Edgar Filing: STEMCELLS INC - Form 8-K

Top of the Form Item 8.01 Other Events.

On May 12, 2008, the Company announced it has brought a second patent infringement suit against Neuralstem, Inc., including its founders. The Company filed the complaint in the U.S. Federal District Court in Northern California on May 7, 2008 and an amended complaint on May 9, 2008, alleging patent infringement, libel and unfair competition.

The full text of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Apart from statements of historical fact, the text of this press release constitutes forward-looking statements regarding, among other things, the future business operations of StemCells, Inc. (the "Company"). These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this news release. StemCells does not undertake to update any of these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that occur after the date hereof. Such statements reflect management's current views and are based on certain assumptions that may or may not ultimately prove valid. The Company's actual results may vary materially from those contemplated in the forward-looking statements due to risks and uncertainties to which the Company is subject, including uncertainties regarding the Company's ability to obtain the increased capital resources needed to continue its current operations and to conduct the research, preclinical development and clinical trials necessary for regulatory approvals and continued patent prosecution efforts; uncertainty regarding the validity and enforceability of the Company's existing patents, which may be questioned or contested through requests for reexamination and other legal proceedings; and other factors that are described under the heading "Risk Factors" in Item 1A of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.
