Accordingly, the Current Reporting Persons are hereby jointly filing this Statement.

On August 11, 2008, the Current Reporting Persons, other than M. Thurman, and each of the persons listed hereafter filed the Initial Filing: the Pratt Family Trust, the Pratt Family Bypass Trust, A. that he was returning the revocable proxies granted by each of the Prior Reporting Persons, and agreed to forego his right to exercise any voting power over the shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by the Prior Reporting Persons, effective as of March 23, 2009. As a result, the Prior Reporting Persons and the Current Reporting Persons are no longer deemed to have collectively acquired beneficial ownership of the Common Stock as a group, for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act), and have ceased their agreement to act together for purposes of acquiring, holding, voting or disposing of the Common Stock of the Company. Consequently, as of March 23, 2009, the Prior Reporting Persons are no longer party to the Initial Filing, and any subsequent amendments thereto. A form of the letter sent by B. Item 3.

Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

Item 3 of the Initial Filing is hereby amended by adding the following:

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement and the terms of certain termination agreements, as applicable, the Primoris stockholders and Primoris's two foreign managers have the right to receive his, her or its proportional share of 2,500,000 additional shares of Common Stock in each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 2008 and 2009 (for an aggregate possible total for the two years of 5,000,000 shares of Common Stock) if the Company achieves specified EBITDA milestones. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008, the Company achieved its EBITDA milestone for the period. In connection therewith, each of the Primoris Holders, Combustion's and R. Newnham's right to receive the additional shares based on the specified EBITDA milestones for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2008 (2008 EBITDA Share) became fixed and irrevocable on March 24, 2009, the date upon which the Company's registered public accountants' report on the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 was filed with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Thus, the Current Reporting Persons acquired their respective 2008 EBITDA Shares in consideration of the conversion of their shares of common stock of Primoris for shares of Common Stock of the Company pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Additionally, on March 19, 2009, B. Pratt acquired 200,000 shares of Common Stock through his broker in open market purchases. B. Pratt purchased these shares of Common Stock using his own personal funds, for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $764,005, including brokerage commissions.

Item 4.

Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 of the Initial Filing is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

B. Pratt is the direct and beneficial owner of 15,732,508 shares of Common Stock of the Company owned by him, the beneficial owner of 89,405 shares of Common Stock owned by his wife, Barbara Pratt and effective as of July 31, 2008, B. Pratt received three (3) year revocable proxies from each of the Current Reporting Persons and Prior Reporting Persons, other than Barbara Pratt and M. Thurman (collectively the Proxy Grantors) expiring on July 31, 2011 (Proxies) in favor of him to vote, or to execute and deliver written consents, or otherwise act with respect to, all shares of the Company's Common Stock then owned or thereafter acquired by each of the Proxy Grantors. On March 25, 2009, M. Thurman granted a three (3) year revocable proxy expiring on March 25, 2009 (Thurman Proxy) in favor of B. Pratt, for B. Pratt to vote, or execute and deliver written consents, or otherwise act with respect to, all shares of the Company's Common Stock then owned or thereafter acquired by M. Thurman.

Edgar Filing: Pratt Brian - Form SC 13D/A

On March 27, 2009, B. Pratt sent a letter to each of the Prior Reporting Persons notifying them that he was returning the Proxies granted by each of the Prior Reporting Persons, and agreed to forego his right to exercise any voting power over the shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by the Prior Reporting Persons, effective as of March 23, 2009. As a result, the Prior Reporting Persons and the Current Reporting Persons are no longer deemed to have collectively acquired beneficial ownership of the Common Stock as a group, for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act, and have ceased their agreement to act together for purposes of acquiring, holding, voting or disposing of the Common Stock of the Company.

As a result of the foregoing, with the Proxies remaining from the Current Reporting Persons, other than Barbara Pratt and M. Thurman (Current Proxy Grantors), and the Thurman Proxy, B. Pratt has the power to vote approximately 58.6% of the Common Stock of the Company, and for purposes of the rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers Nasdaq Stock Market (Nasdaq), the Company will be deemed a Controlled Company as defined below. A form of the Proxy that was granted by the Current Proxy Grantors, as well as a copy of the Thurman Proxy, are attached hereto as Exhibit 2 and Exhibit 3, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

Edgar Filing: Pratt Brian - Form SC 13D/A

The underlying purpose for the Current Proxy Grantors granting the Proxies and M. Thurman granting the Thurman Proxy in favor of B. Pratt was to enable the Company to take advantage of certain exemptions from the Nasdaq listing standards available to Controlled Companies. The Common Stock of the Company is listed on the Nasdaq Global Market. The Nasdaq Rules require public companies with securities listed on the Nasdaq to have (i) a board of directors consisting of a majority of independent directors, (ii) directors recommended to the board of directors by an independent nominating committee or the independent directors of the company, and (iii) executive officer compensation recommended by an independent compensation committee or the independent directors of the company. However, these requirements do not apply if the public company is a Controlled Company. As of March 17, 2009 the Board of Directors of the Company determined that five of the eight directors were independent under the applicable Nasdaq Rules.

A Controlled Company is a company listed on the Nasdaq for which more than fifty percent of the voting power is held by an individual, a group or another company. The Current Reporting Persons collectively have the power to vote approximately 58.6% of the Common Stock of the Company. B. Pratt, through the shares of Common Stock held by him and his wife and with the Proxies granted by the Current Proxy Grantors and with the Thurman Proxy, currently has the power to vote approximately 58.6% of the Common Stock of the Company. As a result, the group formed by B. Pratt, Barbara Pratt, M. Thurman and the Current Proxy Grantors comprise a group in which more than fifty percent of the voting power of the Company is held, making the Company a Controlled Company under the Nasdaq Rules.

Additionally, the Current Proxy Grantors and Mr. Thurman desired to consolidate their voting power in B. Pratt so as to allow B. Pratt to more efficiently run and operate the Company.

As noted in Item 6 below, on July 31, 2008, B. Pratt, J. Schauerman, the Summers Trust and T. Healy entered into a voting agreement with Eric Rosenfeld, a founding member of the Company. The voting agreement provides that each of the parties thereto will vote their shares of Common Stock in favor of the election of such persons as directors of the Company in specified classes in all elections prior to the annual meeting that will be held in 2011. Directors B. Pratt, Peter Moerbeek, J. Schauerman, Stephen Cook and Thomas Tucker were designees of the former Primoris stockholders, and directors Eric Rosenfeld and David Sgro were designees of Mr. Rosenfeld. During the three-year period following the closing of the Merger, Mr. Rosenfeld will be entitled to appoint a person to be an observer at board meetings of the Company and to receive all information distributed to the board members while acting in such capacity. During such period, Mr. Rosenfeld may appoint the person then serving as observer for election to the board in place of its then-designee and the then-designee shall serve as observer for the balance of the period. Arnaud Ajdler, who was one of the Company's directors immediately prior to the Merger, is initially serving as observer. It is anticipated that at some point during the term being served by Mr. Sgro as a director, Mr. Ajdler will be designated to replace Mr. Sgro as a director and Mr. Sgro will thereafter serve as observer for the balance of the three-year period.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, following the Merger, the board of directors of the Company is required to declare and pay annual dividends on the Common Stock at a rate of not less than $0.10 per share; provided, however, that the board of directors shall not declare any such dividend unless, at the time of declaration, there is adequate surplus for such declaration under the Delaware General Corporation Law or if the board of directors, in the exercise of their business judgment, believes that it would be prudent to cancel or modify the dividend payment. On August 8, 2008, the Company's board of directors declared a cash dividend of $0.025 per share on the Company's outstanding shares of Common Stock, payable to stockholders of record as of September 23, 2008. These dividends were paid on October 10, 2008. On November 10, 2008, a cash dividend of $0.025 per share was declared, payable to stockholders of record as of December 23, 2008. These dividends were paid on January 6, 2009. On March 16, 2009, a cash dividend of $0.025 per share was declared, payable to stockholders of record as of March 31, 2009 with an anticipated distribution date on or about April 15, 2009.

As noted in Item 3 above, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, the former Primoris stockholders and the two foreign managers have the right to receive 2,500,000 additional shares of Common Stock for each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 2008 and 2009 if the Company achieves specified EBITDA milestones. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008, the Company achieved its EBITDA milestone for the period. In connection therewith, each of the Primoris Holders, Combustion's and R. Newnham's right to receive the 2008 EBITDA Shares became fixed and irrevocable on March 24, 2009, the date upon which the Company's registered public accountants report on the financial

As a result, the Prior Reporting Persons and the Current Reporting Persons are no longer deemed to have collectively acquired beneficial ownership of the Common Stock as a group, for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act, and have ceased their agreement to act together for purposes of acquiring, holding, voting or disposing of the Common Stock of the Company.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

Item 6 of the Initial Filing is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

As noted in Item 4 above, the Current Proxy Grantors and M. Thurman granted a Proxy and Thurman Proxy, respectively, in favor of B. Pratt to vote, or to execute and deliver written consents, or otherwise act with respect to, all shares of the Company's Common Stock then owned or thereafter acquired by each of the Proxy Grantors and M. Thurman.

On August 11, 2008, the Current Reporting Persons and the Prior Reporting Persons entered into a Joint Filing Agreement, in which the parties agreed to the joint filing on behalf of each of them of statements on Schedule 13D with respect to the securities of the Company to the extent required by applicable law. Exhibit 4 and is incorporated herein by reference.

On March 30, 2009, each of the Current Reporting Persons executed a power of attorney that appoints each of B. Pratt, J. Schauerman, Pete Moerbeek and J. Perisich as the lawful attorneys-in-fact for such Current Reporting Person for purposes of making those electronic filings required by Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, Rule 13d-1 of the Exchange Act and any other rules or regulation of the SEC. A form of the power of attorney executed by each of the Current Reporting Persons is attached hereto as Exhibit 5 and is incorporated herein by reference.

On July 31, 2008, each of the Current Reporting Persons, among others, entered into lock-up agreements with the Company, pursuant to which the Current Reporting Persons and others agreed not to sell any of the shares of Common Stock that they receive as a result of the Merger until July 30, 2009. During that period, no private sales of such shares may be made unless the transferee agrees to a similar restriction. The Company also agreed to register for resale (effective after July 30, 2009) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended ("Securities Act"), the shares of Common Stock received by the Current Reporting Persons and others who may be deemed affiliates of the Company under Rule 144 of the Securities Act. A form of lock-up agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 6 and is incorporated herein by reference.

A 7.5% portion of the shares of Common Stock that the Company issued upon the closing of the Merger were placed in escrow with Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, as escrow agent, pursuant to an escrow agreement, dated July 31, 2008, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 7 and is incorporated herein by reference. The escrow agreement provides a fund for payment to the Company with respect to the Company's post-closing rights to indemnification under the Merger Agreement for breaches of representations and warranties and covenants by Primoris and its former stockholders and foreign managers. 7.5% of the shares of Common Stock currently owned by the Current Reporting Persons is held in the escrow pursuant to the terms of the escrow agreement.

As noted in Item 4 above, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, the former Primoris stockholders and the two foreign managers have the right to receive 2,500,000 additional shares of Common Stock for each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 2008 and 2009 if the Company achieves specified EBITDA milestones. Therefore, the Primoris Holders and Combustion may receive their proportionate number of these shares of Common Stock if the Company achieves the specified EBITDA milestones as specified in the Merger Agreement. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008, the Company achieved its EBITDA milestone for the period. In connection therewith, each of the Primoris Holders, Combustion's and R. Newnham's right to receive the 2008 EBITDA Shares became fixed and irrevocable on March 24, 2009, the date upon which the Company's registered public accountants' report on the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 was filed with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.

On July 31, 2008, B. Pratt, J. Schauerman, the Summers Trust and T. Healy entered into a voting agreement with Eric Rosenfeld, a founding member of the Company. The voting agreement provides that each of the parties thereto will vote their shares of Common Stock in favor of the election of such persons as directors of the Company in specified classes in all elections prior to the annual meeting that will be held in 2011. Directors B. Pratt, Peter Moerbeek, J. Schauerman, Stephen Cook and Thomas Tucker were designees of the former Primoris stockholders, and directors Eric Rosenfeld and David Sgro were designees of Mr. Rosenfeld. During the three-year period following the closing of the Merger, Mr. Rosenfeld will be entitled to appoint a person to be an observer at board meetings of the Company and to receive all information distributed to the board members while acting in such capacity. During such period, Mr. Rosenfeld may appoint the person then serving as observer for election to the board in place of its then-designee and the then-designee shall serve as observer for the balance of the period. Arnaud Ajdler, who was one of the Company's directors immediately prior to the Merger, is initially serving as observer. It is anticipated that at some point during the term being served by Mr. Sgro as a director, Mr. Ajdler will be designated to replace Mr. Sgro as a director and Mr. Sgro will thereafter serve as observer for the balance of the three-year period. A copy of the voting agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 8 and is incorporated herein by reference.
