PART I

ITEM 1. NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

(Amounts in tables in thousands of dollars)

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) for interim financial information and in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q and do not include all of the information and footnotes required by U.S. GAAP for complete financial statements. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of The Gorman-Rupp Company (the Company or Gorman-Rupp) and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. In the opinion of management of the Company, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017 are not necessarily indicative of results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2017. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, from which related information herein has been derived.

NOTE 2 - RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

The Company considers the applicability and impact of all Accounting Standard Updates (ASUs). ASUs not listed below were assessed and determined either to be not applicable or are expected to have minimal impact on the Company s consolidated financial statements.

In March 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-07, Compensation Retirement Benefits (Topic 715) Improving the Presentation of Net Periodic Pension Cost and Net Periodic Postretirement Benefit Cost , which provides additional guidance on the presentation of net periodic pension and postretirement benefit costs in the income statement and on the components eligible for capitalization. The amendments in this ASU require that an employer report the service cost component of the net periodic benefit costs in the same income statement line item as other compensation costs arising from services rendered by employees during the period. The non-service-cost components of net periodic benefit costs are to be presented in the income statement separately from the service cost components and outside a subtotal of income from operations. The ASU also allows for the capitalization of the service cost components, when applicable (i.e., as a cost of internally manufactured inventory or a self-constructed asset). The ASU is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2017. The amendments in this ASU are to be applied retrospectively. The Company is currently assessing the impact this ASU will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-04, Intangibles Goodwill and Other (Topic 350) Simplifying the Test for Goodwill Impairment , which eliminates the requirement to calculate the implied fair value of goodwill to measure a goodwill impairment charge. Instead, entities will record an impairment charge based on the excess of a reporting unit s carrying amount over its fair value. The ASU is effective for impairment tests performed in fiscal years, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2019. The amendments in this ASU are to be applied on a prospective basis and are not expected to have a significant impact on the Company s consolidated financial statements.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), which requires lessees to recognize assets and liabilities on the balance sheet for the rights and obligations created by all leases with a term of more than one year. Accounting by lessors will remain similar to existing U.S. GAAP. The guidance is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2018. The Company currently does not expect the adoption of ASU 2016-02 will have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements as its future minimum lease commitments are not material.

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), which supersedes most current revenue recognition guidance, including industry-specific guidance, and requires entities to recognize revenue in a way that depicts the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services. Subsequent accounting standards updates have been issued, which amend and/or clarify the application of ASU 2014-09. The guidance is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2017. The Company is in the process of executing its implementation plan and has determined it will use the modified retrospective method as its transition method in the adoption of the new revenue standard. The Company has identified all material revenue streams and is currently evaluating its significant contracts, accumulating information that will be necessary for implementation disclosures and assessing the impact the adoption of ASU 2014-09 will have on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company is in the process of identifying and implementing changes to processes and controls to meet the ASU's updated reporting and disclosure requirements and continues to update its assessment of the impact of the ASU. The Company will continue its evaluation of this new guidance through the date of adoption.

Table of ContentsNOTE 3 - INVENTORIES

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market. The costs for approximately 72% of inventories at June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016 are determined using the last-in, first-out (LIFO) method, with the remainder determined using the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method applied on a consistent basis. Replacement cost approximates current cost and the excess over LIFO cost was approximately $59.7 million and $58.4 million at June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively. An actual valuation of inventory under the LIFO method is made at the end of each year based on the inventory levels and costs at that time. Interim LIFO calculations are based on management's estimate of expected year-end inventory levels and costs and are subject to the final year-end LIFO inventory valuation.

Allowances for excess and obsolete inventory totaled $4.7 million and $4.5 million at June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively.

Table of ContentsNOTE 6 - PENSION AND OTHER POSTRETIREMENT BENEFITS

The Company sponsors a defined benefit pension plan (Plan) covering certain domestic employees. Benefits are based on each covered employee's years of service and compensation. The Plan is funded in conformity with the funding requirements of applicable U.S. regulations. The Plan was closed to new participants effective January 1, 2008. Employees hired after this date, in eligible locations, participate in an enhanced 401(k) plan instead of the Plan. Employees hired prior to this date continue to accrue benefits.

Additionally, the Company sponsors defined contribution pension plans made available to all domestic and Canadian employees. The Company funds the cost of these benefits as incurred.

The Company also sponsors a non-contributory defined benefit postretirement health care plan that provides health benefits to certain domestic and Canadian retirees and their spouses. The Company funds the cost of these benefits as incurred.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

(Amounts in tables in thousands of dollars)

Executive Overview

The following discussion of Results of Operations includes certain non-GAAP financial data, and measures such as adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization. The adjusted earnings per share amounts exclude a 2017 non-cash pension settlement charge. Management utilizes these adjusted financial data and measures to assess comparative operations against those of prior periods without the distortion of non-comparable factors.

Table of Contents

The Gorman-Rupp Company believes that these non-GAAP financial data and measures will be useful to investors as well as to assess the continuing strength of the Company's underlying operations. Net sales for the six months ended June 30, 2017 were $190.5 million compared to $196.5 million during the same period in 2016, a decrease of 3.1% or $6.0 million. Excluding sales from the PCCP project of $0.5 million in the first half of 2017 and $7.9 million for the same period in 2016, net sales for the first half of 2017 increased 0.7% or $1.4 million. Domestic sales, excluding PCCP, decreased 1.4% or $1.7 million while international sales increased 4.8% or $3.1 million compared to the same period in 2016.

Gross profit was $47.3 million for the first six months of 2017, resulting in gross margin of 24.9%, compared to gross profit of $46.1 million and gross margin of 23.5% for the same period in 2016. Gross margin included a non-cash pension settlement charge of $2.2 million or 120 basis points in the first half of 2017 which did not occur in the first half of 2016. Excluding the non-cash pension settlement charge, gross margin increased by 260 basis points due principally to favorable sales mix and labor efficiency. Offsetting the sales mix benefit was a 30 basis point increase in healthcare expenses.

Selling, general and administrative expense (SG&A) was $28.9 million for the first six months of 2017 and 15.2% of net sales, compared to $27.4 million and 13.9% of net sales for the same period in 2016. SG&A included a non-cash pension settlement charge of $1.2 million or 60 basis points in the first half of 2017 which did not occur in the first half of 2016. The remaining increase in SG&A as a percentage of sales was due principally to loss of leverage due to lower sales volume.

Operating income was $18.5 million, resulting in operating margin of 9.7% for the first six months of 2017, compared to operating income of $18.8 million and operating margin of 9.5% for the same period in 2016. Operating margin included a non-cash pension settlement charge of $3.4 million or 180 basis points in the first half of 2017 which did not occur in the same period in 2016. Excluding the non-cash pension settlement charge, operating margin increased by 200 basis points due principally to favorable sales mix and lower labor costs.

Net income was $12.9 million during both the first six months of 2017 and the first six months of 2016 and earnings per share were $0.49 for both respective periods. Earnings for the first half of 2017 included a non-cash pension settlement charge of $0.09 per share.

The Company's backlog of orders was $103.6 million at June 30, 2017 compared to $107.7 million at June 30, 2016 and $98.8 million at December 31, 2016. Excluding the PCCP project in 2017 and 2016, the backlog at June 30, 2017 was down 1.6% as compared to June 30, 2016.

On July 27, 2017, the Board of Directors authorized the payment of a quarterly dividend of $0.115 per share, representing the 270th consecutive quarterly dividend to be paid by the Company. The dividend yield at June 30, 2017 was 1.8%.

The Company currently expects to continue its exceptional history of paying regular quarterly dividends and increased annual dividends. However, any future dividends will be reviewed individually and declared by our Board of Directors at its discretion, dependent on our assessment of the Company's financial condition and business outlook at the applicable time.

Outlook

Domestic and foreign uncertainties, including turmoil related to the production and price of oil and low commodity prices continue to make 2017 challenging. In addition, with the completion of the PCCP project, comparisons of revenue with 2016 will need to be appropriately adjusted during 2017. We are encouraged by the new federal administration's attention to increased spending for water and wastewater infrastructure, military growth and renewed pipeline projects. Along with the administration's focus on U.S. manufacturing, these initiatives could have positive impacts for Gorman-Rupp as the majority of our products continue to be manufactured domestically. We are encouraged to see capital spending increase in industries related to oil and gas and are hopeful the momentum is sustainable. The Company remains focused on operational efficiencies and will continue to manage expenses closely. Our underlying fundamentals remain strong and we remain well positioned to drive long-term growth. Our strong balance sheet provides us with the flexibility to continue to evaluate acquisition opportunities and new product development that we expect will help add value to our operations over the longer-term.

Sales of repair parts increased $0.3 million. These increases were partially offset by decreased sales of $1.7 million in the fire protection market principally due to market softness in the Middle East.

Sales increased 3.0% or $0.9 million in non-water markets during the second quarter of 2017 compared to the second quarter of 2016. Sales in the industrial and petroleum markets increased a combined $1.3 million principally attributable to an increase in oil and gas drilling activity. Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash and cash equivalents totaled $67.0 million and there was no outstanding bank debt at June 30, 2017. In addition, the Company had $22.4 million available in bank lines of credit after deducting $8.6 million in outstanding letters of credit primarily related to customer orders. The Company was in compliance with its debt covenants, including limits on additional borrowings and maintenance of certain operating and financial ratios, at June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016.

Working capital increased $13.0 million from December 31, 2016 to $167.5 million at June 30, 2017. The increase in working capital was due principally to operating results and reduced commissions payable driven by product mix and timing of payments.

Free cash flow, a non-GAAP financial measure for reporting cash flow, is defined by the Company as adjusted earnings before interest, income taxes and depreciation and amortization, less capital expenditures and dividends. The Company believes free cash flow provides the Company and investors with an important perspective on cash available for investments, acquisitions and working capital requirements.

The following table reconciles adjusted earnings before interest, income taxes and depreciation and amortization as reconciled above to free cash flow:

The primary drivers of operating cash flows during the first six months of 2017 were operating income, reduced inventories and reduced prepaid income taxes, partially offset by reduced commissions payable due to product mix and timing of payments. During this same period in 2016, operating cash flows were primarily driven by reduced inventories, lower estimated income tax payments and lower commissions payable driven by product mix partially offset by $6.0 million of contributions to the pension plan.

During the first six months of 2017, investing activities of $9.3 million primarily consisted of $6.0 million of purchases of short-term investments and $3.3 million of capital expenditures for machinery and equipment. Capital expenditures for the full-year 2017 are presently planned to be in the range of $8 to $10 million and are expected to be financed through internally-generated funds. During the first six months of 2016, cash used in investing activities primarily consisted of capital expenditures for machinery and equipment and building improvements.

Net cash used for financing activities for the first six months of 2017 and 2016 consisted of dividend payments of $6.0 million and $5.5 million, respectively.

On July 27, 2017, the Board of Directors of the Company declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.115 per share on the common stock of the Company, payable September 8, 2017, to shareholders of record August 15, 2017. This will mark the 270th consecutive quarterly dividend paid by The Gorman-Rupp Company.

The Company currently expects to continue its exceptional history of paying regular quarterly dividends and increased annual dividends. However, any future dividends will be reviewed individually and declared by our Board of Directors at its discretion, dependent on our assessment of the Company's financial condition and business outlook at the applicable time.
