Dear Addressee:

As I am sure you have probably read or heard, Xerox has announced a definitive agreement to purchase Affiliated Computer Services (ACS), the world's largest diversified business process outsourcing firm. Together, we're creating the industry-leading enterprise for document and business process management.

While this is big news for Xerox, the acquisition of ACS will have virtually no negative impact on our commitment to our channel partners. We will continue to provide the worldclass technology, services and solutions you have come to expect from Xerox and we will continue to invest heavily in innovation to assure that we continue to provide you with the best technology and solutions in our industry.

As Ursula Burns, newly elected Chief Executive Officer of Xerox, has said: "The success of our channel partners and the success of Xerox are synergistic. We intend to continue to invest in our channel partners to help them help their customers be more successful. That strategy is good for Xerox, good for our channel partners and good for their customers."
