Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In October 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU or Update) 2009-13, Multiple-Deliverable Revenue Arrangements a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force, to provide amendments to the criteria in Subtopic 609-24 of the Accounting Standards Codification (Codification) for separating consideration into multiple-deliverable revenue arrangements. ASU 2009-13 establishes a selling price hierarchy for determining the selling price of each specific deliverable, which includes vendor-specific objective evidence (VSOE) if available, third party evidence if VSOE is not available or estimated selling price if neither VSOE nor third party evidence is available. ASU 2009-13 also eliminates the residual method for allocating revenue between the elements of an arrangement and requires that arrangement consideration be allocated at the inception of the arrangement to all deliverables using the relative selling price method, which allocates any discount in the arrangement proportionally to each deliverable on the basis of each deliverable is selling price. This Update expands the disclosure requirements regarding a vendor is multiple-deliverable revenue arrangements. ASU 2009-13 is effective prospectively for revenue arrangements entered into or materially modified in fiscal years beginning on or after September 15, 2010, with early adoption permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of ASU 2009-13 on its consolidated financial statements.

In October 2009, the FASB issued ASU 2009-14, Certain Revenue Arrangements That Include Software Elements a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force. This Update removes tangible products containing software components and non-software components that function together to deliver the tangible product s essential functionality from the scope of the software revenue guidance in Subtopic 985-605 of the Codification. Additionally, ASU 2009-14 provides guidance on how a vendor should allocate arrangement consideration to deliverables in an arrangement that includes both tangible products and software that is not essential to the product s functionality. ASU 2009-14 requires the same expanded disclosures that are included within ASU 2009-13. ASU 2009-14 is effective prospectively for revenue arrangements entered into or materially modified in fiscal years beginning on or after September 15, 2010, with early adoption permitted. A company is required to adopt the amendments in both ASU 2009-13 and ASU 2009-14 in the same period using the same transition method. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of ASU 2009-14 on its consolidated financial statements.

ASU 2010-20 is effective for interim and annual reporting periods ending on and after December 15, 2010. The impact of adoption of ASU 2010-20 by the Company is not expected to have a significant impact on its consolidated financial statements. #### (7) Hedging Activities and Financial Instruments

The Company conducts business in various countries using both the functional currencies of those countries and other currencies to effect cross border transactions. As a result, the Company is subject to the risk that fluctuations in foreign exchange rates between the dates that those transactions are entered into and their respective settlement dates will result in a foreign exchange gain or loss. When practicable, the Company endeavors to match assets and liabilities in the same currency on its balance sheet and those of its subsidiaries in order to reduce these risks. When appropriate, the Company enters into foreign currency contracts to hedge exposures arising from those transactions. The Company has elected not to prepare and maintain the documentation to qualify for hedge accounting treatment under ASC 815, Derivatives and Hedging, and therefore, all gains and losses (realized or unrealized) are recognized in Interest and other expense, net in the condensed consolidated statements of operations. Depending on their fair value at the end of the reporting period, derivatives are recorded either in prepaid expenses and other current assets or in accrued liabilities on the condensed consolidated balance sheet.

There were no foreign currency contracts outstanding at September 30, 2010. The foreign currency contracts outstanding at December 31, 2009 expired at various times between January 6, 2010 and February 3, 2010.

Basic EPS is calculated by dividing net income (loss) available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the applicable period. Diluted EPS is calculated by dividing 3D Systems net income (loss) by the weighted average number of common and common equivalent shares outstanding during the applicable period. The following table reconciles basic weighted average outstanding shares to diluted weighted average outstanding shares for the quarters and nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009:

(11) Fair Value Measurements

ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements, defines fair value as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. ASC 820 also establishes a fair value hierarchy which requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The standard describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1 Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices are observable, either directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities, quoted prices in markets that are not active, or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

For the Company, the above standard applies to cash equivalents and foreign exchange contracts. The Company utilizes the market approach to measure fair value for its financial assets and liabilities. The market approach uses prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable assets or liabilities.

Assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis are summarized below:

	Fair Value Measurements as of September 30, 2010
(in thousands)	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Cash equivalents (1)	$ 17.339	$	$	$ 17.339

(1) Cash equivalents include funds held in money market instruments and are reported at their current carrying value which approximates fair value due to the short-term nature of these instruments and are included in cash and cash equivalents in our condensed consolidated balance sheet.

The Company did not have any transfers of assets and liabilities between Level 1 and Level 2 of the fair value measurement hierarchy during the quarter or nine months ended September 30, 2010.

In addition to the financial assets and liabilities included in the above table, certain of our non-financial assets and liabilities are to be measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis. This includes items such as non-financial assets and liabilities initially measured at fair value in a business combination (but not measured at fair value in subsequent periods) and non-financial, long-lived assets measured at fair value for an impairment assessment. In general, non-financial assets including goodwill, other intangible assets and property and equipment are measured at fair value when there is an indication of impairment and are recorded at fair value only when an impairment is recognized. The Company has not recorded any impairments related to such assets and has had no other significant non-financial assets or non-financial liabilities requiring adjustments or write-downs to fair value as of September 30, 2010 or December 31, 2009.

(12) Income Taxes

The Company s effective tax rates were 5.0% and 7.0% for the quarter and nine months ended September 30, 2010, respectively, compared to 10.3% and (29.7%) for the quarter and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively. Tax expense relates primarily to income from non-U.S. operations.

Tax years 2006 to 2009 remain subject to examination by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. Should the Company utilize any of its remaining U.S. loss carry-forwards, which date from 1997, these would be subject to examination. The Company files income tax returns (which are open to examination beginning in the year shown in parentheses) in France (2004), Germany (2006), Japan (2004), Italy (2004), Switzerland (2004) and the United Kingdom (2006).

(14) Commitments and Contingencies

The Company leased office space and certain furniture and fixtures under various non-cancelable operating leases. Rent expense under operating leases was $203 and $309 for the three months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2010, rent expense under operating leases was $584 compared to $838 for the nine months ended September 30, 2009.

The Company has deferred purchase price obligations due to acquisitions. See Note 2 for details of acquisitions and related commitments.

On March 14, 2008, DSM Desotech Inc. filed a complaint, in an action titled DSM Desotech Inc. v. 3D Systems Corporation in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois (Eastern Division) asserting that the Company engaged in anticompetitive behavior with respect to resins used in large-frame stereolithography machines. The complaint further asserted that the Company is infringing on two of DSM Desotech s patents relating to stereolithography machines. The Company understands that DSM Desotech estimates the damages associated with its claims to be in excess of $40,000.

Following a decision of the Court on the Company s motion to dismiss the non-patent causes of the action, DSM Desotech filed a second amended complaint on March 2, 2009 in which it reasserted causes of action previously dismissed by the Court. The Company filed an answer to the second amended complaint on March 19, 2009 in which, among other things, it denied the material allegations of the second amended complaint. On July 20, 2010, the Court issued a decision relating to the construction of the claims of the patents-in-suit following the Markman hearing held on September 16, 2009. In that decision, the Court generally adopted the claim constructions proposed by the Company. Discovery is proceeding on the claims pending in this case.

Table of Contents

The Company intends to continue vigorously contesting all the claims asserted by DSM Desotech.

The Company has been pursuing patent infringement litigation against EnvisionTEC, Inc. and certain of its affiliated companies since 2005. In this litigation, the Company asserted that EnvisionTEC infringed the Company s patents covering various three-dimensional solid imaging products and methods for creating physical three-dimensional models of an object and has sought injunctive relief and damages. EnvisionTEC s Perfactory machine and Vanquish machine (the Vanquish is now marketed as the PerfactoryXede and PerfactoryXtreme) are the two products accused of patent infringement. On February 6, 2008 the Court issued Markman claim constructions that generally adopted the claim constructions proposed by the Company.

A jury trial was held from September 21 to September 29, 2010. Following that trial, the jury issued a verdict to the effect that EnvisionTEC s Vanquish machine infringes one of 3D Systems patents, and the Court entered judgment on that verdict on October 7, 2010.

The Company has not yet sought to enforce this judgment, but believes that it is entitled to an injunction as a result of the judgment entered by the Court. The Company also intends to pursue claims for damages against EnvisionTEC. On July 14, 2010, MSK K.K., a Japanese company, filed a complaint against the Company s Japanese subsidiary in the Tokyo District Court asserting, among other things, that the Company s subsidiary failed to satisfy certain alleged performance guarantees associated with the use of certain materials in two systems purchased from the Company in 2007. The plaintiff is seeking damages in excess of $1,600.

The Company intends to vigorously contest the claims asserted by MSK K.K..

The Company is also involved in various other legal matters incidental to its business. The Company s management believes, after consulting with counsel, that the disposition of these other legal matters will not have a material effect on the Company s consolidated results of operations or consolidated financial position.

(15) Subsequent Events

On October 5, 2010, the Company acquired Bits From Bytes, Ltd. in a share purchase. Future revenue from this acquisition will be reported in Products revenue. See Note 2.

On October 12, 2010, the Company acquired Provel, S.r.l. in a share purchase. The Provel acquisition is significant to the Company s financial statements. Future revenue from the this acquisition will be reported in Services revenue. See Note 2.

Item 2. Management s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

This discussion should be read in conjunction with the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in Item 1 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q ( Form 10-Q ).

We are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that may affect our future performance that are discussed in greater detail in the sections entitled Forward-Looking Statements and Cautionary Statements and Risk Factors at the end of this Item 2 and that are discussed or referred to in Item 1A of Part II of this Form 10-Q.

Business Overview

We design, develop, manufacture, market and service 3D printing, rapid manufacturing, and prototyping systems and related products and materials that enable complex three-dimensional objects to be produced directly from computer data without tooling, greatly reducing the time and cost required to produce prototypes or customized production parts. We also operate 3Dproparts , a comprehensive service bureau that offers our customers rapid prototyping and manufacturing services for the production of precision parts.

Our consolidated revenue is derived primarily from the sale of our systems, the sale of the related materials used by the systems to produce solid objects and the provision of services to our customers.

Recent Developments

We have continued to execute on our strategy to grow our 3Dproparts—service, through additional strategic acquisitions and by further expanding our distribution channel of 3D printing reseller partners.

In July 2010, we made our first 3Dproparts European acquisition, acquiring the assets of CEP S.A. and its affiliate, Protometal S.A. (collectively CEP), rapid prototyping and rapid manufacturing services providers located in Joué 1 Abbé, France. We acquired CEP to augment and expand our 3Dproparts business in Europe.

In September 2010, we acquired the assets of Express Pattern, Inc. in Vernon Hills, Illinois. Express Pattern is a leading prototyper that serves defense, transportation, recreation and healthcare customers by delivering a comprehensive menu of advanced rapid casting, tooling and parts solutions as part of our continued expansion of our 3Dproparts service.

In October 2010, we expanded our 3Dproparts business in Europe, acquiring the shares of Provel S.r.l. located near Turin, Italy. Provel provides rapid prototyping, tooling and manufacturing services, specializing in stereolithography, selective laser sintering, rapid tooling and urethane casting.

In October 2010, as part of our strategy to accelerate 3D printer penetration and new products and channel expansion, we acquired Bits From Bytes Ltd. located near Bristol, England. Bits From Bytes is a maker of affordable 3D printers and printer kits that print real plastic parts from a variety of materials, including ABS, PLA, polypropylene, and polyethylene for educational, hobbyist, and professional applications.

Results of Operations

Summary of 2010 financial results

Our operating activities generated $18.5 million of cash during the first nine months of 2010, of which we used $10.3 million to fund our strategic investing activities. In total, unrestricted cash increased $8.9 million in the first nine months of 2010, resulting in a balance of $33.8 million of unrestricted cash compared to $24.9 million of unrestricted cash at December 31, 2009.

During the third quarter of 2010 we reported improved revenue and profit as compared to the third quarter of 2009 as our worldwide business continued to expand. Revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 increased 41.7% over 2009. This increase in revenue was led by a $16.4 million, or 93.3%, increase in sales of systems and other products together with a $6.4 million, or 18.0%, increase in materials sales, and a $9.1 million, or 39.0%, increase in services revenue year-over-year. Higher revenue coupled with a focus on continued cost containment, enabled us to achieve net income of $10.1 million for the first nine months of 2010, compared to a net loss of $2.5 million for the same period in 2009.

Materials sales for the third quarter of 2010 rose by $1.1 million from the third quarter of 2009 as revenue from materials was favorably impacted by continued expansion of systems installed over past periods. In addition, the higher production systems sales are typically accompanied by significant initial materials purchases to charge up new systems and commence production. Materials revenue increased compared to the third quarter of 2009 notwithstanding the fact that materials consumed by 3Dproparts were not included in our materials revenue line.

Revenue from services increased by $5.1 million to $12.8 million in the third quarter of 2010 from $7.7 million in the third quarter of 2009. Services revenue grew by $2.3 million in the third quarter of 2010 from $10.5 million in the second quarter of 2010.

For the third quarter of 2010 healthcare revenue made up 14%, or $6.0 million of our total revenue compared to 14%, or $4.5 million in the second quarter of 2010 and includes sales of systems, materials and services for the following applications: hearing aid, dental, medical device and other health-related applications.

Although system sales into these marketplaces can fluctuate from period to period, 58% of revenue from healthcare applications was from recurring revenue in the third quarter of 2010 compared to 73% in the second quarter of 2010.

Our higher gross profit in the third quarter and first nine months of 2010 arose primarily from our higher level of revenue coupled with continued cost containment. Our gross profit margin increased to 45.4% in the third quarter of 2010 from 44.5% in the third quarter of 2009 due to product mix and improvements in our cost structure.

Our operating expenses increased by $2.5 million in the third quarter of 2010 to $13.7 million from $11.2 million in the third quarter of 2009. The increase reflected higher selling, general and administrative expenses primarily related to the integration and operation of the acquisitions, compensation expense related to the sales of our products, as well as higher legal fees associated with the DSM Desotech litigation and the EnvisionTEC trial. We expect our SG&A expenses for the remainder of 2010 to be in the range of $11.0 to $12.0 million, and our research and development expenses to be in the range of $2.5 million to $3.0 million.

Our operating income for the third quarter of 2010 improved to $5.2 million from $1.1 million in the 2009 third quarter. This improvement in operating income arose from higher revenues and gross profit partially offset by higher operating expense, as discussed below.

Results of Operations Third Quarter Comparisons

Third quarter comparison of revenue by class of product and service

Table 1 sets forth our change in revenue by class of product and service for the third quarter of 2010 compared to the third quarter of 2009:

We earn revenues from the sale of systems and other products, materials and services. On a consolidated basis, revenue for the third quarter of 2010 increased in each revenue category.

The increase in revenue from systems and other products that is due to volume for the third quarter of 2010 compared to the same quarter of 2009 was the result of higher sales of production systems and 3D printers. Revenue from systems and other products consisted of:

Production systems, which represented $9.0 million, or 62%, of total systems revenue for the third quarter of 2010, compared to $3.7 million, or 54%, for the third quarter of 2009; and 3D printers, which made up the remaining $5.5 million, or 38%, in the third quarter of 2010, compared to $3.1 million, or 46%, in the third quarter of 2009, which represents a 74% increase. Compared to the second quarter of 2010, 3D printer revenue increased $1.0 million, or 23%.

Due to the relatively high list price of certain systems, our customers—purchasing decisions may have a long lead time; combined with the overall low unit volume of systems sales in any particular period, the acceleration or delay of orders and shipments of a small number of systems from one period to another can significantly affect revenue reported for our systems sales for the period involved. Revenue reported for systems sales in any particular period is also affected by revenue recognition rules prescribed by generally accepted accounting principles.

Revenue from materials was also helped by the improvement in production systems sales, which are typically accompanied by significant initial materials purchases to charge up new systems and commence production, and by the continued expansion of systems installed over past periods. Sales of integrated materials represented 32% of total materials revenue in the third quarter of 2010 compared to 30% in the third quarter of 2009. Materials revenue increased compared to the third quarter of 2009 notwithstanding the fact that materials consumed by 3Dproparts were not included in our materials revenue line.

The increase in services revenue reflects revenue from 3Dproparts , which was introduced in the fourth quarter of 2009 to expand our paid parts services. Service revenue from 3Dproparts was $5.3 million, or 41.6% of total service revenue.

At September 30, 2010 our backlog was approximately $7.0 million, compared to backlogs of $1.4 million at December 31, 2009 and $1.7 million at September 30, 2009, respectively. Although production and delivery of our systems is generally not characterized by long lead times, the higher backlog at September 30, 2010 includes an order for multiple machines for future delivery. Additionally, 3Dproparts lead time and backlog depends on whether 3Dproparts orders are for rapid prototyping or longer-range production runs. The backlog at September 30, 2010 included $1.5 million of 3Dproparts orders.

In addition to changes in sales volumes, there are two other primary drivers of changes in revenues from one period to another: the combined effect of changes in product mix and average selling prices, sometimes referred to as price and mix effects, and the impact of fluctuations in foreign currencies.

As used in this Management s Discussion and Analysis, the combined effect of changes in product mix and average selling prices relates to changes in revenue that are not able to be specifically related to changes in unit volume. Among these changes are changes in the product mix of our materials and our systems as the trend toward smaller, more economical systems has continued and the influence of new systems and materials on our operating results has grown. Our reporting systems are not currently configured to produce more quantitative information regarding the effect of price and mix changes on revenue.

Change in third quarter revenue by geographic region

Each geographic region contributed to our higher level of revenue in the third quarter of 2010. Table 2 sets forth the change in revenue by geographic area for the third quarter of 2010 compared to the third quarter of 2009:

(Dollars in thousands)	U.S.		Euro	pe	Asia-Pa	acific	Total	ls

Revenue from U.S. operations increased by $5.9 million or 48.6% to $18.1 million in 2010 from $12.2 million in the third quarter of 2009. The increase was due to higher volume, which was partially offset by the unfavorable combined effect of price and mix.

Revenue from non-U.S. operations for the third quarter of 2010 increased by $7.9 million or 51.2% to $23.4 million from $15.5 million for the third quarter of 2009. Revenue from non-U.S. operations as a percent of total revenue was 56.3% and 55.8%, respectively, for the third quarters of 2010 and 2009. The increase in non-U.S. revenue, excluding the effect of foreign currency translation, was 59.0% in the third quarter of 2010.

Revenue from European operations increased by $5.9 million or 53.8% to $16.8 million from $10.9 million in the prior year period. This increase was due to a $10.2 million increase in volume, partially offset by a $2.9 million unfavorable combined effect of price and mix and a $1.4 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency translation.

Revenue from Asia-Pacific operations increased by $2.0 million or 44.7% to $6.5 million from $4.5 million in the prior year period due primarily to the favorable $1.6 million increase in volume combined with a $0.2 million favorable impact of foreign currency translation and $0.2 million favorable price and mix.

Gross profit and gross profit margins third quarter

Table 3 sets forth gross profit and gross profit margin for our products and services for the third quarters of 2010 and 2009:

	Quarter Ended September 30,
	2010				2009
			Gross
	Gross Profit		Profit	Gross Profit		Profit Margin
(Dollars in thousands)			Margin
Systems and other products	$	5,261	36.3%	$	1,116	16.4%
Materials		8,716	61.2		7,523	57.3
Services		4,851	38.0		3,680	47.7
Total	$	18,828	45.4%	$	12,319	44.5%

On a consolidated basis, gross profit for the third quarter of 2010 increased by $6.5 million to $18.8 million from $12.3 million in the third quarter of 2009, primarily as a result of higher sales from all revenue categories and helped by an increase in our gross profit margin.

Consolidated gross profit margin in the third quarter of 2010 improved by 0.9 percentage points to 45.4% of revenue from 44.5% of revenue for the 2009 quarter. The higher gross profit margin reflected improved overhead absorption due to higher sales. Gross margin expanded even though recurring revenue, which has higher gross margins, comprised a smaller percentage of total revenue compared to the third quarter of 2009. The 2010 gross profit margin was adversely affected by approximately 1.2 percentage points due to the previously disclosed negative impact on margin of sales of our V-Flash® Desktop Printer. The negative impact of V-Flash® sales on margin in the 2009 quarter was 4.1 percentage points.

Systems and other products gross profit for the third quarter of 2010 increased to $5.3 million from $1.1 million for the 2009 quarter. Gross profit margin for systems increased by 19.9 percentage points to 36.3% of revenue from 16.4% of revenue in the 2009 quarter. Gross profit and gross profit margin were positively impacted by higher revenue, improved overhead absorption and benefits from changes to our manufacturing strategy.

Materials gross profit for the third quarter of 2010 increased by $1.2 million or 15.9% to $8.7 million from $7.5 million for the 2009 quarter, and gross profit margin for materials increased by 3.9 percentage points to 61.2% of revenue from 57.3% of revenue in the 2009 quarter. The increased gross profit and gross profit margin is due to the higher revenue and improved overhead absorption.

Gross profit for services for the third quarter of 2010 increased by $1.2 million or 31.8% to $4.9 million from $3.7 million for the 2009 quarter, and gross profit margin for services decreased by 9.7 percentage points to 38.0% of revenue from 47.7% of revenue in the 2009 quarter. The increase in gross profit was due primarily to higher levels of revenue associated with our 3Dproparts business. The decline in gross profit margin for services is primarily due to lower levels of system upgrades in the 2010 quarter, as well as to higher 3Dproparts revenues in 2010 which carried a lower gross profit margin, during the initial quarters following acquisition, of 26.1% for the quarter, compared to 46.5% for the other components of service revenue.

Operating expenses

As shown in Table 4, total operating expenses increased by $2.5 million or 21.7% to $13.7 million in the third quarter of 2010 from $11.2 million in the third quarter of 2009. This increase consisted of $2.6 million in higher selling, general and administrative expenses partially offset by $0.2 million of lower research and development expenses, both of which are discussed below.

	Quarter Ended September 30,
		201	10		200	)9

Total operating expenses	$	13,668	32.9%	$	11,227	40.6%

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by $2.6 million to $11.0 million in the third quarter of 2010 compared to $8.4 million in the third quarter of 2009, but decreased to 26.4% of revenue in 2010 compared to 30.2% for 2009. The increase was due primarily to a $1.4 million increase in compensation costs due to higher commissions and staffing from our acquisitions and a $1.1 million increase in legal fees.

Research and development expenses decreased by $0.2 million or 5.5% to $2.7 million in the third quarter of 2010 from $2.9 million in the third quarter of 2009.

Income from operations

Our income from operations of $5.2 million for the third quarter of 2010 improved from $1.1 million in the third quarter of 2009. See Gross profit and gross profit margins and Operating expenses above.

The following table sets forth operating income (loss) by geographic area for the third quarters of 2010 and 2009:

Table 5

	Quarter Ended September 30,
(Dollars in thousands)		2010		2009

Subtotal		4,964		1,251
Inter-segment elimination		196		(159)
Total	$	5,160	$	1,092

With respect to the U.S., in 2010 and 2009, the changes in operating income by geographic area reflect the factors discussed above in Gross profit and gross profit margins third quarter and Operating expenses.

As most of our operations outside the U.S. are conducted through sales and marketing subsidiaries, the changes in operating income in our operations outside the U.S. from 2009 to 2010 resulted primarily from changes in transfer pricing which is a function of revenue levels.

Interest and other income (expense), net

Interest and other income (expense), net increased to $0.5 million of income in the third quarter of 2010 from $0.1 million of expense in the 2009 quarter. The $0.5 million of income in the third quarter of 2010 reflected a foreign currency gain of $0.7 million and an insignificant amount of interest income in the third quarter of 2010, partially offset by $0.1 million of interest expense.

We recognized $0.1 million of expense in the third quarter of 2009 including $0.2 million of interest expense and $0.2 million of other expenses, which was partially offset by a $0.3 million foreign currency gain, and an insignificant amount of interest income.

Provision for income taxes

We recorded a provision for income taxes of $0.3 million in the third quarter of 2010 and $0.1 million in 2009. Our provisions for income taxes in both periods primarily reflects tax expense associated with taxes in non-U.S. jurisdictions.

We utilized U.S. net operating loss carry forwards, which had a full valuation allowance against them, to eliminate any U.S. taxes. Absent the use of these net operating loss carry forwards, income tax expense would have been $2.2 million and the income tax rate would have been 38.9 percent.

Net income

Our net income for the third quarter of 2010 improved to $5.4 million, compared to $0.9 million net income for the third quarter of 2009. The principal reasons for the improvement, which are discussed in more detail above, were:

the $4.1 million improvement in our operating income; and the $0.5 million decrease in interest and other expense, net.

For the quarter ended September 30, 2010, average common shares for basic and diluted earnings per share were 23.1 million and 23.4 million, respectively, and basic and diluted earnings per share were $0.23. For the quarter ended September 30, 2009, average common shares for basic and diluted earnings per share were 22.6 million and 22.7 million, respectively, and basic and diluted earnings per share were $0.04.

Results of Operations Nine Month Comparisons

Nine month comparison of revenue by class of product and service

Table 6 sets forth our change in revenue by class of product and service for the first nine months of 2010 compared to the same period of 2009:

We earn revenues from the sale of systems and other products, materials and services. On a consolidated basis, revenue for the first nine months of 2010 increased by $31.9 million, or 41.7%, compared to the first nine months of 2009 as a result of improvements in each revenue category.

The increase in revenue from systems and other products that is due to volume for the first nine months of 2010 compared to the same period of 2009 was the result of higher overall system sales as follows:

Production systems, which represented $19.2 million, or 57%, of total systems revenue for the first nine months of 2010, compared to $9.5 million, or 54%, for the 2009 period; and 3D printers, which made up the remaining $14.7 million, or 43%, in the first nine months of 2010, compared to $8.1 million, or 46%, in the first nine months of 2009, which represents an increase of 82%.

Due to the relatively high list price of certain systems, our customers—purchasing decisions may have a long lead time; combined with the overall low unit volume of systems sales in any particular period, the acceleration or delay of orders and shipments of a small number of systems from one period to another can significantly affect revenue reported for our systems sales for the period involved. Revenue reported for systems sales in any particular period is also affected by revenue recognition rules prescribed by generally accepted accounting principles.

Revenue from materials was also helped by the improvement in production systems sales, which are typically accompanied by significant initial materials purchases to charge up new systems and commence production, and by the continued expansion of systems installed over the past periods. Sales of integrated materials represented 33% of total materials revenue in the first nine months of 2010 compared to 32% in the first nine months of 2009. Materials revenue increased compared to the third quarter of 2009 notwithstanding the fact that materials consumed by 3Dproparts were not included in our materials revenue line.

The increase in services revenue reflects revenue from 3Dproparts , which was introduced in the fourth quarter of 2009 to expand our paid parts services, partially offset by a decrease in sales of system upgrades. Service revenue from 3Dproparts was $11.5 million, or 35.4% of total service revenue.

In addition to changes in sales volumes, there are two other primary drivers of changes in revenues from one period to another: the combined effect of changes in product mix and average selling prices, sometimes referred to as price and mix effects, and the impact of fluctuations in foreign currencies.

As used in this Management s Discussion and Analysis, the combined effect of changes in product mix and average selling prices, sometimes referred to as price and mix effects, relates to changes in revenue that are not able to be specifically related to changes in unit volume. Among these changes are changes in the product mix of our materials and our systems as the trend toward smaller, more economical systems has continued and the influence of new systems and materials on our operating results has grown. Our reporting systems are not currently configured to produce more quantitative information regarding the effect of price and mix changes on revenue.

Change in nine month revenue by geographic region

Each geographic region contributed to our higher level of revenue in the first nine months of 2010. Table 7 sets forth the change in revenue by geographic area for the first nine months of 2010 compared to the first nine months of 2009: Table 7

Revenue from U.S. operations improved by $15.3 million or 44.3% to $49.7 million in 2010 from $34.4 million in the first nine months of 2009. The increase was due to a $16.4 million increase in volume, partially offset by a $1.1 million unfavorable combined effect of price and mix.

Revenue from non-U.S. operations for the first nine months of 2010 increased by $16.6 million or 39.6% to $58.6 million from $42.0 million for the first nine months of 2009. Revenue from non-U.S. operations as a percentage of total revenue was 54.1% and 54.9%, respectively, for the first nine months of 2010 and 2009. The increase in non-U.S. revenue, excluding the effect of foreign currency translation, was 42.6% in the first nine months of 2010.

Revenue from European operations increased by $11.3 million or 35.6% to $43.0 million from $31.7 million in the prior year period. This increase was due to a $16.7 million increase in volume, partially offset by a $3.7 million unfavorable combined effect of price and mix and a $1.7 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency translation.

Revenue from Asia-Pacific operations improved by $5.3 million or 51.6% to $15.6 million from $10.3 million in the prior year period due primarily to the favorable $4.7 million increase in volume, a $0.2 million favorable combined effect of price and mix and a $0.4 million favorable foreign currency translation.

Gross profit and gross profit margins nine months

Table 8 sets forth gross profit and gross profit margin for our products and services for the first nine months of 2010 and 2009:

Table 8

	Nine Months Ended September 30,

Services		11,703	36.0		9,296	39.8
Total	$	49,105	45.4%	$	33,628	44.0%

On a consolidated basis, gross profit for the first nine months of 2010 increased by $15.5 million to $49.1 million from $33.6 million in the first nine months of 2009, primarily as a result of higher sales from all revenue categories and further helped by an increase in our gross profit margin.

Consolidated gross profit margin in the first nine months of 2010 increased by 1.4 percentage points to 45.4% of revenue from 44.0% of revenue for the 2009 period. The higher gross profit margin reflected improved overhead absorption due to higher sales and reflected that recurring revenue, which has higher gross margins, comprised a smaller percentage of total revenue compared to the first nine months of 2009. The 2010 gross profit margin was adversely affected by approximately 1.4 percentage points due to the previously disclosed negative impact on margin of sales of our V-Flash® Desktop Printer. The negative impact of V-Flash® sales on margin in the 2009 period was 4.1 percentage points.

Systems and other products gross profit for the first nine months of 2010 increased to $12.1 million from $3.1 million for the 2009 period. Gross profit margin for systems increased by 18.2 percentage points to 35.6% of revenue from 17.4% of revenue in the 2009 period. Gross profit was positively impacted by higher revenue and benefits from changes to our manufacturing strategy.

Materials gross profit for the first nine months of 2010 increased by $4.0 million or 18.9% to $25.3 million from $21.3 million for the 2009 period, and gross profit margin for materials increased by 0.5 percentage points to 60.5% of revenue from 60.0% of revenue in the 2009 period. The increased gross profit is attributed to the higher revenue and improved overhead absorption, partially offset by negative impact from foreign currency exchange rates.

Gross profit for services for the first nine months of 2010 increased by $2.4 million or 25.9% to $11.7 million from $9.3 million for the 2009 period, and gross profit margin for services decreased by 3.8 percentage points to 36.0% of revenue from 39.8% of revenue in the 2009 period. The decline in gross profit margin for services is primarily due to lower levels of system upgrades in the first nine months of 2010, as well as higher 3Dproparts—revenues in 2010, which had a lower gross profit margin, during the initial quarters following acquisitions, of 18.6% compared to 45.6% for the other components of service revenue.

Operating expenses

As shown in Table 9, total operating expenses increased by $2.9 million or 8.3% to $37.9 million in the first nine months of 2010 from $35.0 million in the first nine months of 2009. The increase consisted of $3.5 million in higher seller, general and administrative expenses partially offset by $0.6 lower of research and development expenses, both of which are discussed below.

Table 9

	Nine Months Ended September 30,
		201	10		200	)9
			%			%
(Dollars in thousands)	A	mount	Revenue	A	mount	Revenue

Research and development expenses	7,979	7.4	8,618	11.3
Total operating expenses	$ 37,873	35.0%	$ 34,986	45.8%

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by $3.5 million to $29.9 million in the first nine months of 2010 compared to $26.4 million in the first nine months of 2009, but decreased to 27.6% of revenue in 2010 compared to 34.5% in 2009. This increase was due primarily to a $2.9 million increase in compensation costs due to higher commissions and staffing from our acquisitions. In addition, the increase was also due to a $1.4 million increase in legal expenses associated with ongoing litigation with DSM Desotech and EnvisionTEC as described in further detail in Note 14 of the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

Research and development expenses decreased by $0.6 million or 7.4% to $8.0 million in the first nine months of 2010 from $8.6 million in the same period in 2009, principally due to a $0.4 million decrease in outside consulting services.

Income (loss) from operations

Our income from operations of $11.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 improved from a loss of $1.4 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2009. See Gross profit and gross profit margins and Operating expenses above.

The following table sets forth operating income (loss) by geographic area for the first nine months of 2010 and 2009:

Table 10

	Ni	Nine Months Ended September 30,

Subtotal		10,864		(1,595)

With respect to the U.S., in 2010 and 2009, the changes in operating income (loss) reflects the factors discussed above in Gross profit and gross profit margins nine months and Operating expenses.

As most of our operations outside the U.S. are conducted through sales and marketing subsidiaries, the changes in operating income (loss) in our operations outside the U.S. from 2009 to 2010 resulted primarily from changes in transfer pricing which is a function of revenue.

Operating income from our Asia-Pacific operations for 2009 includes a $0.5 million bad debt provision related to 2009 sales to our largest Japanese customer, which filed for court protection in February 2009. Receivables prior to the filing were fully reserved, while sales subsequent to the filing have been on a cash basis.

Interest and other income (expense), net

Interest and other income (expense), net of $0.3 million in net expense for the first nine months of 2010 compared with $0.5 million of net expense in 2009.

The $0.3 million of net expense in the first nine months of 2010 reflected $0.4 million of interest expense and $0.1 million of foreign exchange gain and an insignificant amount of interest income, compared with $0.5 million of expense in the first nine months of 2009, which comprised $0.5 million of interest expense and $0.2 million of other expense, partially offset by $0.1 million of other income and $0.1 million of foreign currency gain.

Provision for income taxes

We recorded a $0.8 million provision for income taxes for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and $0.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. Our provision for income taxes primarily reflects income taxes in foreign jurisdictions.

We utilized U.S. net operating loss carry forwards, which had a full valuation allowance against them to eliminate any U.S. taxes. Absent the use of these net operating loss carry forwards, income tax expense would have been $4.1 million and the income tax rate would have been 38.0 percent.

Net income (loss)

We moved from a net loss of $2.5 million for the first nine months of 2009 to a net income of $10.1 for the first nine months of 2010. The principal reason for the improvement, which is discussed in detail above, was a $12.6 million improvement in operating income.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2010, average common shares for basic and diluted earnings per share were 23.0 million and 23.3 million, respectively, and basic and diluted earnings per share were $0.44 and $0.43, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2009, average common shares for basic and diluted earnings per share was 22.5 million and basic and diluted loss per share were $0.11.

Financial Condition and Liquidity Table 11

	September 30,		December 31,
(Dollars in thousands)		2010		2009
Cash and cash equivalents	$	33,811	$	24,913
Working capital	$	45,092	$	36,718
Total 3D Systems stockholders equity	$	120,605	$	104,697

Our unrestricted cash and cash equivalents increased by $8.9 million to $33.8 million at September 30, 2010 from $24.9 million at December 31, 2009. This increase principally resulted from the net $18.5 million of cash provided by operating activities, consisting of $6.6 million of non-cash charges that were included in our income, our $10.1 million net income and $1.8 million of cash provided by net changes in operating accounts. We used $10.3 million of cash in investing activities and generated $0.1 million of cash from financing activities in the first nine months of 2010. See Cash flow and Capitalized lease obligations below.

Cash equivalents comprise funds held in money market instruments and are reported at their current carrying value which approximates fair value due to the short-term nature of these instruments. We minimize our credit risk by investing primarily in investment grade, liquid instruments and limit exposure to any one issuer depending upon credit quality.

Our net working capital increased by $8.4 million to $45.1 million at September 30, 2010 from $36.7 million at December 31, 2009, primarily due to the factors discussed below.

Accounts receivable, net, increased by $2.8 million to $26.6 million at September 30, 2010 from $23.8 million at December 31, 2009. Our gross accounts receivable increased by $2.6 million from December 31, 2009 to September 30, 2010. Our changing business model, which includes 3Dproparts , and increasing materials sales, both of which are generally sold on terms make up a larger percent of our total sales. Even with an increased portion of sales on credit terms, due to our strong focus on receivables we have been able to decrease our days sales outstanding to 59 days at September 30, 2010 from 60 days at December 31, 2009 and reduce accounts receivable more than 90 days past due to 5.8% of gross receivables at September 30, 2010 compared to 5.9% of gross receivables at December 31, 2009.

Accounts payable increased by $1.0 million to $14.0 million at September 30, 2010 from $13.0 million at December 31, 2009. The increase primarily relates to the increase in inventories, which is explained below, and the normal timing of our scheduled expense payments.

Inventories increased by $2.4 million to $20.8 million at September 30, 2010 from $18.4 million at December 31, 2009. This increase resulted primarily from a $1.7 million increase in finished goods inventory due to the timing of sales and revenue recognition at quarter end, which also impacts our backlog, and a $0.4 million increase in raw materials due to timing of sales and deliveries. We maintained $2.4 million of inventory reserves at September 30, 2010 and $2.7 million of such reserves at December 31, 2009.

With the outsourcing of substantially all our production equipment assembly and refurbishment activities, the majority of our inventory consists of finished goods, including primarily systems, materials and service parts, as our third-party assemblers have taken over supply chain responsibility for the assembly and refurbishment of production systems. As a result, we generally do not hold in inventory most parts for production systems manufacturing or refurbishment. This trend is partially offset by an increase in raw materials and spare parts used in our in-house manufacturing and support service for 3D printers.

Customer deposits increased to $2.6 million at September 30, 2010 from $0.6 million at December 31, 2009 due to a $2.1 million customer deposit received on an order for multiple machines for future delivery.

The changes in the first nine months of 2010 that make up the other components of working capital not discussed above arose in the ordinary course of business.

Differences between the amounts of working capital item changes in the cash flow statement and the balance sheet changes for corresponding items are primarily the result of foreign currency translation adjustments.

We presently do not have any committed short-term credit facilities, and intend to continue to rely upon our unrestricted cash and cash flow from operations to meet our cash requirements for working capital, capital expenditures and investments. As part of our business strategy, we may use cash to acquire additional businesses, which could have a material impact on our capital resources. While we believe that our ongoing actions to reduce our operating costs, improve our gross profit margin and manage working capital should continue to benefit us in 2010 and future years, there can be no assurance that these actions will be sufficient.

Table of Contents

Subsequent to the end of the third quarter of 2010, we utilized $9.7 million, based on exchange rates at the date of each acquisition, of cash in connection with the acquisition of Bits From Bytes Limited and Provel, S.r.l. See Note 2 to the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

Contractual Commitments

Our principal contractual commitments consists of the capital leases on our Rock Hill facility, which are discussed in greater detail below.

In addition, in certain of our recent acquisitions we are obligated for deferred purchase price payments totaling $1.3 million due in 2010 and $4.4 million, based on the exchange rate at the date of acquisition, due in 2011. Certain of these acquisitions also contain earn-out provisions under which the sellers of the acquired businesses can earn additional amounts.

Cash flow

Table 12 summarizes the cash provided by or used in operating activities, investing activities and financing activities, as well as the effect of changes in foreign currency exchange rates on cash, for the first nine months of 2010 and 2009.

Table 12

(Dollars in thousands)	2010	2009
Cash provided by operating activities	$ 18,472	$ 2,235
Cash used in investing activities	(10,342)	(749)
Cash provided by financing activities	103	228
Effect of exchange rate changes on cash	665	103
Net increase in cash and cash equivalents	$ 8,898	$ 1,817

Cash flow from operations

For the third quarter of 2010, our operating activities, which is primarily composed of net income plus the effects of non-cash items and changes in working capital, provided $11.0 million of net cash, compared to $2.7 million in the second quarter of 2009.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2010, our operating activities provided $18.5 million of net cash. This source of cash consisted of our $10.1 million net income, $6.6 million of non-cash items and $1.8 million of cash provided by changes in operating accounts.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2009, our operating activities provided $2.2 million of net cash. This source of cash consisted of $6.5 million of non-cash items included in our net loss, $1.8 million of cash used in changes in operating accounts and our $2.5 million net loss.

Cash flow from investing activities

Net cash used in investing activities in the first nine months of 2010 increased to $10.3 million from $0.7 million for the first nine months of 2009. The increase was primarily due to $9.1 million of cash paid for 3Dproparts acquisitions. Cash flow from financing activities

Net cash provided by financing activities decreased to $0.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared to $0.2 million in the 2009 period.

Capitalized lease obligations

Our principal contractual commitments consisted of capitalized lease obligations of $8.3 million at September 30, 2010. Our capitalized lease obligations decreased from $8.5 million at December 31, 2009 primarily due to scheduled payments of principal on capital lease installments.

Table of Contents

Outstanding capitalized lease obligations relate to two lease agreements that we entered into during 2006 with respect to our Rock Hill facility, one of which covers the facility itself and the other of which covers certain furniture and fixtures that we acquired for use in the facility. The carrying values of the headquarters facility and the furniture and fixture leases at September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009 were $8.3 million and $8.5 million, respectively.

Our outstanding capitalized lease obligations at September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009 were as follows:

Table 13

(Dollars in thousands)	•	September 30, 2010
Capitalized lease obligations:
Current portion of capitalized lease obligations	$	226	$	213
Capitalized lease obligations, long-term portion		8,084		8,254
Total capitalized lease obligations	$	8,310	$	8,467

Off-balance sheet arrangements

We have no off-balance sheet financing arrangements and do not utilize any structured debt, special purpose or similar unconsolidated entities for liquidity or financing purposes.

Financial instruments

We conduct business in various countries using both the functional currencies of those countries and other currencies to effect cross border transactions. As a result, we are subject to the risk that fluctuations in foreign exchange rates between the dates that those transactions are entered into and their respective settlement dates will result in a foreign exchange gain or loss. When practicable, we endeavor to match assets and liabilities in the same currency on our balance sheet and those of our subsidiaries in order to reduce these risks. We also, when we consider it to be appropriate, enter into foreign currency contracts to hedge exposures arising from those transactions.

We do not hedge for trading or speculative purposes, and our foreign currency contracts are generally short-term in nature, typically maturing in 90 days or less. We have elected not to prepare and maintain the documentation to qualify for hedge accounting treatment under ASC 815, Derivatives and Hedging, and therefore, we recognize all gains and losses (realized or unrealized) in interest and other income (expense), net in our unaudited condensed consolidated statements of operations.

The net fair value of all foreign exchange contracts at December 31, 2009 reflected a nominal unrealized loss at December 31, 2009. The foreign currency contracts outstanding at December 31, 2009 expired at various times between January 6, 2010 and February 3, 2010. See Note 7 of the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

Changes in the fair value of derivatives are recorded in interest and other income (expense), net, in our unaudited condensed consolidated statements of operations. Depending on their fair value at the end of the reporting period, derivatives are recorded either in prepaid and other current assets or in accrued liabilities in our unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets.

The total impact of foreign currency related items on our unaudited condensed consolidated statements of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and September 30, 2009 was a net gain of $0.1 million for both periods.

3D Systems stockholders equity

3D Systems stockholders equity increased by $15.9 million to $120.6 million at September 30, 2010 from $104.7 million at December 31, 2009. This increase includes the following:

- $10.1 million net income reported for the first nine months of 2010;
- $3.9 million of stock issued for acquisitions;
- $1.1 million of stock compensation expense recorded in stockholders equity in accordance with ASC 738, Compensation Stock Compensation during the first nine months of 2010; and $0.6 million of foreign currency translation adjustments.
