PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

j2 Global Communications, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2006 by the deadline prescribed under Securities and Exchange Commission rules and regulations.

The Company previously announced the establishment of a special committee of outside directors to perform an independent investigation of its grant of stock options since the Company's July 1999 IPO.

As a result, the Company delayed the filing of its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006 pending completion of the independent investigation. As the investigation is still on-going, the Company will also delay the filing of its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2006. This filing will not be made within the five-calendar day period contemplated by Rule 12b-25(b). However, the Company currently anticipates releasing its Q3 2006 financial results, holdings its Q3 2006 earnings call and filing its quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006 on or before December 15, 2006. The Company's ability to meet this schedule is dependent upon the completion of the investigation by the special committee. While the Company anticipates achieving this timeframe, there can be no assurance that it will be able to do so.

The Company does not believe that any update is required at this time with respect to its previous guidance as to the approximate maximum size of any adjustments that may need to be recorded through December 31, 2005 or through the first six months of 2006.

Although the timeframe for completing the investigation is uncertain, the Company continues to be focused on resolving these issues as quickly as possible and plans to file its Form 10-Q and any required restated financial statements following completion of the independent investigation.
