PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

The Board of Directors of A.C. Moore Arts & Crafts, Inc. (the "Company" or "A.C. Moore") is soliciting proxies for use at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Meeting") and any adjournments or postponements thereof. This proxy statement and accompanying proxy card are first being mailed or given to shareholders on or about April 23, 2004.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING AND VOTING

When is the Meeting and where will it be held?

The meeting will be held on Friday, June 18, 2004 at 10:00 a.m., prevailing time, at the Company's new headquarters, located at 500 University Court, Blackwood, New Jersey, 08012.

What is the purpose of the Meeting?

At the Meeting, shareholders will consider and act upon the matters outlined in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders, including:

- o the election of two Class B directors;
- o ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent auditors; and
- o such other business as may properly come before the Meeting.

Who is entitled to vote at the Meeting?

The Board has set April 20, 2004 as the record date for the Meeting (the "Record Date"). If you were a shareholder of record, as shown on the stock transfer books of the Company, at the close of business on the Record Date, you are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on each matter which may be brought before the meeting.

On the Record Date, there were 19,413,076 shares of common stock, no par value per share (the "Common Stock") issued and outstanding and, therefore, eligible to vote at the meeting.

Edgar Filing: A C MOORE ARTS & CRAFTS INC - Form DEF 14A

How many shares must be present to hold the Meeting?

The holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as of the Record Date must be present, in person or represented by proxy, at the Meeting in order to hold the Meeting and conduct business. This is called a quorum. If you submit a properly executed proxy card, vote by telephone or electronically through the Internet, then your shares will be counted as part of the quorum. All shares of the Company's Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy (including broker non-votes) and entitled to vote at the Meeting, no matter how they are voted or whether they abstain from voting, will be counted in determining the presence of a quorum.

If the Meeting is adjourned because of the absence of a quorum, those shareholders entitled to vote who attend the adjourned meeting, although constituting less than a quorum as provided herein, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing directors. If the Meeting is adjourned for one or more periods aggregating at least 15 days because of the absence of a quorum, those shareholders entitled to vote who attend the reconvened Meeting, if less than a quorum as determined under applicable law, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of acting upon any matter set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting.

What vote is required for the election of directors or for a proposal to be approved?

The election of directors will be determined by a plurality vote and the two nominees receiving the most "for" votes will be elected. Approval of any other proposal will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the proposal.

How do I vote my shares?

If you are a registered shareholder (that is, if your stock is registered in your name) you may vote or provide voting instructions by telephone or electronically through the Internet, by following the instructions included with your proxy card. The deadline for registered shareholders to vote telephonically or electronically through the Internet is 11:59 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on June 17, 2004.

The Company encourages you to take advantage of these ways to vote your shares for matters to be covered at the Meeting. Set forth below is a summary of the three voting methods which registered shareholders may utilize to submit their votes.

Vote by Telephone - 1-866-626-4508. Use any touch-tone telephone to vote your proxy 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Have your proxy card in hand when you call. You will be prompted to enter your Control Number(s) which are located on your proxy Card and then follow the directions given.

Vote Electronically through the Internet - <http://www.votestock.com>. Use the Internet to vote your proxy 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Have your proxy card in hand when you access the web site. You will be prompted to enter your Control Number(s) which are located on your proxy card to create and submit an electronic ballot.

Vote by Mail. Mark, sign and date your proxy card and return such card in the postage-paid envelope we have provided you.

If you vote by telephone or electronically through the Internet, you do not need to return your proxy card. Please note that although there is no charge to you for voting by telephone or electronically through the Internet, there may be costs associated with electronic access such as usage charges for Internet service providers and telephone companies. The Company does not cover these costs; they are solely your responsibility. The telephone and Internet voting procedures being made available to you are valid forms of granting proxies under Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law.

If your shares are held in "street name," (that is, if your stock is registered in the name of your broker or bank) please check your proxy card or contact your broker or nominee to determine whether you will be able to vote by telephone or electronically.

If my shares are held by my broker or other nominee, how do I vote my shares?

If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by another nominee, such as a bank or trust, then the broker or other nominee is considered to be the shareholder of record with respect to those shares. However, you still are considered to be the beneficial owner of those shares, with your shares being held in "street name." Street name holders generally cannot vote their shares directly and must instead instruct the broker, bank, trust or other nominee how to vote their shares. Your broker or other nominee could vote your shares without your instructions on the proposal for election of directors, but are not required to do so. To be sure your shares are voted, you should instruct your broker or other nominee to vote your shares.

What if I do not specify how I want my shares voted?

If you submit a signed proxy card or submit your proxy by telephone or electronically through the Internet but do not indicate how you want your shares voted, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote your shares of Common Stock:

- o "for" the election of each of the persons identified below in "Proposal 1: Election of Directors" as nominees for election as directors;
- o "for" ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PricewaterhouseCoopers") as the independent auditors of the Company for the year ending December 31, 2004; and
- o with respect to any other matter that properly comes before the Meeting, the proxy holders will vote the proxies in their discretion in accordance with their best judgment and in the manner they believe to be in the best interest of A.C. Moore.

If I abstain from voting or withhold authority to vote for any proposal, will my shares be counted in the vote?

Under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law, an abstention, withholding of authority to vote or broker non-vote will have no effect on the vote and will not be counted in determining whether either proposal has received the required shareholder vote.

Can I change my vote after submitting my proxy?

Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the Meeting. If you are a shareholder of record, you may revoke your proxy by:

Edgar Filing: A C MOORE ARTS & CRAFTS INC - Form DEF 14A

- o submitting a later-dated proxy by telephone, Internet or mail.
- o attending the Meeting and voting in person. Your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy. You must also vote in person at the Meeting.

If you hold your shares in street name, you must contact your broker or other nominee regarding how to revoke your proxy and change your vote.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

If you receive more than one proxy card, it means that you hold shares that are registered in more than one account. To ensure that all of your shares are voted, you will need to sign and return each proxy card you receive.

Who pays for the cost of the solicitation of proxies?

The Company will bear the cost of this solicitation. In addition to solicitation by mail, officers, directors or employees of the Company may also solicit proxies in person or by telephone, facsimile, telegraph or teletype, without additional compensation. Upon request, the Company will pay the reasonable expenses incurred by record holders of the Company's Common Stock who are brokers, dealers, banks or voting trustees, or their nominees, for mailing proxy material and annual shareholder reports to the beneficial owners of the shares they hold of record.

should attend the annual meeting of shareholders, absent exceptional cause. All directors attended the 2003 annual meeting of shareholders.

Committees of the Board

The Board of Directors has three standing committees.

- o Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee reviews and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding the salaries, bonuses, and other forms of compensation for executive officers of A.C. Moore and administers various compensation and benefit plans. The current members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Bauer, Lesser (Chairman) and Segal. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Compensation Committee is independent as defined in the applicable listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market. The report of the Compensation Committee begins on page 11 of this Proxy Statement.
- o Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of the Company's independent auditors; reviews the independence of the Company's independent auditors; discusses with management and the Company's outside auditors the quality and adequacy of the Company's internal financial controls; discusses the Company's annual audited financial statements and quarterly financial statements with management and the Company's independent auditor; and establishes procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters. The Audit Committee also pre-approves the professional services provided by the Company's independent auditors. The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Bauer (Chairman), Lesser and Segal. The report of the Audit Committee is set forth on page 9 of this Proxy Statement.

The Board of Directors of the Company has determined that no member of the Audit Committee is an audit committee financial expert as that term is defined by the SEC. The Board of Directors has determined that each Audit Committee member has sufficient knowledge in financial and accounting matters to serve effectively on the Audit Committee. In addition, the Audit Committee has the ability on its own to retain independent accountants or other advisers whenever it deems appropriate. At this time, the Board of Directors does not believe that it is necessary to actively search for an outside person to serve on the Board of Directors who would qualify as an audit committee financial expert. The Board of Directors periodically will review and monitor the need for an audit committee financial expert.

Edgar Filing: A C MOORE ARTS & CRAFTS INC - Form DEF 14A

- o Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee makes recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding the size of the Board of Directors; identifies individuals qualified to become members of the Board of Directors consistent with the criteria approved by the Nominating Committee; considers nominees made by shareholders in accordance with the Company's bylaws; recommends to the Board of Directors, the director nominees for each annual meeting of shareholders; assists the Board of Directors in the event of a vacancy by identifying individuals to fill such vacancy and annually recommends, to the Board of Directors, director nominees for each board committee. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Nominating Committee is independent as defined in the applicable listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market. The Nominating Committee recommended the nomination of the directors listed on page 4, who stand for election at the 2004 annual meeting of shareholders. The Nominating Committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Board of Directors, a copy of which can be found on the Company's website, www.acmoore.com, under the "Investor Relations" section in "Corporate Governance."

Director Nomination Process

Director Qualifications. Nominees for director will be selected on the basis of outstanding achievement in their careers; broad experience; education; independence under applicable Nasdaq and SEC rules; financial expertise; integrity; financial integrity; ability to make independent, analytical inquiries; understanding of the business environment; and willingness to devote adequate time to Board of Directors and committee duties. Nominees should also have experience in the retail industry and knowledge about the issues affecting the retail industry. Finally, the proposed nominee should be free of conflicts of interest that could prevent such nominee from acting in the best interest of shareholders. Additional special criteria apply to directors being considered to serve on a particular committee of the Board of Directors. For example, members of the Audit Committee must meet additional standards of independence and have the ability to read and understand the Company's financial statements.

Director Nominee Selection Process. In the case of an incumbent director whose term of office expires, the Nominating Committee reviews such director's service to the Company during the past term, including, but not limited to, the number of board and committee meetings attended, as applicable, quality of participation and whether the candidate continues to meet the general qualifications for a director outlined above, including the director's independence, as well as any special qualifications required for membership on any committees on which such director serves.

In the case of a new director candidate, the selection process for director candidates includes the following steps:

- o identification of director candidates by the Nominating Committee based upon suggestions from current directors and executives and recommendations received from shareholders;
- o possible engagement of a director search firm;
- o interviews of candidates by the Nominating Committee;

Edgar Filing: A C MOORE ARTS & CRAFTS INC - Form DEF 14A

- o reports to the Board of Directors by the Nominating Committee on the selection process;
- o recommendations by the Nominating Committee; and
- o formal nominations by the Board of Directors for inclusion in the slate of directors at the annual meeting.

The Nominating Committee will consider properly submitted shareholder recommendations for director candidates. Director candidates recommended by shareholders are given the same consideration as candidates suggested by directors and executive officers. Under the Company's bylaws, a shareholder who desires to nominate directors for election at the Company's shareholders meeting must comply with the procedures summarized below under "- Shareholder Nominations".

Shareholder Nominations. According to the Company's bylaws, nominations by shareholders for directors to be elected at a meeting of shareholders which have not previously been approved by the Board of Directors must be submitted to the Secretary of the Corporation in writing, either by personal delivery, nationally-recognized express mail or United States mail, postage prepaid, not later than (i) the latest date upon which shareholder proposals must be submitted to the Company for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement relating to such meeting pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or other applicable rules or regulations under the federal securities laws or, if no such rules apply, at least 90 days prior to the date one year from the date of the immediately preceding annual meeting of shareholders, and (ii) with respect to an election to be held at a special meeting of shareholders, the close of business on the tenth day following the date on which notice of such meeting is first given to shareholders. Each nomination is required to set forth:

- o the name and address of the shareholder making the nomination and the person or persons nominated;
- o a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of capital stock of the Company entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to vote for the person or persons nominated;

- o a description of all arrangements and understandings between the shareholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination was made by the shareholder;
- o such other information regarding each nominee proposed by such shareholder as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the SEC had the nominee been nominated by the Board of Directors; and
- o the consent of each nominee to serve as a director of the Company if so elected. All nominations which are late will be rejected by the Company.

Executive Compensation

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee of A.C. Moore's Board of Directors reviews comparative executive compensation in order to make compensation recommendations to the Board regarding the Company's chief executive officer and other executive officers and oversees all compensation programs involving the issuance of equity securities of A.C. Moore. The Compensation Committee's executive compensation policies are designed to provide competitive levels of compensation, integrate pay with A.C. Moore's annual and long-term performance goals, reward above-average corporate performance, recognize individual initiative and achievements, and assist A.C. Moore in attracting and retaining qualified executives.

A.C. Moore's executive officer compensation program is comprised of base salary, annual cash incentive compensation, and long-term incentive compensation in the form of stock options, and various benefits available to all full time employees of A.C. Moore, including participation in group medical and life insurance plans and a 401(k) Plan. The Company seeks to be competitive with compensation programs offered by companies of a similar size within the retail industry.

Base Salary and Incentive Compensation. Prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, financial and other goals are established for the Company and reviewed with the Board. Each executive officer is responsible for accomplishing the goals pertaining to his or her area of responsibility. Base salaries are based on the results of individual performance, as well as other considerations such as the executive officer's level of responsibility, years of service with A.C. Moore, professional background and surveys of compensation levels of comparable retail companies. Incentive compensation is based upon the achievement of Company profit objectives. All executive officers, except Jack Parker who has excluded himself from the Company's incentive compensation program, are eligible to participate in the Company's incentive compensation program. No executive officer of the Company received bonus compensation during 2003 because the Company did not meet the pre-approved financial objectives.

Stock Options. A.C. Moore uses its 2002 Stock Option Plan and its 1997 Employee, Director and Consultant Stock Option Plan (the "Option Plans") as long-term incentive plans for executive officers and key employees. The objectives of the Option Plans with respect to executive officers are to align the long-term interests of executive officers and shareholders by creating a direct link between executive compensation and shareholder return and to enable executives to develop and maintain a significant long-term equity interest in A.C. Moore. The Option Plans authorize the Compensation Committee to award stock options to officers and key employees. Stock options granted to executive officers are based upon the level and degree of responsibility of the positions they hold. In general under the Option Plans, options are granted with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant and are exercisable according to a vesting schedule determined by the Compensation Committee at the time of grant. In 2003, 2002 and 2001, the Board of Directors granted options to purchase an aggregate of 322,375 shares, 312,300 shares and 306,600 shares, respectively of Common Stock under the Option Plans. Information concerning the option grants to certain executive officers is set forth in the Summary Compensation Table.

Policy with Respect to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Generally, Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and the regulations promulgated thereunder (collectively, "Section 162(m)"), denies a deduction to any publicly held corporation, such as A.C. Moore, for certain compensation exceeding $1,000,000 paid during a calendar year to the chief executive officer and the four other highest paid executive officers, excluding, among other things, certain performance-based compensation. Where appropriate, the Compensation Committee has taken action to reduce the impact of this provision. For example, the Compensation Committee intends that the Option Plans qualify for the performance-based exclusion. The Compensation Committee continually evaluates to what extent Section 162(m) will apply to its other compensation programs.

Discussion of 2003 Compensation for the Chief Executive Officer. In considering the compensation for Mr. Parker, the Chief Executive Officer, the Compensation Committee reviewed his existing compensation arrangements and compensation levels of comparable retail companies. The Compensation Committee accordingly made the determination that the annual compensation for the Chief Executive Officer be established at $450,000 for 2003. In 2002 and 2001, the compensation committee had established Mr. Parker's compensation at $450,000 and $350,000, respectively. Mr. Parker, as a major shareholder of A.C. Moore, elected not to participate in either the incentive compensation program or the Option Plans. Mr. Parker also elected to reduce his compensation to $380,000 for 2003 and 2002 and $300,000 for 2001.

As part of his overall compensation package, Mr. Parker was also provided various life insurance policies.

The gains shown are net of the option exercise price, but do not include deductions for taxes or other expenses associated with the exercise of the option or the sale of the underlying shares, or reflect non-transferability, vesting or termination provisions. Employment Agreements

On June 11, 2001, the Company entered into an employment agreement with the Company's President, Lawrence H. Fine. The term of Mr. Fine's employment agreement is three years, unless earlier terminated by the Company or Mr. Fine. Mr. Fine's employment agreement entitles him to receive an annual base salary of $325,000 for his first year of employment, $350,000 for his second year of employment and $375,000 for his third year of employment. Irrespective of Mr. Fine's employment agreement, the Company and Mr. Fine agreed to maintain Mr. Fine's salary at $350,000 during his third year of employment. Mr. Fine's employment agreement also provides for the payment of a minimum guaranteed annual bonus in the amount of $50,000. As the Company did not meet its 2003 financial objectives, Mr. Fine elected not to receive his annual bonus for that year. Mr. Fine's employment agreement provides for severance payments to be paid to Mr. Fine if his employment is terminated by the Company without cause or in the event of a change in control transaction.

In accordance with the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Fine was granted options to acquire 100,000 shares of Common Stock under the Option Plans upon the commencement of his employment and options for an additional 100,000 shares on August 22, 2002. Mr. Fine's employment agreement further provides that in the third year of his employment, and in each subsequent year, Mr. Fine will be a participant in the Company's Option Plans, and that further stock options grants will be in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Option Plans.

Mr. Fine's employment agreement also prohibits him from divulging confidential information regarding the Company or the Company's business to any other party. In addition, Mr. Fine's employment agreement prohibits him, during the term of his employment with the Company and for a period of two years following termination of his employment, from engaging in a business that competes with the Company and from soliciting as executives or managers any individuals who were the Company's executives or managers at the time of his employment.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Executive officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required by regulation of the SEC to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company and written representations that no other reports were required during 2003, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to the Company's executive officers, directors and greater than ten-percent beneficial owners were complied with during 2003, except that the following reports were not timely filed: Jack Robinson filed a Form 3 which was not timely by approximately twenty days and Richard Lesser, Jack Robinson, Lawrence Fine, Janet Parker, Leslie Gordon, Eli Segal, Richard Drake, Richard Bauer and Patricia Parker, each filed a Form 4 related to a grant of options which was not timely by three days.

PROPOSAL 2

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers, independent auditors, to serve as A.C. Moore's independent auditors for the year ending December 31, 2004. Shareholders will be asked to ratify this appointment. Although action by the shareholders on this matter is not required, the Audit Committee believes it is appropriate to seek shareholder ratification of the appointment of independent auditors to provide a forum for shareholders to express their views with regard to the Audit Committee's appointment. If the shareholders do not ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers, the selection of independent auditors may be reconsidered by the Audit Committee. A representative of PricewaterhouseCoopers is expected to be present at the Meeting and to be available to respond to appropriate questions. The representative will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she so desires.

Principal Accountant Fees and Services

Aggregate fees for professional services rendered for us by PricewaterhouseCoopers as of or for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 were:

Services Rendered (1)	2003	2002
Audit Fees.....	$ 213,500	$ 156,500
Audit Related fees.....	33,000	65,000
Tax Fees.....	20,491	55,285
All Other Fees.....	--	--
Total.....	$ 266,991	$ 276,785

- (1) The aggregate fees included in Audit fees are fees billed for the fiscal years for the audit of the registrant's annual financial statements and reviews of financial statements and statutory and regulatory filings or engagements. The aggregate fees included in each of the other categories are fees billed in the fiscal years.

Audit fees for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively, were for professional services rendered for the audits of the consolidated financial statements of the Company, quarterly reviews, issuance of consents, and assistance with review of documents filed with the SEC.

Audit related fees for the year ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 were for internal control procedures and consultations concerning financial accounting and reporting standards.

Tax fees for the year ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 were for services relating to tax advice and tax planning other than those directly related to the audit of the income tax accrual.

The Audit Committee has considered and determined that the services provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers are compatible with PricewaterhouseCoopers maintaining its independence.

The Audit Committee has adopted a policy that requires advance approval of all audit, audit-related, tax services and other services performed by the independent auditor. The policy provides for pre-approval by the Audit Committee of specifically defined audit and non-audit services. Unless the specific service has been previously pre-approved with respect to that year, the Audit Committee must approve the permitted service before the independent auditor is engaged to perform it. The Audit Committee pre-approved all of the audit and non-audit services provided to the Company by PricewaterhouseCoopers in fiscal year 2003.

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote "FOR" approval of Proposal 2.

A.C. Moore is not presently aware of any matters (other than procedural matters) which will be brought before the Meeting which are not reflected in the attached Notice of the Meeting. The enclosed proxy confers discretionary authority to vote with respect to any and all of the following matters that may come before the Meeting: (i) matters which the Company did not receive notice by December 17, 2003 were to be presented at the Meeting; (ii) approval of the minutes of a prior meeting of shareholders, if such approval does not amount to ratification of the action taken at the meeting; (iii) the election of any person to any office for which a bona fide nominee named in this Proxy Statement is unable to serve or for good cause will not serve; (iv) any proposal omitted from this Proxy Statement and the form of proxy pursuant to Rules 14a-8 or 14a-9 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and (v) matters incident to the conduct of the Meeting. In connection with such matters, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote in accordance with their best judgment.

HOUSEHOLDING

In order to reduce printing costs and postage fees, the Company has adopted the process called "householding" for mailing its annual report and proxy statement to "street name holders," which refers to shareholders whose shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee. This means that street name holders who share the same last name and address will receive only one copy of the Company's annual report and proxy statement, unless the Company receives contrary instructions from a street name holder at that address. The Company will continue to mail a proxy card to each shareholder of record.

If you prefer to receive multiple copies of the Company's proxy statement and annual report at the same address, you may obtain additional copies by writing to A.C. Moore Arts & Crafts, Inc. ATTN.: Leslie H. Gordon, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, 500 University Court, Blackwood, NJ 08012 or by calling (856) 228-6700, ext. 109. General Comments

While the fundamental responsibility for the Company's financial statements and disclosures rests with management and the independent auditor, the audit committee will review

- (A) major issues regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentations, including any significant changes in the Company's selection or application of accounting principles, and major issues as to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and any special audit steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies;
- (B) analyses prepared by management and/or the independent auditor setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including analyses of the effects of alternative generally accepted accounting principle ("GAAP") methods on the financial statements; and
- (C) the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives, as well as off-balance sheet structures, on the financial statements of the Company.

Meetings

The audit committee shall meet at least four times per year on a quarterly basis, or more frequently as circumstances require. One or more meetings may be conducted in whole or in part by telephone conference call or similar means if it is impracticable to obtain the personal presence of each audit committee member. The Company shall make available to the audit committee, at its meetings and otherwise, such individuals and entities as may be designated from time to time by the audit committee, such as members of management including (but not limited to) the internal audit and accounting staff, the independent auditors, inside and outside counsel, and other individuals or entities (whether or not employed by the Company and including any corporate governance employees and individuals or entities performing internal audit services as independent contractors).

Any member of the Audit Committee may call a meeting of the Committee upon due notice to each other member. Any action of the Audit Committee shall be taken by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members. Any action of the Audit Committee may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Audit Committee consent thereto in writing.

Delegation

Any duties and responsibilities of the audit committee, including, but not limited to, the authority to pre-approve all audit and permitted non-audit services, may be delegated to one or more members of the audit committee or a subcommittee of the audit committee.

Limitations

The audit committee is responsible for the duties and responsibilities set forth in this charter, but its role is oversight and therefore it is not responsible for either the preparation of the Company's financial statements or the auditing of the Company's financial statements. The members of the audit committee are not employees of the Company and need not be accountants or auditors by profession or experts in accounting or auditing. Management has the responsibility for preparing the financial statements and implementing internal controls and the independent auditors have the responsibility for auditing the financial statements and monitoring the effectiveness of the internal controls, subject, in each case, to the oversight of the audit committee described in this charter. The review of the financial statements by the audit committee is not of the same character or quality as the audit performed by the independent auditors. The oversight exercised by the audit committee is not a guarantee that the financial statements will be free from mistake or fraud. In carrying out its responsibilities, the audit committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible in order to best react to a changing environment.
