- future growth rates in our core businesses;
- failure to comply with public sector contracts or applicable laws;
- changes to or loss of any members of our senior management team and/or failure to successfully implement succession plans;
- our dependence on key personnel, and our ability to hire, train, and retain sufficient qualified personnel;
- our ability to implement comprehensive plans for the integration of sales forces, cost containment, asset rationalization, systems integration and other key strategies;
- a possible decrease in the capital spending budgets of our customers or a decrease in purchases from us; our contracts may not be adequate to protect us and our professional and liability insurance policies coverage may be insufficient to cover a claim;

- disruptions in our IT systems and data and audio communication networks;

our ability to secure our and our customers' electronic and other confidential information, and remain secure during a cyber-security attack;

our ability to raise capital, maintain or increase as needed our lines of credit with vendors or floor planning facility, or obtain debt for our financing transactions or the effect of those changes on our common stock or its holders;

Table of Contents

- our ability to realize our investment in leased equipment;
- our ability to successfully integrate acquired businesses;

- the demand for our leasing services, or misclassification of products and services we sell resulting in the misapplication of revenue recognition policies.

We cannot be certain that our business strategy will be successful or that we will successfully address these and other challenges, risks and uncertainties. For a further list and description of various risks, relevant factors and uncertainties that could cause future results or events to differ materially from those expressed or implied in our forward-looking statements, see the Item 1A, "Risk Factors" and Item 7, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" sections contained elsewhere in this report, as well as other reports that we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

BASIS OF PRESENTATION — Our company was founded in 1990 and is a Delaware corporation. ePlus inc. is sometimes referred to in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q as “we,” “our,” “us,” or “ePlus.” The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of ePlus inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS — The condensed consolidated financial statements for the three and six months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014 were prepared by us, without audit, and include all normal and recurring adjustments that, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair presentation of our financial position, results of operations, changes in comprehensive income and cash flows for such periods. Operating results for the three and six months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014 are not necessarily indicative of results that may be expected for any other interim period or for the full fiscal year ending March 31, 2016 or any other future period. These unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements do not include all disclosures required by the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“U.S. GAAP”) for annual financial statements. Our audited consolidated financial statements are contained in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2015 (“2015 Annual Report”), which should be read in conjunction with these interim condensed consolidated financial statements.

USE OF ESTIMATES — The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Estimates are used when accounting for items and matters including, but not limited to, revenue recognition, residual values, vendor consideration, lease classification, goodwill and intangibles, reserves for credit losses, inventory obsolescence, and the recognition and measurement of income tax assets and other provisions and contingencies. We base our estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The notes to the consolidated financial statements contained in the 2015 Annual Report include additional discussion of the significant accounting policies and estimates used in the preparation of our consolidated financial statements. There have been no material changes to our significant accounting policies and estimates during the six months ended September 30, 2015.

CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK — A substantial portion of our sales of product and services are from sales of Cisco Systems, Hewlett-Packard, and NetApp products, which represented approximately 50%, 7% and 4%, and 50%, 8% and 4%, respectively, of our technology segment sales of product and services for the three and six months ended September 30, 2015, as compared to 56%, 8%, and 6%, and 52%, 8%, and 6%, respectively, of our technology segment sales of product and services for the three and six months ended September 30, 2014. Any changes in our vendors’ ability to provide products could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS NOT YET ADOPTED — In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which will supersede all current US GAAP on this topic. The principle of ASU 2014-09 is that an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. In August 2015, the FASB deferred the effective date of this standard by one year. Including the one-year deferral, the new guidance becomes effective for us in our quarter ending June 30, 2018, and early adoption is permitted for us in our quarter ending June 30, 2017. The standard can be applied either retrospectively to each period presented or as a cumulative-effect adjustment as of the date of adoption. We are currently evaluating the impact it will have on our financial statements and disclosures and have not yet selected our planned transition approach.

2. FINANCING RECEIVABLES AND OPERATING LEASES

Our financing receivables and operating leases consist of assets that we financed for our customers, which we manage as a portfolio of investments. Equipment financed for our customers are accounted for as investments in direct financing, sales-type or operating leases in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 840, Leases. We also finance third-party software, maintenance, and services for our customers, which are classified as notes receivables. Our notes receivables are interest bearing and are often due over a period of time that corresponds with the terms of the leased products.

Cost of equipment under operating leases	$ 41,373	$ 36,283
Accumulated depreciation	(18,470)	(18,354)
Investment in operating lease equipment—net (1)	$ 22,903	$ 17,929

(1) These totals include estimated unguaranteed residual values of $4,409 thousand and $4,340 thousand as of September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015, respectively.

TRANSFERS OF FINANCIAL ASSETS

We enter into arrangements to transfer the contractual payments due under financing receivables and operating leases, which are accounted for as sales or secured borrowings in accordance with ASC Topic, Transfers and Servicing. For transfers accounted for as a secured borrowing, the corresponding investments serve as collateral for non-recourse notes payable. As of September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015, we had financing receivables and operating leases of $46.5 million and $61.9 million, respectively, which were collateral for non-recourse notes payable. See Note 6, “Notes Payable and Credit Facility.”

For transfers accounted for as sales, we derecognize the carrying value of the asset transferred and recognize a net gain or loss on the sale, which is presented within net sales in the unaudited condensed consolidated statement of operations. During the three months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, we recognized net gains of $2.5 million and $0.9 million, respectively. The fair value of assets received from these sales was $84.4 million and $37.6 million for the three months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively. During the six months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, we recognized net gains of $4.0 million and $3.2 million, respectively. The fair value of assets received from these sales was $108.7 million and $93.8 million for the six months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

3. GOODWILL AND OTHER INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Our goodwill and other intangible assets consist of the following (in thousands):

	September 30, 2015			March 31, 2015
	Gross Carrying Amount	Accumulated Amortization / Impairment Loss	Net Carrying Amount	Gross Carrying Amount	Accumulated Amortization / Impairment Loss	Net Carrying Amount
Goodwill	$42,785	$ (8,673)	$ 34,112	$42,785	$ (8,673)	$ 34,112
Customer relationships & other intangibles	11,778	(7,389)	4,389	12,005	(6,560)	5,445
Capitalized software development	2,693	(1,683)	1,010	2,693	(1,452)	1,241
Total	$57,256	$ (17,745)	$ 39,511	$57,483	$ (16,685)	$ 40,798

Goodwill represents the premium paid over the fair value of the net tangible and intangible assets that are individually identified and separately recognized in business combinations. Customer relationships and capitalized software development costs are amortized over an estimated useful life, which is generally between 3 to 6 years.

We perform our goodwill impairment test annually during our third quarter of each year. For the year ended March 31, 2015, we performed a qualitative assessment and concluded that the fair value of our reporting units were, more likely than not, greater than their respective carrying amounts.

Table of Contents

All of our goodwill as of September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015 is related to our technology segment. The following table summarizes the amount of goodwill allocated to our reporting units (in thousands):

Technology	$ 33,023	$ 33,023
Software Document Management	1,089	1,089

OTHER INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Total amortization expense for other intangible assets was $0.7 million and $0.6 million for the three months and $1.3 and $1.0 million for the six months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

The net credit exposure for the balance evaluated individually for impairment as of September 30, 2015 was $3.7 million, $3.2 million of which is related to one customer. During fiscal year 2012, we began selling and financing various products and services to a large law firm, which filed for bankruptcy in May 2012. As of September 30, 2015, we had $3.2 million of notes and lease-related receivables from this customer and total reserves for credit losses of $3.2 million, which represented our estimated probable loss. As of March 31, 2015, we had $3.2 million of notes and lease-related receivables from this customer and total reserves for credit losses of $3.2 million. 6. NOTES PAYABLE AND CREDIT FACILITY

Non-recourse and recourse obligations consist of the following (in thousands):

	September 30, 2015	March 31, 2015
Recourse notes payable with interest rates ranging from 2.24% and 4.13% at September 30, 2015 and ranging from 2.24% and 4.13% at March 31, 2015.
Current	$ 1,204	$889
Long-term	2,815	2,801
Total recourse notes payable	$ 4,019	$3,690

Non-recourse notes payable secured by financing receivables and investments in operating leases with interest rates ranging from 1.70% to 7.50% at September 30, 2015 and ranging from 1.70% to 10.00% as of March 31, 2015.

Current	$ 28,137	$28,560
Long-term	10,510	24,314
Total non-recourse notes payable	$ 38,647	$52,874

Principal and interest payments on the non-recourse notes payable are generally due monthly in amounts that are approximately equal to the total payments due from the customer under the leases or notes receivable that collateralize the notes payable. The weighted average interest rate for our non-recourse notes payable was 3.18% and 3.23%, as of September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015, respectively. The weighted average interest rate for our recourse notes payable was 3.21% and 3.19%, as of September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015, respectively. Under recourse financing, in the event of a default by a customer, the lender has recourse to the customer, the assets serving as collateral, and us. Under non-recourse financing, in the event of a default by a customer, the lender generally only has recourse against the customer, and the assets serving as collateral, but not against us.

Table of Contents

In May 2014, we entered into an agreement to repurchase the rights, title, and interest to payments due under a financing agreement. This financing agreement was previously assigned to a third party financial institution and accounted for as a secured borrowing. In conjunction with the repurchase agreement, we recognized a gain of $1.4 million in the six months ended September 30, 2014, which is presented within other income in our unaudited condensed consolidated statement of operations.

Our technology segment, through our subsidiary ePlus Technology, inc., finances its operations with funds generated from operations, and with a credit facility with GE Commercial Distribution Finance Corporation (“GECDF”). This facility provides short-term capital for our technology segment. There are two components of the GECDF credit facility: (1) a floor plan component and (2) an accounts receivable component. Under the floor plan component, we had outstanding balances of $127.1 million and $99.4 million as of September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015, respectively. Under the accounts receivable component, we had no outstanding balances as of September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015. As of September 30, 2015, the facility agreement had an aggregate limit of the two components of $250 million, and the accounts receivable component had a sub-limit of $30 million, which bears interest assessed at a rate of the One Month LIBOR plus two and one half percent.

The credit facility has full recourse to ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary, ePlus Technology Services, inc., is secured by a blanket lien against all their assets, such as receivables and inventory. Availability under the facility may be limited by the asset value of equipment we purchase or accounts receivable, and may be further limited by certain covenants and terms and conditions of the facility. These covenants include but are not limited to a minimum excess availability of the facility and minimum earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (“EBITDA”) of ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary. We were in compliance with these covenants as of September 30, 2015. In addition, the facility restricts the ability of ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary to transfer funds to its affiliates in the form of dividends, loans or advances with certain exceptions for dividends to ePlus inc. The facility also requires that financial statements of ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary be provided within 45 days of each quarter and 90 days of each fiscal year end and also includes that other operational reports be provided on a regular basis. Either party may terminate with 90 days’ advance notice. We are not, and do not believe that we are reasonably likely to be, in breach of the GECDF credit facility. In addition, we do not believe that the covenants of the GECDF credit facility materially limit our ability to undertake financing. In this regard, the covenants apply only to our subsidiary, ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary. This credit facility is secured by the assets of ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary, ePlus Technology Services, inc. and the guaranty as described below.

The facility provided by GECDF requires a guaranty of $10.5 million by ePlus inc. The guaranty requires ePlus inc. to deliver its annual audited financial statements by certain dates. We have delivered the annual audited financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2015, as required. The loss of the GECDF credit facility could have a material adverse effect on our future results as we currently rely on this facility and its components for daily working capital and liquidity for our technology segment and as an operational function of our accounts payable process.

Fair Value

As of September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015, the fair value of our long-term recourse and non-recourse notes payable approximated their carrying value.

7.COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Legal Proceedings

We were the plaintiff in a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia (“the Trial Court”) in which, on January 27, 2011, a jury unanimously found that Lawson Software, Inc. (“Lawson”) infringed certain ePlus patents. On August 16, 2013, the Trial Court found, by clear and convincing evidence, that Lawson was in contempt of the Trial Court’s May 23, 2011, injunction which restricted Lawson from taking certain actions that infringed one of our patents. Lawson appealed, and while the appeal was pending, on April 3, 2014, the United States Patent and Trademark Office issued a notice canceling the patent. On July 25, 2014, the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (“the Appeals Court”) vacated the injunction and the contempt order. On June 18, 2015, the Appeals Court, in a 5-5 split opinion, denied our petition for rehearing. We intend to ask the United States Supreme Court to consider the case.

These types of cases are complex in nature, are likely to have significant expenses associated with them, and we cannot predict when any litigation will be resolved, whether we will be successful in any claim for monetary or equitable relief, whether any award ultimately received will exceed the costs incurred to pursue this matter, or how long it will take to bring any matter to resolution.

Other Matters

We may become party to various legal proceedings arising in the ordinary course of business including preference payment claims asserted in customer bankruptcy proceedings, claims of alleged infringement of patents, trademarks, copyrights and other intellectual property rights, claims of alleged non-compliance with contract provisions, employment related claims, claims by competitors, vendors or customers, claims related to alleged violations of laws and regulations, and claims relating to alleged security or privacy breaches. Although we do not expect that the outcome in any of these matters, individually or collectively, will have a material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations, litigation is inherently unpredictable. Therefore, judgments could be rendered or settlements entered that could adversely affect our results of operations or cash flows in a particular period. We provide for costs related to contingencies when a loss is probable and the amount is reasonably determinable.

8. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net earnings attributable to common shares by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted net earnings per share include the potential dilution of securities that could participate in our earnings, but not securities that are anti-dilutive. In the past, certain unvested shares of restricted stock awards (“RSAs”) contained non-forfeitable rights to dividends, whether paid or unpaid. As a result, these RSAs were considered participating securities because their holders had the right to participate in earnings with common stockholders. We used the two-class method to allocate net income between common shares and other participating securities for the six months ended September 30, 2014. As of September 30, 2015, we had no unvested shares of RSAs that contained non-forfeitable rights to dividends. We no longer grant RSAs that contain non-forfeitable rights to dividends.

As of September 30, 2015 and 2014, we did not have any unexercised stock options.

9. STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

On August 13, 2015, our board of directors authorized the Company to repurchase up to 500,000 shares of its outstanding common stock over a 12-month period beginning on August 17, 2015 through August 16, 2016. The plan authorized purchases to be made from time to time in the open market, or in privately negotiated transactions, subject to availability. Any repurchased shares will have the status of treasury shares and may be used, when needed, for general corporate purposes.

During the six months ended September 30, 2015, we did not purchase any shares of our outstanding common stock under the share repurchase plan; however, we did purchase 30,447 shares of common stock at a value of $2.5 million to satisfy tax withholding obligations relating to the vesting of employees' restricted stock.

During the six months ended September 30, 2014, we repurchased 651,019 shares of our outstanding common stock at an average cost of $50.31 per share for a total purchase price of $32.8 million under a share repurchase plan. We also purchased 35,158 shares of common stock at a value of $2.0 million to satisfy tax withholding obligations relating to the vesting of employees' restricted stock.

Since the inception of our initial repurchase program on September 20, 2001 to September 30, 2015, we have repurchased approximately 5.6 million shares of our outstanding common stock at an average cost of $20.00 per share for a total purchase price of $111.6 million.

10. SHARE-BASED COMPENSATION

Share-Based Plans

As of September 30, 2015, we had share-based awards outstanding under the following plans: (1) the 2008 Non-Employee Director Long-Term Incentive Plan ("2008 Director LTIP"), and (2) the 2012 Employee Long-Term Incentive Plan ("2012 Employee LTIP"). All the share-based plans define fair market value as the previous trading day's closing price when the grant date falls on a date the stock was not traded.

For a summary of descriptions and vesting periods of the 2008 Director LTIP, and the 2012 Employee LTIP discussed above, refer to our 2015 Annual Report.

Restricted Stock Activity

For the six months ended September 30, 2015, we granted 6,151 restricted shares under the 2008 Director LTIP, and 118,974 restricted shares under the 2012 Employee LTIP. For the six months ended September 30, 2014, we granted 9,390 restricted shares under the 2008 Director LTIP, and 78,165 restricted shares under the 2012 Employee LTIP. A summary of the restricted shares is as follows:

	Number of Shares	Weighted Average Grant- date Fair Value
Nonvested April 1, 2015	176,514	$ 52.75
Granted	125,125	$ 81.76
Vested	(94,625)	$ 48.75
Forfeited	(2,321)	$ 64.06
Nonvested September 30, 2015	204,693	$ 72.21

Upon each vesting period of the restricted stock awards, employees are subject to minimum tax withholding obligations. Under the 2012 Employee LTIP, we may purchase a sufficient number of shares due to the participant to satisfy their minimum tax withholding on employee stock awards.

Compensation Expense

We recognize compensation cost for awards of restricted stock with graded vesting on a straight line basis over the requisite service period and estimate the forfeiture rate to be zero, which is based on historical experience. There are no additional conditions for vesting other than service conditions. During the three months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, we recognized $1.5 million and $1.2 million, respectively, of total share-based compensation expense. During the six months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, we recognized $2.7 million and $2.2 million, respectively, of total share-based compensation expense. Unrecognized compensation expense related to non-vested restricted stock was $13.0 million as of September 30, 2015, which will be fully recognized over the next fifty-seven months.

We also provide our employees with a contributory 401(k) plan. Employer contribution percentages are determined by us and are discretionary each year. The employer contributions vest pro-ratably over a four-year service period by the employees, after which all employer contributions will be fully vested. For the three months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, our estimated contribution expense for the plan was $0.4 million and $0.3 million, respectively. For the six months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, our estimated contribution expense for the plan was $0.7 million and $0.6 million, respectively.

11. INCOME TAXES

We recognize interest and penalties for uncertain tax positions. As of September 30, 2015 our gross liability related to uncertain tax positions was $72 thousand. At September 30, 2015 if the unrecognized tax benefits of $72 thousand were to be recognized, including the effect of interest, penalties and federal tax benefit, the impact would be $102 thousand. We also recognize accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of tax expense. We did not recognize any additional penalties. We had $46 thousand and $67 thousand accrued for the payment of interest at September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively

14. BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

On August 18, 2014, our subsidiary, ePlus Technology, inc., acquired the operating assets and assumed certain liabilities of Granite Business Solutions, Inc. dba Evolve Technology Group (“Evolve”). Located in Sacramento, CA, Evolve provided information security, collaboration, virtualization and data center solutions to an established customer base of state, local and educational institutions, as well as commercial enterprises. Our acquisition expands our presence in the western United States.

The total purchase price was $10.5 million, which consists of cash paid, amounts to be paid to Evolve upon collection of certain accounts receivables, and the fair value of contingent consideration. We estimated the fair value of the contingent consideration to be $2.0 million as of the acquisition date using a Monte Carlo simulation model. The maximum payout for contingent consideration is $2.5 million over 3 years. The purchase price has been allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their estimated fair values on the transaction date, including identifiable intangible assets of $4.0 million related to customer relationships with an estimated useful life of 6 years, and other net assets of $0.6 million. We recognized goodwill related to this transaction of $4.5 million, which was assigned to our technology reporting unit. The goodwill recognized in the acquisition is attributable to the acquired assembled workforce, their presence in the western United States, and expected synergies, none of which qualify for recognition as a separate intangible asset. Goodwill associated with the acquisition is deductible for tax purposes.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

This discussion is intended to further the reader's understanding of our consolidated financial condition and results of operations. It should be read in conjunction with the financial statements included in this quarterly report on Form 10-Q and our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2015 ("2015 Annual Report"). These historical financial statements may not be indicative of our future performance. This Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations may contain forward-looking statements, all of which are based on our current expectations and could be affected by the uncertainties and risks described in Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors," in our 2015 Annual Report.

Key Business Metrics

Our management monitors a number of financial and non-financial measures and ratios on a regular basis in order to track the progress of our business. We believe that the most important of these measures and ratios include gross margin, gross margin on product and services, operating income margin, net earnings, net earnings per common share, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA margin, non-GAAP gross sales of product and services, non-GAAP gross cost of sales, product and services. We use a variety of operating and other information to evaluate the operating performance of our business, develop financial forecasts, make strategic decisions, and prepare and approve annual budgets. These key indicators include financial information that is prepared in accordance with GAAP and presented in our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements as well as non-GAAP performance measurement tools.

A summary of these key indicators which are not included in our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements is presented as follows, (in thousands):

We define non-GAAP gross sales of product and services as our sales of product and services calculated in accordance with GAAP, adjusted to exclude the costs incurred related to sales of third party software assurance, maintenance and services. We define non-GAAP gross cost of sales, product and services as our cost of sales, product and services calculated in accordance with GAAP, adjusted to include the costs incurred related to sales of (1) third party software assurance, maintenance and services. We provide below a reconciliation of non-GAAP gross sales of product and services to sales of product and services, which is the most closely comparable financial measure to this non-GAAP financial measure. We also provide below a reconciliation of non-GAAP gross cost of sales of product and services to cost of sales, product and services, which is the most closely comparable financial measure to this non-GAAP financial measure.

We use non-GAAP gross sales of product and services and non-GAAP gross cost of sales, product and services as supplemental measures of our performance to gain insight into the volume of business generated by our technology segment. Our use of non-GAAP gross sales of product and services and non-GAAP gross cost of sales, product and services as analytical tools has limitations, and you should not consider them in isolation or as substitutes for analysis of our financial results as reported under GAAP. In addition, other companies, including companies in our industry, might calculate non-GAAP gross sales of product and services and non-GAAP gross cost of sales, product and services or similarly titled measures differently, which may reduce their usefulness as comparative measures.

We define Adjusted EBITDA as net earnings calculated in accordance with GAAP, adjusted for the following: interest expense, depreciation and amortization, provision for income taxes, and other income. We consider the interest on notes payable from our financing segment and depreciation expense presented within cost of sales, which includes depreciation on assets financed as operating leases, to be operating expenses. As such, they are not included in the amounts added back to net earnings in the Adjusted EBITDA calculation. We provide below a reconciliation of Adjusted EBITDA to net earnings, which is the most closely comparable financial measure to this non-GAAP financial measure. Adjusted EBITDA margin is our calculation of Adjusted EBITDA divided by net sales.

We use Adjusted EBITDA as a supplemental measure of our performance to gain insight into our operating performance. We believe that the exclusion of other income in calculating Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA margin provides management and investors a useful measure for period-to-period comparisons of our core business and operating results by excluding items that are not comparable across reporting periods. Accordingly, we believe that Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA margin provide useful information to investors and others in understanding and evaluating our operating results. However, our use of Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA margin as analytical tools has limitations, and you should not consider them in isolation or as substitutes for analysis of our financial results as reported under GAAP. In addition, other companies, including companies in our industry, might calculate Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA margin or similarly titled measures differently, which may reduce their usefulness as comparative measures.

Consolidated Results of Operations

During the three months ended September 30, 2015, net sales increased 13.0%, or $38.8 million to $336.3 million, compared to $297.5 million for the same period in the prior fiscal year. Sales of products and services rose 13.1% to $324.3 million, from $286.6 million in the prior year quarter ended September 30, 2014. The increase reflects a 9.9% increase in non-GAAP gross sales of product and services, increasing to $431.1 million from $392.2 million, as well as a higher proportion of sales from products, which is presented on a gross basis. The increase in net sales revenues was a result of an increase in demand from companies in the technology, health care industries, and state and local government and education (“SLED”) customers.

During the six months ended September 30, 2015, net sales increased 6.4%, or $36.4 million to $606.2 million, compared to $569.8 million for the same period in the prior fiscal year. Sales of product and services were $584.0 million for the six months ended September 30, 2015, compared to $547.9 million for the same period last year, an increase of 6.6%. Non-GAAP gross sales of product and services were $763.4 million compared to $717.7 million during the six months ended September 30, 2014, an increase of 6.4% or $45.7 million.

Consolidated gross profit rose 12.5% to $71.9 million, compared with $63.9 million in the second quarter of fiscal 2015. Consolidated gross margins were 21.4% for the three months ended September 30, 2015, compared to 21.5% for the three months ended September 30, 2014. Our gross margin for product and services was 19.4% during the three months ended September 30, 2015 compared to 19.5% during the three months ended September 30, 2014. The decrease in gross margins was due to shifts in our product revenue mix resulting from changes in demand from our customer base.

Consolidated gross profit rose 8.9% to $131.1 million, compared with $120.4 million in the first half of fiscal 2015. For the six months ended September 30, 2015, consolidated gross margins were 21.6%, compared to 21.1% for the six months ended September 30, 2014. Our gross margin for product and services was 19.7% during the six months ended September 30, 2015 compared to 19.0% during the same period last year. Contributing to our margins for both the three and six month periods was our continued focus on value added services for our customers, including the increase in sales of our professional and managed services. Vendor incentives earned as a percentage of sales of product and services for the three and six months ended September 30, 2015 declined 50 basis points and 40 basis points, respectively, from the prior periods.

Operating income for the quarter increased 31.2% to $26.7 million, as compared to $20.3 million for the three months ended September 30, 2014. Net earnings for the quarter increased 31.2% to $15.7 million, as compared to $12.0 million for the three months ended September 30, 2014. Operating income margin for the quarter increased 110 basis points to 7.9% for the three months ended September 30, 2015 from 6.8% for the prior year.

Operating income for the six months ended September 30, 2015 increased 19.0% to $41.7 million, as compared to $35.1 million for the six months ended September 30, 2014. For the six months ended September 30, 2015, the operating income margin increased 70 basis points to 6.9% from 6.2% for the same period in the prior year.

Consolidated net earnings for the three months ended September 30, 2015 were $15.7 million, and increase of 31.2%, or $3.7 million over the prior year's results. Net earnings for the six months ended September 30, 2015 increased 14.3% to $24.5 million, as compared to $21.4 million for the six months ended September 30, 2014, which included other income of $1.4 million related to a gain recognized on an arrangement we entered into to repurchase the rights, title, and interest to payments due under a financing arrangement. This financing arrangement was previously assigned to a third party financial institution and accounted for as a secured borrowing.

Adjusted EBITDA increased $6.5 million, or 30.3%, to $27.9 million and Adjusted EBITDA margin increased 110 basis points to 8.3% for the three months ended September 30, 2015, as compared to the prior period. Adjusted

EBITDA for the six months ended September 30, 2015 increased $7.1 million, or 19.3%, to $44.1 million and Adjusted EBITDA margin increased 80 basis points to 7.3% compared to the prior year period of 6.5%.

Diluted earnings per share increased 31.9%, or $0.52 to $2.15 per share for the three months ended September 30, 2015, as compared to $1.63 per share for the three months ended September 30, 2014. Diluted earnings per share increased 17.1% to $3.35 per share for the six months ended September 30, 2015, as compared to $2.86 per share for the six months ended September 30, 2014.

Cash and cash equivalents decreased $13.3 million or 17.5% to $62.8 million at September 30, 2015 compared to March 31, 2015. Our cash on hand, funds generated from operations, amounts available under our credit facility and the possible monetization of our investment portfolio provide sufficient liquidity for our business.

Segment Overview

Our operations are conducted through two segments: technology and financing.

Technology Segment

The technology segment sells IT equipment and software and related services primarily to corporate customers, state and local governments, and higher education institutions on a nationwide basis, with geographic concentrations relating to our physical locations. The technology segment also provides Internet-based business-to-business supply chain management solutions for information technology products.

Customers who purchase IT equipment and services from us may have customer master agreements, or CMAs, with our company, which stipulate the terms and conditions of the relationship. Some CMAs contain pricing arrangements, and most contain mutual voluntary termination clauses. Our other customers place orders using purchase orders without a CMA in place or with other documentation customary for the business. Often, our work with state and local governments is based on public bids and our written bid responses. Our service engagements are generally governed by statements of work, and are primarily fixed price (with allowance for changes); however, some service agreements are based on time and materials.

We endeavor to minimize the cost of sales through incentive programs provided by vendors and distributors. The programs we qualify for are generally set by our reseller authorization level with the vendor. The authorization level we achieve and maintain governs the types of products we can resell as well as such items as pricing received, funds provided for the marketing of these products and other special promotions. These authorization levels are achieved by us through purchase volume, certifications held by sales executives or engineers and/or contractual commitments by us. The authorization levels are costly to maintain and these programs continually change and, therefore, there is no guarantee of future reductions of costs provided by these vendor consideration programs.

Financing Segment

Our financing segment offers financing solutions to corporations, governmental entities, and educational institutions nationwide and also in Canada and Iceland. The financing segment derives revenue from leasing IT and medical equipment and the disposition of that equipment at the end of the lease. The financing segment also derives revenues from the financing of third-party software licenses, software assurance, maintenance and other services.

Financing revenue generally falls into the following three categories:

- Portfolio income: Interest income from financing receivables and rents due under operating leases;
- Transactional gains: Net gains or losses on the sale of financial assets; and
- Post-contract earnings: Month-to-month rents; early termination, prepayment, make-whole, or buyout fees; and net gains on the sale of off-lease (used) equipment.

Our financing segment sells the equipment underlying a lease to the lessee or a third-party other than the lessee. These sales occur at the end of the lease term and revenues from the sales of such equipment are recognized at the date of sale. We also recognize revenue from events that occur after the initial sale of a financial asset and remarketing fees from certain residual value investments.

Fluctuations in Revenues

Our results of operations are susceptible to fluctuations for a number of reasons, including, without limitation, customer demand for our products and services, supplier costs, changes in vendor incentive programs, interest rate fluctuations, general economic conditions, and differences between estimated residual values and actual amounts realized related to the equipment we lease. Operating results could also fluctuate as a result of a sale prior to the expiration of the lease term to the lessee or to a third-party or from post-term events.

We expect to continue to expand by opening new sales locations and hiring additional staff for specific targeted market areas in the near future whenever we can find both experienced personnel and desirable geographic areas. These investments may reduce our results from operations in the short term.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to use judgment in the application of accounting policies, including making estimates and assumptions. If our judgment or interpretation of the facts and circumstances relating to various transactions had been different, or different assumptions were made, it is possible that alternative accounting policies would have been applied, resulting in a change in financial results. On an ongoing basis, we reevaluate our estimates, including those related to revenue recognition, residual values, vendor incentives, lease classification, goodwill and intangibles, reserves for credit losses and income taxes specifically relating to uncertain tax positions. We base estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. For all such estimates, we caution that future events rarely develop exactly as forecasted, and therefore, these estimates may require adjustment.

Our critical accounting estimates have not changed from those reported in Item 7, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in our 2015 Annual Report.

Quarter Ended	Sequential		Year over Year
September 30, 2015	24.9	%	13.1 %
June 30, 2015	0.9	%	(0.6 %)
March 31, 2015	(13.0	%)	3.2 %
December 31, 2014	3.2	%	15.6 %
September 30, 2014	9.7	%	9.7 %

We rely on our vendors to fulfill a large majority of shipments to our customers. As of September 30, 2015, we had open orders of $73.9 million and deferred revenue of $22.6 million. As of September 30, 2014, we had open orders of $89.8 million and deferred revenues of $24.2 million.

Gross profit: Our gross margin for product and services was 19.4% during the three months ended September 30, 2015 compared to 19.5% during the three months ended September 30, 2014. The decrease in gross margins was due to shifts in our product revenue mix resulting from changes in demand from our customer base.

Our gross margin for product and services was 19.7% during the six months ended September 30, 2015 compared to 19.0% during the six months ended September 30, 2014. Contributing to our margins for both the three and six month periods was our continued focus on value added services for our customers, including the increase in sales of our professional and managed services. Vendor incentives earned as a percentage of sales of product and services for the three and six months ended September 30, 2015 declined 50 basis points and 40 basis points, respectively, from the prior year.

Operating expenses: Operating expenses were $42.1 million, an increase of $2.1 million or 5.3% higher for the current quarter compared to $40.0 million for the three months ended September 30, 2014. Operating expenses for the six months ended September 30, 2015 were $82.9 million compared to $78.1 million or 6.2% higher than the six months ended September 30, 2014.

Professional and other fees were $1.3 million for the three months ended September 30, 2015, and 2014. Professional and other fees for the six months ended September 30, 2015 were $2.6 million compared to $2.9 million or 11.7% lower than the six months ended September 30, 2014. The decrease for the six months ended September 30, 2015 was primarily due to a decrease in fees related to the secondary offering of common stock in the prior year.

Salaries and benefits increased $1.5 million, or 4.7%, to $33.5 million during the three months ended September 30, 2015, compared to $32.0 million during the three months ended September 30, 2014. For the six months ended September 30, 2015, salaries and benefits were $66.4 million compared to $62.6 million or 6.1% higher than the six months ended September 30, 2014. The increase in salaries and benefits is due to additional personnel and merit increases. Our technology segment had 945 employees as of September 30, 2015, an increase of 17 or 1.8% from 928 as of September 30, 2014, all of which were sales and engineering positions.

General and administrative expenses increased $0.6 million, or 9.2% during the three months ended September 30, 2015 over the same period for the prior year. During the six months ended September 30, 2015 general and administrative expenses increased $1.4 million, or 11.2% over the same period for the prior year. This increase was primarily due to incremental costs associated with the acquisition of Evolve and other costs related to the ongoing expansion of our business.

Net sales: Net sales increased by $1.2 million, or 13.2%, to $10.3 million for the three months ended September 30, 2015, as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2014 due to higher transactional gains. During the quarters ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, we recognized net gains on sales of financial assets of $2.5 million and $0.9 million, respectively, and the fair value of assets received from these sales were $84.4 million and $37.6 million, respectively. For the six months ended September 30, 2015 gross profit increased $0.2 million due to higher transactional gains being offset in part by lower post-contract earnings and increased depreciation expense related to operating leases as compared to the prior year period.

Operating expenses: For the three months ended September 30, 2015, operating expenses decreased $0.5 million, or 12.7%, which was due primarily to both lower interest and financing costs and additional reserves for credit losses recorded in the prior year stemming from an increase in our portfolio balance. LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Liquidity Overview

Our primary sources of liquidity have historically been cash and cash equivalents, internally generated funds from operations, and borrowings, both non-recourse and recourse. We have used those funds to meet our capital requirements, which have historically consisted primarily of working capital for operational needs, capital expenditures, purchases of equipment for lease, payments of principal and interest on indebtedness outstanding, acquisitions and the repurchase of shares of our common stock.

Table of Contents

Our subsidiary ePlus Technology, inc., part of our technology segment, finances its operations with funds generated from operations, and with a credit facility with GE Commercial Distribution Finance, or GECDF, with an aggregate credit limit of $250 million. There are two components of this facility: (1) a floor plan component; and (2) an accounts receivable component. After a customer places a purchase order with us and we have completed our credit check, we place an order for the equipment with one of our vendors. Generally, most purchase orders from us to our vendors are first financed under the floor plan component and reflected in “accounts payable—floor plan” in our condensed consolidated balance sheets. Payments on the floor plan component are due on three specified dates each month, generally 30-60 days from the invoice date. On the due date of the invoices financed by the floor plan component, the invoices are paid by the accounts receivable component of the credit facility. The balance of the accounts receivable component is then reduced by payments from our available cash. The outstanding balance under the accounts receivable component is recorded as recourse notes payable on our condensed consolidated balance sheets. There was no outstanding balance at September 30, 2015 or September 30, 2014, while the maximum credit limit was $30.0 million for both periods. The borrowings and repayments under the floor plan component are reflected as “net borrowings on floor plan facility” in the cash flows from financing activities section of our consolidated statements of cash flows.

Most customer payments in our technology segment are remitted to our lockboxes. Once payments are cleared, the monies in the lockbox accounts are automatically transferred to our operating account on a daily basis. On the due dates of the floor plan component, we make cash payments to GECDF. These payments from the accounts receivable component to the floor plan component and repayments from our cash are reflected as “net borrowings on floor plan facility” in the cash flows from financing activities section of our condensed consolidated statements of cash flows. We engage in this payment structure in order to minimize our interest expense and bank fees in connection with financing the operations of our technology segment.

We believe that cash on hand, and funds generated from operations, together with available credit under our credit facility, will be sufficient to finance our working capital, capital expenditures and other requirements for at least the next twelve calendar months.

Our ability to continue to fund our planned growth, both internally and externally, is dependent upon our ability to generate sufficient cash flow from operations or to obtain additional funds through equity or debt financing, or from other sources of financing, as may be required. While at this time we do not anticipate requiring any additional sources of financing to fund operations, if demand for IT products declines, our cash flows from operations may be substantially affected.

Cash used in operating activities totaled $11.0 million during the six months ended September 30, 2014. Net earnings adjusted for the impact of non-cash items was $19.6 million. Net changes in assets and liabilities resulted in a decrease of cash and cash equivalents of $30.6 million, primarily due to cash used for accounts payable—trade of $29.3 million, cash used for inventories and financing receivables, partially offset by changes in accounts receivable—trade, salaries and commissions payable and deferred costs and other assets.

In order to manage our working capital, we monitor our cash conversion cycle for our Technology segment, which is defined as days sales outstanding (“DSO”) in accounts receivable plus days of supply in inventory (“DIO”) minus days of purchases outstanding in accounts payable (“DPO”). The following table presents the components of the cash conversion cycle for our Technology segment:

	As of

Represents the rolling three-month average of the balance of trade accounts receivable-trade, net for our (1) Technology segment at the end of the period divided by non-GAAP gross sales of product and services for the same three-month period.

(2) Represents the rolling three-month average of the balance of inventory, net for our Technology segment at the end of the period divided by non-GAAP gross cost of sales, product and services for the same three-month period.

(3) Represents the rolling three-month average of the combined balance of accounts payable-trade and accounts payable-floor plan for our Technology segment at the end of the period divided by non-GAAP gross cost of sales, product and services for the same three-month period.

Our standard payment term for customers is between 30-60 days; however, certain customers are approved for extended payment terms. Invoices processed through our credit facility, or the accounts payable—floor plan balance, are typically paid within 45-60 days from the invoice date, while accounts payable—trade invoices are typically paid within 30 days from the invoice date. Our cash conversion cycle was 12 days as of September 30, 2015 and 2014.

Cash flows related to investing activities. Cash used in investing activities was $27.9 million during the six months ended September 30, 2015, compared to cash used in investing activities of $22.2 million during the same period last year. Cash used in investing activities during the six months ended September 30, 2015 was primarily driven by issuance of financing receivables of $67.6 million, purchase of assets to be leased of $9.4 million and purchases of property, equipment, and operating lease equipment of $15.6 million, which was partially offset by cash proceeds from the repayment financing receivable of $35.5 million, the sale of financing receivables of $26.0 million, and proceeds from the sale of property, equipment and operating lease equipment of $3.2 million.

Cash used in investing activities was $22.2 million during the six months ended September 30, 2014. Cash used in investing activities during the six months ended September 30, 2014 was primarily driven by issuance of financing receivables of $51.2 million, purchase of assets to be leased and property and equipment of $11.9 million, and cash used in acquisitions of $7.8 million, which was partially offset by cash proceeds from the sale of financing receivable of $12.3 million and the repayment of financing receivables of $28.1 million, and proceeds from the sale of property, equipment and operating lease equipment of $5.8 million.

Cash flows from financing activities. Cash provided by financing activities was $37.3 million during the six months ended September 30, 2015, which was primarily due to net borrowings on the floor plan facility of $27.6 million and net borrowings of non-recourse and recourse notes payable of $11.1 million, which was partially offset by $2.5 million in cash used for the repurchase of common stock. During the six months ended September 30, 2014, cash provided by financing activities was $15.9 million, which was due to net borrowings on the floor plan facility of $20.7 million and net borrowings of non-recourse and recourse notes payable of $29.3 million, which was partially offset by the repurchase of treasury stock of $34.8 million.

Non-Cash Activities

We assign contractual payments due under lease and financing agreements to third-party financial institutions, which are accounted for as non-recourse notes payable. As a condition to the assignment agreement, certain financial institutions may request that the customer remit their contractual payments to a trust; rather than to us, and the trust pays the financial institution. Alternatively, if the structure of the agreement does not require a trustee, the customer will continue to make payments to us, and we will remit the payment to the financial institution. The economic impact to us under either assignment structure is similar, in that the assigned contractual payments are paid by the customer and remitted to the lender to pay down the corresponding non-recourse notes payable. However, these assignment structures are classified differently within our consolidated statements of cash flows. More specifically, we are required to exclude non-cash transactions from our consolidated statement of cash flows, so certain contractual payments made by the customer to the trust are excluded from our operating cash receipts and the corresponding repayment of the non-recourse notes payable from the trust to the third-party financial institution are excluded from our cash flows from financing activities. Contractual payments received by the trust and paid to the lender on our behalf are disclosed as a non-cash financing activity.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We may utilize non-recourse notes payable to finance approximately 80% to 100% of the purchase price of the assets being leased or financed by our customers. Any balance of the purchase price remaining after non-recourse funding and any upfront payments received from the customer (our equity investment in the equipment) must generally be financed by cash flows from our operations, the sale of the equipment leased to third parties, or other internal means. Although we expect that the credit quality of our financing arrangements and our residual return history will continue to allow us to obtain such financing, such financing may not be available on acceptable terms, or at all.

The financing necessary to support our lease and financing activities has been provided by our cash and non-recourse borrowings. We monitor our exposure closely. Historically, we have obtained mostly non-recourse borrowings from third party banks and finance companies. We continue to be able to obtain financing through our traditional lending sources. Non-recourse financings are loans whose repayment is the responsibility of a specific customer, although we may make representations and warranties to the lender regarding the specific contract or have ongoing loan servicing obligations. Under a non-recourse loan, we borrow from a lender an amount based on the present value of the contractually committed lease payments under the lease at a fixed rate of interest, and the lender secures a lien on the financed assets. When the lender is fully repaid from the lease payments, the lien is released and all further rental or sale proceeds are ours. We are not liable for the repayment of non-recourse loans unless we breach our representations and warranties in the loan agreements. The lender assumes the credit risk of each lease, and the lender's only recourse, upon default by the lessee, is against the lessee and the specific equipment under lease.

At September 30, 2015, our non-recourse notes payable decreased 26.9% to $38.6 million, as compared to $52.9 million at March 31, 2015. Recourse notes payable increased 8.9% to $4.0 million as of September 30, 2015 compared to $3.7 million as of March 31, 2015.

Whenever desirable, we arrange for equity investment financing, which includes selling lease payments, including the residual portions, to third parties and financing the equity investment on a non-recourse basis. We generally retain customer control and operational services, and have minimal residual risk. We usually reserve the right to share in remarketing proceeds of the equipment on a subordinated basis after the investor has received an agreed-to return on its investment.

Credit Facility — Technology

Our subsidiary, ePlus Technology, inc., has a financing facility from GECDP to finance its working capital requirements for inventories and accounts receivable. There are two components of this facility: (1) a floor plan component; and (2) an accounts receivable component. This facility has full recourse to ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary ePlus Technology Services, inc. and is secured by a blanket lien against all their assets, such as chattel paper, receivables and inventory. As of September 30, 2015, the facility had an aggregate limit of the two components of $250.0 million with an accounts receivable sub-limit of $30.0 million.

Table of Contents

Availability under the facility may be limited by the asset value of equipment we purchase or accounts receivable, and may be further limited by certain covenants and terms and conditions of the facility. These covenants include but are not limited to a minimum excess availability of the facility and minimum earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization of ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary. We were in compliance with these covenants as of September 30, 2015. Interest on the facility is assessed at a rate of the One Month LIBOR plus two and one half percent if the payments are not made on the three specified dates each month. The facility also requires that financial statements of ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary be provided within 45 days of each quarter and 90 days of each fiscal year end and also requires other operational reports be provided on a regular basis. Either party may terminate the facility with 90 days advance written notice.

We are not, and do not believe that we are reasonably likely to be, in breach of the GECDF credit facility. In addition, we do not believe that the covenants of the GECDF credit facility materially limit our ability to undertake financing. In this regard, the covenants apply only to our subsidiary, ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary. This credit facility is secured by the assets of ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary ePlus Technology Services, inc. and the guaranty as described below.

The facility provided by GECDF requires a guaranty of $10.5 million by ePlus inc. The guaranty requires ePlus inc. to deliver its annual audited financial statements by a certain date. We have delivered the annual audited financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2015, as required. The loss of the GECDF credit facility could have a material adverse effect on our future results as we currently rely on this facility and its components for daily working capital and liquidity for our technology segment and as an operational function of our accounts payable process.

Floor Plan Component

The traditional business of ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary as a seller of computer technology, related peripherals and software products, is in part financed through a floor plan component in which interest expense for the first thirty to sixty days, in general, is not charged. The floor plan liabilities are recorded as accounts payable—floor plan on our condensed consolidated balance sheets, as they are normally repaid within the fifteen to sixty-day time frame and represent assigned accounts payable originally generated with the manufacturer/distributor. In some cases we are able to pay invoices early and receive a discount, but if the fifteen to sixty-day obligation is not paid timely, interest is then assessed at stated contractual rates.

The respective floor plan component credit limits and actual outstanding balance payables for the dates indicated were as follows (in thousands):

Maximum Credit Limit at September 30, 2015	Balance as of September 30, 2015	Maximum Credit Limit at March 31, 2015	Balance as of March 31, 2015
$250,000	$127,053	$225,000	$99,418

Accounts Receivable Component

Included within the credit facility, ePlus Technology, inc. and its subsidiary have an accounts receivable component from GECDF, which has a revolving line of credit. On the due date of the invoices financed by the floor plan component, the invoices are paid by the accounts receivable component of the credit facility. The balance of the accounts receivable component is then reduced by payments from our available cash. The outstanding balance under the accounts receivable component is recorded as recourse notes payable on our consolidated balance sheets. There was no balance outstanding for the accounts receivable component at September 30, 2015 or March 31, 2015, while the maximum credit limit was $30.0 million for both periods.

Performance Guarantees

In the normal course of business, we may provide certain customers with performance guarantees, which are generally backed by surety bonds. In general, we would only be liable for the amount of these guarantees in the event of default in the performance of our obligations. We are in compliance with the performance obligations under all service contracts for which there is a performance guarantee, and we believe that any liability incurred in connection with these guarantees would not have a material adverse effect on our consolidated statements of operations.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

As part of our ongoing business, we do not participate in transactions that generate relationships with unconsolidated entities or financial partnerships, such as entities often referred to as structured finance or special purpose entities, which would have been established for the purpose of facilitating off-balance sheet arrangements as defined in Item 303(a)(4)(ii) of Regulation S-K or other contractually narrow or limited purposes. As of September 30, 2015, we were not involved in any unconsolidated special purpose entity transactions.

Adequacy of Capital Resources

The continued implementation of our business strategy will require a significant investment in both resources and managerial focus. In addition, we may selectively acquire other companies that have attractive customer relationships and skilled sales and/or engineering forces. We may also start offices in new geographic areas, which may require a significant investment of cash. We may also acquire technology companies to expand and enhance the platform of bundled solutions to provide additional functionality and value-added services. We may continue to use our internally generated funds to finance investments in leased assets or investments in notes receivables due from our customers. As a result, we may require additional financing to fund our strategy, implementation and potential future acquisitions, which may include additional debt and equity financing.

Inflation

For the periods presented herein, inflation has been relatively low and we believe that inflation has not had a material effect on our results of operations.

Potential Fluctuations in Quarterly Operating Results

Our future quarterly operating results and the market price of our common stock may fluctuate. In the event our revenues or earnings for any quarter are less than the level expected by securities analysts or the market in general, such shortfall could have an immediate and significant adverse impact on the market price of our common stock. Any such adverse impact could be greater if any such shortfall occurs near the time of any material decrease in any widely followed stock index or in the market price of the stock of one or more public equipment leasing and financing companies, IT resellers, software competitors, major customers or vendors of ours.

Our quarterly results of operations are susceptible to fluctuations for a number of reasons, including, but not limited to, reduction in IT spending, any reduction of expected residual values related to the equipment under our leases, the timing and mix of specific transactions, the reduction of manufacturer incentive programs, and other factors. Quarterly operating results could also fluctuate as a result of our sale of equipment in our lease portfolio at the expiration of a lease term or prior to such expiration, to a lessee or to a third party and the transfer of financial assets. Sales of equipment and transfers of financial assets may have the effect of increasing revenues and net income during the quarter in which the sale occurs, and reducing revenues and net income otherwise expected in subsequent quarters. See Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors," in our 2015 Annual Report.

We believe that comparisons of quarterly results of our operations are not necessarily meaningful and that results for one quarter should not be relied upon as an indication of future performance.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Although a portion of our liabilities are non-recourse, fixed-interest-rate instruments, we utilize our line of credit and other financing facilities which are subject to fluctuations in short-term interest rates. These instruments, which are denominated in U.S. dollars, were entered into for other than trading purposes and, with the exception of amounts drawn under the GECDF facility, bear interest at a fixed rate. Because the interest rate on these instruments is fixed, changes in interest rates will not directly impact our cash flows. Changes in interest rates may affect our ability to fund or transfer our financing arrangements if the rate rises above the fixed rate of the instrument. Borrowings under the GECDF facility bear interest at a market-based variable rate. As of September 30, 2015, the aggregate fair value of our non-recourse notes payable approximated their carrying value.

We have financed certain customer leases for equipment which is located in Canada and Iceland. As such, we have entered into lease contracts and non-recourse, fixed-interest-rate financing denominated in Canadian dollars and Icelandic krona. To date, our Canadian and Icelandic operations have been insignificant and we believe that potential fluctuations in currency exchange rates will not have a material effect on our financial position. We also transact business in other foreign currencies which are subject to fluctuations, however, the dollar volume of these transactions is immaterial.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this report, we carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) and our Chief Financial Officer (“CFO”), of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures, or “disclosure controls,” as defined in the Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(e). Disclosure controls are controls and procedures designed to reasonably ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed under the Exchange Act, such as this quarterly report, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC’s rules and forms. Disclosure controls include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our CEO and CFO, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. Our disclosure controls include some, but not all, components of our internal control over financial reporting. Based upon that evaluation, our CEO and CFO concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of September 30, 2015.

Changes in Internal Controls

There have not been any changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the quarter ended September 30, 2015, which have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Limitations on the Effectiveness of Controls

Our management, including our CEO and CFO, does not expect that our disclosure controls or our internal control over financial reporting will prevent or detect all errors and all fraud. A control system cannot provide absolute assurance due to its inherent limitations; it is a process that involves human diligence and compliance and is subject to lapses in judgment and breakdowns resulting from human failures. A control system also can be circumvented by collusion or improper management override. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of such limitations, disclosure controls and internal control over financial reporting cannot prevent or detect all misstatements, whether unintentional errors or fraud. However, these inherent limitations are known features of the financial reporting process; therefore, it is possible to design into the process safeguards to reduce, though not eliminate, this risk.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

We were the plaintiff in a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia (“the Trial Court”) in which, on January 27, 2011, a jury unanimously found that Lawson Software, Inc. (“Lawson”) infringed certain ePlus patents. On August 16, 2013, the Trial Court found, by clear and convincing evidence, that Lawson was in contempt of the Trial Court’s May 23, 2011, injunction which restricted Lawson from taking certain actions that infringed one our patents. Lawson appealed, and while the appeal was pending, on April 3, 2014, the United States Patent and Trademark Office issued a notice canceling the patent. On July 25, 2014, the Appeals Court vacated the injunction and the contempt order. On June 18, 2015, the Appeals Court, in a 5-5 split opinion, denied our petition for rehearing. We intend to ask the United States Supreme Court to consider the case.

Court calendars and rulings are inherently unpredictable, and we cannot predict whether the Supreme Court will hear our case, when any litigation will be resolved, or the outcome thereof.

Other Matters

We may become party to various legal proceedings arising in the ordinary course of business including preference payment claims asserted in customer bankruptcy proceedings, claims of alleged infringement of patents, trademarks, copyrights and other intellectual property rights, claims of alleged non-compliance with contract provisions, employment related claims, claims by competitors, vendors or customers, claims related to alleged violations of laws and regulations, and claims relating to alleged security or privacy breaches. Although we do not expect that the outcome in any of these matters, individually or collectively, will have a material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations, litigation is inherently unpredictable. Therefore, judgments could be rendered or settlements entered that could adversely affect our results of operations or cash flows in a particular period. We provide for costs related to contingencies when a loss is probable and the amount is reasonably determinable.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

There have not been any material changes in the risk factors previously disclosed in Part I, Item 1A of our 2015 Annual Report.
