THE PROPOSALS AND VOTE NECESSARY TO APPROVE THEM:

ITEM I: To elect five directors to hold office until the annual meeting of stockholders in the year 2002.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes represented by the shares of common stock present at the meeting in person or by proxy. This means that the five director nominees with the most affirmative votes are elected to fill the available seats. Only the number of votes "FOR" affect the outcome. Withheld votes and abstentions have no effect on the vote.

ITEM II: To ratify the appointment of Singer Lewak Greenbaum & Goldstein, LLP as Genesis' independent auditors for Genesis' 2001 fiscal year.

Ratification of the selection of Singer Lewak Greenbaum & Goldstein, LLP as Genesis' independent auditors for the 2001 fiscal year requires a majority of the votes cast by holders of the common stock. Abstentions have no effect on the vote.

ITEM III: To conduct other business if it is properly raised.

Under New York Stock Exchange rules which govern most brokers, if your broker holds your shares in its name, your broker is permitted to vote your shares on both Item I and Item II, even if it does not receive voting instructions from you.

The stockholders have no dissenters' or appraisal rights in connection with either Item I or II.

PROXIES

Voting instructions are included on your proxy card. If you properly submit your proxy in time to vote, one of the individuals named as your proxy will vote your shares as you have directed. You may vote for or withhold authority to vote for Genesis' director nominees. You also may vote for or against the other proposals or abstain from voting.

If you submit your proxy but do not make specific choices, your proxy will follow the board's recommendations and vote your shares:

What accommodations are there for persons with disabilities?

We can provide reasonable assistance to help you participate in the meeting if you tell us about your disability and your plan to attend. Please call or write Genesis' Secretary in advance of the meeting at the number or address on the first page of this proxy statement.

Is my vote confidential?

Yes. Independent inspectors count the votes, so your individual vote is kept confidential unless special circumstances exist. For example, a copy of your proxy card will be sent to Genesis if you write comments on the card.

Who pays for the proxy solicitation?

Genesis pays its own costs of soliciting proxies. In addition to this mailing, Genesis employees may solicit proxies personally.

May I propose actions for consideration at next year's annual meeting of stockholders or nominate individuals to serve as directors?

Yes. You may submit proposals for consideration at future shareholder meetings, including director proposals.

Proposals of stockholders of Genesis that are intended to be presented by such stockholders at Genesis's 2002 annual meeting and that stockholders desire to have included in our proxy materials relating to such meeting must be received by the Secretary of Genesis at 5805 Sepulveda Blvd., 8th Fl, Van Nuys, California 91411 no later than January 17, 2002, which is 120 calendar days prior to the anniversary of this year's mail date, and must be in compliance with applicable laws and regulations in order to be considered for possible inclusion in the proxy statement and form of proxy for that meeting, including the requirements of Rule 14a-18 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Under Section 2.7 of our bylaws, a stockholder may present a proposal at our annual meeting in the year 2002 even if the stockholder fails to meet the deadline for inclusion in the proxy, by giving notice to us at least 90 days prior to the anniversary of this year's meeting. However, if next year's meeting date is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed 60 days, the notice needs to be received no earlier than 120 days and no later than the later of 60 days prior to the meeting, and ten days after the day of the meeting is publicly announced (the "Bylaw Deadline"). If a stockholder gives notice of such a proposal after the Bylaw Deadline, the stockholder will not be permitted to present the proposal to the stockholders for a vote at the meeting, including the requirements of Rule 14a-8 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

OTHER BUSINESS; ADJOURNMENTS

Management is not currently aware of any other business to be acted upon at the meeting. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the meeting, or any adjourned meeting, your proxies will have discretion to vote or act on those matters according to their best judgment, including adjourning the meeting.

Adjournments may be made for the purpose of, among other things, soliciting additional proxies. Any adjournment may be made from time to time by approval of the holders of shares representing a majority of the votes present in person or by proxy at the meeting, whether or not a quorum exists, without further notice other than by an announcement made at the meeting. We do not currently intend to seek an adjournment of the meeting.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS (ITEM I)

In accordance with Genesis' bylaws, the board of directors has fixed the number of directors constituting the board at five. The board of directors proposes the following five nominees for election to the board at the annual meeting, to hold office until our 2002 annual meeting and until his successor is elected and qualified:

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Directors who are employees of Genesis receive no separate compensation for their services as directors. Compensation of the outside directors is determined by the whole board after receiving recommendations of the President. Currently, outside directors of Genesis receive $1,000 for each board meeting they attend in person and $500 for each meeting they attend by conference telephone call. In addition, non-employee directors are entitled to be granted options to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock each year under the 1998 Stock Option Plan for Non-Employee Directors that is part of our 1998 Stock Incentive Program. The options vest quarterly over a two-year period.

All directors are reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with attending meetings of the board of directors. Outside directors also receive reasonable compensation for committee work and business consulting outside normal board meetings. During 2000, Genesis paid $18,425 for business consulting services provided by George Heyworth and an entity owned by George Heyworth.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires Genesis' officers and directors and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of our common stock to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC and Nasdaq. Reporting persons are required by SEC regulations to furnish Genesis with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on a review of the copies of those forms received or written representations from persons subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a), we believe that, with respect to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000, all reporting persons complied with all applicable filing requirements of Section 16(a), except for: Michael R. Fugler who filed a Form 3 late upon being appointed a director and Craig T. Dinkel, whom filed one Form 4 late that involved one transaction.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES

The board of directors has established an audit committee and a compensation committee. The board of directors has not established a nominating or any other committees. Each of the audit and compensation committees is responsible to the full board of directors. The functions performed by these committees are summarized below:

Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee of Genesis is composed of three independent directors and operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors (Appendix A). In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements contained in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for Genesis's 2000 fiscal year with management, including a discussion of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality and acceptability of Genesis's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, the Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and Genesis, including a written letter from the independent auditors regarding their independence and the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board, and considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence.

Edgar Filing: GENESISINTERMEDIA COM INC - Form DEF 14A

The Audit Committee discussed with our chief financial officer and the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for the audit by the independent auditors. The Audit Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of our internal controls, and the overall quality of our financial reporting.

The members of the Audit Committee are not professionally engaged in the practice of auditing or accounting and are not experts in the fields of accounting or auditing, including in respect of auditor independence. Members of the Committee rely without independent verification on the information provided to them in the representations made by management and the independent accountants. Accordingly, the Audit Committee's oversight does not provide an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles or appropriate internal control and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee's considerations and discussions referred to above do not assure that the audit of our financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, that the financial statements are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, or that our auditors are, in fact, independent. Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the board of directors (and the board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the 2000 fiscal year for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Committee also recommended to the board of directors (and the board has approved) the selection of our independent auditors for the 2001 fiscal year.

Submitted by the Audit Committee: Michael R. Fugler
Stephen A. Weber
George W. Heyworth

Audit Fees

Aggregate audit fees by Singer Lewak Greenbaum & Goldstein, LLP for the audit of Genesis's annual financial statements and review of the interim financial statements in Genesis's Forms 10-Q for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000 was $135,000, of which an aggregate amount of $0.00 had been billed through December 31, 2000.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS

No interlocking relationships exist between our compensation committee and the board of directors or compensation committee of any other company, nor has any such interlocking relationship existed in the past. Mr. Jacobson is the Chief Financial Officer and Secretary of Genesis, but does not participate in the management of our stock incentive program as it relates to persons subject to Section 16 under the Securities Exchange Act. There are no interlocking relationships between Genesis and other entities that might affect the determination of the compensation of our directors and executive officers.

BOARD COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The compensation committee believes that the compensation levels of our executive officers, who provide leadership and strategic direction for Genesis, should consist of (i) base salaries that are commensurate with executives of other comparable e-commerce companies and (ii) cash bonus opportunities based on achievement of objectives set by the compensation committee with respect to the chairman and chief executive officer and by the chief executive officer in consultation with the compensation committee with respect to the other executive officers of Genesis. The compensation committee also believes that it is important to provide Genesis' executive officers with significant stock-based incentive compensation that increases in value in direct correlation with improvement in the performance of Genesis' common stock, thereby aligning management's interest with that of our stockholders.

The compensation committee considers the following factors (ranked in order of importance) when determining compensation of our executive officers:

- * Genesis' performance measured by attainment of specific strategic objectives, stock price performance and operating results;
- * the individual performance of each executive officer, including the achievement by the executive (or the executive's functional group) of identified goals; and
- * historical cash and equity compensation levels.

Cash compensation

The salaries of our executive officers are generally initially set at the time of their initial hiring, subject to possible increases in future periods.

As stated above, the compensation of executive officers is also based in part upon individual performance and comparative industry compensation levels. Early in each year, a performance plan is established. Each plan sets forth overall goals to be achieved by Genesis, as well as specific performance goals to be achieved by each of our executive officers according to his or her duties and responsibilities, for the relevant year. For fiscal year 2000, these overall compensation goals included:

- * the acquisition of technologies and businesses consistent with our business and product goals and the successful integration of the acquired businesses and technologies;
- * the enhancement of strategic relationships;
- * the meeting of cash flow, expense and other budgetary targets; and
- * the achievement of appreciation in our stock price.

Equity compensation

The non-employee members of the compensation committee administer and authorize all grants and awards made under the 1998 stock compensation program. In some instances, awards are authorized for new employees as incentives to join Genesis. In determining whether and in what amount to grant stock options or other equity compensation to executive officers in fiscal year 2000, the compensation committee considered the amount and date of vesting of currently outstanding incentive equity compensation granted previously to each executive officer. The compensation committee believes that continued grants of equity compensation to key executives are necessary to retain and motivate exceptionally talented executives who are necessary to achieve our long-term goals, especially at a time of significant growth and competition in the industries in which we participate.

Compensation of Ramy Y. El-Batrawi, Genesis' Chief Executive Officer and

Edgar Filing: GENESISINTERMEDIA COM INC - Form DEF 14A

Chairman

Ramy Y. El-Batrawi, Genesis's chief executive officer and chairman, participates in the same programs as Genesis's other executives, and receives compensation based on: the same factors as Genesis's other executives, his employment agreement and a termination benefits agreement. Mr. El-Batrawi's overall compensation reflects his degree of policy and decision-making authority and his level of responsibility with respect to Genesis's strategic direction and financial and operational results. Mr. El-Batrawi's compensation was determined based on a study of the compensation of chief executive officers of other companies which have business, financial and corporate characteristics similar to those of Genesis. Mr. El-Batrawi's compensation components for Genesis's fiscal year ended December 31, 2000 were as follows:

* Base Salary: Mr. El-Batrawi received a base salary of $263,824.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") limits Genesis to a deduction for federal income tax purposes of not more than $1 million of compensation paid to certain executive officers in a taxable year. Compensation above $1 million may be deducted if it is "performance-based compensation" within the meaning of the Code.

The board of directors has not established a formal policy for determining which forms of incentive compensation awarded to executive officers shall be designed to qualify as "performance based compensation."
