Class A Common Stock

First Interstate BancSystem, Inc., or FIBK, may offer from time to time shares of its Class A common stock. We may offer this stock in one or more offerings in amounts, at prices, and on terms determined at the time of the offering.

This prospectus provides a general description of the Class A common stock. When we offer Class A common stock, we will provide you with a prospectus supplement describing the specific terms of the offering and the Class A common stock, including the offering price of the Class A common stock and net proceeds to FIBK from such offering. We may also authorize one or more free writing prospectuses to be provided to you in connection with these offerings. The prospectus supplements and any related free writing prospectuses may also add, update or change information contained in this prospectus. You should read this prospectus, any supplements and any related free writing prospectuses carefully before you invest. This prospectus may not be used to sell Class A common stock unless accompanied by a prospectus supplement.

We may sell the Class A common stock directly to investors or through agents or underwriters and dealers we select, on a continuous or delayed basis. See Plan of Distribution beginning on Page 12 of this prospectus. If we use agents, underwriters or dealers, we will name them and describe their compensation in a prospectus supplement.

Our common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Stock Market under the symbol FIBK. On May 22, 2013, the per share closing price of our Class A common stock as reported on the NASDAQ Stock Market was $20.71 per share.

Investing in our Class A common stock involves risks. See Risk Factors beginning on Page 4 of this prospectus and in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q incorporated by reference herein, which may be amended, supplemented or superseded from time to time by other reports we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission in the future and by any applicable prospectus supplement.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or passed on the adequacy or accuracy of this prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

Edgar Filing: FIRST INTERSTATE BANCSYSTEM INC - Form S-3

RISK FACTORS

Before investing in our Class A common stock, you should carefully consider all information included in this prospectus, and under the heading Risk Factors in any prospectus supplement, as well as risks discussed in the documents we incorporate by reference herein. Investing in our Class A common stock involves a high degree of risk. The occurrence of these risks could harm our future business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects and could result in a partial or complete loss of your investment. These risks are not the only ones that we may face. Other risks of which we are not aware, including those which relate to the banking and financial services industry in general and us in particular, or those which we do not currently believe are material, may harm our future business or operating results or hurt our future financial condition or prospects.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some of the statements in this prospectus, the documents incorporated by reference herein, and in any prospectus supplement may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or Securities Act, and Rule 175 promulgated thereunder, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or Exchange Act, and Rule 3b-6 promulgated thereunder, that involve inherent risks and uncertainties. These statements include statements about our plans, strategies and prospects and involve known and unknown risks that are difficult to predict. Therefore, our actual results, performance or achievements may differ materially from those expressed in or implied by these forward-looking statements. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by the use of words such as may, could, expect, intend, plan, seek, anticipate, believe, estimate, predict, potential, continue, likely, variations of these terms and similar expressions, or the negative of these terms or similar expressions. Factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations are described in the section entitled Risk Factors, and include, but are not limited to:

continuing or worsening economic conditions;

adverse economic conditions affecting Montana, Wyoming and western South Dakota;

credit losses;

concentrations of real estate loans;

commercial loan risk;

adequacy of the allowance for loan losses;

impairment of goodwill;

changes in interest rates;

access to low-cost funding sources;

increases in deposit insurance premiums;

Edgar Filing: FIRST INTERSTATE BANCSYSTEM INC - Form S-3

inability to grow our business; governmental regulation and changes in regulatory, tax and accounting rule and interpretations;

sweeping changes in regulation of financial institutions due to passage of Dodd-Frank Act; changes in or noncompliance with governmental regulations; effects of recent legislative and regulatory efforts to stabilize financial markets;

dependence on our management team;

ability to attract and retain qualified employees;

failure of technology;

reliance on external vendors;

inability to meet liquidity requirements;

lack of acquisition candidates;

failure to manage growth;

competition;

inability to manage risks in turbulent and dynamic market conditions;

ineffective internal operational controls;

environmental remediation and other costs;

litigation pertaining to fiduciary responsibilities;

failure to effectively implement technology-driven products and services;

Edgar Filing: FIRST INTERSTATE BANCSYSTEM INC - Form S-3

capital required to support our Bank subsidiary;

soundness of other financial institutions;

impact of proposed Basel III capital standards for U.S. banks;

inability of our Bank subsidiary to pay dividends;

Table of Contents

implementation of new lines of business or new product or service offerings;

change in dividend policy;

lack of public market for our Class A common stock;

volatility of Class A common stock;

voting control of Class B stockholders;

decline in market price of Class A common stock;

dilution as a result of future equity issuances;

uninsured nature of any investment in Class A common stock;

use of net proceeds;

anti-takeover provisions;

controlled company status; and subordination of Class A common stock to company debt.

These factors and the other risk factors described in or incorporated by reference in this prospectus are not necessarily all of the important factors that could cause our actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by any of our forward-looking statements. Other unknown or unpredictable factors also could harm our results.

All forward-looking statements attributable to us or persons acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements set forth above. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and we do not undertake or assume any obligation to update publicly any of these statements to reflect actual results, new information or future events, changes in assumptions or changes in other factors affecting forward-looking statements, except to the extent required by applicable laws. If we update one or more forward-looking statements, no inference should be drawn that we will make additional updates with respect to those or other forward-looking statements.

ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS

This prospectus is part of a registration statement that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, using a shelf registration process. By using a shelf registration process, we may offer our Class A common stock, as described in this prospectus, from time to time in one or more offerings up to a total initial issuance amount of $160,000,000. Each time we offer Class A common stock under this prospectus, we will provide a prospectus supplement that will contain specific information about the terms of such offering and the Class A common stock. We may also authorize one or more free writing prospectuses to be provided to you, which may contain material information relating to these offerings. The prospectus supplement and any related free writing prospectus that we may authorize to be provided to you may also add, update or change information contained in this prospectus or incorporated by reference into this prospectus. Before purchasing any Class A common stock, you should carefully read this prospectus, any prospectus supplement and any related free writing prospectus, together with the additional information incorporated into this prospectus by reference as described under the heading Where You Can Find More Information.

You should rely only on the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, any prospectus supplement, the registration statement and any free writing prospectus that we may authorize to be provided to you. We have not authorized any other person to provide you with different information. If anyone provides you with different or inconsistent information, you should not rely on it. We will not make an offer to sell Class A common stock in any jurisdiction where the offer or sale is not permitted. You should assume that the information appearing in this prospectus, any prospectus supplement or any related free writing prospectus, as well as information incorporated by reference, is accurate only as of the date on the front of such document. Our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may have changed since that date.

We may not use this prospectus to sell Class A common stock unless it is accompanied by a prospectus supplement that more fully describes the terms of the offering.

Unless the context otherwise requires, references in this prospectus and any prospectus supplement to we, our, the Company, and FIBK refer to First Interstate BancSystem, Inc. and its subsidiaries.

OUR BUSINESS

We are a financial and bank holding company headquartered in Billings, Montana. As of March 31, 2013, we had consolidated assets of $7,439 million, deposits of $6,028 million, loans of $4,225 million and total stockholders' equity of $771 million. We currently operate 76 banking offices, including detached drive-up facilities, in 42 communities located in Montana, Wyoming and western South Dakota. Through our wholly-owned subsidiary, First Interstate Bank, we deliver a comprehensive range of banking products and services to individuals, businesses, municipalities and other entities throughout our market areas. Our customers participate in a wide variety of industries, including energy, healthcare and professional services, education and governmental services, construction, mining, agriculture, retail and wholesale trade and tourism. Our principal markets range in size from 23,000 to 150,000 people, have diversified economic characteristics and favorable population growth prospects and usually serve as trade centers for larger rural areas.

We are the licensee under a perpetual trademark license agreement granting us an exclusive, nontransferable license to use the First Interstate name and logo in Montana, Wyoming and the six neighboring states of Idaho, Utah, Colorado, Nebraska, South Dakota and North Dakota.

We have grown our business by adhering to a set of guiding principles and a long-term disciplined perspective that emphasizes our commitment to providing high-quality financial products and services, delivering quality customer service, effecting business leadership through professional and dedicated managers and employees, assisting our communities through socially responsible leadership and cultivating a strong and positive corporate culture. In the future, we intend to remain a leader in our markets by continuing to adhere to the core principles and values that have contributed to our growth and success and by continuing to follow our community banking model. In addition, we plan to continue to expand our business in a disciplined and prudent manner, including organized growth in our existing market areas and expansion into new and complementary markets when appropriate opportunities arise.

We are incorporated under the laws of Montana. Our principal executive offices are located at 401 North 31st Street, Billings, Montana. Our telephone number is (406) 255-5390. Our internet address is www.firstinterstatebank.com. The information contained on or accessible from our website does not constitute a part of this prospectus and is not incorporated by reference herein.

THE CLASS A COMMON STOCK

We may offer shares of Class A common stock from time to time under this prospectus at prices and on terms to be determined by market conditions at the time of any offering. This prospectus provides you with a general description of the Class A common stock we may offer. Each time we offer Class A common stock under this prospectus, we will provide a prospectus supplement that will describe the specific amounts, prices and other important terms of the Class A common stock.

The holders of Class A common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders and do not have cumulative voting rights. Subject to preferences that may be applicable to any outstanding shares of preferred stock, the holders of our Class A common stock and Class B common stock are entitled to share equally, on a per share basis, in any dividends that may be declared by our board of directors out of legally available funds. Upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, holders of our Class A common stock and Class B common stock are entitled to share equally, on a per share basis, in all assets remaining after payment of liabilities and the liquidation preferences of any outstanding shares of preferred stock.

The prospectus supplement and any related free writing prospectus that we may authorize to be provided to you may also add or update information contained in this prospectus or in documents we have incorporated by reference. However, no prospectus supplement or free writing prospectus will offer a security that is not registered and described in this prospectus at the time of the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part.

We may sell Class A common stock directly to investors or to or through agents, underwriters or dealers. We, and our agents or underwriters, reserve the right to accept or reject all or part of any proposed purchase of Class A common stock. If we do offer Class A common stock to or through agents or underwriters, we will include in the applicable prospectus supplement:

the names of those agents or underwriters;

applicable fees, discounts and commissions to be paid to them;

details regarding over-allotment options, if any; and the net proceeds to us.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Unless otherwise specified in any prospectus supplement, we intend to use the net proceeds from the sale of Class A common stock offered by this prospectus and any prospectus supplement for working capital and general corporate purposes, including, but not limited to, repayment or refinancing of any then outstanding debt and acquisition of additional businesses or technologies.

We will describe the specific use of proceeds from the sale of Class A common stock in the applicable prospectus supplement. We will have significant discretion in the use of any net proceeds, and investors will rely on the judgment of our management regarding the application of the proceeds of any sale of the Class A common stock. Pending such uses, we anticipate that we will invest the net proceeds in short-term, investment-grade securities.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

General

The following is a summary of the material rights of our capital stock and related provisions of our amended and restated articles of incorporation, or articles, and amended and restated bylaws, or bylaws. The following description of our capital stock does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, our articles and bylaws, which we have included as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part.

Our articles provide for two classes of common stock: Class A common stock, which has one vote per share, and Class B common stock, which has five votes per share. Any holder of Class B common stock may at any time convert his or her shares into shares of Class A common stock on a share-for-share basis, and the shares of Class B common stock will be automatically converted into shares of Class A common stock on a share-for-share basis:

when the aggregate number of shares of our Class B common stock then outstanding is less than 20% of the aggregate number of shares of our Class A common stock and Class B common stock then outstanding; or upon any transfer, whether or not for value, except for permitted transfers as set forth in our articles and described below. The shares of Class B common stock as such are generally non-transferable, except in connection with a permitted transfer as set forth in our articles and described below. The rights of the two classes of our common stock will otherwise be identical.

Our authorized capital stock consists of 200,100,000 shares, each with no par value per share, of which:

100,000,000 shares are designated as Class A common stock;

100,000,000 shares are designated as Class B common stock; and 100,000 shares are designated as preferred stock.

At March 31, 2013, we had issued and outstanding 18,424,252 shares of Class A common stock, and 25,190,690 shares of Class B common stock. At March 31, 2013, we also had outstanding stock options and warrants to purchase an aggregate of 1,088,088 shares of Class A common stock and 2,307,405 shares of Class B common stock.

Common Stock

Voting. The holders of our Class A common stock are entitled to one vote per share and the holders of our Class B common stock are entitled to five votes per share on any matter to be voted upon by the stockholders. Holders of Class A common stock and Class B common stock will vote together as a single class on all matters (including the election of directors) submitted to a vote of stockholders, unless otherwise required by law.

Our articles provide that we may not, without first obtaining the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding shares of Class A common stock and Class B common stock, each voting as a separate class, issue any additional shares of Class B common stock. The holders of common stock will not be entitled to cumulative voting rights with respect to the election of directors, which means that the holders of a majority of the shares voted can elect all of the directors then standing for election.

Dividends. The holders of our Class A common stock and Class B common stock are entitled to share equally, on a per share basis, in any dividends that our Board may declare from time to time from legally available funds, subject to limitations under Montana law and the preferential rights of holders of any outstanding shares of preferred stock. If a dividend is paid in the form of shares of common stock or rights to acquire shares of common stock, the holders of Class A common stock will be entitled to receive Class A common stock, or rights to acquire Class A common stock, as the case may be, and the holders of Class B common stock will be entitled to receive Class B common stock, or rights to acquire Class B common stock, as the case may be.

Liquidation. Upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, distribution of assets or winding up of our company, the holders of our Class A common stock and Class B common stock are entitled to share equally, on a per share basis, in all our assets available for distribution, after payment to creditors and subject to any prior distribution rights granted to holders of any outstanding shares of preferred stock.

Table of Contents

Conversion. Our Class A common stock is not convertible into any other shares of our capital stock. Each share of Class B common stock is convertible at any time, at the option of the holder, into one share of Class A common stock.

Transfer. The shares of Class B common stock is subject to transfer restrictions under our articles, limiting their transfer principally to the holder's spouse, certain of the holder's relatives, the trustees of certain trusts established for their benefit or for the benefit of a charitable organization, corporations and partnerships wholly-owned by the holders and their relatives, the holder's estate and other holders of Class B common stock. Furthermore, the Class B common stock is not listed on the NASDAQ Stock Market or any other exchange, and there is no trading market for the Class B common stock.

Shares of Class B common stock will convert automatically into shares of Class A common stock if they are transferred to any party who is not an eligible transferee as described in the preceding paragraph and set forth in our articles. Furthermore, all shares of Class B common stock will convert automatically into shares of Class A common stock if, on any record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, the aggregate number of shares of our Class B common stock then outstanding is less than 20% of the aggregate number of shares of our Class A common stock and Class B common stock then outstanding.

Once converted into Class A common stock, the Class B common stock cannot be reissued. No class of common stock may be subdivided or combined unless the other class of common stock concurrently is subdivided or combined in the same proportion and in the same manner.

Other than in connection with dividends and distributions, subdivisions or combinations or upon approval of the holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding shares of Class A common stock and Class B common stock, each voting as a separate class, we are not authorized to issue additional shares of Class B common stock.

Preemptive or Similar Rights. Class A and Class B common stock do not have any preemptive rights.

Fully Paid and Non-Assessable. All the outstanding shares of Class A common stock and Class B common stock and the shares of Class A common stock offered by us in this offering will be fully paid and non-assessable.

Preferred Stock

Our Board is authorized, without approval of the holders of Class A common stock or Class B common stock, to provide for the issuance of preferred stock from time to time in one or more series in such number and with such designations, preferences, powers and other special rights as may be stated in the resolution or resolutions providing for such preferred stock. Our Board may cause us to issue preferred stock with voting, conversion and other rights that could adversely affect the holders of Class A common stock or Class B common stock or make it more difficult to effect a change in control.

Anti-Takeover Considerations and Special Provisions of our Articles, Bylaws and Montana Law

Articles and Bylaws. The Montana Business Corporation Act, or the Montana Act, authorizes a corporation's board of directors to make various changes of an administrative nature to its articles of incorporation. Other amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation must be recommended to the stockholders by the Board, unless the Board determines that because of a conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation, and must be approved by (1) a majority of all votes entitled to be cast by any voting group, with respect to an amendment that would create dissenters' rights and (2) the number of votes required under the Montana Act by every other voting group entitled to vote on the amendment. Pursuant to the Montana Act, an amendment to our articles of incorporation that changes a quorum or voting requirement must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the requirements then in effect or proposed, whichever is greater.

A number of provisions of our articles and bylaws concern matters of corporate governance and the rights of our stockholders. Certain of these provisions may have an anti-takeover effect by discouraging takeover attempts not first approved by our Board, including takeovers which may be considered by some of our stockholders to be in their best interests. To the extent takeover attempts are discouraged, temporary fluctuations in the market price of our common stock, which may result from actual or rumored takeover attempts, may be inhibited. Such provisions also could delay or frustrate the removal of incumbent directors or the assumption of control by stockholders, even if such removal or assumption would be viewed by our stockholders as beneficial to their interests. These provisions also could discourage or make more difficult a merger, tender offer or proxy contest, even if they could be viewed by our stockholders as beneficial to their interests and could potentially depress the market price of our common stock. Our Board believes that these provisions are appropriate to protect our interests and the interests of our stockholders.

Preferred Stock. Our Board may from time to time authorize the issuance of one or more classes or series of preferred stock without stockholder approval. Subject to the provisions of our charter and limitations prescribed by law and the rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market, if applicable, the Board is authorized to adopt resolutions to issue shares, establish the number of shares, change the number of shares constituting any series and provide or change the voting powers, designations, qualifications, limitations or restrictions on shares of our preferred stock, including dividend rights, terms of redemption, conversion rights and liquidation, dissolution and winding-up preferences, in each case without any action or vote by our stockholders.

One of the effects of undesignated preferred stock may be to enable our Board to discourage an attempt to obtain control of our company by means of a tender offer, proxy contest, merger or otherwise. The issuance of preferred stock may adversely affect the rights of our Class A and Class B common stockholders by, among other things:

restricting dividends on either or both classes of common stock;

diluting the voting power of either or both classes of common stock;

impairing the liquidation rights of either or both classes of common stock;

delaying or prevent a change in control without further action by the stockholders; or decreasing the market price of either or both classes of common stock.

Meetings of Stockholders. Our bylaws provide that annual meetings of our stockholders shall be held at such time as is determined by the Board for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of any other business as may come before the meeting. Special meetings of stockholders may be called by (1) the Board, (2) the Chairman of the Board, (3) the CEO, or (4) a holder, or a group of holders, of common stock holding more than 20% of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of Class A common stock and Class B common stock voting together as a single class.

Advance Notice Provisions. Our bylaws provide that nominations for directors may not be made by stockholders at any special meeting thereof unless the stockholder intending to make a nomination notifies us of its intention a specified number of days in advance of the meeting and furnishes to us certain information regarding itself and the intended nominee. Our bylaws also require a stockholder to provide written demand to the secretary and must describe the purpose for which the special meeting is to be held. Only business within the purposes described in the notice of the meeting may be conducted at a special meeting. These provisions could delay stockholder actions that are favored by the holders of a majority of our outstanding stock until the next stockholders' meeting. Regardless of whether the meeting is an annual or special meeting of the stockholders, notice must be given if the purpose of the meeting is for the stockholders to consider (1) a proposed amendment to or restatement of the articles of incorporation; (2) a plan of merger or share exchange; (3) the sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the property of the company not in the usual or regular course of business; (4) the dissolution of the Company; or (5) the removal of a director.

Filling of Board Vacancies; Removal. Unless the Board otherwise determines or otherwise required by applicable law, vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors elected by the stockholders may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office, even though less than a quorum of the Board, or by a sole remaining director. Each such director will hold office until the next election of directors and until such director's successor is elected and qualified, or until the director's earlier death, resignation or removal. Stockholders may remove one or more directors at a meeting of stockholders if the notice of meeting states that a purpose of the meeting is the removal of one or more directors. Any director or the entire Board may only be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at an election of directors.

Edgar Filing: FIRST INTERSTATE BANCSYSTEM INC - Form S-3

Amendment of the Bylaws. Our articles provide that the bylaws may be adopted, altered, amended or repealed by the Board upon the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the directors then in office. Our articles also provide that the bylaws may be adopted, altered, amended, or repealed by the stockholders. The bylaws may be adopted, altered, amended, or repealed by our Board or our stockholders at any annual or regular meeting, or at any special meeting if notice of the adoption, alteration, amendment, or repeal or is given in the notice of the meeting.

Table of Contents

Change in Control. Our articles provide for certain voting thresholds needed to consummate a change in control transaction. Accordingly, we will not be able to consummate a change in control transaction without obtaining the greater of (1) a majority of the voting power of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock then entitled to vote on such transaction, voting together as a single class, or (2) sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66.67%) of the voting power of the shares of capital stock present in person or represented by proxy at a stockholder meeting called to consider such transaction and entitled to vote thereon.

Montana Law. The Montana Act does not contain any anti-takeover provisions imposing specific requirements or restrictions on transactions between a corporation and significant stockholders.

Dual Class Structure

As discussed above, our Class B common stock will be entitled to five votes per share, while our Class A common stock will be entitled to one vote per share. Our Class A common stock is the class of stock we are proposing to sell pursuant to the registration statement and will be the only class of our stock that is publicly traded. Following this offering, members of the Scott family will beneficially own, in the aggregate, approximately 93% of our outstanding shares of Class B common stock, representing approximately 45% of the outstanding shares of our common stock and approximately 76% of the total voting power of our outstanding common stock. As a result, the Scott family will be able to exert a significant degree of influence or actual control over our management and affairs and over matters requiring stockholder approval, including the election of directors, a merger, consolidation or sale of all or substantially all of our assets and any other significant transaction. Because of our dual class ownership structure, the Scott family will continue to exert a significant degree of influence or actual control over matters requiring stockholder approval, even if they own less than 50% of the outstanding shares of our common stock. This concentrated control will limit your ability to influence corporate matters and the interests of the Scott family may not always coincide with our interests or your interests. As a result, we may take actions that you do not believe to be in our interests or your interests that could depress our stock price.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for our Class A common stock is American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Sections 35-1-451 through 35-1-459 of the Montana Act provide that a corporation may indemnify its directors and officers. In general, the Montana Act provides that a corporation must indemnify a director or officer who is wholly successful in his defense of a proceeding to which he is a party because of his status as a director or officer, unless limited by the articles of incorporation. Pursuant to the Montana Act, a corporation may indemnify a director or officer, if it is determined that the director engaged in good faith and meets certain standards of conduct. A corporation may not indemnify a director or officer under the Montana Act when a director is adjudged liable to the corporation, or when such person is adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received. The Montana Act also permits a director or officer of a corporation, who is a party to a proceeding, to apply to the courts for indemnification or advancement of expenses, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise and the court may order indemnification or advancement of expenses under certain circumstances.

Our bylaws provide for the indemnification of directors and officers, including (i) the mandatory indemnification of a director or officer who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding, (ii) the mandatory indemnification of directors and officers if a determination to indemnify such person has been made as prescribed by the Montana Act and (iii) for the reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer who is party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding, if the determination to indemnify has been made pursuant to the Montana Act. We have also obtained officers' and directors' liability insurance which insures against liabilities that officers and directors may, in such capacities, incur. Section 35-1-458 of the Montana Act provides that a corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a director or officer of the corporation against liability asserted or incurred against such director or officer, while serving at the request of the corporation in such capacity, or arising from the individual's status as a director or officer, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the Montana Act.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We may sell the Class A common stock offered by this prospectus from time to time in any one or more of the following ways:

directly to one or more purchasers;

directly to or through brokers or dealers;

to the public through underwriting syndicates;

to one or more underwriters for resale to purchasers or to the public; or directly to or through agents.

Each time we use this prospectus to offer Class A common stock, we will also provide a prospectus supplement that contains the specific terms of the offering and the method of distributions, including:

the name or names of any underwriters, dealers or agents;

the amounts of the Class A common stock underwritten or purchased by each of them and any over-allotment options under which the underwriters may purchase additional Class A common stock from us;

the purchase price of the Class A common stock and the proceeds to us from the sale;

any public offering price;

any underwriting discounts or other items constituting compensation to underwriters, dealers or agents;

any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers; and any securities exchange or market on which the Class A common stock may be listed.

The distribution of the Class A common stock may be effected from time to time in one or more transactions at a fixed price or prices, which may be changed, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices.

Only those underwriters identified in the applicable prospectus supplement are deemed to be underwriters in connection with the Class A common stock offered in the prospectus supplement. If underwriters are used in the sale of any Class A common stock, the underwriters will acquire the Class A common stock for their own account and may resell the Class A common stock from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. We may offer the Class A common stock to the public through underwriting syndicates represented by managing underwriters or directly through underwriters without a syndicate. The underwriters' obligations to purchase any Class A common stock will be subject to certain conditions set forth in the applicable underwriting agreement. However, if they purchase any of the Class A common stock, the underwriters will generally be obligated to purchase all of the Class A common stock, other than the Class A common stock covered by any over-allotment option.

We may sell the Class A common stock through agents from time to time. The prospectus supplement will name any agent involved in the offer or sale of the Class A common stock, as well as any commissions we pay the agents. Generally, any agent will be acting on a best efforts basis for the period of its appointment.

We may authorize underwriters, dealers or agents to solicit offers by certain purchasers to purchase the Class A common stock from us at the public offering price set forth in the prospectus supplement pursuant to delayed delivery contracts providing for payment and delivery on a specified date in the future. The contracts will be subject only to these conditions set forth in the prospectus supplement, and the prospectus supplement will set forth any commissions we pay for the solicitation of these contracts.

Agents and underwriters may be entitled to indemnification by us against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contributions with respect to payment which the agents or underwriters may be required to make in respect thereof. Agents and underwriters may be customers of, engage in transactions with, or perform services for us in the ordinary course of business.

Class A common stock sold pursuant to a prospectus supplement will be listed on NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance. It is possible that one or more underwriters may make a market in the Class A common stock, but such underwriters will not be obligated to do so and may discontinue any market making at any time without notice. We can offer no assurance as to the liquidity of, or the trading market for, any offered Class A common stock.

Table of Contents

In connection with an offering, the underwriters may purchase and sell Class A common stock in the open market. These transactions may include short sales, stabilizing transactions and purchases to cover positions created by short sales. Short sales involve the sale by the underwriters of a greater number of Class A common stock than they are required to purchase in an offering. Stabilizing transactions consist of bids or purchases made for the purpose of preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the Class A common stock while an offering is in progress. The underwriters also may impose a penalty bid. This occurs when a particular underwriter repays to the underwriters a portion of the underwriting discount received by it because the underwriters have repurchased Class A common stock sold by or for the account of that underwriter in stabilizing or short-covering transactions. These activities by the underwriters may stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of the Class A common stock. As a result, the price of the Class A common stock may be higher than the price that otherwise might exist in the open market. If these activities are commenced, they may be discontinued by the underwriters at any time. Underwriters may engage in over-allotment. If any underwriters create a short position in the Class A common stock in an offering in which they sell more Class A common stock than are set forth on the cover page of the applicable prospectus supplement, the underwriters may reduce that short position by purchasing the Class A common stock in the open market.

In compliance with the guidelines of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., or FINRA, the maximum discount or commission to be received by any FINRA member or independent broker-dealer may not exceed 8% of the aggregate offering price of the shares offered pursuant to this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement.

LEGAL MATTERS

Certain legal matters with respect to the legality of the issuance of the shares of Class A common stock offered by us through this prospectus will be passed upon for us by Holland & Hart LLP, Salt Lake City, Utah. If legal matters in connection with offerings made pursuant to this prospectus are passed upon by counsel to any underwriters, dealers or agents, such counsel will be named in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Sections 35-1-451 through 35-1-459 of the Montana Act provide that a corporation may indemnify its directors and officers. In general, the Montana Act provides that a corporation must indemnify a director or officer who is wholly successful in his defense of a proceeding to which he is a party because of his status as a director or officer, unless limited by the articles of incorporation. Pursuant to the Montana Act, a corporation may indemnify a director or officer, if it is determined that the director engaged in good faith and meets certain standards of conduct. A corporation may not indemnify a director or officer under the Montana Act when a director is adjudged liable to the corporation, or when such person is adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received. The Montana Act also permits a director or officer of a corporation, who is a party to a proceeding, to apply to the courts for indemnification or advancement of expenses, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise and the court may order indemnification or advancement of expenses under certain circumstances.

Our bylaws provide for the indemnification of directors and officers, including (i) the mandatory indemnification of a director or officer who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding, (ii) the mandatory indemnification of directors and officers if a determination to indemnify such person has been made as prescribed by the Montana Act and (iii) for the reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer who is party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding, if the determination to indemnify has been made pursuant to the Montana Act. We have also obtained officers' and directors' liability insurance which insures against liabilities that officers and directors may, in such capacities, incur. Section 35-1-458 of the Montana Act provides that a corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a director or officer of the corporation against liability asserted or incurred against such director or officer, while serving at the request of the corporation in such capacity, or arising from the individual's status as a director or officer, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the Montana Act.

Item 17. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i), (1)(ii) and (1)(iii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 and Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:
 - (i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and
 - (ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of the registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to the purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

- (5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities:

The undersigned registrant undertakes that in primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

- (i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
 - (ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;
 - (iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectuses relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and
 - (iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.
- (6) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (7) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
- (8) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the time it was declared effective.

- (9) For the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
