Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws.

On August 16, 2017, the Board of Directors (the Board) of First American Financial Corporation (the Company) amended the Company's Bylaws (the Bylaws) to implement proxy access and to make certain other changes as follows:

A new Section 2.14 has been added to the Bylaws to permit a stockholder, or group of up to 20 stockholders, owning at least 3% of the Company's issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors continuously for at least three years, to nominate and include in the Company's proxy materials for an annual meeting of stockholders, director nominees constituting up to 20% of the Board, provided that the stockholder(s) and the director nominee(s) satisfy the requirements specified in the Bylaws.

A new Section 2.9 has been added to the Bylaws to require all director nominees, in connection with being nominated, to provide the Company with completed and signed questionnaires required of the Company's directors and make representations to the Company regarding certain matters including disclosure of third-party compensation and compliance with Company policies.

Section 2.8(b) was amended to change the vote required for stockholders to approve matters in limited situations where there is an additional voting standard outside the Bylaws (such as under stock exchange rules) and provide that, in those situations, the external standard will govern approval of the matter.

The Bylaws were also amended: (1) to reflect the possibility of dual record dates, as permitted under the Delaware General Corporation Law, which included making conforming changes to related provisions throughout the Bylaws; and (2) to expressly provide that any meeting of the stockholders can be recessed, which included updating Section 2.7 of the Bylaws and making other conforming changes throughout the Bylaws.

In addition, the Bylaw amendments also updated the advance notice provisions in Section 2.10 to accommodate the adoption of proxy access, to extend certain disclosure requirements to control persons, to include certain defined terms, to address the possibility of dual record dates for a meeting of stockholders and to make certain other minor administrative, clarifying and conforming changes.

Finally, the amendments also include a number of other immaterial modifications intended to update various provisions (including the forum selection provisions in Article IX and the provisions relating to the certificates of stock in Section 7.1) in light of statutory and regulatory changes and to provide clarification and consistency.

The amendments to the Bylaws were effective immediately.

The above description of the amendments to the Bylaws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Bylaws, as amended, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 3.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
