Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 19, 2011, CoreLogic, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), entered into separate indemnification agreements (each, an "Indemnification Agreement") with each of its directors and certain officers, namely J. David Chatham, Anand K. Nallathambi, Thomas C. O'Brien, D. Van Skilling, David F. Walker, Mary Lee Widener, James L. Balas, George S. Livermore, Barry M. Sando, and Stergios Theologides. The Company's board of directors (the "Board") had previously approved the form of indemnification agreement that was entered into with such individuals. The Board also authorized the Company to enter into, from time to time, additional indemnification agreements with future directors and certain officers of the Company.

Each Indemnification Agreement provides, among other things, for indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by the Company's amended and restated certificate of incorporation, by-laws or applicable law against (i) all expenses, judgments, liabilities, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement relating to any proceeding, other than a proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor, actually and reasonably incurred by indemnitee or on his or her behalf in connection with such proceeding if indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful, (ii) all expenses relating to any proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor actually and reasonably incurred by indemnitee or on his or her behalf in connection with such proceeding if indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company; provided that, if applicable law so provides, no indemnification for expenses shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which indemnitee shall have been finally adjudged by a court to be liable to the Company, unless and only to the extent that the appropriate court shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, indemnitee is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification, and (iii) notwithstanding any other provisions of the Indemnification Agreement, all expenses actually and reasonably incurred by indemnitee or on his or her behalf in connection with a proceeding or defense, in whole or in part, to which the indemnitee is a party or participant and in which the indemnitee is successful. Each Indemnification Agreement provides for the advancement or payment of expenses to the indemnitee and for reimbursement to the Company of the amounts advanced (without interest) to the extent that it is ultimately determined that such indemnitee is not entitled to such indemnification by the Company.

The foregoing description of each Indemnification Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of each Indemnification Agreement, the form of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

CoreLogic, Inc. 2011 Performance Incentive Plan

At the Company's 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") held on May 19, 2011, the Company's stockholders approved the CoreLogic, Inc. 2011 Performance Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The Plan was adopted by the Board on March 23, 2011, subject to stockholder approval.

The purpose of the Plan is to promote the success of the Company and the interests of its stockholders by providing an additional means for the Company to attract, motivate, retain and reward directors, officers, employees and other eligible persons through the grant of awards and incentives for high levels of individual performance and improved financial performance of the Company. Equity-based awards are also intended to further align the interests of award recipients and the Company's stockholders.

The Plan provides that, in addition to the number of shares of the Company's common stock that remained available for award grants under the 2006 Incentive Compensation Plan (the "2006 Plan") immediately prior to the Annual Meeting, 18,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock are available for award grants, which results in a maximum of 18,058,630 shares initially available for award grants under the Plan. These shares are subject to the expiration, termination or cancellation of outstanding awards under the 2006 Plan, which will also be available for award grant purposes under the Plan.

Under the Plan, the Company continues to be able to grant stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, stock bonuses and other forms of awards granted or denominated in the Company's common stock or units of the Company's common stock, as well as cash bonus awards, to officers or employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, directors of the Company, and certain consultants and advisors to the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

A more detailed summary of the material terms and conditions of the Plan is set forth under the heading "Proposal 2. Approval of CoreLogic, Inc. 2011 Performance Incentive Plan" in the Company's Proxy Statement filed with the SEC on April 18, 2011, which is incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description of the Plan and the summary of the Plan included in the Company's Proxy Statement are not complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Plan, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.2 and incorporated herein by reference.

The forms of Notice of Restricted Stock Unit Grant and Restricted Stock Unit Award Agreement evidencing the grant of restricted stock units to non-employee directors and employees under the Plan are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.3 and 10.4, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference. The form of Notice of Option Grant and Option Award Agreement evidencing the grant of options to employees under the Plan is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.5 and incorporated herein by reference.
