Vale informs about iron ore shipments

Rio de Janeiro, February 26, 2009 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (Vale) informs that its shipments of iron ore to China in the first quarter of 2009, according to its best estimates, are expected to reach 30 million metrics tons, which, if confirmed, could represent approximately 60% of all iron ore expected to be shipped in the period. This information was firstly released by Vale's management during last week's conference call and webcast realized on February 20, 2009, held to discuss its 4Q08 earnings performance.

This press release may include declarations that present Vale's expectations in relation to future events or results. All declarations, when based upon future expectations and not on historical facts involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such declarations will come to be correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) countries where we operate, mainly Brazil and Canada; (b) global economy; (c) capital markets; (d) iron ore and nickel businesses and their dependence upon the global steel industry, which is cyclical by nature; (e) high degree of global competition in the markets which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may give origin to results different from those forecasted by Vale, please consult the reports filed with the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM), the Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including the most recent Annual Report Vale Form 20F and 6K forms.
