Departure of Chief Technology Officer and President of IP Services

On June 19, 2013, the board of directors (“Board”) of Marathon Patent Group, Inc. (the “Company”) accepted resignation of Mr. Nathaniel Bradley from his position of Chief Technology Officer and President of IP Services with the Company. The resignation is for personal reasons and not in connection with any known disagreement with the Company on any matter. Mr. Bradley will continue to consult for the Company for a one year period at an agreed upon hourly rate.

In connection with his resignation, Mr. Bradley entered into a Separation and Release Agreement with the Company (“Separation and Release Agreement”), pursuant to which, Mr. Bradley is entitled to a severance payment of $16,250 and 125,000 options previously granted to him under his employment agreement which have vested. Pursuant to the Separation and Release Agreement, Mr. Bradley also agreed to provide periodic consultation to the Company as requested at an agreed upon hourly rate of $75.00. In addition, Mr. Bradley agreed to release the Company of all claims and the Company agreed to release Mr. Bradley of any known claims.

The forgoing description of the principal terms of the Separation and Release Agreement is a general description only, does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the Separation and Release Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1, which is incorporated herein by this reference.

Grant of Stock Options

On June 19, 2013, the Board approved the issuances of stock options to purchase shares of the Company’s common stock pursuant to the Company’s 2012 Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”) to three individuals including 500,000 options to Mr. James Crawford, the Company Chief Operating Officer. The stock options granted pursuant to the Plan have an exercise price equal to the fair market value per share on the option grant date, which was $0.38 per share. The options issued to Mr. Crawford are conditioned upon the cancellation of the stock options granted to him on March 1, 2013 under his employment agreement with the Company and will vest in twenty-four (24) equal installments on each monthly anniversary of the date of grant.
