This Amendment No. 5 filed by AT&T Corp. ("AT&T") amends the Schedule 13D filed on March 19, 1999, as amended by Amendment No. 1 filed on December 15, 2000, Amendment No. 2 filed on April 9, 2001, Amendment No. 3 filed on June 13, 2001, and Amendment No 4 dated August 8, 2001 relating to AT&T's ownership of the stock of Cablevision Systems Corporation, a Delaware corporation. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Schedule 13D as previously amended.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended by adding the following at the end thereof:

On October 17, 2001, AT&T and two wholly-owned subsidiaries entered into an underwriting agreement (the "Underwriting Agreement") for the sale, in an underwritten public offering, of 19,151,285 Class A Stock at $36.05 per share, less underwriting discount, fees and expenses. A Registration Statement on Form S-3 was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and, as subsequently amended, was declared effective on October 17, 2001. The sale was consummated on October 23, 2001.

Also on October 17, 2001, in connection with an underwritten offering of certain exchange securities issued by a trust not affiliated with AT&T (the "Exchange Trust"), AT&T and two wholly-owned subsidiaries entered into an underwriting agreement (the "Trust Underwriting Agreement") relating to the offering of exchange securities by the Trust.

Pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement and the Trust Underwriting Agreement, AT&T has agreed not to offer, sell, contract to sell or otherwise dispose of, directly or indirectly, any Class A Stock for a period of 180 days following the consummation of the offering.

On October 23, 2001, in connection with the offering of exchange securities by the Trust, two wholly-owned subsidiaries of AT&T (the "AT&T Subs") each entered into a contract with the Trust (the "Contracts") relating to the disposition, in the aggregate, of not fewer than 22,064,844 nor more than 26,918,195 Class A Stock (the "Shares") or the cash value of such number Shares held by the AT&T Subs. The Contracts require the AT&T Subs to deliver to the Exchange Trust on November 15, 2004 (subject to their right to extend such date, under certain circumstances, to February 15, 2005) (the "Exchange Date"), a number of Class A Stock equal to the maximum amount of Shares multiplied by the Exchange Rate, or the cash equivalent value of that number of shares of Class A Stock at that time. The Exchange Rate is equal to (i) if the Exchange Price (as defined in the Contracts) of the Class A Stock is equal to or greater than $43.981 per share (the "Threshold Appreciation Price"), 0.8197, (ii) if the Exchange Price is less than the Threshold Appreciation Price but equal to or greater than $36.05 per share (the "Initial Price"), an amount equal to the Initial Price divided by the Exchange Price and (iii) if the Exchange Price is less than the Initial Price, 1.0, subject in each case to certain antidilution adjustments.

The offering of the exchange securities by the Trust was consummated on October 23, 2001 and at that time the AT&T received $756,985,269.68 under the Contracts, representing the purchase price before expenses.

Also on October 23, 2001, the AT&T Subs entered into two Collateral Agreements (the "Collateral Agreements") with the Trust and the Bank of New York, as Collateral Agent, to secure their obligations under the Contracts. The Collateral Agreements require the AT&T Subs to pledge, in the aggregate, the maximum amount of Shares, subject to the right to substitute collateral consisting of U.S. Government Securities or Cash Equivalents with an equal or greater value.

Prior to the delivery of the Shares on the Exchange Date AT&T, through the AT&T Subs, retains the right to vote the Shares and receive dividends and other distributions on the Shares. The occurrence of certain defaults under the Contracts would cause the acceleration of the Contracts and require delivery of the Shares (or other eligible collateral), cash or a combination thereof, prior to the Exchange Date. Under the Contracts, AT&T retains an interest in appreciation, if any, in the market price of the Class A Stock above (but will not realize a decline, in any, in the market price of the Class A Stock below) the Initial Price.

The foregoing descriptions of the Underwriting Agreement, the Trust Underwriting Agreement, the Forward Contracts and the Collateral Agreements are qualified in their entirety by reference to copies of the full agreements, which are included herewith as Exhibits 1 through 4 and are specifically incorporated by reference herein.

Item 5.

The third sentence of paragraph (a) of Item 5 is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following.

See Items 11 and 13 of the cover pages for the aggregate number and percentage of Cablevision NY Group Class A Common Stock and Rainbow Media Group Class A Common Stock owned by AT&T. Such figures include all the Cablevision NY Group Class A Common Stock subject to the Contracts described in Item 4.
