Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Limited Waiver under Credit Agreement

On July 15, 2009, Cooper-Standard Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc., an Ohio corporation (the U.S. Borrower), Cooper-Standard Automotive Canada Limited, a corporation organized under the laws of Ontario (the Canadian Borrower), Cooper-Standard Automotive International Holdings B.V. (f/k/a Steffens Beheer BV), a corporation organized under the laws of the Netherlands (the Dutch Borrower and, together with the U.S. Borrower and the Canadian Borrower, the Borrowers), entered into a Limited Waiver (the Limited Waiver) with various lenders and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as administrative agent (in such capacity the Agent), under that certain Credit Agreement, dated as of December 23, 2004 (as amended from time to time, the Credit Agreement), among the Company, the Borrowers, the lenders party thereto (the Senior Lenders), the Agent, Lehman Commercial Paper Inc., as syndication agent, and Goldman Sachs Credit Partners, L.P., UBS Securities LLC and The Bank of Nova Scotia, as co-documentation agents.

Under the Limited Waiver, the Senior Lenders agreed to waive, for the period commencing on the date of the agreement and ending on the Termination Date (as defined below) (the Waiver Period), certain defaults and events of default resulting directly from (i) the U.S. Borrower's failure to pay interest when due on June 15, 2009 on its 7% Senior Notes due 2012 (the Senior Notes) and its 8% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2014 (the Senior Subordinated Notes and together with the Senior Notes, the Notes) and the expiration of the respective grace periods applicable under the Indentures (as defined below) governing the Notes (the Interest Payment Failure) and (ii) any termination of swap agreements as a result of the Interest Payment Failure (the Swap Terminations and collectively with the Interest Payment Failure, the Specified Defaults). Without the limited waiver the cross-default and cross-acceleration provisions of the Credit Agreement would have been triggered by the Specified Defaults and other provisions under the Credit Agreement would have restricted certain ordinary course operations of the Borrowers and their subsidiaries.

The Waiver Period terminates upon the occurrence of any of the following: (i) August 14, 2009, unless lenders holding a majority of the outstanding loans and/or commitments under the Credit Agreement do not provide a notice of continuation by 5:00 p.m. on July 27, 2009, in which case the Waiver Period will terminate on July 28, 2009, (ii) the occurrence of an event of default under the Credit Agreement other than those waived by the Limited Waiver or (iii) the exercise, or the attempted exercise, of a right of collection or enforcement with respect to the Senior Notes or Senior Subordinated Notes by any holder of more than 1% of the outstanding aggregate amount of the Senior Notes or Senior Subordinated Notes, respectively, or by any trustee or agent thereof.

Noteholders Forbearance Agreements

Additionally, on July 15, 2009 the U.S. Borrower and the Company entered into (i) Senior Notes Forbearance Agreements (the Senior Notes Forbearance Agreements) among the U.S. Borrower, the guarantors of the Senior Notes and holders of more than 75% the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Senior Notes, in connection with the Indenture, dated as of December 23, 2004 (as supplemented from time to time, the Senior Notes Indenture), among the U.S. Borrower, the guarantors party thereto and Wilmington Trust Company, as trustee (the Trustee), relating to the Senior Notes and (ii) a Senior Subordinated Notes Forbearance Agreement (the Senior Subordinated Notes Forbearance Agreement and together with the Senior Notes Forbearance Agreements, the Forbearance Agreements) among the U.S. Borrower, the guarantors of the Senior Subordinated Notes and holders of a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Senior Subordinated Notes, in connection with the Indenture, dated as of December 23, 2004 (as supplemented from time to time, the Senior Subordinated Notes Indenture and together with the Senior Notes Indenture, the Indentures), among the U.S. Borrower, the guarantors party thereto and the Trustee, relating to the Senior Subordinated Notes.

Each of the Forbearance Agreements provides that prior to the applicable Cutoff Date (as defined below), each of the holders party thereto agrees not to exercise or seek to exercise, alone or in concert, any remedies under the applicable Indenture with respect to the Specified Defaults and to instruct the Trustee to forbear from exercising any such remedies. Such holders also agreed not to transfer their Notes unless the transferee executes an agreement containing provisions substantially similar to the applicable Forbearance Agreement, subject to certain exceptions.

The Forbearance Agreements terminate upon the earliest to occur of August 14, 2009 and the first date on which (i) (x) in the case of the Senior Notes Forbearance Agreements, holders of 25% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Senior Notes have the right (without breaching the Senior Notes Forbearance Agreements) to accelerate (or instruct the Trustee to accelerate) the indebtedness under the Senior Notes and (y) in the case of the Senior Subordinated Notes Forbearance Agreement, holders of 25% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Senior Subordinated Notes (without breaching the Senior Subordinated Notes Forbearance Agreement) accelerate (or instruct the Trustee to accelerate) the indebtedness under the Senior Subordinated Notes; (ii) (x) in the case of the Senior Notes Forbearance Agreements, holders of 25% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Senior Subordinated Notes accelerate (or instruct the Trustee to accelerate) the indebtedness under the Senior Subordinated Notes and (y) in the case of the Senior Subordinated Notes Forbearance Agreement, holders of 25% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Senior Notes have the right (without breaching the Senior Notes Forbearance Agreements) to accelerate (or instruct the Trustee to accelerate) the indebtedness under the Senior Notes; (iii) the requisite lenders under the Credit Agreement have the right (without breaching the Limited Waiver) to accelerate (or instruct the agent to accelerate) the indebtedness under the Credit Agreement; and (iv) a breach of certain provisions of the applicable Forbearance Agreement (the earliest to occur being referred to herein as the Cutoff Date).

The Senior Notes Forbearance agreements also contain covenants restricting the incurrence of liens and dividends by the U.S. Borrower and the guarantors party thereto.

COOPER-STANDARD AUTOMOTIVE ANNOUNCES THAT IT HAS OBTAINED WAIVER AND FORBEARANCE AGREEMENTS FROM LENDERS AND NOTEHOLDERS

Talks with Stakeholders Continue

NOVI, Mich. - July 15, 2009 - Cooper-Standard Holdings Inc. (Cooper-Standard), parent company of Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. (the Company), announced today that it has secured a limited waiver agreement with lenders under its senior credit agreement and forbearance agreements with holders of its 7% senior notes due 2012 and 8 ³/₈% senior subordinated notes due 2014. The Company said it intends to continue discussions with its senior lenders and noteholders through the applicable waiver and forbearance periods to facilitate a restructuring of the Company s balance sheet. The Company s businesses will continue to operate normally during this process.

Under the limited waiver agreement, the lenders under the Company s senior credit agreement have agreed to waive through August 14, 2009 certain events of default under the senior credit agreement, including the Company s non-payment of the interest payments due on the notes on June 15, 2009 within the applicable 30-day grace period. The waiver period will expire on July 28, 2009 in the event the lenders under the senior credit agreement do not provide a notice of continuation by July 27, 2009.

Under the forbearance agreements, holders of more than 75% of the senior notes and holders of a majority of the senior subordinated notes agreed that through August 14, 2009 they will not exercise their rights and remedies under the indentures governing the notes relating to the Company s non-payment of the June 15th interest payments.

We appreciate the extended time and support from our lenders, said James S. McElya, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Cooper-Standard. These agreements are a positive step in the process that we believe will result in an improved balance sheet that is more in line with today s new automotive market.

Additional details about the Company's senior credit agreement, senior notes and senior subordinated notes are available in the company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
