions, as described in footnote (4), made by named executive.

(3) Bonuses were accrued by Rand at December 31, 2007 and paid in 2008. Bonuses for December 31, 2006 were paid in 2007.

- (4) Included within the indicated compensation payment are contributions by Rand to its 401(k) Plan. Under the 401(k) Plan, participants may elect to contribute up to 20% of their compensation on a pretax basis by salary reduction up to a maximum of $15,500 for 2007. For eligible employees, Rand makes a flat contribution of 1% of compensation and matches employee contributions of up to a maximum of 5%. In addition, Rand may elect to contribute an annual discretionary amount as determined by the Board of Directors. In 2007, Rand did not make a discretionary contribution to the 401(k) Plan.

- (5) Amount indicated includes the cost of life insurance, disability insurance and business automobile reimbursement benefits. In 2007 for Mr. Penberthy, the aggregate amount of such compensation was $7,055. In 2006, the aggregate amount of such compensation was less than $10,000 for each Rand executive.

Option Plan

Rand does not have any outstanding equity awards, options or stock vesting rights.

In July 2001, Rand's shareholders approved an Employee Stock Option Plan (the "Option Plan"). The Option Plan provides for the award of options to purchase up to 200,000 common shares to eligible employees. In 2002, Rand placed the Option Plan on inactive status as it developed its Profit Sharing Plan in connection with the establishment of its SBIC subsidiary. As of December 31, 2007, no stock options had been awarded under the Plan.

Because Section 57(n) of the Investment Company Act prohibits maintenance of a profit sharing plan for the officers and employees of a Business Development Company when any option, warrant or right is outstanding under an executive compensation plan, no options will be granted under the Option Plan while the Profit Sharing Plan is in effect.

Pension Benefits

Rand does not provide any tax-qualified defined benefit plan or supplemental executive retirement plan, or similar plan that provides for specified retirement payments or benefits.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

During 2007, under Rand's standard compensation arrangements with Directors, the Chairman of the Board received an annual Chairman retainer of $5,000, each non-employee Director received an annual fee of $5,000 plus $1,000 for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors. Audit Committee members received $750 for each meeting attended and Compensation Committee and Governance and Nominating Committee members received $500 for each meeting attended. Rand reimburses directors for reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred in attending meetings of the Board.

The following table sets forth information with respect to the compensation paid to or earned by each Director, excluding named executive officers, for the 2007 fiscal year. Rand did not pay or accrue any other compensation to the following Directors for the 2007 fiscal year.

Name	Fees Earned or Paid in Cash
Erland E. Kailbourne	$ 13,750
Ross B. Kenzie	$ 13,250
Willis S. McLeese	$ 9,500
Reginald B. Newman, II	$ 14,000
Jayne K. Rand	$ 11,500
Robert M. Zak	$ 12,750

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires Rand's Directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of Rand's stock, to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission initial reports of stock ownership and reports of changes to stock ownership. Reporting persons are required by SEC regulations to furnish Rand with all Section 16(a) reports they file.

To our knowledge, based solely on review of the copies of such reports furnished to Rand and written representations that no other reports were required, the Corporation believes all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its officers, Directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners were complied with during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007.

Directors and Officer's Liability Insurance

Rand has an insurance policy from American International Specialty Lines Insurance Company that indemnifies (1) Rand for any obligation incurred as a result of its indemnification of its Directors and officers under the provisions of the New York Business Corporation Law and Rand's by-laws, and (2) Rand's Directors and officers as permitted under the New York State Business Corporation Law and Rand's by-laws. The policy covers all Directors and officers of Rand for the 12 months ending December 2008 for a total premium of $41,489.90. No sums have been paid to Rand or its officers under the insurance contract.

2. OTHER BUSINESS

Rand does not know of any other matters to come before the meeting. If any other matters properly come before the meeting, it is the intention of the persons designated as proxies to vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matters.

Shareholder Proposals for the 2009 Annual Meeting

Shareholder proposals intended to be presented at the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders must be received at Rand's offices not later than December 6, 2008, to be considered for inclusion in Rand's proxy statement and form of proxy for that meeting.
