IR sent over the names of the proposed 14-strong Board , including the appointment of 2 new independents at the AGM, yet the names of the independents have not been disclosed and the proposal is bundled. Given the corporate governance rules for banks were only published in the last week of February, an abstention is the most appropriate response to this item.

											Aksigorta is seeking to ratify all 8 BoD members after their reappointment in 2012 as required by Turkey's new commercial code. The bundled nature of this proposal is not in line with best practice which should see the ratification of each director separated from the next. Admittedly somewhat unusual circumstances this year, but will communicate our sentiment to the company nonetheless.
